

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

MEMOIRS OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS RECOGNIZED AT THE 2022 SESSION

Edward William Allred

May 17, 1941 – November 17, 2021

Edward William Allred was born on May 17, 1941, in Greensboro, N.C., to the late Colon L. Allred and Mae Frances Black Allred. After graduation from Greensboro/Grimsley High School, he attended Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, Tenn., where he graduated in 1964 with a bachelor's degree. He double-majored in elementary education and music. He later earned a master's degree and principal's certificate at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. It was while Ed was attending Trevecca that he met and married Martha Anet Godby. Ed and Martha were blessed with one son, Edward William (Bill) Allred Jr.

Ed enjoyed a lengthy career in education. He held teaching positions at Joyner and General Greene Elementary schools and Mendenhall Junior High School. Ed served as principal at Peeler, Claxton, Joyner, Jones, and Hunter Elementary schools.

Through the years, Ed was a part-time minister of music at Rolling Roads Church of the Nazarene, White Rock Church of the Nazarene, and at Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church in Greensboro. After his retirement from the educational field, Ed became a full-time director of church music and was consecrated as a diaconal minister at Mount Pisgah UMC. Under the supervision of the senior minister, Ed became the leader of the contemporary worship service. When Ed retired from Mount Pisgah, he became the part-time minister of congregational care and senior adult ministry at Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church in McLeansville.

Ed loved his family, education, and music, and he dedicated his life in service to each. He was interred in the columbarium at Mount Pisgah UMC, Greensboro, during a private family service. A memorial service was held December 11, 2021, at Mt. Pleasant UMC with the Rev. Dave Howard and the Rev. Andrew Brown officiating.

Alexander Mapes "Alec" Alvord

June 28, 1933 – August 11, 2021

Married 63 years, Alec and his wife, Dot, served God as partners in many adventures. Beginning as missionaries in Zimbabwe, Africa (1958-1977), Alec served as pastor, United Methodist Church school principal, conference primary and secondary school inspector, Old Testament professor, and district superintendent in the Rhodesian Conference of the UMC. The civil war against colonial white minority rule changed the Alvords' life. They are indebted to Fran and Julian Lindsay who welcomed them into the Western North Carolina Conference. Dot and Alec continued to serve as a team in western North Carolina – Alec as a compassionate, intellectual, mission-oriented pastor and servant leader and Dot as a kind, capable, passionate public-school teacher and advocate for marriage and mission through Clergy Partners and United Methodist Women. For decades, they made quite a splash appearing in matching Zimbabwean dashikis at UMW annual meetings and spiritual growth retreats. A partnership of complimentary personalities and skills, Alec and Dot went together like coffee and Alec's favorite McDonald's ice cream cone. When traveling with his companions from UMRP, Keys Pendleton and Hubert Clinard, besides eating Chinese food, a favorite stop was to get this dessert. Alec would scrape the ice cream top into the coffee after drinking the cup down a bit. Coffee was a culinary event!

Born the unexpected fifth child to Berenice Mapes and Emory Alvord, missionaries to Southern Rhodesia, Alexander Mapes was named after Alexander the Great and after his mother's family. Emory and Berenice had a whirlwind courtship at missionary training school and ventured to Zimbabwe in 1919. With Berenice's trailblazing spirit and Emory's artistic flair and athleticism, as Alexander grew, it was his smart wit and eagerness to be the first to answer questions, that shortened his name to "Alec," as in "Smart Alec." Raised in a family full of purpose and safari spirit, Alec's sisters, Virginia, and Nancy, often took the role of mothering him. His older brothers, Durland and Emory, took the roles of instructing him how to use a knife and a gun. The brothers had varying levels of success, as young Alec wounded himself with both knife and gun! Emory, an agricultural missionary, eventually headed up the Department of Native Agriculture in the Rhodesian government and developed an agricultural institute. Berenice used her education to teach women, who at that point, had no opportunity to be educated. Alec's lifelong interest in equal educational opportunities for girls came from his mom.

The British-style educational system in Zimbabwe instilled in Alec a discipline and rigor he later applied to Hebrew, Greek, and Shona, the language of the Mashona people with whom he and his wife, Dot, would serve as missionaries. They had their own whirlwind courtship in 1958 at what was then Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn., (now the Scarritt Bennett Center and home to the Upper Room). Dot, born in Town Creek, Ala., was influenced by Lorena Kelly, a missionary to Zaire. At the Threes missionary training for young adults, Dot was smitten when Alec walked in late – wearing a dashiki, shorts, black socks, and sandals. What a man!

Alec journeyed to the United States to attend Washington State University as his father did. He even pledged his Dad's Alpha Gamma Rho farming fraternity. The only time these farming credentials showed themselves was in Wilkesboro, when Alec planted tomatoes in the backyard that grew all the way up to the second-story back deck of the house! Alec felt called not to farm with seeds, but with God's word, after working with other young people in Pulman, Wash., at the YMCA during the summers he was an undergraduate. Upon graduating from Washington State, he attended the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, Calif. At PSR, Alec was influenced by Georgia Harkness, the first woman to attain the position of full professor in an American theological seminary. Harkness laid the groundwork for women's ordination as well the World Council of Churches. These influences forged Alec's clarity about appointing women in an equal manner when he served as a district superintendent in the Marion District (later merged to form the Blue Ridge District). He also served on behalf of WNCC on the North Carolina Council of Churches and itinerated in each district sharing the importance of ecumenism across the Tar Heel State. This groundwork would aid the development of Project AGAPE when he served as outreach and mission coordinator for WNCC as that relationship with Armenia spans Methodism in North Carolina. His service on behalf of WNCC as a Jurisdictional, General and World Methodist Conference delegate fulfilled his vocational calling, his interest in polity and legislation geared toward the rural church as well as his passion for adventure.

Alec's intellectual curiosity led him to post-graduate studies at Harvard University, Duke Divinity School, and Candler School of Theology at Emory University where he pursued course work for a Ph.D. in Old Testament studies before being called back to Zimbabwe by the bishop there. He never completed a dissertation. Instead, he served, built relationships, developed community, and vacated each position he served in Zimbabwe to a native Zimbabwean. Alec's service in WNCC was marked by integrity, theological prowess, and an indefatigable spirit that sent him driving a box truck around the conference. Wearing shorts and tennis shoes, Alec donned a sweat band across his forehead, using his puzzle-solving skills to load as many items for Project AGAPE as the truck could hold. He was so pleased at the development of the Mission Response Center in Terrell, N.C., to house, package, and distribute items for people caught in natural or person-made disasters, not only in Armenia but everywhere around the globe.

After transferring from the Rhodesia Conference in 1965, his appointments included: Pinnacle, 1965-1967; missionary to Rhodesia, 1967-1977; Advance-Mocks, 1977-1981; Wilkesboro, 1981-1988, Marion District superintendent, 1988-1993, WNCC coordinator for outreach and mission, 1993-2000. He retired in 2000 but continued to serve in retirement, including serving as conference director of volunteer response ministries, 2002-2007.

Dot and Alec have three children, all born in Zimbabwe: Karen Stevens of Weaverville (Dr. James Stevens, deceased); Lex Alvord of Pittsboro (Tanya Alvord – Megan and Mitch Houke, Joshua Alvord); Veranita Alvord of Reidsville (Joe Tarpley – Olivia and Ivan), all born in Zimbabwe. When he was serving as outreach and mission coordinator, Alec and Dot attended Sharon United Methodist Church. There, they befriended a young couple from Ghana who are bonus family; Kwabena (Kay) and Cecilia Apau-Kese of Gastonia and their children, AJ, Alvord, and Adriel.

Always one to discuss the quality of life versus the quantity of life, Alec's natural vigor began to wane in June 2021 with a minor stroke, just prior to a surprise birthday party for he and Dot at their eldest daughter's home. They dressed alike, of course, in red and white! A major stroke sent him to the hospital in August, and he died peacefully at the Solace Center in Asheville on a beautiful summer afternoon, surrounded by children and grandchildren.

Donald Winberry Ashe

May 15, 1932 – January 6, 2022

After a lifetime of faithful service, the Rev. Donald Winberry Ashe joined his Lord and Savior on January 6, 2022, from Novant Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, N.C. In addition to his parents, James E. and Anne Winberry Ashe, Rev. Ashe was preceded to the church triumphant by three brothers and two sisters.

Rev. Ashe was born on May 15, 1932, in Sylva, N.C., where his family first lived with his grandparents. His earliest memories, however, were of living in Asheville where his family attended what is now Central United Methodist Church and where he was baptized. He attended William Randolph Elementary School, David Millard Junior High and graduated from Lee H. Edwards Sr. High School in 1950. After one year at Asheville-Biltmore Junior College, he joined the U.S. Navy on June 13, 1951. Serving during the Korean War, he was assigned to a troop transport and later an oil tanker and was responsible for dispersing pay to the crew. After the ceasefire, he was assigned shore duty in Guam, where he set up a disbursing office in Saipan for the Coast Guard, U.S. Navy, Seabees, U.S. Civil Services, and natives of the island. On May 18, 1955, he was discharged in San Francisco and returned to North Carolina to attend what was known then as Western Carolina College where he graduated on June 2, 1958, and received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration.

While attending Western Carolina, Rev. Ashe met N. Kate Davis. They were married on September 8, 1957, in Travelers Rest, S.C. She already had her degree in elementary education and was working as an assistant in the college library. After Rev. Ashe graduated from Western Carolina, they moved to Atlanta, Ga., where Kate began her teaching career, and he attended the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. He received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1961 and again returned to North Carolina to become an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church. After they moved to Winston-Salem in 1968, Kate returned to graduate school and earned her Master of Library Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She served the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools for 30 years. Their life together included the birth of their three children: James Edward, Donna Kate (Jim Rodriguez), and William Barth (Stephanie Pipes), always a source of great joy and pride. With all their love, they welcomed five grandchildren into the family: Indrani "Rani" Ashe, Bailey Ashe Hypes (Ethan Hypes), Colin Ashe, Leanna Rodriguez, and Victoria Rodriguez. With great joy, they celebrated two great-grandchildren born in 2020: Arlo and Atticus Hypes.

Rev. Ashe was licensed to preach in 1958, entered the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1959, became a deacon in 1960, and received full connection as an elder in 1962. His first appointment was First (Newton), associate pastor, 1961-1962. Additional appointments were: Monticello (Statesville), 1962-1963; Lowe's (Reidsville), 1963-1965; Snow Hill (Asheville District), 1965-1968; Mount Carmel (Winston-Salem), 1968-1970; sabbatical and supernumerary, 1970-1972; Mount Pleasant-Tabernacle (Winston-Salem District), 1972-1973; voluntary location, 1973-1989; Shiloh-Olivet (Winston-Salem District), 1989-1993; and East Marion-West Marion, 1993-1997. He retired in 1997 to Winston-Salem, where he served Hanes, 1997-1999.

Rev. Ashe faithfully served beyond the local church as well. He was certified as a minister of Christian education while Carl H. King was executive secretary of the annual conference board of education, and he led classes in the district leadership training schools. He was certified as a lab leader of both Junior and Senior High. He was honored by Mt. Carmel in Winston-Salem, who sent him on a conference building team to Puerto Rico in February, 1969. In 1970, he was certified by the School of Pastoral Care of then-North Carolina Baptist Hospital and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston-Salem. In the early 1970s, he extended pastoral care to the community by reaching out through a radio program called “Witness To The Light” (John 1:7). In September 1991, Shiloh United Methodist Church honored him by purchasing one new seat in George R. Stuart Auditorium. In 1997, a sermon collection, “Preaching On The Beatitudes,” which he wrote, was published. Even in retirement and working together with the excellent lay leadership of the congregation of Hanes United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, the church received the conference’s annual recognition as a Church of Excellence for two straight years. Upon full retirement, his conference membership was accepted by Pine Grove United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem where he taught the older adult Sunday school classes, and Don and Kate together delivered the Pine Grove route for Meals on Wheels for nine years. In the last few years, they briefly moved to Heritage Woods where he led the residents in worship on multiple occasions

In his memoir, Rev. Ashe wrote, “Whatever contribution I have made in life, like my Grandfather, John Vance Ashe suggested, is by the grace of God and the love of my family. The success of my life is that my children know Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and that my grandchildren be raised to accept Christ as their Lord. May God so grant this through faith.” He was a joy and bright light to his family, those whom he served, and those in his community.

On January 15, 2022, a celebration of Rev. Ashe’s life was held at Pine Grove UMC in Winston-Salem, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery there. The Rev. Marilyn Weiler and the Rev. Mike Darnell officiated.

Albert Joseph Daniel Aymer

December 23, 1936 – November 5, 2021

The Rev. Dr. Albert Joseph Daniel Aymer was an educator, an administrator, and a shepherd. He contributed to shaping many theological minds and preparing many persons for ministry.

Rev. Aymer was born to the late John and Millanette Taitt Aymer on December 23, 1936, in Liberta on the island of Antigua. He remained in Antigua until 1959 when he responded to God’s call to ministry and began ministerial service and academic pursuits. In preparation for and refinement of his ministerial vocation, Rev. Aymer attained a Diploma in Theology from Caenwood Theological College in Jamaica, 1963; Master of Divinity degree from Lancaster Theological Seminary, 1970; Master of Arts degree from Drew University, 1978; Master of Philosophy degree from Drew University, 1980; and Doctor of Philosophy degree from Drew University, 1983.

In 1981, Rev. Aymer was ordained as an elder in the Greater New Jersey Conference. Prior to ordination, he served as pastor, chaplain, and school superintendent in parishes in Grenada and St. Vincent, in Barbados, on the island of Tobago, and in Jamaica, as a member of the Great Britain Conference. He also served as a staff member in the World Division of the General Board of Global Ministries, 1979-1981. As an ordained elder, he served as associate dean, director of the Doctor of Ministry program, and associate professor of contemporary ministries at Drew Theological School, 1982-1993. He served as senior pastor of First (Morristown, N.J.), 1993-1994. Dr. Aymer served at Hood Theological Seminary as academic dean, interim president of Livingstone College, and as the seminary’s first president, 1994-2013. He retired in the Greater New Jersey Conference in 2004 and retired from the presidency at Hood Seminary in 2013. He transferred his membership to the Western North Carolina Conference in 2014 as a retired elder.

Dr. Aymer’s work at Hood Seminary speaks to his legacy as educator, administrator, and shepherd, along with his other service throughout his years of ministry. When he arrived, Hood Seminary was in a small building at the periphery of Livingstone College’s campus, with 30 students. Under his leadership, Hood became an independent institution and relocated to its own campus, which was formerly a hotel. Dr. Aymer led the institution in transforming the former hotel into academic space. The Albert J.D. Aymer Center for Spiritual Growth and Ministerial Formation, a contemporary multi-purpose facility, is reflective of this transformation. Under his leadership, Hood also established a Doctor of Ministry program, earned full accreditation from the Association of Theological Schools in the USA and Canada (ATS), grew to more than 300 students, and was recognized for academic excellence, ecumenism, and racial diversity. In addition, Dr. Aymer served for six years on the Board of Accreditation of the ATS. He also received keys to the City of Salisbury, the Order of the Longleaf Pine award, and a Doctor of Divinity honoris causa from Catawba College.

A series of health challenges led Dr. Aymer to relocate to Texas in 2017. He departed peacefully from this life to his eternal home on November 5, 2021. Dr. Aymer is survived by his former wife, Shirley Delores Lewin; his three daughters, the Rev. Dr. Margaret P. Aymer Oget (August 3, 1968) and her spouse, Dr. Laurent Oget, Prof. Valerie Aymer (September 27, 1969), and Ann-Marie Millinette Aymer (April 15, 1976) and her spouse, the Rev. Kristen Claire Foley; and by his grandson, Gabriel Albert Charles Oget.

Dr. Aymer’s legacy was celebrated on December 11, 2021, with a memorial service at Vailsburg United Methodist Church in South Orange, N.J., on January 6, 2022, with a memorial service and interment at Ebenezer Methodist Church in St. John’s, Antigua, and on April 7, 2022, with a service of interment at the Albert J.D. Aymer Center for Spiritual Growth and Ministerial Formation at Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, N.C.

Grady Ross Barringer

January 19, 1929 – February 21, 2022

The Rev. Grady Ross “Poppy” Barringer was born January 19, 1929, to Dennis Dutton Barringer and Pearl Ross Barringer. Blessed with parents who were leaders at then-Cold Springs Methodist Church, he became immersed in the Christian community at an early age. As a young teen, he made a vow to follow Christ with a faithful devotion for the rest of his life.

After graduating from Mt. Pleasant High School, he ventured on to then-Pfeiffer College. To further prepare for his future in ministry, he then enrolled at Emory University, where he earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Candler School of Theology in 1950. At Emory, he was a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity and the University Choir. In 1953, Grady was admitted on trial to the Western North Carolina Conference, and he was ordained as a deacon in 1954. In 1955, he was ordained as an elder and was received into full connection. He was recognized for 74 years of consecutive attendance at the Western North Carolina Annual Conference in June 2019.

On March 19, 1950, he married Anne Jeanne Lambert. They were married for 63 years until her death in 2015. Sonya Jeanne (Davenport) was born in 1951, and Robin Marie (Smith) was born in 1954. Sonya and Robin were privileged to be part of Grady and Jeanne’s faithful devotion to nine N.C. United Methodist churches over a span of 59 years.

Grady and Jeanne served their church appointments as a team. It was often said that those churches got the “two for one deal.” Grady’s legacy of faithful ministry will continue through the multitude of lives he touched in the name of Christ. The churches blessed with his leadership were: Elizabeth Chapel, Dellwood and Maple Grove (Waynesville District), 1953-1957; Sulphur Springs (Shelby), 1957-1962; New Hope (Winston-Salem), 1962-1967; Calvary (High Point), 1967-1972; Bethpage (Kannapolis), 1972-1979; and Mt. Pleasant (Sherrills Ford), 1979- 1991. He retired in 1991 and served McKendree Chapel (Mooresville) while in retirement, 1992-1999. Grady worked tirelessly to grow every congregation he was involved with, and he was instrumental in helping his churches with building and facility upgrades.

Upon retirement, Grady returned to Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church as visitation minister and was named pastor emeritus in 2012. His greatest love and mission was comforting those in need, and he found interesting ways to spread God’s word. One of Grady’s unique approaches was his “Cross Ministry.” He gave small metal crosses to everyone he saw, as he reminded them of Christ’s love. During his final days in the hospital, he continued sharing crosses and witnessing to those giving him medical care. Grady was also known for his telephone ministry, which involved daily phone calls to wish happy birthdays and anniversaries, and to offer encouragement.

Grady was not only loved and respected in each church he served, but also the surrounding communities. He was a Mason, a Lion’s Club member (honored in Sherrills Ford for outstanding service in the community), an annual member of the Junaluska Associates, longtime camp meeting participant, and chaplain for Sherrills Ford Fire and Rescue at the time of his death.

Pastor Grady passed away on February 21, 2022, in Greensboro, N.C. A celebration of life was held March 6, 2022, at Mt. Pleasant UMC. He was interred in the columbarium there with his beloved “Jeannie.” The family intended to scatter his ashes at Lake Junaluska after the memorial service on June 18, 2022.

The following message was included in Grady’s celebration of life, as it reflects his legacy to the fullest: “In honor of Pastor Grady’s legacy, please be kind to others, look for the good in people, and continue to pass along the powerful message of the cross.”

Bobby Ray Beck

April 3, 1931 – June 25, 2021

Bobby Ray Beck was born on April 3, 1931, in Thomasville, N.C., to the late Coy Ervin Beck and Cynthia Blanche Kennedy Beck. As part of the seven generations of Becks born on American soil, Bobby grew up on his family’s farm on Unity Street in Thomasville.

From birth until his marriage, he was an active member of Prospect United Methodist Church with his parents, brother Paul, and sisters Peggy and Polly. His mother always said that one of her sons would one day be a preacher. Bobby never thought he would be the one to become a pastor, but even though he could not understand it then, God was preparing him to answer the call into ministry.

Bobby studied at Louisburg College where he received his Associate of Arts degree in 1960. He then attended Duke Divinity School, completing Course of Study and receiving the Certificate of Attainment in July 1967. He completed the Advanced Course of Study at Duke in 1972. Later, he also studied at High Point College, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1973.

Bobby was licensed to preach in 1962, ordained as a deacon in 1966 and ordained as an elder in 1971. He pastored for 33 years in the Western North Carolina Conference, serving 10 different churches. His first appointment was cut short due to illness; he only served for five months. His ministry service includes: Friendship (Greensboro District), 1964-1969; Union Chapel (Mocksville), 1969-1971; Northwood-St. Timothy, 1971-1972; Northwood, 1972-1978, Johnstontown (Thomasville District), 1978-1983, Fairview (Trinity), 1983-1984; Park Avenue (Salisbury), 1984-1990; Hopewell (Trinity), 1990-1992; and Ward Street (High Point), 1992-1995. Bobby and Betty Jean retired from full time ministry service in 1995.

After entering retirement, Bobby was asked by the Korean pastor of Ward Street to help with mission work and assist in other areas. Bobby continued to participate in ministry by filling in at other churches even during retirement. During his years of ministry, he organized and led multiple trips to the Holy Land. Bobby, Betty Jean, and their youngest son, Stanley, returned to Johnstontown United Methodist Church and re-established their membership where they could continue to serve among friends who had come to be more like family.

Bobby married Betty Jean Lomax on November 26, 1951, and they had two sons, Ferris Michael Beck (January 14, 1956) and Stanley Ray Beck (December 10, 1963).

Bobby's wife of 68 years passed away on November 1, 2020. The Rev. Bobby Beck passed away on June 25, 2021, in Lexington, N.C., at age 90. Bobby enjoyed gospel music and always encouraged the musicians and choir members in their service as an important part of worship. Bobby is remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, friend, and pastor.

Ramona Celeste Morton Clapp

April 25, 1933 – December 15, 2021

The Rev. Ramona Celeste Morton Clapp was born April 25, 1933, in Walkertown, N.C., the daughter of the Rev. Vernon and Jennie Morton. She earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy and religion at Greensboro College in 1955 and a master's degree in Christian education at Scarritt College in 1966.

The Lord put Ramona on this earth to willingly – and lovingly – provide service to benefit her family, her neighbors, her parishioners, and all she encountered. While most of us see service to others in need as, at best, an occasional opportunity to do as Christ says, Ramona saw it as her divine calling and a blessing she enjoyed all her life. Those who experienced the direct assistance and sometimes unseen efforts of Ramona's service were helped in a moment of critical need or blessed at a time unforeseen. All who experienced her outpouring of love and support, whenever and wherever needed, found themselves soothed, realigned, emboldened, and healed.

Ramona married Donald Clinton Clapp in September 1964, having found each other through church. Together, they had two sons, Christopher Randolph Clapp, and Geoffrey Bryan Clapp. Both Ramona and Don were dedicated to their faith. Don served as a church organist in several congregations. Ramona, meanwhile, became a certified Director of Christian Education in 1965 and was consecrated as a diaconal minister by the Western North Carolina Conference in 1983. She was later ordained as a deacon of The United Methodist Church in 1997 and received into full connection that same year.

Her service record includes these appointments: Christ (High Point), director of Christian education, 1983-1985; Davidson County Department of Social Services, social worker, 1985 to September 1988; Ardmore (Winston-Salem), director of Christian education, 1988-1997; Ardmore, minister of education, 1997-2002. She took a leave of absence in 2002 and retired in 2003.

Ramona's family remembers her as a loving, kind, supportive person whose life was marked by a sense of genuine humility. She is remembered for embracing her family with love, warmth, and care, including as a second mother to her nieces and nephews. She lived by example, how to live a joyous and peace-filled life, with a deep sense of servitude and sacrificial love.

Loved ones knew they could expect new flashlights from Ramona each Christmas. In a very real way, those gifts symbolized who Ramona was and the light that she brought into people's lives. She was a bright, loving light on the hill, a gorgeous ray of joy and peace to whomever she met.

When Ramona retired from serving as youth minister at First UMC in High Point, a play was presented in her honor – a light-hearted evening of big laughs and a truckload of goodbyes. During the skit, a friend and youth member, Sarah Yates, put on a "Ramona Hat" and purse – with other youth asking if they could borrow a whisk for baking, a battery, an iron, a flashlight, and more, and as usual, it was pulled from her bottomless purse of household goods.

Others remember Ramona as the demure, quiet, and gentle rock whose life displayed a deep relationship with God. She embodied the words of the prophet Micah, to "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with your God." She was steadfast in compassion, always building others up, behind the scenes bolstering, encouraging, and supporting.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Donald, on February 9, 2020. Ramona and Don had many addresses throughout their lives here on earth, but now they are truly at home in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Their sons survive them.

In life, Ramona never sought the spotlight for her service to others, she never pursued the limelight for her good deeds. But in her passing, we now clearly see that our souls were warmed by her light, and her lamp of love illuminated the best in all of us. Ramona's legacy of love and service stands as a beacon that lights our path to righteousness, and this ensures her afterglow will never fade.

Thank you, Lord, for such a gift as our mother and your child, the Rev. Ramona M. Clapp.

Thomas Eugene Conder Jr.

December 23, 1964 – March 11, 2022

Thomas "Tommy" Eugene Conder Jr. was born in Charlotte, N.C., on December 23, 1964, to Thomas E Conder Sr. and the late Geraldine McCarter Conder. Tommy attended local schools in Charlotte, graduating from Independence High School in 1983. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 2001. He earned a Master of Divinity degree (summa cum laude) from Hood Theological Seminary in 2005. Tommy was licensed as a local pastor in 1999, commissioned a Probationary Elder in 2005 and ordained as an elder in full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 2009.

Rev. Conder's service record is as follows: Park Avenue-Bethel, 1999-2001; Bethel (Rowan County), 2001-2003; Harmony, 2003-2005; First (Landis), 2005-2007; North Kannapolis, 2007-2012; McKendree, 2012-2014; Vanderburg, 2014-2017; Mill Grove (Indian Trail), 2017-2019; and Rock Grove (Salisbury), 2019-2022.

One of the most difficult challenges in life occurs when death comes to someone we love. The death of a family member is profound, but the death of a dear friend and ministerial colleague at an early age impacts us in deeply personal and profound ways. Pastors are expected to bury other people. Human beings grow older and experience the decline of bodies and mental faculties. However, none of us were prepared for the painful news of Friday, March 11, 2022, that the Rev. Thomas Eugene Conder Jr. had died.

I met Tommy when I entered ministry in 1993 and was appointed to serve his home church, University City United Methodist Church. We became good friends and shared much of life and ministry together over the years as he accepted God's call upon his life. We attended Hood Theological Seminary together, later graduating and being ordained as elders. Tommy remained a faithful, trustworthy friend to me for more than 28 years, and I will miss him deeply. He could be gentle and sympathetic or offer some words that may have been hard to hear, but I always trusted his intentions were for my best. A friend like Tommy Conder is a blessing beyond measure.

A pastor for nearly 23 years, Tommy touched people's lives at some of the most intimate and vulnerable times anyone can experience. He welcomed everyone into the communities he served, assuring them there was a place for them at God's table. He received their professions of faith, confirmed their faith, joined them in marriage as they made sacred vows before God, and shared their joy at the births of their children. He presided over the sacraments, offering the body and blood of Christ and baptizing infants, youth, and adults into the covenantal embrace of God's unconditional and saving love.

He connected deeply with people of all ages and loved helping young people navigate the challenges of adolescence, seeing them emerge as confident, healthy adults. He sat by the beds of so many while they were sick and hospitalized, holding their hands and praying for healing. He sat with church members as they passed from this life and entered the Church Triumphant, offering the comfort of scripture, prayers, hugs, tears, and tender words. Perhaps most importantly, Tommy Conder stood in the pulpit every Sunday and preached the Word of God, leading people into a saving relationship with God through Jesus Christ, continuing to help them grow in their new relationship until the day of his death on March 11, 2022.

Tommy was a shepherd of the highest order to the flocks God entrusted to his care, regardless of whether they were officially church members. He loved being welcomed into the unofficial gatherings in the communities where he served. He took pleasure in being the unofficial chaplain at his local Waffle House where he provided pastoral guidance and care to anyone who crossed his path. When someone needed a pastor, Tommy was available regardless of the weather or the time of day or night. Perhaps that's why an overflow crowd gathered on March 14, 2022, at North Kannapolis United Methodist Church to celebrate his life and ministry. The memorial service was conducted by the Rev. Bruce Jones and myself.

Tommy met Andrea Redard in the office of their district superintendent, the Rev. Dr. Harold Bales who introduced them, pointing out they were both single and available. They became ministry colleagues, shared the same study group, and were later married by Dr. Bales on December 30, 2001. They attended Hood Theological Seminary together, and along the way had two amazing, talented children, Emma and Trey, whom they supported at band concerts, church activities, school musicals, and all their activities. The only role Tommy enjoyed more than being a pastor was his role as husband and father.

Tommy was honored and proud to serve as a United Methodist pastor. Although he served several churches during his tenure, his home church, University City UMC, remained a big part of his heart and soul. Tommy willingly served on the Board of Ordained Ministry and various WNCC committees.

In The Pastor: A Memoir, author and theologian Eugene Peterson recounts starting Christ Our King Presbyterian Church in Bel Air, Md., outlining his gradual discovery of what it really means to be a pastor. In the end, Peterson discovers that being a pastor boils down to "paying attention to what is going on now between men and women, with each other and with God." I think that describes the very best intentions of Tommy.

I want to end with an apt closing for any pastor's life from Luke 2:29-32 (NRSV): "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel." So it is when a pastor departs earth for heaven. We mourn even as we give thanks for his life and contributions to our lives and God's kingdom.

Homer Clayton Dawkins

July 16, 1942 – September 25, 2021

The Rev. Homer C. Dawkins, after living a full, fruitful, and Spirit-filled life, entered the "promised, Eternal life" through the saving grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on September 25, 2021.

"Dutch" to those who knew him best, Homer was born July 16, 1942, in Greensboro, N.C., to the late Laura Mattie Dawkins and Scott Daye. In addition to his parents, the family consisted of a sister, Deborah Daye, and two brothers, Michael Dawkins and Timothy Daye.

A celebration of life service was held October 4, 2021, at St. Matthews United Methodist Church, Greensboro, led by the Rev. Rodvegas Ingram and the Rev. Dr. Paul F. Perkins Sr. In addition to the parents, Homer was preceded in death by brother Michael Dawkins Sr., nephew Michael Dawkins Jr., and grandson Jaye Dawkins. Left to carry forth his memories and legacy are his loving wife of 54 loving, devoted years, Evelyn Raye Shoffner-Dawkins; four sons, Tyrone (Chantelle) Dawkins, Quanton (Margaret) Dawkins, Sean (Roslyn) Dawkins, and Kyle (Roleta) Dawkins; nine grandchildren, Marcus, Kiah, Kameron, Jordan, Ryan, Xavier, Natalia, Dakota, and Nathaniel; and two siblings, Deborah and Timothy Daye. Burial services were held at Lakeview Cemetery, Greensboro, with full military honors.

Homer graduated from James B. Dudley High School (Greensboro) in 1960. He then enrolled at N.C. A&T State College (now A&T State University) to pursue a degree in physical education. These studies were interrupted when he decided to enlist in the U.S. Navy where he served honorably in foreign deployment, 1961-1966. After a 30-year career as an automobile salesperson, he heard and answered God's call to ministry in 2001. He became a candidate for ministry in 1985 and completed the required course of study at Duke Divinity School in 2001. He was licensed to preach in 1994 and ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 2002.

Rev. Dawkins served as a special assistant at Laughlin Memorial United Methodist Church, 1994-1996, with the Rev. Paul. F. Perkins Sr. Later, he served the following appointments: St. Peter-Ferree's Chapel, 1996-2003; Holmes Grove, 2003-2010; and Wither's Chapel, 2010-2015. He served Wither's Chapel in retired status from 2015-2021.

Homer had numerous hobbies and interests which included cooking, photography, watching sports on television, and completing home improvement projects when time permitted. He loved his family, but he especially adored his grandchildren; he was affectionately known as "G-Poppy" or "Pop-Pop."

In a moment of reflection during his later years, Rev. Dawkins said that he felt his purpose was to "help somebody and be blessing to others." He said that if he had done that, then he had fulfilled what God wanted him to do.

Alice Nimmons Parker Day

July 25, 1951 – December 16, 2021

The Rev. Alice Parker Day was resurrected to life eternal on December 16, 2021, after a brief illness. She was born July 25, 1951, the youngest of four daughters, to the Honorable Marshall J. and Mrs. Martha Parker. Throughout her childhood, the future Rev. Day and her family were active members of Saint Mark United Methodist Church, where she was baptized and confirmed, and where her budding call to ordained ministry was nurtured as a leader in the state UMYF. Day earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Columbia College and a Master of Arts degree in English from Clemson University before finally enrolling at Emory University's Candler School of Theology, where she received a Master of Divinity degree in 1980. While in seminary, Day spent each spring semester teaching English at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College in Tifton, Ga., before returning for the summer and fall terms at Candler.

After seminary, Day returned to Seneca, S.C., to teach in the technical college system of South Carolina, which had been established by her father during his terms as a state legislator, and she began dating her future husband, Derek P. Day. They wed November 13, 1982, and they celebrated 39 years of a strong, loving marriage before being separated by her death. Together, Derek and Alice raised three children, Miss Rebekah Alice Day, U.S. Air Force Maj. Derek Paul Day Jr., and the Rev. Fr. Marshall Benjamin Day (Ben). Her children were a great source of pride and joy for Alice, and they frequently accompanied her on pastoral visits and at the occasional district event during her ordained ministry.

Once her children were school-aged and more independent in daily life, Day heard God's call to service in ordained ministry anew. She pursued God's call to the Western North Carolina Conference and was ordained as a deacon in 1998 and as an elder in full connection in 2000. Her ministry appointments included: Myrtle-Smyre (Gastonia), 1998-1999; Myrtle-Lowell/Smyre (Gastonia), 1999-2003; First (Canton), 2003-2006; Pleasant Grove (Forest City), 2006-2011; Gamewell (Lenoir), 2011-2015; Brower's Chapel-Calvary (Asheboro), 2015-2018; Bess Chapel-Bethlehem (Lincolnton), 2018-2021; and Puett (Dallas), 2021 until her death.

Day loved being a pastor and excelled in preaching and pastoral care. She would often remark that her particular gift in officiating funerals and caring for those in grief had been sparked by her own early introduction to grief at age 7 after the death of her eldest sister in an automobile accident in 1958. Day also loved supporting and mentoring other clergywomen, having been the first female pastor appointed to most of the churches she served throughout her life in ministry.

At her death, Day was very much looking forward to her heavenly home, and she was ushered into life eternal with prayers from the Book of Common Prayer offered by her son, the Rev. Ben Day, whom she liked to tease often about having "defected" to the Episcopal Church during his seminary education, and with her husband, Derek, by her side. In an act of providential love, Day had just spoken to both of her other children by phone just minutes before she died suddenly at Emory University Hospital in Atlanta, Ga. She was buried in a graveside service next to her parents and eldest sister in her native Seneca, S.C., with the younger Rev. Day officiating. A celebration of her life was officiated by her district superintendent, the Rev. David Christy, and her dearest friend, the Rev. Theresa Blanton at Puett United Methodist Church where she was under appointment at the time of her death. Well done, good and faithful servant. Rest in peace and rise in glory!

Ben Day

Clarence Harley Dickson Jr.

March 8, 1929 – August 19, 2021

Clarence Harley Dickson Jr. was born March 8, 1929, in Asheville, N.C. With his family and from an early age, Harley was nurtured by and an active servant in the Methodist Church. Also from an early age, Harley admired and assisted his father as a building contractor, specializing in residential construction.

Following the summer of his graduation from Lee Edwards High School, Harley continued his education at Davidson College majoring in physics and business to prepare to join his father in building and repairing homes in Buncombe County. Harley joined in that work in 1949. But his professional career as a contractor proved short-lived. Changing circumstances and the steady, quiet whisper of the Holy Spirit led Harley to answer a call to ministry. He was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1951. He earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1954 and received an honorary Doctor of Divinity from then-Pfeiffer College in 1984.

Also in 1951, Harley married Inez Rufty whose father was a Methodist preacher and accepted his first appointment to the Coleridge Charge. Harley and Inez remained married 68 years until her death in 2020. They were blessed with two sons, Chuck (Sybil) and Ken; four grandchildren, Johanna, Daniel, Sam and Nora; and two great-grandchildren. Harley's many Dickson cousins in the Asheville area as well as his family ties to Haywood County attest to the depth of Harley's N.C. mountain roots.

Harley served faithfully and effectively for 46 years. His appointments included: Coleridge, 1951-1955; Aldersgate (Shelby), 1955-1959; Main Street (Albemarle), 1959-1964; Wadesboro First, 1964-1967; Waynesville District superintendent, 1967-1971; Lexington First, 1971-1975; Providence (Charlotte), 1975-1984; West Market Street (Greensboro), August 30, 1984-1990; Greensboro District superintendent, 1990-1992; executive director and president of the United Methodist Foundation of WNC, September 1, 1992-1997.

Always active in conference leadership, Harley gave guidance and energy to efforts to improve clergy pensions and pension policy. He also served as a guide and encourager for better stewardship of financial resources for individuals and churches in making disciples of Jesus Christ.

Upon retirement, Harley stayed vital and active in various ministries including leadership to the Royce and Jane Reynolds Ministries that directed resources annually to ministry grants across the Western North Carolina Conference and beyond. Harley was also instrumental in helping develop clergy leadership programs such as the Reynolds Certificate in Church Leadership and the LEAD Academy, both of which are training generations of pastors in effective, visionary leadership.

Harley and Inez had a special place in their hearts for mission work in Haiti, leading building teams and encouraging participation of lay folk from Charlotte and across the conference.

Harley published several books over the years, including The Real Miracle (about the ongoing mission work in Haiti), All I Really Need to Know About Ministry I Learned on a Four-Point Charge (a reflection on his four years serving the Coleridge Charge) and From Vision To Reality (a study of leadership).

Harley was an avid golfer enjoying many happy hours on courses in Waynesville, Asheville, Charlotte, and across the Piedmont. He and Inez also enjoyed taking family and friends out on Lake Norman when they lived there. The Dickson house on Carolina Drive at Lake Junaluska was a favorite gathering spot for many during annual conference and other times over the years.

Harley was led by a greater vision of the Kingdom of God in his preaching, leadership, service to the WNCC and mentoring of fellow clergy. His authenticity, integrity, striving for excellence and appreciation of others' gifts and graces for ministry inspired a generation of clergy and lay persons in our annual conference and beyond.

We are better for having had Harley Dickson as a friend, colleague, and fellow servant of Christ.

C. Thomas Latimer

Carl Fredrick Dunker

November 27, 1929 – March 7, 2022

The Rev. Dr. Carl Fredrick Dunker was born November 29, 1929, in Cairo, Ill., as one of eight children to the late Harry Joseph Dunker and Lavonia Elizabeth Caldwell.

At age 14 in 1943, Carl surrendered his life to Jesus Christ during a revival meeting a few days before Christmas at First Methodist Church in Cairo. Before this change of heart, he had only attended Sunday school less than 12 times and a worship service only once. Also, he spent many of his Sunday afternoons and grade school days in a tavern called the Barrel House. It was at a revival meeting in August 1947 at Community Methodist Church, Dogtooth Bend, Ill., where he met his future wife, Barbara Ann Ridgeway. At another revival meeting in Sandusky, Ill., Carl answered the call to spread the gospel. He preached his first sermon in May 1948 at Tigert

Memorial Methodist Church in Cairo and later that August became a weekend supply preacher for Thebes Methodist Church in Thebes, Ill. Carl continued to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ for the next 70 years throughout Illinois and North Carolina.

Carl was an outstanding athlete in high school and played various sports, including football and basketball. His high school football coach offered to put Carl in for a full athletic scholarship at Murray State University in Kentucky, but Carl turned it down to follow Jesus Christ. His love of flying eventually led him to serve as a chaplain in the Civil Air Patrol (rank, Captain) even though many years earlier he denied himself the opportunity to accept a commission in the U.S. Air Force. There were numerous times when Carl could have chosen a different career path, but he remained faithful to his calling to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ.

He was also an avid hunter who grew up in southern Illinois learning to hunt rabbit, quail, duck, geese, and fish. As a young pastor, his ability to hunt often provided the only meat for his growing family. He quickly earned the nickname “dead-eye Dunker” in one parish because of his hunting skills. It was these sportsman qualities of hunting and athletics that enabled him to connect with parishioners wherever he served. Carl was able to draw men to church just to hear him preach who otherwise would not have attended.

He was a graduate of Cairo (Ill.) High School, 1947; studied at McKendree University, Lebanon, Ill., 1951; graduated from Greenville College, Greenville, Ill., A.B. degree, 1953; graduated from Christian Theological Seminary at Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind., Theta Phi, 1955, Master of Divinity degree, 1956, Master of Arts degree, 1957; International Bible College and Seminary, Independence, Mo., Doctor of Philosophy degree, 1990.

Carl’s first church was First Methodist Church, Cairo, Ill., 1943. He was ordained as a deacon in 1954 in the Southern Illinois Conference and previously admitted to the conference in 1953. He was ordained as an elder in 1956 in the Illinois Conference and served 1956-1962. He served in The United Church of Christ, Southern Conference, 1962-1974. Carl transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1974. His service record in the WNCC includes: Farmer (Denton), 1974-1975; Mt. Vernon (High Point), 1976-1981; Oak Forest (Winston-Salem), 1981-1988; Bethesda-Smyre, 1988-1990; Bethesda, 1990-1993; and Coburn Memorial (Salisbury), 1993-1995. He retired in 1995.

Carl was a passionate evangelist and writer with more than 31 semester hours in the field of oral communication to include speech, drama, radio, and television. These gifts enabled him to contribute articles on evangelism to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, WNCC official newspaper (1986). He wrote, narrated, and produced “A Child is Born,” a Christmas radio program of WMFR radio, High Point (1977). He wrote, narrated, and produced “A Hill Called Calvary,” an outdoor pantomime drama with music, sound effects, and lights, Oak Forest UMC, Winston-Salem, for presentation during Holy Week (1989). As a coordinator for Connection, Methodism’s syndicated radio program, his interview with a redeemed convict, Charles “Rocky” Rothschild, earned the DeRose Hinkhouse Award presented by the Religious Public Relations Council, Program No. 55 (1979). Carl contributed articles which helped to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ through local newspapers. He wrote “What Do You Believe?” weekly articles for The Randolph Guide, Randolph County (1972). He also wrote “Reflections” for the North Davidson Dispatch, Lexington (1981).

Carl’s service to the ministry carried him through four conferences and two denominations. Throughout his parish assignments, Carl carried with him a desire to fight injustice. While assigned to Wake Chapel, Fuquay-Varina, N.C., Carl received a baptism into the civil rights movement (1963). Also, while assigned to Coburn Memorial, Carl organized local pastors to fight against the increase in drug trafficking.

Rev. Dr. Dunker passed away at his home on March 7, 2022, in Asheboro, N.C. Funeral services were held March 12, 2022, at Tigert Memorial United Methodist Church, Cairo, Ill., with the Rev. Doug Atkins officiating and interment at Green Lawn Memorial Gardens, Villa Ridge, Ill. He was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Ann Ridgeway; his parents, Harry Joseph Dunker and Lavonia Elizabeth Caldwell; sister Shirley Dunker; and brother Joe Kenneth Dunker. He is survived by children Carl David Dunker, Barbara Diane Roe (Charles P. Roe), and Steven Fredrick Dunker (Gwyneth Nunag); three grandchildren, Mark W. Dunker (Angela), Jason T. Dunker (Kisha) and Sarah G. Dunker; three great-grandchildren, Austin Dunker, Meredith Dunker, and Peyton Dunker; brothers Jack Dunker and Wilbur Dunker (Peggy); and sisters Kay Niestrath (Nick), Mary Jane Edmonds (Randy), and Judy Wadley.

“For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing” (2 Timothy 4:6-8, KJV).

Jack Jones Early

April 12, 1925 – January 22, 2022

Jack Jones Early was born on Easter Sunday, April 12, 1925, in Corbin, Ky., to Joseph Manor and Lela May Jones Early. He was preceded in death by his parents; brother J. Derwood Early; beloved wife of 64 years Nancye Bruce Whaley Early; and son-in-law John Patrick Best, an ordained United Methodist minister in the Illinois Great Rivers Conference. He is survived by his daughters and sons-in-law, Lela Katherine Early Martin and Harold Green Martin Jr. of Midlothian, Va., Judith Ann Early Best of Edwardsville, Ill., Laura Hattie Early and Randall Davis of Lake Carroll, Ill.; grandchildren Chris Martin, Ben Martin (Meg Edwards), Kate Gould (Trevor), Joey Best, Jackson Best, and Liam Davis; and great-grandson Jack Martin. His daughter, Judy, is an ordained United Methodist minister in the Northern Illinois Conference. He was related to Bishop John Early (1786-1873) of the Virginia Conference of Methodists who baptized 1,000 people during a week-long camp meeting.

Jack valued the Christian faith. He was a lifelong Methodist, and he was licensed to preach in 1943 while still in high school. He was admitted to the Kentucky Annual Conference in 1952 and entered full connection as a deacon in 1954. Jack was ordained an elder in 1956. While in college, he served Hindman United Methodist Church in Kentucky. The original frame structure was at the top of a hill, which kept many from attending. He was able to raise funds to build a new sanctuary. A widely distributed church bulletin cover featured a striking photo with the previous, older pastor showing the church on the hill in the background, and the young pastor (Jack) with the new sanctuary in the foreground. Jack and Nancye met as officers in the Methodist Student Movement and had their first date after a church event. They married on June 1, 1952, at Epworth United Methodist Church in Lexington, Ky. Jack transferred to the Iowa-Des Moines Conference in 1957, and in 1958, transferred from Iowa-Des Moines to the South Dakota Conference. During his years in South Dakota, Jack preached almost every Sunday at rural churches throughout the state. He transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1969, from which he retired in 1995. He received a leadership award from Religious Heritage of America and later served on its board. He attended St. Matthews United Methodist Church in Louisville, Ky., until his death. He knew he would go to heaven and join Nancye after his life on earth ended.

Jack valued education. His own education started in Corbin. Unable to serve in the military due to a medical condition, he continued at Union College (Ky.) where he received his bachelor of arts degree in 1948. He earned both his master of arts (1953) and doctor of education degrees (1956) at the University of Kentucky. Simultaneously, he earned a bachelor of divinity degree (1956) from Lexington Theological Seminary. He was awarded the following honorary degrees: Litt.D. from Dakota Wesleyan University in 1969, LL.D. from Iowa Wesleyan College in 1970, L.H.D. from Union College in 1979, and D.Adm. from Cumberland College in 1980.

His career in education started in 1948 at Hindman High School and Hindman Settlement School in Kentucky. He became a professor at Athens College in Alabama in 1953. After completing his doctorate, he was named dean at Iowa Wesleyan College. In 1958, he became president of Dakota Wesleyan University in South Dakota, the youngest college president at that time. In 1969, he served as president of Pfeiffer College in North Carolina. Beginning in February 1971, he worked as the executive director of educational affairs for the American Bankers Association in Washington, D.C. Returning to academics in 1973, he became president of Limestone College in South Carolina. He served briefly as pastor of Taylorsville (North Wilkesboro District), from July until September 1979, when he moved to Illinois under special appointment as executive director of education for The W. Clement and Jessie V. Stone Foundation. He simultaneously worked as vice president for education and communications at Combined Insurance Company of America. He was elected president of the Kentucky Independent College Fund in 1984, serving in that role until 1993. From 1993 to 1995, he was director of education of the Napoleon Hill Foundation. He gave motivational speeches worldwide through the International Council on Education for Teaching and led training programs, including in prisons. After his full-time retirement in 1995, he later taught courses at McKendree University in Illinois until age 90.

Jack valued service. Active in civic and charitable organizations over the years, he served in many capacities from being PTA president, to serving on the board of the YMCA, to sitting on national scholarship committees. He was a 33rd degree Mason. He was a Rotarian for more than 50 years, serving a term as district governor. After doing genealogical research, he became involved in hereditary societies, including the Society of the Cincinnati, Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, Jamestowne Society, and Sons of the American Revolution. He was a founding member of First Families of Kentucky. He served as chaplain or prelate at the national level in many of these organizations. He was inducted into honorary membership by the Hereditary Society Community. Jack was a lifelong Republican. At a young age, he was elected to the Kentucky General Assembly, serving during the 1952-1954 term. He was a delegate from South Dakota to the 1968 Republican National Convention. One of his many honors was being inducted into the University of Kentucky Hall of Distinguished Alumni.

On January 22, 2022, Jack died at age 96 in his own home of natural causes. The celebration of Jack's life was held at the Pearson Funeral Home chapel in Louisville, Ky., on February 5, 2022. That afternoon, he was laid to rest at Cave Hill Cemetery in Louisville, Ky., beside his wife who passed away on June 15, 2016.

John Rodney Fulcher

January 30, 1933 – January 5, 2022

John Rodney “Rod” Fulcher was born on January 30, 1933, in New Bern, N.C., to John Baptist Fulcher and Ethel (Nobles) Fulcher. Growing up under challenging circumstances on a tobacco farm in eastern North Carolina, Rod was supported by Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church members in Greenville and earned a scholarship to Duke University in 1951.

Rod graduated from Duke with a bachelor's degree in history in 1955 and as a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honor society. As an undergraduate, he was active in the Methodist Student Fellowship, where he met and later married Nancy Diane Ormond upon her graduation from Duke in 1956. Rod continued his pastoral education at Duke, becoming an ordained deacon in 1957 and graduating with a bachelor's degree in divinity in 1958.

The couple then moved to New Jersey, where Rod completed graduate studies in religion at Princeton University, earning a master's degree in 1960 and a doctorate in 1963. Concurrently, he served as a student pastor at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Bayhead from 1960 until 1962. Returning to North Carolina, Rod earned tenure while a professor in religion and history at St. Andrews Presbyterian College (now University) in Laurinburg from 1962 until 1978. At St. Andrews, he helped create a renowned interdisciplinary program in Christianity and culture. Rod also continued his ministerial service as the Caledonia United Methodist Church pastor from 1964 until 1967.

Rod continued his work first as director of higher education programs with the Presbyterian Church in the United States in Atlanta from 1978 until 1980, and then as dean of faculty at Davis & Elkins College in Elkins, W.Va., from 1980 until 1983. Coming back to North Carolina and the classroom, Rod ended his academic career as a professor in religion at then-High Point College from 1983 until 1988.

Following God's call, Rod transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1991 and spent the final 10 years of his vocation serving Sandy Ridge (High Point), 1989-1990; Midway Circuit (High Point), 1990-1992; and Oak Summit (Winston-Salem), 1992-1998. In retirement, Rod and Nan centered their lives around Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in High Point, where they were longtime members of the church choir.

John Rodney Fulcher died of natural causes on January 5, 2022, at Guilford Health Care Center in Greensboro. He is survived by wife Nancy “Nan” Fulcher of High Point, son Mark Fulcher of San Diego, Calif., and daughter Sarah Fulcher, also of High Point. His ashes will be inurned later during a private family service at Wesley Memorial UMC.

Lewis Clinton Gibbs

January 12, 1936 – April 17, 2022

After four decades of proclaiming and witnessing his faith in the Resurrection, Dr. Lewis Clinton Gibbs was received by the eternal Spirit of God's love on Easter Sunday, April 17, 2022.

He was born in Lenoir, N.C., on January 12, 1936, to the late Jason L. Gibbs and Lois Bean Gibbs.

Hudson High School was where Lewis (Class of 1954) and Dottie Walker Gibbs (Class of 1956) met. They were married on April 15, 1955, during her junior year, and Lewis immediately returned to duty in the U.S. Air Force, affecting a 20-month separation.

After his military service, Lewis was a student pastor of the Vanceboro Circuit (North Carolina Conference, 1961-1963). He received his Associate of Arts degree from Louisburg College (1963) and later earned degrees from: then-Lenoir-Rhyne College (Bachelor of Arts, 1968); Emory University, Candler School of Theology (Master of Divinity, 1971); and Drew University, Drew Theological School (Doctor of Ministry, 1989). He was ordained as a deacon in 1964 and ordained as an elder and received into full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1970.

During nearly four decades of competent and effective leadership in our conference (1964-2001), his appointments were: Union Grove-Olin (1964-1966); Rhodhiss-Ebenezer (1966-1968); student, North Georgia Conference, 1968-1971; St. John's (Hickory), 1971-1973; Mt. Olivet, 1973-1979; Groce (Asheville), 1979-1984; St. Stephen (Charlotte), 1984-1987; missionary to Kenya, 1987-1989; Centenary (Greensboro), 1989-1993; Hickory Grove (Charlotte), 1993-1996; and Asheville District superintendent, 1996-2001. After retiring in 2001, Lewis was an active parishioner at First United Methodist Church (Waynesville) and Covenant Community United Methodist Church (Asheville).

Lewis and Dottie, through a 67-year marriage, developed an effective co-ministry within our conference and as missionaries for two years in Kenya. Their impressive teamwork continued in Asheville when Lewis appointed Dottie to a church within his district!

Lewis' family included children Mark William, John Lewis, and Amy Leigh (deceased); eight grandchildren, Hannah, Sarah Jane, Jack, Annie, Bailey, Luca, Marie-Chantal, and Emily; and great-grandson Walker.

As retirees together at Lake Junaluska and Givens Estates, I witnessed Lewis' ongoing hospitality, his humor, his positive approach to life, and his caring attitude. A wide array of parishioners, peers, friends, and family members are greatly appreciative that Lewis "passed our way" and left a loving imprint upon our lives!

His memorial service was held on April 22, 2022, in the Givens Estates Chapel with the Rev. Rich Tuttle, the Rev. Brenda Lewis, the Rev. Ed Hillman, the Rev. Dr. Mike Leatherwood, and Mr. Larry Bopp participating. Interment followed at Givens Columbarium.

Boyd Marshall Holliday

December 31, 1949 – September 6, 2021

Boyd Marshall Holliday was born on December 31, 1949, in Brevard, N.C., to the late Anna Meixell and Fulton Holliday. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Jean Ellen McLarty Holliday; his sister, Marie Holliday Siniard; and his brother, John Roy Holliday.

Boyd "always had his nose in a book," according to his sister, Marie, and his intellect set him apart from other students early in life. It was that quiet, studious young man who caught the eye of Jean Ellen McLarty when they were young teenagers, and it was love at first sight. They married on December 30, 1971, and Jean was the love of his life.

Boyd graduated with honors from Brevard High School in 1968 and completed his undergraduate education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1971. He did post-graduate work at Duke Divinity School, receiving a Master of Divinity degree in 1974 and a Master of Theology degree in 1975. He also received Doctor of Education degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1987. He was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1974 and to full connection in 1976. He was licensed to preach on April 14, 1973. He was ordained as a deacon in 1974 and as an elder in 1976.

His appointments include: Central associate (Mt. Airy), 1976-1979; Grace associate (Greensboro), 1979-1982; student, 1982-1983; Centenary associate (Greensboro), 1983-1987; leave of absence, 1987-1991; Hickory Grove (Greensboro), 1991-1996; Salem (Albemarle), 1996-1998; Bessemer (Greensboro), 1998-2005; and Rankin Memorial (High Point), 2005-2012. He considered each appointment a joyful opportunity to serve God. Boyd retired in 2012, and he and Jean settled at Lake Junaluska.

Boyd was an outdoor enthusiast, enjoying gardening, hiking, and camping. He never lost his passion for music and art, teaching himself to play the banjo and learning how to make beautiful panels of stained glass. He and Jean had a menagerie of rescued pets over the years, some residing indoors and some outdoors. Boyd doted on each of them and didn't spare a moment or a dime to ensure they had all the best that life could offer. Boyd was also a master at very bad jokes, "groaners" as his family fondly called his cringe-worthy puns, which were never in short supply.

More than anything in his life, Boyd loved the people who crossed his path – every single one. He was a gentle, humble man. His dedication to the ministry – to teaching the love that God has for all of us – was the binding element he saw in each of us.

Boyd passed away on September 6, 2021, and was laid to rest on November 6, 2021, at Lake Junaluska.

Harold Dean Houck

September 21, 1937 – December 15, 2021

The Rev. HD (Harold Dean) Houck was born in Ashe County, N.C., on September 21, 1937, the fourth of 10 children. He died in Asheville on December 15, 2021. He was the son of the late Everett Houck and Eva Trivette Houck and is survived by his beloved wife, Kathleen Dotson Houck of Fairview and Fleetwood, N.C.

The family lived on a farm where HD learned the virtue of working hard. After high school graduation, he served four years in the U.S. Air Force and then in furniture manufacturing, at one point owning his own business. He was then called by God into United Methodist ministry and graduated from Duke Divinity School's Course of Study, offered on the campus of a university he loved. He was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1980.

If the Board of Ordained Ministry ever asked prospective clergy, "Do you love people?" HD was the pastor for all to emulate. He knew how important home visits were to members of his congregations and devoted time to this ministry. He lived out what church members want in a pastor: to know they are loved, to know their pastor is available, to know their pastor is a person of high moral character who loves God, and is someone who models the self-giving love of Jesus. It is also vitally important to study and prepare well-crafted Biblically based sermons. HD did so.

Within the week of his death, he visited members of Swannanoa United Methodist and Tabernacle United Methodist churches, Black Mountain, where he served as visitation pastor. The world needs more of his faithfulness and gentleness.

HD served for more than 40 years in the Appalachian District, formerly North Wilkesboro District, and the Blue Ridge District, formerly the Asheville District. His appointments include: Moravian Falls, 1980-1982; Fairview Charge (Bethany, Fairview Sharon, Tweed's Chapel), 1982-1991; and Hominy Charge (Piney Mountain, Davis Chapel, Pisgah), 1991-2000. He retired in 2000 and was appointed as part-time pastor of Bethesda United Methodist in Asheville until 2006.

While at Bethesda, he began walking for his health and became friends with everyone in the neighborhood, becoming pastor to many. After a second retirement, he served as interim pastor for several churches and was visitation pastor for the people of Tabernacle in Black Mountain. In addition, he taught Bible study at two nutrition sites for the Buncombe County Council on Aging during the early 1990s.

In retirement, HD and Kay lived in Ashe County in the summer and Fairview in the winter. In Ashe County, they were both active at Zion United Methodist Church. He also filled in for pastors in churches there, led choirs, and taught Bible study.

HD is also survived by brothers Arless (Carla), Jerry (Wilma), Don (Barbara), Michael (Susan), and David (Susan), and sisters Barbara (Frank), Bernice, and Kathy (Dale), all currently of Ashe County; son Dan of Purllear, N.C.; daughters Diana of North Wilkesboro and Dawne of Lexington, S.C.; two granddaughters, Holli of Winston-Salem, N.C., and Harmony of Lexington, S.C.; and two great-granddaughters, Trinity and Jordyn of Winston-Salem.

Robert Eugene Huffman Jr.

January 15, 1934 – April 8, 2022

Robert "Bob" Eugene Huffman Jr. was born on January 15, 1934, to Laura and Robert A. Huffman in Lewisville, N.C., the oldest of six siblings. He married his beloved wife, Letha "Lee" Flynn, on September 4, 1954.

Bob graduated from Piedmont Bible College in Winston-Salem and then moved to Illinois to pursue undergraduate (1959) and graduate degrees (1963) at Wheaton College. He continued his education at the University of Iowa to pursue a Ph.D. degree in theoloagy and later received his Master of Divinity degree at Duke Divinity School (1978). Early in his career, Bob taught at Parson's College in Iowa (1967-1972) and later became dean of students (1972-1973). During his time in Iowa, Bob often filled in as pastor for many churches in the area when needed.

Moving back to North Carolina in 1974, Bob answered the call to full-time ministry and served as a pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church until his retirement. Bob was licensed to preach in 1975, ordained as a deacon in 1976 and as an elder in 1979. He was also received into full connection in 1979. His service began in 1976 at Grace-Hiatt (Winston Salem) and was followed by these appointments: East Bend, 1978-1982, Unity (Thomasville), 1982-1988; Brookstown (Pfaltown), 1988- 1993; Abernathy (Asheville), 1993-1997; and First (High Point), 1997-1999. Though Bob officially retired in 1999, he continued to answer the call by serving at Morris Chapel (Walkertown), 2001-2002, and Pine Grove (Winston-Salem), 2002-2003.

Bob also served on several committees during his WNCC tenure, including chair of the Theology and Doctrine Committee (1985-1988) and registrar of the Board of Ministry (1988-1992). He also had a strong commitment to mission work. In 1992, he traveled to Armenia with others to lay the groundwork for what would become Project Agape – American Greater Armenian Partnership Efforts.

Bob excelled as a preacher, pastor, and leader in the Western North Carolina Conference. He was a delightful combination of deep spiritual gifts and a probing mind. Bob was a lifelong learner of philosophy, religion, science, and theology and would often give books he found thought-provoking to friends and family. His thirst for learning often found its way into his sermons and Sunday school classes he taught at Maple Springs United Methodist Church upon his retirement.

His talents were many. The ability to sense unvoiced human need was one of the qualities that made him such an effective pastor and loyal friend. Not a slave of the clock, Bob always had time to listen. Listening was one of the great qualities he possessed.

He displayed deep, penetrating insight into basic human nature. Whether he was conversing with a child about a simple problem or comparing thoughts with a fellow pastor on some deep theological concern, he was always patient and kind. Upon sensing human need, whether spiritual or physical, Bob was quick to respond with help and encouraging words.

Bob passed away on April 8, 2022, after a valiant fight with cancer and coming one year after his wife of 67 years, Lee, passed away. Services were held at Maple Springs UMC (Winston Salem) on April 14, 2022, and interment at Westlawn Garden of Memory (Clemmons). In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by his brother, Gordon, and his sister-in-law, Lillie Huffman (Conrad). Bob is survived by his children, Bob Jr., David (Julie), Sandra Landschoot (Mark), and Carolyn Huffman Ponder (Phil); his grandchildren, Bob III, Nancy Elizabeth LaFlair, Alex Huffman (Kristen), Jamie Huffman, Brad Landschoot (Tori), Lori Landschoot, Cam and Carly Ponder; and his siblings, Conrad, Ann Corirossi (Bob), Wayne (Norma), and Jimmy (Myra).

The Western North Carolina Conference has been extremely fortunate to have had a man of Bob's character, convictions, and commitment among its members. He will be remembered by all who knew him as one of our Lord's finest and most faithful servants.

April 19, 1941 – December 12, 2021

Charles Richard Johnson was born on April 19, 1941, in Gastonia, N.C., to the late Emory Johnson and Laura Brackett Robinson. Whatever his reasons, he always went by 'Richard' throughout the course of his life. He grew up in Gastonia and attended public schools. Born into a working-class family, he was no stranger to hard work, discipline, and the importance of sticking to a job until it was finished.

He felt the pull of a call to ministry in high school, and upon graduation, went off to Atlantic Christian College in 1959 for a liberal arts education in preparation for seminary. He was active in the school's social life, busy working to help pay his way, and patiently steady in his studies, graduating with honors in 1963. In fall 1963, he entered Vanderbilt Divinity School to continue his studies, graduating in 1966 with an master of divinity degree. That same year, he sought and was given ordination in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

Richard served several student pastorates in Kentucky and Tennessee during his student years. In his senior year of seminary, he married Jackay Stowe of Gastonia, a high school sweetheart. They had two sons, Charles Richard II and Gregory Alexander.

Between 1966 and 1974, Rev. Johnson served Disciples of Christ congregations in Sebree, Ky., Kinston, N.C., and Joplin, Mo. In 1974, Richard left the ministry for personal reasons. He worked in both management and retail in the ensuing years, and his first marriage came to an end.

In 1984, Richard married Sandie Martin of Gastonia and adopted her daughter, Jacqueline Leigh, now Jackie Johnson. Richard and Sandie were married 37 years until his death in 2021. His family continued to grow over the years with the addition of seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

As it became obvious that Richard was not going to find satisfaction in the workaday world, Sandie encouraged him to seriously consider returning to the ministry. At her urging, Richard applied to the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and was licensed to preach in 1991. He was ordained as an elder in 1999. He served the following parishes in the conference: Gilkey-Thermal City-Gilboa, 1991-1993; Myrtle-Smyre (Gastonia District), 1993-1998; Casar, 1998-2001; First (Caroleen), 2001-2003. He retired in 2003.

The Rev. Johnson was a man of the highest integrity. Possessed of a strong sense of fairness, he set high expectations for himself and for those with whom he worked. He was intelligent and well-read. Yet at heart, he was a simple man with simple tastes. Never flashy or phony, he dealt honestly and straightforwardly with those given into his care. Not overly ambitious, he was content to humbly serve wherever he felt God called him to serve.

It is often said of the deceased, as a cliché, "He was a good man." If such be judged by motivation as well as action, the Rev. Johnson truly was a good man. He loved and cared for his family to the best of his ability, always seeking what was best for them, and he brought a steady, thoughtful dedication to his work with the various church families given into his care. He was the kind of man who would suffer pain and hardship himself before he would consciously inflict it on others.

Due to complications from type-2 diabetes and kidney disease, Richard died on Sunday, December 12, 2021. He was cremated and remains with his family.

Richard Johnson loved and served the Lord Jesus Christ throughout the course of his life. We can trust the promise that he now dwells in the eternal fellowship of his Lord.

Claude Jackson Kayler

October 20, 1962 – July 16, 2021

The Rev. Dr. Claude Jackson Kayler died in a no-fault cycling accident while riding backroads of western North Carolina on a sunny Friday afternoon. He was only 58 years old, but the countless changed lives that he leaves in his wake bear witness to how great an impact he had during his life and ministry – and serve to remind all of us how much good God can do through just one life lived in surrender to Christ.

Claude was born on October 20, 1962, in Hendersonville, N.C., to the Rev. Jack Kayler and his wife, Claudette Taylor Kayler. He had two younger siblings, Dayton Kayler and Jacqueline Kayler Debrew. Growing up with a United Methodist pastor for a father, Claude's childhood rambled across most of western North Carolina, but Greensboro was home for his most formative years.

The summer after he graduated from high school, Claude had a transformative experience. During a youth-group beach trip, he heard college students from Denmark speaking about “the same Jesus” he had heard his father speaking about for so many years. Claude often said of that experience, “I wasn't looking for God that summer, but God was looking for me.”

Those college students were part of the Western North Carolina Conference's Scandinavian Caravan program – the same program through which, a short while later, Claude met Lorie Jean Carlisle. Their connection grew while they traveled Europe together with the Caravan – chaperoned by Claude's parents – during the summer of 1981. During the rest of their time at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Claude and Lorie were active participants in the campus' InterVarsity Ministry and shared an interest in global missions and leading worship with their guitars. They remained “just friends” almost right up until they married on May 11, 1985.

It was during his time in college that Claude felt a clear call to ministry. He graduated from UNC Chapel Hill in 1984 and then went on to receive a Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1989. (Later, he also completed a Doctor of Ministry degree through Asbury Seminary.) He was ordained as a deacon and admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1987, then ordained as an elder and admitted to full connection in 1992.

Claude began his full-time ministry in the Charlotte area, serving at Zoar and Aldersgate, 1989-1991. In 1991, his work with the Southwest Mecklenburg Mission culminated in the founding of Good Shepherd. Claude served as lead pastor there until 1999 and then took an appointment as an associate pastor of missions and outreach at Myers Park, 1999-2000. After that, Claude went on to serve: Tyro (Lexington), 2000-2006; Covenant Community (Asheville), 2006-2014; and Main Street (Kernersville), 2014-2018. In 2018-2019, he took a sabbatical that allowed him to travel to teach pastors in Cambodia and Tanzania. In his last years, he served briefly as the chief ministry officer of the Intentional Growth Center (Lake Junaluska) and launched his own coaching and consulting business, through which he aimed to support other pastors in the Western North Carolina Conference and beyond.

In all the communities where he lived, Claude was well-loved. People remember him for his joyful enthusiasm, goofy jokes, and gifted preaching. Church members often commented on how engaging and easy to follow Claude's preaching was; he was passionate about the craft of sermon-writing and always tried to leave listeners with “one main thing” they could remember and incorporate into daily living. He also had a flair for the dramatic, incorporating skits and movie clips into his messages. Sometimes he even delivered whole sermons costumed and in character, dressed as John Wesley, the angel Gabriel, or “Bubba the Shepherd.”

Claude always had a deep desire to participate in God's global mission. Throughout his ministry, he led groups and worked with local pastors in Nicaragua, Tanzania, and Cambodia. Inspired by Claude's preaching and enthusiasm, the churches he served here in North Carolina launched ministries, gave money, and built connections with partners around the world. Cambodia was especially close to Claude's heart. In the early years of Good Shepherd, Claude partnered with pastor Samuel Om of the Cambodian Mission in Charlotte; the two remained close friends for the rest of Claude's life and worked with local pastors in Cambodia together three times, most recently in 2019.

In addition to his passion for global missions, Claude was known for his love of Star Trek, comic book superheroes, soft-serve ice cream, hiking the mountains of western North Carolina, and, in the last years of his life, cycling.

A Celebration of Life Service was held on Saturday, July 24, 2021, at Main Street UMC in Kernersville with the Rev. Tim and Karen Roberts, two of Claude's dearest friends, officiating together. Tim and Karen are two of the many pastors who were impacted by Claude, whose ministry in this conference will continue the ripple effects of grace.

Claude is preceded in death by his father, the Rev. Ralph “Jack” Kayler, and his father-in-law, James F. Carlisle Sr. He is survived by his mother, Dr. Claudette Kayler; his wife of 36 years, Lorie Carlisle Kayler; his daughter, Mary Kayler; and his son David, daughter-in-law Lauren, and grandsons James and Owen Kayler, who still refer to him, with a warm smile, as “Bop-Bop.”

Jack Delon Luther

December 13, 1935 – August 12, 2021

Jack Delon Luther was born in Montgomery County in the southern Piedmont area of North Carolina to the late Dan Edward and Carrie Cranford Luther. His mother was a godly lady who devoted her life to God and her family. She was a role model for her own children and for many in the community. Rev. Luther was the youngest of nine children and was preceded in death by brothers Robert, Loyce, Wallace, and Billie Luther and sisters Alta Luther, Blanche Daniels, Ruth Holt, and Betty Deberry.

His upbringing gave him a strong start to sharing the gospel. At age 7, he would preach standing on a stump to whomever would listen. In his teen years, he began leading devotions for the youth at the four churches of the Eldorado United Methodist Charge. He was a member of one of the charge churches. To his good fortune, this was where he met his wife and soulmate for 65 years, Carolyn Lanier Luther, who graciously shared his ministry. They were married April 2, 1955, and they were blessed with two children, Tammy Burge (1958) and Jack Delon “J.D.” Luther II (1965). They experienced great joy with their grandchildren, Steven Luther, Ryan Burge, and Sarah McDowell, and great-grandchildren Bella, Clay, Lula and James Luther, and Hudson McDowell.

Rev. Luther attended public school in Montgomery County and later completed three years of college and theological training at Duke University Divinity School. He received honors including recognition as pastor emeritus in 2015 for his “50 years plus of Pastoral Service to the Community and beyond Macedonia United Methodist Church.” Also in 2015, he received a certificate of recognition from the N.C. General Assembly for his 50 years of service. In 2021 after his death, he received a United Methodist Clergy medallion for 50 years of service.

His initial formal employment was with a couple of local hosiery mills in Asheboro, N.C., one being McLauren Hosiery where he maintained the hosiery equipment. This was followed by employment with Bossong Hosiery Mill, also in Asheboro, where he served as supervisor prior to his departure. While he was there, he received the call to the ministry. During this time, he volunteered to serve two small, remote rural churches in Montgomery County that did not have a pastor, Chandler’s Grove United Methodist Church and Lane’s Chapel, an inactive church that met on fifth Sundays. He preached a funeral service for a member of Chandler’s Grove. A person who attended the funeral contacted the district superintendent for the area and made high recommendations that Rev. Luther be recruited as a pastor for The United Methodist Church. He was licensed to preach in 1969 and became a deacon in 1971. His appointments included four Montgomery County churches that comprised the Eldorado Charge, 1969-1973; Mocksville Circuit, 1973-1981; Pelham-Hickory Grove, 1981-1986; Gay’s Chapel (Salisbury District), 1986-1991; Centenary (Salisbury District), 1991-1998; and Highland-Northwood (High Point District), 1998-2002. He retired in March 2002. After retirement, he served Ophir and Uwharrie United Methodist churches of the North Carolina Conference for five years. In addition, he served as interim pastor for Central United Methodist Church in Denton of the Western North Carolina Conference. Even though retired, he continued with many homecomings and revivals when requested.

Rev. Luther was blessed with a great deal of humor and joy. He loved people, particularly little children, and they loved him. He provided a children’s message as part of each worship service. As he would sit down on the altar area to share the message with them each Sunday, they all wanted to sit on his lap or beside him which created a little competition at times. Many of the children have voiced in later years the significant impact he had on their Christian lives. Following the baptism of many babies, he planted his signature kiss on the forehead of each one of them.

His mind and heart were fully devoted to sharing the truth of the gospel, straight from the Word of God. He did not alter or modify the message to appease anyone. He received numerous requests from many pastors to come and preach for their church revivals and homecomings, so much that his calendar often stayed booked up. There have been thousands of lives touched by his personality and souls led to Christ through his messages and the way he lived his life. In addition, he mentored many young pastors as well as some older pastors who entered the ministry later in life. He was an encourager to many.

The Lord quickly swept him up and took him to his eternal home in glory on the evening of August 12, 2021, at age 85. The funeral service was held August 16 at his childhood home church, Macedonia United Methodist Church, followed by a graveside service at Oak Grove United Methodist Church in Randolph County.

“Well done, good and faithful servant ...,” Matthew 25:21.

Stephen Moore Martin

September 12, 1947 – January 2, 2022

The Rev. Dr. Stephen Moore Martin received his final appointment January 2, 2022, whereupon he was granted honorable location in the best appointment ever, Heaven. He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Shirley Bruce Martin; his son, Stephen Bruce Martin and fiancé Annette Osborne; his brother, the Rev. Phillip Martin and wife Emily Martin; and his grandchildren, Noah and Abby Martin.

Dad was born in Reidsville, N.C., to the Rev. Dee Bee Moore Martin and Francis Melvin Martin, both deceased. He was taught about Jesus Christ from birth and grew up in the church. Like most preachers’ kids, I am sure he was asked multiple times if he was going into the ministry, and like most preachers’ kids, said no. Little did Dad know he would receive a calling to serve and spread the glorious word of Jesus Christ. Like all preachers, the family moved around, and he often felt like he had no real home. Dad dropped out of high school and joined the U.S. Marine Corps where he thought he may find a place to call home. That thought quickly disappeared with his introductions to his drill instructors. While serving in the Marines, 1965-1969, he married Shirley Lea Bruce before being deployed to Vietnam. While in Vietnam, his son, Stephen Martin, was born. After he wounded and honorably discharged, Dad had to find a job to support this new family.

During this time, he held a few jobs and was still searching for that feeling of home. In 1973, he found his home in the calling of ministry. He served many churches and people during his 40 years as a United Methodist minister. His appointments include: Murphy Circuit and Cherokee County Parish associate, 1973-1974; Mill Grove-Pine Bluff, 1974-1978; Matton's Grove-Mt Zion 1978-1980; Albemarle Circuit, 1980-1981; Ruffin, 1981-1986; Triplett, 1986-1991; First (Granite Falls) 1991-1992; West Bend, 1992-1997; Hinshaw Memorial, 1997-2000; Pleasant Garden, 2000-2008; Leaksville, 2008-2009; and Pine Grove, 2009-2013. He retired in 2013. Dad's education included his A.B. degree, Pfeiffer College, 1979; Master of Divinity degree, Duke University, 1985; and Doctor of Ministry, Trinity, 1991. He became a deacon in 1983 and was ordained as an elder in 1987.

Dad served all these churches and their parishioners with the love of a family member, spreading the gospel and bringing people closer to God. He always loved the words, "there's no one here but family." He truly felt that he had found his home in the church. Dad served for 40 years before retiring to Greensboro in 2013. Being exposed to Agent Orange while serving in Vietnam finally caught up with him in 2022. He passed peacefully at home on January 2, 2022, and found his ultimate home, the one that had always been prepared for him since before his birth. Dad was preceded in death by his parents and his daughter-in-love, Joy Martin.

"Well done, well done,

"My good and faithful one,

"Welcome to the place where you belong.

"Well done, well done,

"My beloved child,

"You have run the race and now you're home.

"Welcome to the place where you belong" – Well Done, The Afters.

Robert Monroe McCain Sr.

June 25, 1943 – March 31, 2022

Robert "Bob" Monroe McCain Sr. was born on June 25, 1943, in Reidsville, N.C., the second of seven children born to Lucy McCain Hart and William Gerringer. His stepfather, the Rev. George Hart, was moderator of the former Piedmont Tri-State District Convention Disciples of Christ, now as Piedmont District Convention of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Rev. Hart was a major influence in Bob's Christian journey.

Bob received his primary and secondary education in Reidsville, N.C., played guard on his high school football team and graduated from Booker T. High School in 1961. He received his undergraduate degree in early childhood education from Winston-Salem State College, now Winston-Salem State University, in 1965. He completed master's degrees in educational administration at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University in 1993 and in supervision at N.C. A&T in 1994. He completed his master's degree in divinity at Hood Theological Seminary in 2008.

Bob grew up as a member of First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Reidsville and worshipped faithfully at Mt. Pleasant Disciples of Christ Christian Church when he relocated to Greensboro in 1977. He loved to teach Sunday school and Bible study. Rev. McCain moved his membership to St. Matthews United Methodist Church on June 1, 1980, and attended the early morning service so he could walk back to Mt. Pleasant to continue teaching Sunday school. At St. Matthews, Bob was involved in many ministries. He is most noted for his positive impact on the youth and children ministries.

He accepted the call to ministry in 2005 and was appointed to St. Paul United Methodist Church (Kernersville) in 2006 after being licensed to preach that same year. Later appointments include Withers Chapel, 2007-2010; and the Empire Circuit, 2010. He was later appointed to McCrary Chapel in 2012, where he served until his retirement in 2015.

Bob volunteered as a chaplain for Moses H. Cone Hospital in Greensboro, N.C., from 2011-2018 until his illness would no longer allow him to serve consistently.

He was married to Cynthia C. Nash Spinks and was father to five children, Tonya D. Green (Daryl), Felecia L. Titus (Bruce), Lonnie A. Spinks III (Inga), Robert Monroe McCain Jr. (Kyra), and Calvin F. McCain (Sharee). He had eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Bob died on March 31, 2022, after a longtime illness. His funeral services were held at St. Matthews UMC on Saturday, April 9, 2022, and he was interred at Eden Gardens in Eden, N.C.

Rev. McCain will forever be remembered for his witness, wittiness, selflessness, and being eternally "Blessed and Highly Favored."

Donald Eugene McCoy

November 28, 1948 – February 28, 2022

Donald Eugene McCoy, the son of the late Birden McCoy and Lovie Dalton McCoy, was born on November 28, 1948, in Winston-Salem, N.C. He was born into a large Christian family.

Donald never met a stranger. He was joyful with a magnetic personality. He was loved by all and embraced a happy life. He was an avid dreamer and a passionate soul. As a young boy, he was active in many community activities including Sunday school and his dad's Boy Scout troop.

Donald began his early education at Carver Consolidated School in Winston-Salem, N.C. He was creative, outgoing, and loved by his peers. In high school, he excelled in his academics and loved entertaining others and making them laugh. He graduated from Carver High School in 1967.

While attending North Carolina A&T State University, he met the love of his life, Levonia Burnett. They married on July 17, 1970, in Arlington, Va. To this union was born their beautiful daughter, Tene L. McCoy, on September 21, 1972, in Greensboro, N.C.

In his early adult years, Donald loved the limelight. He was a dancer, deejay, and stand-up comedian. He was known as D. Mac.

After a life-changing experience which brought him back to his early Christian teachings and to God, he completed his Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and graduated from North Carolina A&T State University. He graduated from the Course of Study for Licensed Ministry at Duke Divinity School in 1999 and the Advanced Course of Study for Licensed Ministry at Duke Divinity School in 2002.

Donald was a pastor for more than 28 years. He was licensed as a local pastor in 1994 and elected as an associate member and ordained as a deacon in 2002. He became a probationary member in 2004. He was elected as a member in full connection and ordained as an elder in 2007. In 1995, he began his ministerial duties as an assistant pastor of the Madison Circuit, 1995-1998. Other pastoral appointments include: St. John (Eden) and Chapel Hill (Reidsville), 1998-2006; Faith-St. Paul (Mooresville), 2006-2011; Bass Chapel-Raleigh's Crossroads (Greensboro), 2011-2020. He was a community pastor who received numerous accolades for his work with older adults and youth. Upon retirement of his pastoral duties in July 2020, he continued with his passion of ministering to the community. He was the founder of the Male Ball Ministry (MBM) and active in the ministry of Faith03, which included the gazing prayer, transportation, and food giveaways. He was an entrepreneur (At Your Service) and a collector of treasures. He was an active athlete, chess enthusiast, and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc.

He was a loving and caring husband, the best Daddy, a delightful "PawPaw" to his grandchildren, as well as the Church, community children, and his godchildren.

Donald's memory will be cherished by his wife, Levonia; daughter Tene LaVi McCoy (Hector) Cummings; grandchildren McCoy and Harmon Cummings. He is also survived by his 12 siblings: Wilbur D. (Nancy) McCoy, Lillie Bell Henderson, Anita McCoy Anderson, Jacqueline McCoy January, Yvonne McCoy Wingfield, Shelia McCoy (Bert) Grisard, Brenda McCoy (Al) Hunter, Jerrie McCoy Dean, Stephen O. (Stephanie) McCoy, Paula McCoy, Paulette McCoy (George) Spencer, and J. Bernard McCoy. He leaves hundreds of nieces, nephews, cousins, close friends, and special family friends Angela Clark Webster and Angie Young.

Donald transitioned from this life to glory on February 28, 2022, at his home in Greensboro after a valiant fight against gastric cancer. Funeral services were held at Guilford College United Methodist Church on March 7, 2022, officiated by the Rev. Timothy Fitzgerald with burial at Evergreen Cemetery in Winston-Salem.

Donald was a beacon of joy and bigger-than-life personality. He said, "Life is for the living, don't die until you are dead."

Charles Edwin McKinney

July 4, 1932 – August 19, 2021

Charles Edwin McKinney was born on July 4, 1932, in Crossnore, N.C. He was the oldest of six children born to the Rev. Charles Ruben and Eula Lee Thompson McKinney. After his high school graduation in 1949, he began his college studies at Spartanburg Methodist College for two years. During 1951-1955, he served a four-year enlistment in the U.S. Navy. Upon completion of military service, he entered Appalachian State University, completing a Bachelor of Science degree in 1958 and a master's degree in 1959.

After graduation from ASU in 1959, he began a career in education, teaching school in Watauga County. After three years, he accepted a teaching position at Lees McRae College in Banner Elk, N.C. His career in education included 23 years at McDowell Technical Community College in Marion, N.C. While there, in 1982, he responded to the call to the ministry. He was licensed to preach in The United Methodist Church in 1982 and accepted a part-time appointment at Concord United Methodist Church in McDowell County, N.C., while continuing his employment at the college. During this time, he attended two-week Course of Study sessions at Emory University. Charles pastored Concord through 1986. He retired as dean of fiscal services at McDowell Tech in 1989 and faithfully served full-time pastoral appointments at New Hope (Marion District), 1989-1992; and Denton's Chapel (Marion District), 1992-1995. He retired in 1995, and he and his wife, Barbara, moved to Boone to help with aging parents. After retirement, he continued his ministry as a volunteer, assisting the Hospice chaplain in Watauga County for eight years and also serving on the Hospice board of directors. During this time, he accepted part-time appointments, including Liberty-Piney Grove (North Wilkesboro District), 1998-2001; Grassy Creek (North Wilkesboro District); 2002-2006; and Boone Circuit (North Wilkesboro District), 2006-2009. After closing as a United Methodist church, Hopewell Church in Boone was granted permission to open as a community church in 2012. Charles welcomed the opportunity to serve as volunteer pastor for eight years and started several charities that have made it a true community church.

Charles was a very kind, gentle man with a caring spirit who served his family well as a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. His passion for people and for sharing the gospel also served him well as a pastor. One of his strongest points was that of comforting people. His humility and sincerity were two great assets as he ministered to and led his congregations. He always had time to listen and give advice, when asked.

Before entering the ministry, Charles was an active member of several different United Methodist churches and served on many boards and committees. He taught Sunday school classes for many years. He also served as a Scoutmaster for several years, where he had the opportunity to lead by example as he mentored young scouts.

While a student at ASU, he met Barbara Ann Tugman, and they were married on November 3, 1956. How fortunate they felt to have had almost 65 years together. They were blessed with two children, Marsha Ann (Philip Wallace), born November 7, 1957, and Scott Michael, born January 30, 1963. One of his greatest joys were his granddaughters, Sarah Davis, Erin Gilmore (Andrew Downey) and Tara McKinney, and his great-grandson, Brandon Davis Jr. (Sydney Wheatley).

Charles died as he lived, very peacefully, at home, surrounded by loving family on August 19, 2021, after a long, hard-fought battle with Crohn's disease and complications from Parkinson's disease. A service and celebration of his life was held on August 22 at Austin and Barnes Funeral Home in Boone with the Rev. Curtis Mull and the Rev. James McKinney officiating. Military honors were provided by American Legion Post 130. Entombment followed at Mount Lawn Memorial Park Mausoleum.

Warren Ned Owens

December 31, 1959 – August 1, 2021

On Sunday, August 1, 2021, the Rev. Warren Owens led the congregation in prayer at First United Methodist in Marion, N.C., saying, “We do not have to wait until the sweet bye and bye to have that foretaste of the glory divine. But we look forward to that day which we may be full partakers of the glory which you have set aside for us, that has been established by the word of Jesus.” As the service continued, he joined the choir in singing, “It is Well with my Soul,” that timeless declaration of the peace one finds through Christ – no matter the circumstance.

Then, just before sharing Communion with his much-loved congregation, he preached a sermon on the bread of life, saying, “God is involved in our lives. And his instructions, yes, might test us a little bit. But they are life-giving instructions. He wants us to be dependent upon him. He wants to shower blessings upon us day by day, each day. And he wants us looking toward heaven for that gift.”

Warren lived his life exactly as he prayed, and sang, and preached on August 1, 2021. And later that afternoon, Rev. Owens laid down for a Sunday afternoon nap – and looking toward heaven, he became a full partaker in the glory divine. He was 61 years old.

Warren Ned Owens had entered the world on December 31, 1959, in the rolling hills of Rutherfordton, N.C., the first-born child of Ned Bunyan Owens and Melissa Crowe Owens. He was six years old when he was baptized by his great-uncle, the Rev. Thomas Hoyle Swofford. When Warren was nine years old, his father completed the journey to becoming a United Methodist minister, and Warren spent the rest of his formative years as a “preacher’s kid,” growing up in parsonages, first in Shooting Creek and then Canton, N.C. He would be accompanied by two younger sisters, Audrey Owens Brooks and Michelle Leigh Owens, to whom he generously gave his big-brotherly love.

Warren joined the church while he and his family were at Bethesda United Methodist Church in Lexington, N.C., and he graduated from North Davidson High School in 1978. In high school, he was student body president, a trombone player, and very active in Bethesda’s UMYF, where he would make lifelong Christian friendships.

Warren entered High Point University in 1978. A couple of years later, his father was appointed to Tabernacle United Methodist Church in Greensboro, N.C., and it was at Tabernacle where Warren first heard what he described as “the voice of an angel” singing in the choir, a voice belonging to his future wife and love of his life, Tracey Lynette Stout.

Warren graduated from High Point in 1982, and then from the Institute of Textile Technology in May 1984. Warren and Tracey married at Tabernacle on June 30, 1984, moving to Pinehurst, N.C., where he began a career in the carpet industry. Warren and Tracey lived in Georgia and Alabama while he grew in his career, and they both actively served in churches in numerous lay roles such as youth leader and choir member.

In 1999, Warren answered a calling that many would be tempted to ignore, one that asked he and Tracey to give up their lives as they knew them: God’s calling into ministry. He left his position in the corporate world, and they returned to North Carolina where he enrolled in Duke Divinity School. He became a licensed local pastor in 1999, and during divinity school, he served in the North Carolina Conference at the Bonlee Charge (Meroney, West End, and Providence) in Chatham County. In 2000, he and Tracey welcomed the arrival of their greatest joy, son Samuel Warren Owens.

In 2003, Warren received his Master of Divinity degree and was commissioned in the Western North Carolina Conference. He was ordained as an elder and received into full connection in 2007. His WNCC appointments include: Cherry Street-Hiatt (Kernersville), January 1, 2003-2006; Avery’s Creek (Arden), 2006-2011; Acton (Asheville), February 1, 2011-2015; and First (Marion), 2015 until his death in August 2021. While at Acton, he supported Tracey in fulfilling her life’s calling as she joined the staff of Brooks-Howell retirement home; Tracey was consecrated as a deaconess in 2014 and is appointed to Brooks-Howell as activities director.

Warren has been and will be remembered for many things: among them – his good humor, his kindness, his storytelling, and his open, giving, servant’s heart. His was a heart full of gratitude toward his Savior, as he demonstrated with the closing words of his last sermon, which were: “What we have in our Lord and Savior is not only just the bread of life, but one who is generous. He is generous when we are so much in need. And his generosity is larger than our need. He gives to us abundantly – he gives us so much bread that we don't have to worry about what the grave holds, 'cause we know it won't hold us. And all you have to do, if you haven't got it yet, it's really simple – all you have to do – is believe. Believe. Believe.”

William Robbins Ragsdale Sr.

March 26, 1940 – November 22, 2021

William “Bill” Robbins Ragsdale Sr. was born on March 26, 1940, in Leaksville, N.C., to the late Joseph Sinclair Ragsdale Sr. and Louise Robbins Ragsdale. He grew up attending Leaksville Methodist Church and spending summers at Lake Junaluska with his grandfather, the late William Martin Robbins, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference from 1893 to 1952. During those summers, he worked at the Soda Shop and ran sound in Stuart Auditorium, where he listened attentively to the greatest revival preachers of the day.

He attended Hampden-Sydney College, graduating in 1962. It was during a chapel service, listening to a sermon by Presbyterian pastor Dr. George Vic, that Bill first heard God's call to ministry. Bill would often quote from that sermon: “Respectability cripples the Christ-like passion in a man's soul and blinds him with pride.” Answering the call, he graduated from Duke Divinity School in 1967.

Licensed to preach in 1964, Bill was ordained as a deacon in 1965 and ordained as an elder in 1969. His appointments included: Macon Circuit, 1967-1968; First (Hickory), minister of education, 1968-1969; Mayodan, 1969-1971; The Ecumenical Institute in Chicago, 1971-1975; Pinnacle-Mt. Zion, 1990-1993; Providence (Salisbury), 1993-1996; and Main Street (Salisbury), 1997-2004. Bill retired in 2005, the same year his son was commissioned as a provisional elder. In retirement, Bill served as chaplain of the North Carolina State Veterans Home in Salisbury from 2005 to 2015 and was an active participant in the ministries of First United Methodist Church of Salisbury and First United Methodist Church of Belmont.

Bill was an unconventional pastor, passionate about church renewal. His greatest sense of accomplishment as a pastor came from watching churches he had served implement plans he had helped them envision years earlier. An amateur and professional magician from age 7, his children's sermons often incorporated magic tricks, and he loved performing for neighboring church fellowship nights, scout troops, summer camps (including Camp Tekoa), and many others. With a large personality and love of laughter, Bill's gifts brought joy to many.

Bill married Annie Joe Ivie of Eden, N.C., on June 19, 1976. Together, they had one son, George, an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference. Bill is also survived by two other children, William Robbins “Robb” Ragsdale Jr. and Heather Ragsdale Sarkar, and eight grandchildren.

After a brief illness, Bill died on November 22, 2021, at Atrium Health Mercy Hospital in Charlotte with family around him singing one of his favorite hymns, Swing Low, Sweet Chariot. A service of death and resurrection was held on December 5, 2021, at First United Methodist Church of Belmont. The Rev. Ellen Robison officiated the service. He will be interred in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska.

At many difficult moments in his life and ministry, Bill would often sing the words of Isaiah 40:31: “Those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up on wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.” Thanks be to God for a life of love, laughter, and faithful service to Christ and His Church.

George I. Ragsdale

James Allen Raines Sr.

November 6, 1935 – March 2, 2022

The Rev. James Allen “Jimmy” Raines Sr., 86, went home to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Wednesday, March 2, 2022.

Born November 6, 1935, in Augusta, Ga., he was the son of the late William Edgar Raines and Mary Matheny Raines. Growing up in Augusta, Ga., Jimmy attended and graduated from The Academy of Richmond County. He was a member of Trinity-on-the-Hill United Methodist Church in Augusta. At a 1948 Billy Graham crusade in Augusta, he heard of Jesus' great love for him, and he trusted Jesus as his Lord and Savior at age 12. He discovered a new passion in his life which would be his compass for every future decision. He knew he had a call on his life at a young age. He discovered that his golf swing was a gift from God that he would use for God's glory. Being an outstanding athlete at The Academy of Richmond County in Augusta was not enough. At the tender age of 15, he gained the permission of the caddie master at The Augusta Country Club to share what he learned in Sunday school with the caddies on Saturdays before they began work. His humility of sharing the love of God with them impacted many for eternity.

God gave him a larger platform when he won the 1953 International Jaycee Junior Amateur golf tournament in Ann Arbor, Mich. He competed with thousands of young men worldwide to play in the tournament, winning numerous state and regional golf titles along the way. At every opportunity, he gave glory to God and writers dubbed him the “Putting Parson.” Jimmy published a pamphlet sharing how God's great love for the world surpassed any worldly honors. He committed himself to never boast about anything he did in the flesh, rather “to boast in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world” (Galatians 6:14, NIV).

His conviction to be a full-time minister of the Gospel overrode his potential to pursue golf as a profession. To prepare himself, he attended Asbury College in 1953. Later, he transferred to the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, where he did play two years of golf. There, he met his soulmate, the love of his life, Ina Belle Rorex. While in Knoxville, they studied the Bible together and were volunteer leaders for Young Life clubs, loving students for Christ. After he graduated from UT in 1957 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and geography, they married in August 1957 and moved to Atlanta. In Atlanta, he was licensed to preach in 1959. He attended and graduated from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in 1960.

Upon graduation, they moved to Greensboro where Jimmy was a field representative with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship from 1960 to 1966. He served college campuses throughout the Southeast. He became an ordained deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1961. He partnered with Paul Little to plan and run the first Beach Evangelism ministry outreach in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Jimmy had a love for relational evangelism and reaching young people wherever they were, even on spring break.

Jimmy continued ministry with his wife, Ina Belle, by opening Logos Christian Bookstore in 1971. Both engaged in raising their son, Jim Jr., and three daughters, Julie, Belle, and Caroline, while serving in the local church and community. During this time, their home was always open to others who needed help, counsel, and prayer. They both put Jesus first in everything they did. During the years from 1966 to 1983, before being readmitted to the WNCC, he served unofficially at Trinity United Methodist Church (Greensboro).

Jimmy was ordained as an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1985 and admitted to full connection. He lived out the gospel while serving in numerous Methodist churches. Appointments include: Farmington Charge, 1983-1986; conference-approved evangelist, 1986-1987; Centenary (Greensboro), associate, 1987-1989; and Union Ridge (Winston-Salem), 1989-1998. He retired in 1998 but returned to an appointment a year later at Bethany (Rockingham County), 1999-2014. He retired again until 2016 when he accepted an appointment at Vickrey (Jamestown) and served until 2020. Lastly, he served as parish associate with Southwest Greensboro Cooperative Parish in one of the first father/daughter teams of the WNCC (Groometown, St. Andrews, and Vickrey), 2020-2022.

It thrilled him to see people in his churches learn to love to pray and experience God's faithfulness and share this truth with one another. Discipling others to be mature followers of Jesus was his passion and gave him great joy seeing others grow in their faith in Christ. Pastor Jim constantly attended the ballgames and events of grandchildren and hundreds of church children, demonstrating how much he cared about what was important to them. They greatly loved him back and felt his deep love for them and his Lord. He loved preaching, playing golf, and giving generously.

Membership in the Summit Rotary gave Jimmy another way to serve his community. Joining in 1967, he was a proud member, known for giving inspirational invocations.

Jimmy was a beloved and faithful husband, father, and grandfather, affectionately called "Shah," brother, and son. He desired to be a friend to all. He was known as the rock and anchor of his family with a kind, gentle soul, always smooth and steady. His peaceful, youthful demeanor radiated the light and love of God. He loved serving others, especially his family. His greatest desire was to love others to Jesus through a life well-lived. He loved generously and could make everyone feel at ease.

A service to honor and celebrate his life was held on March 12, 2022, at Centenary UMC (Greensboro) with the Rev. Caroline Raines Franks officiating. Burial followed on March 14, 2022, at Westover Memorial Park in Augusta, Ga.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Edgar and Mary Raines; brother Bill Raines; granddaughter Juliana Melton Lagesse; and son-in-law Duane Franks. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Ina Belle Raines; son Jim Raines Jr.; daughter Julie Melton (Billy); daughter Belle Strader (Tom); daughter Caroline Franks; grandchildren Hayley Raines, Jessica Melton Shelton (Holden), Austin Raines, Manning Franks, Farrelle Franks, Raines Strader, and Grace Strader; grandson-in-law Brian Lagesse (Kate); Beth Raines, mother of Hayley and Austin, as well as numerous other family members and friends whom he loved.

Nicholas Lynch Rochester Jr.

October 12, 1949 – February 13, 2022

Nicholas "Nick" Lynch Rochester Jr. was born October 12, 1949, in Charlotte, N.C., to the late Nicholas L. Rochester Sr. and Nancy Rowell Rochester McClain. He died on February 13, 2022. Nick and his wife, Doris Ann Crump, were living in Indian Trail, N.C., at the time.

Nick married the love of his life, Doris Ann, on November 27, 1971. They have three lovely daughters, Nikki Dawn Rochester, Carol Anne, and Christie Diane.

Nick and Doris were attending Union Grove United Methodist Church in Union County when he first surrendered to God's call upon his life to active ministry in 1972. He was licensed to preach on September 8, 1973, at the Albemarle District office of The United Methodist Church.

Nick attended the Course of Study at Duke Divinity School in Durham, N.C. He finished the beginning Course of Study of five years and the Advanced Study of four years. He attended Anson Technical School and earned his Associate in Arts degree in 1979. He later earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Pfeiffer University, which he received in 1983.

Nick was ordained as a deacon in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977. In 1998, he was ordained an elder and accepted into full connection.

Nick began his service record with an appointment to Wade (Albemarle District), 1976-1979. Other appointments include: Ansonville (Albemarle District), 1979-1982; Parkway-Pine Grove (Albemarle District), 1982-1986; Clover Hill-Oak Grove (Gastonia District), 1986-1987; Bond's Grove-Marvin (Albemarle District), 1987-1992; Steelbury-Aldersgate (Charlotte District), 1992-1998; Center (Statesville District), 1998-2001; Harmony-Clarksbury (Statesville District), 2001-2003; Bethel-Palestine (Albemarle District), 2003-2009; Mt. Carmel (Albemarle District), 2009-2014; Bess Chapel-Bethlehem (Catawba Valley District), 2014-2015. He retired in 2015. Nick spent his retirement years battling dementia and Alzheimer's disease. He was closely attended by his wife, Doris, and his three daughters.

Nick served our Lord for 39 years. He served with faithfulness and integrity. I have known Nick for nearly 50 years and never known a better pastor than he. Nick was faithful to God, his wife and family, the churches he was privileged to serve, and to The Western United Methodist Church, who educated and sent him forth to serve.

Nick leaves behind his wife, Doris; his daughters, Nikki, Carol (B.J.), and Christie (Tim); his grandchildren, Haley Newell Edwards (Jacobe), Jordan Newell, Cameron Newell, Rebecca (Becky) May, Joseph (Joey) May, and Alex May; his great-grandchildren, Nolan Edwards and Adalynn Edwards; and his sisters, Barbara Rochester Howell, Marie Rochester Dean, and Janet Rochester Helms. He was preceded in death by his sister, Katherine Rochester King (Jerry); his parents, Nicholas and Nancy Rochester; and sister-in-law Louise C. Griffin.

A memorial service was held on February 27, 2022, at Love Baptist Church in Monroe, N.C. A visitation also was held for friends and family. It was well-attended. Pastor Don Thompson officiated the service and said of Nick, "He was a prince of a man." Those who were privileged to know Nick will agree wholeheartedly. Nick has gone on to his well-deserved reward. Rest now "thou good and faithful servant." You will be remembered in our hearts and prayers. Remember John 14 and "let not your heart be troubled."

Gloria Dawn Simmons

December 11, 1934 – October 6, 2021

The Rev. Gloria Dawn Simmons was born in Casper, Wyo., on December 11, 1934, to Henry and Ethel Simmons. Henry owned Simmon's Super Service Texaco Gas Station where Gloria and her two sisters, Rubie and Marilyn, enjoyed learning at a young age how to work with the public. Rev. Simmons graduated from Natrona County High School in 1953, attended Westminster College, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1957, and graduated from Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colo., in 1959 earning her Master of Religious Education degree.

Rev. Simmons was a faithful member of The United Methodist Church, beginning ministry in 1959 in the Rocky Mountain Conference. Rev. Simmons was consecrated as a lay worker in 1970 and as a diaconal minister in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977. Twenty years later, in 1997, Rev. Simmons became a member of the first class of deacons ordained in full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference.

Rev. Simmons was the personification of an independent woman. She left her home and family in the West to pursue jobs in the East at a time when this was uncommon for single women. She never hesitated to move to another city to pursue a new job opportunity, a new calling from God. Never wanting to inconvenience anyone else, Rev. Simmons was more than willing to inconvenience herself to serve others who needed help. Rev. Simmons was humble, quietly serving others without requiring recognition. Her deep Christian faith guided her acts of kindness. Although Rev. Simmons may have regarded her relationship with God as private, her influence was far-reaching.

Rev. Simmons' appointments included: coordinator of Interpretation and Field Service for Curriculum Resources (General Board of Discipleship, Nashville, Tenn.), 1977-1986; West Market Street, minister to children and family life ministries (Greensboro), 1986-1989; Central, minister of program and education (Concord), 1989-1992; Trinity Presbyterian Church, minister of education (Charlotte), 1993-1996; associate professor (Pfeiffer University, Misenheimer), 1996-1999; and St. John's Baptist Church, minister with children and families, 1999-2001. She retired in 2001.

During her ministry, Rev. Simmons had a passion for serving others through education. She was a mentor and teacher for many Christian educators throughout the conference and was a faithful member of Christian Educators Fellowship. Rev. Simmons led conference-wide workshops for educators and those who worked in early childhood education. She helped with curriculum, giving freely of her time and expertise. A major achievement for Rev. Simmons was helping to establish the Master of Christian Education Program at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer. Although Rev. Simmons officially retired in 2001, she remained active in the church, particularly at First United Methodist Church (Charlotte), where she worked on various social and justice issues in and around Charlotte. She was an active participant in the MagdaRuths women's group, concentrating on advocacy, service, and education. She chaired the First UMC (Charlotte) Child Development Center Board and helped direct those activities for many years.

Rev. Simmons was a remarkably unique individual guided by Micah 6:8, "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" Her quiet acts of justice to balance the inequities in this world, her many acts of mercy, and her skill of listening fully and intently to others were characteristic of her deep integrity. Rev. Simmons dedicated her life to education, equal rights, justice for all, and a commitment to making a better community wherever she lived. She was a strong champion of social justice and advocated for the poor and needy, migrants and refugees, financially stressed families, homeless, and those who were on the margins of society. Rev. Simmons emanated strength in many ways, understanding how to work with the public and offering a calming presence in the midst of conflict. She was a well-respected leader, actively supporting and volunteering in the local and state Democratic Party. She was active in the Cabarrus County Senior Center, where she chaired the Cabarrus County Council on Aging. In addition to her career in The United Methodist Church, Rev. Simmons was a generous aunt, offering support to her niece and nephews.

Rev. Gloria Dawn Simmons passed away on October 6, 2021, at age 86, claiming the promise of Resurrection. Rev. Simmons is survived by her niece, Susan L. Reuler (Albuquerque, N.M.), nephew Hank Wilson (Orangevale, Calif.), nephew Lindsay Wilson (Denver, Colo.), as well as great nieces and nephews, and great-great nieces and nephews.

A Service of Death and Resurrection celebrating the life of the Rev. Gloria Dawn Simmons was held at First UMC in Charlotte on January 15, 2022, with the Rev. Dr. Val Rosenquist, the Rev. Patrick Hamrick, and the Rev. Charlotte G. Brendel presiding.

Well done, good and faithful servant. Well done.

David Lee Steele

August 29, 1947 – July 3, 2021

The Rev. Dr. David Lee Steele was born August 29, 1947, to Clyde K. Steele and Margaret McCreary Steele in Concord, N.C. He is survived by his wife, McKinnie D. Steele, sons Terry and Brian, stepsons Damien and Nick, and seven grandchildren.

David was licensed to preach in 1969, ordained as a deacon and admitted as a probationary member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1971, and ordained as an elder and received in full connection in 1973.

As a National Merit Scholar, David received his AB degree from Duke University in 1969. He then received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1972.

His history of service includes: student, 1971-1972; Sharon (Charlotte), associate, 1972-1974; Johnstontown (Thomasville), 1974-1976; Morehead, 1976-1978; student, 1978-1987; Morehead, associate, 1987-1992; and leave of absence; 1992-1995. He retired in 1995.

In 1978, David returned to student life at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he received his master's degree in school psychology and clinical psychology. Later in 1987, he received his doctoral degree in clinical psychology from UNCG. During his years as a student, he worked in mental health centers providing services for children, youth, and parents in Randolph and Rockingham counties. In 1985, David served as director of mental health continuing education in the Greensboro Area Health Education Center. David shared his training and knowledge with others through the presentation of professional papers and the publication of articles, as well as direct patient care.

His devotion to making the world a better place and serving people in need then led him to work as a psychologist with the U.S. government, first on reservations with the Indian Health Service and then with the Department of Defense with military service members and their families. Coming from a military family himself, he was happiest when he could provide comfort and support to those who had served their country. He retired from the Department of Defense in 2013, but his desire to be of service led him to continue part-time work in psychology on military bases until his death in 2021.

David loved nature. He gardened and built birdhouses and traveled with his wife to beautiful scenic areas. He loved riding his bicycle along trails from the mountains to the sea. His wife says he frequently said, "No matter how many times I see this, it never gets old." Even in a simple walk in his own neighborhood, he found extraordinary beauty in ordinary places.

David had a big heart and was passionate about what he loved. He loved music and nature; he loved people; he loved his work and being of service. He was known as a kind man who was an instant friend to all who met him.

The Rev. Dr. David Lee Steele died on July 3, 2021, returning to the presence of God, creator of a beautiful world, and beautiful people. Certainly, this man left the world a better place for all.

Willard Preston Thomas III

April 18, 1957 – July 25, 2021

The Rev. Willard Preston Thomas III, son of Willard and Thurlene Jones Thomas, and husband to Grace Thomas for 38 years, died at age 64 on July 25, 2021. He was a father to three children, Pam Todd, Kendall Frye, and Melissa Thomas. He was grandfather to four grandchildren, Judas Todd, Nora Frye, Levi Frye, and Benjamin Frye. Preston was a brother to Robert Thomas.

He served as a United Methodist pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference for more than 22 years and served as an adjunct associate and volunteer at Camp Funshine, a camp for special needs children, for more than 20 years. His appointments included: Old Fort-Bethel, 1991-1994; Minneapolis, 2000-2004; Minneapolis-Elk Park 2004-2019; and (Marion), 2019-2020. He retired in 2020 on disability. Throughout his ministry, he fought a valiant struggle against diabetes. He did so without complaint. Preston was a gentle, congenial soul.

His celebration of life service was held at Minneapolis United Methodist Church, and his interment was in the community cemetery in Minneapolis. The Rev. Jamie Shell, of Minneapolis Christian Church, and the Rev. Brian Griffith, former pastor of Minneapolis Missionary Baptist Church, presided. They were joined by the Rev. David Hobson in the celebration service.

It was clear that Preston and his appointment at Minneapolis-Elk Park was an excellent match, as both he and the various congregations in Minneapolis cared genuinely for each other. His ecumenical outreach there brought his two churches and the three denominations in Minneapolis together for cantatas, fellowship meals, special worship events, and community activities. His preaching style was didactic and clearly represented his understanding of the Rev. John Wesley's Ordo Salutis or "way of salvation." Centered on the kerygma of the early Church, his emphasis was the divine nature of Jesus as the Christ. His life and his sermons coincided with our traditional Methodist understandings of the "Means of Grace." Obviously, he was no stranger to Paul's doctrine of Divine Grace. In addition, his preaching was a careful balance of instruction and invitation.

He truly believed that the totality of our family lives, our relationships with others, and our relationship to God required the best of our devotion, gratitude, and love. All who were his colleagues, and the people whom he served, respected and trusted the genuine nature of his faith. And finally, he was honored and loved by Grace, his wife, and his larger family for being a faithful presence. Our conference membership is better for his being a part of our shared ministry.

Mark Madison Norman Vickers

August 21, 1961 – March 24, 2022

Mark Madison Norman Vickers was a shepherd and pastor at heart. He loved people and gave his life to caring for people at some of their most vulnerable and fragile moments.

Vickers was born on August 21, 1961, in Madison, Ind., to Hugh and Joan Vickers. Vickers was a 1983 graduate of Earlham College in Richmond, Ind. He earned the Master of Divinity degree from the Divinity School at Duke University in 1986. In addition, Vickers completed training as a funeral director at Fayetteville Community College.

Vickers was ordained as a deacon and became a probationary member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1985 and was ordained as an elder and became a full-connection member in 1989. Vickers served a variety of appointments and settings over more than 35 years of ministry. He began pastoral ministry at Denton's Chapel-

Bollinger's Chapel, 1985-1988. Other appointments included: Thrift (Charlotte), 1988-1990; Dilworth (Charlotte) associate, 1990-1992; leave of absence and honorable location, 1992-2015; Christ (Greensboro) assistant and St. Timothy's (Jamestown), 2015-2018; Bethpage (Kannapolis), 2018-2020; and New Hope (Winston-Salem), 2020 until the time of his death.

Beyond the local church, Vickers served as chaplain and funeral director for Forbis and Dick Funeral Service in Greensboro, N.C. For 18 years, Mark provided grief counseling and care for hundreds of families. Rabbi Andy Koren, of Temple Emanuel in Greensboro, remarked of Vickers' impact on the Greensboro community, "the Jewish tradition teaches that there are many levels of kindness. The truest form of kindness is bringing someone to their final rest. In caring for grieving families, Mark was always there, fully present. He embodied presence; he was the epitome of the highest form of kindness." Vickers' ministry of presence touched the lives of countless individuals and families and made the communities he served a bit more like the Kingdom.

Vickers loved the outdoors, cycling, hunting, and fishing with family and friends, and anything Duke. He was an avid reader, a 33rd degree Scottish Rite Mason, serving twice as grand chaplain for the Masons. Vickers never met a stranger. His love for God and the Church was matched by his love for people. He had an infectious laugh, a gregarious spirit, and a loving heart that embraced the world around him. His smile and spirit will indeed be missed.

Rev. Vickers married the Rev. Susan Norman Vickers in 1985. She preceded him in death in 2014. Together, they had one son, Thompson Gray, who was the great joy of their lives. Vickers later remarried and is survived by his wife, Mari Ed Vickers. Vickers died on March 24, 2022, in Winston-Salem after a brief illness. In addition to his wife, Vickers is survived by his mother, Joan Vickers; his son, Thompson; "bonus" daughter, Kaitlyn Zimmerman; and a number of nephews and nieces.

"Blessed are the dead who...die in the Lord. Yes,' says the Spirit, 'they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.'" Rest well, friend.

Harold Coulter Warlick

March 16, 1946 – October 20, 2021

The Rev. Dr. Harold Coulter (Hal) Warlick was born to Harold C. and Mary Estelle (Mamie) Warlick in Wilmington, N.C., on March 16, 1946. The family eventually moved to North Augusta, S.C. Hal attended North Augusta Senior High School, graduated in 1964, and was awarded a "grant-in-aid" to play football at Furman University.

Furman, where he was known as "Fox," opened a new world for Hal. He stated that he was "transformed from an individual concerned primarily with athletics to an individual seeking to find and proclaim truth with integrity." And that, the world agrees, he certainly did. By any measure, Hal became one of this country's most noted preachers, teachers, theologians, and humanitarians.

With his esteemed college roommates as his role models, Hal set for himself "effective standards of responsible intellectualism and expanded and broadened his vocabulary and sense of worldwide responsibility." He graduated from Furman University in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in history and a minor in religion and then was ordained as a minister in the First Baptist Church of North Augusta.

Hal then continued his education at Harvard University Divinity School in Cambridge, Mass., earning Sacrae Theologiae Baccalaureus degree in 1971. He credits his mentors there, particularly the late Rev. Peter J. Gomes, former minister of Memorial Church at Harvard and the Plummer Professor of Christian Morals, in greatly adding to his approach to academic and religious life.

While Hal was at Harvard, he married the love of his life, Diane Norman Warlick in August 1970. Hal and Diane together moved on to Vanderbilt University Divinity School where Hal completed his doctor of divinity degree in 1974. From 1972 to 1982, he served as senior minister of Trinity Baptist Church in Seneca, S.C.; senior minister of Seventh and James Church at Baylor University in Texas; and then as director of ministerial studies and lecturer in applied theology and senior counselor at Harvard University Divinity School. Desiring to return to the South to raise their children (Scott Norman Warlick, January 22, 1975; Coulter Alan Warlick, September 9, 1982) and be closer to their families, Hal and Diane accepted their appointment in High Point, N.C., at Emerywood Baptist Church. Hal served as senior minister there from 1982 to 1989. It was in High Point that Hal and Diane made their permanent home.

Hal was asked to go to High Point College in 1989 to serve as minister to the college. (The college attained university status in 1991.) He was then recognized as a deacon in The United Methodist Church in 1991 and became an elder in 1994. He later was named dean of the chapel and became chair of the department of religion and philosophy. Hal remained dean of the chapel until his retirement from High Point University and from United Methodist ministry in 2012, then becoming emeritus dean of the chapel until his passing. Upon his retirement, the pulpit in the chapel sanctuary was named in his honor, and friends and colleagues established the Warlick Gap Scholarship Fund, which provides students with financial awards for their college educations. The fund became fully operational in July 2012 and has extended scholarships to a number of students since its inception.

Hal received a great number of awards, accolades, and recognitions in his lifetime of achievement, and his most valued are associated with his alma mater, Furman University. First, Hal was awarded the Richard Furman Baptist Heritage award. Several years later, he delivered the commencement address, and that same year was awarded an honorary doctor of humanities degree by Furman University.

A noted pastor, preacher, and lecturer, his was a welcoming presence at churches, chapels, and universities across the country, regardless of denomination. And in his 17 books and numerous articles and essays, clear-eyed and shorn of excessive prose, he often returned to the enduring motif of bridges to communicate the commonality of hope among people of diverse faiths and cultural backgrounds.

Before his death, Hal turned his attention to yet another bridge: his alma mater's nationally recognized college access and pre-college enrichment program for high school students, known as Bridges to a Brighter Future. His efforts in 2010 to unite interested supporters proved instrumental in the development of Crossing the Bridge, a program that extends the success of the Bridges program by helping to strengthen student retention and graduation for Bridges students who have matriculated to college.

Beginning in 2004 and continuing through the summer season of 2017, Hal served as the beloved resident minister of Blowing Rock Methodist Church, in Blowing Rock, N.C. This multi-denominational congregation, administered by the Blowing Rock Civic and Religious Association, is composed of more than 350 affiliate members from 14 states. The seasonal church operates only June through September each year to provide a ministry to visitors to that mountain area.

Hal was preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Mamie. He is survived by his beloved wife of 51 years, Diane; his sons Scott (Beth) and Coulter (Ginny); four beautiful grandchildren, Kayleigh, Garrett, Elsie, and Hayes; and his dear sister, Mary Jo Gould. He also left behind countless cherished friends, family, students, colleagues, church members, and lives he has impacted along the way. Hal made such a difference in the lives of people who never would have known him through his undying philanthropy, generosity, and his immeasurable compassion for others.

Sherman Barton "Doc" Warner November 17, 1936 – August 1, 2021

Sherman Barton "Doc" Warner, a lifelong Cubs fan, was born in Chicago, Ill., on November 17, 1936, to the late Fae Elizabeth Leisner and William Barton Warner. Doc graduated from Augusta High School in Augusta, Wis., in 1954 and the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in January 1959 with a degree in education. He majored in music, particularly with vocal and choral music as his major field with voice as his primary instrument and pipe organ as his secondary instrument. He also minored in sociology.

In spring 1955, while a student at the University of Wisconsin, Doc responded to a request from the district superintendent for people who could fill in for pastors in their absence, especially on a last-minute notice. He was called on the Saturday before Mother's Day to preach for a pastor whose mother had suddenly passed away. Doc continued to fill in as needed.

Doc had never intended to serve as a parish pastor, but rather as a church musician. However, after filling in a few times at a small church within a short distance of the university, he was appointed as the church's pastor in October 1955. The West Wisconsin Conference awarded Doc with a full scholarship to attend the Course of Study at Garrett Theological Seminary, and he went on to serve two more appointments in that conference. He was ordained a local deacon in the West Wisconsin Conference in 1960 and served as a part-time pastor while teaching in a local school until 1962.

In 1962, Doc accepted a full-time teaching position and was hired as the choir director in a Methodist church. Later, he accepted a position in a different school system, teaching high school chorus, marriage and family living, speech, sex education, and one semester of night-school typing. During that time, he spent three years leading an ecumenical summer outdoor ministry in a Wisconsin state park under the direction of the Wisconsin Council of Churches. That led to him serving as interim for two Presbyterian churches. He also provided pulpit supply in Methodist churches.

In 1981, Doc graduated from Columbia Pacific University with a Master of Arts double major in speech communications and counseling. In 1982, he completed a Ph.D. at Columbia Pacific University in counseling and human services with an emphasis in mental health.

Doc married Beverly Hintz Warner on June 15, 1985, and with her encouragement, as well as much encouragement from some pastor friends, he returned to the parish ministry in 1986, serving a part-time parish and teaching in a nearby college. It was in that parish that he was given the nickname, "Doc," which stuck for the rest of his life.

Doc and Beverly came to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1989, and he became an associate member of the conference in 1991. He served the following appointments in western North Carolina: Davie Charge, 1989-1992; Norwood Circuit, 1992-1995; Coburn Memorial (Salisbury), 1995-1996; Mocksville Circuit, 1996-2000; Bethel (Mocksville), 2000-2002; retired, 2002; South China Grove, 2008-2018; and Clear Springs, 2020-2021. Doc will be remembered by all of the congregations he served for his love of and enthusiasm for music, his magnificent talent for playing the organ and piano, and his beautiful and boisterous singing.

While serving retirement appointments, Doc taught public speaking, English, and research and reporting at Rowan-Cabarrus Community College. He also did substitute teaching at North Hills Christian School in Salisbury, N.C.

Doc was an avid supporter of Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, N.C., and had one book published by the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, A Scriptural Index for The African Methodist Episcopal Zion Bicentennial Hymnal. He also self-published Scriptural Index of Common or Familiar Hymns that can be used by anyone using any hymnal. Doc also composed the musical score for an SATB choral and solo arrangement of I Have A Friend by Matthew Weaver.

Left to cherish his memory are his wife, Beverly Hintz Warner, son Steven Warner (Rexi) of Bloomington, Minn.; daughters Sandy Bevels of Salisbury, N.C., and Loni Wolfmeyer (John) of Mooresville, N.C.; brother Joe Warner (Joella) of Rockford, Ill.; three grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, as well as the multitudes of lives he touched while in the ministry and other pastors whom he mentored and encouraged.

Thomas Wallace Weeks

November 3, 1931 – July 6, 2021

Thomas “Tom” Wallace Weeks was born November 3, 1931, in Weldon, N.C., to the late William Howell Weeks and Emily “Lucille” Wallace Weeks. Although he was born legally blind, he lived an adventurous childhood as the second child of six children. He played football and graduated from Enfield High School in 1950. Tom was accepted to Duke University where he graduated with a bachelor’s degree in history in 1954 and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1957. While he was studying at Duke, Tom met his wife, Carol Elizabeth Wayt, who became his closest partner in ministry. They married September 5, 1957, and moved to his first appointment, the McAdenville Charge in the then-Gastonia District in 1958. There, he supervised the demolition of the old church building and construction of a new church facility. Tom became a deacon in 1959 and an elder in 1961. He served faithfully for 39 years, all within the Western North Carolina Conference.

Tom and Carol became a blessed family of seven as they welcomed five daughters into their lives: Linda Carol Weeks Sutton born in 1958, Julie Anne Weeks Blakeley born in 1960, Laura Katherine Weeks Jones born in 1962, Karen Lucille Weeks Sams born in 1963, and Mary Susan Weeks born in 1971. Tom’s family participated in his ministry from charge to charge providing music and participating in youth activities and all sorts of mission outreaches. Tom’s heart was centered on people, especially reaching the poor and the sick. He spent many hours, on all his charges, visiting and encouraging the membership who welcomed him to their homes. He willingly participated in the community as opportunities arose including devotions on the radio and Sunday services in the chapel at the Ghost Town amusement park, where the hymns were accompanied by music from an old pump organ, and the service ended with everyone headed out to a staged old Western gun fight in the street!

Rev. Weeks served nine charges and a total of 22 churches during his active ministry. He had a gift of being a peacemaker and was able to lead the membership in building projects for several churches in need of expansions, ranging from the addition of bathrooms to larger projects of fellowship multi-purpose spaces and Sunday school rooms. Wherever Tom was, his kindness, laughter, and love of a good story were shared with all who gathered. He could often be found with children crowding around him to listen as he told wonderful interactive tales. Tom overcame his sight handicap with an incredible memory. He could remember names and relationships of church members and recognized them by the sound of their voice. He memorized all the special service formats for weddings, communion, baptism, as well as many scriptures, and he always delivered his sermons by memory. He considered it an honor to participate in one of the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences by presenting the scripture from memory during a session with a special emphasis on handicap awareness. Just as he grew in his relationship with God throughout each appointment, every church benefited in various ways under his leadership. These appointments included: McAdenville, 1958-1964; Bald Creek, 1964-1968; Bethel (Waynesville), 1968-1973; Shady Grove-Delwood, 1973-1977; Sandy, 1977-1981; Bethel (Asheville), 1981-1985; Main Street-Long Street (Salisbury), 1985-1990; Pisgah-Trinity, 1990-1994; and Wesley, 1995-1997.

Rev. Weeks retired to Lincolnton, N.C., in 1997 and became a minister in residence at Asbury United Methodist Church where he and Carol were active for many years. He enjoyed continuing to preach and teach as needed and was able to spend fulfilling hours in outreach locally and internationally. He loved the simple chicken pot pie fundraisers and the downtown Christian Ministries for the poor and homeless. He also participated in missions beyond the local church with projects for UMCOR and Operation Christmas Child with Samaritan’s Purse, and he supported Doctors Without Borders. He rarely missed a worship service and boisterously sang in praise the hymns of the faith even well into his fight with Alzheimer’s disease.

He peacefully left this earth and entered heaven July 6, 2021, just a few months shy of his 90th birthday. He left to carry on his legacy his wife, daughters, 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. A graveside service in celebration of his life was held July 10, 2021, at Asbury UMC cemetery with the Rev. Harley Scalf and Hospice Pastor Cindy Jordan officiating. One can only imagine the great rejoicing and celebration in heaven when Thomas Wallace Weeks, along with all the saints who went before him., joined in worship and praise to the Holy Lamb of God.

Dana Bruce Wooten

June 2, 1945 – April 4, 2022

The Rev. Dana Wooten, 76, died peacefully on April 4, 2022, from cancer after suffering for years with rheumatoid arthritis. Dana was born on June 2, 1945, in Edgecombe County, N.C., to John and Inez Wooten. After working for Klopman and Cone Mills, he answered the call to the ministry, serving for 30 years in the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. He served as an associate minister at Mt. Pisgah (Greensboro), 1983-1986, and later pastored Boonville-Mitchell's Chapel Charge (Boonville), 1986-1994; Bethel (Winston-Salem); 1994-2003; and Canaan (Wallburg), 2003-2007. He retired in 2012.

Dana was known as the "lollipop minister" for giving out lollipops after his services. He was one of the first recipients – and later was on the board – of the Ernestine L. Penry Scholarship Foundation, a scholarship foundation for those pursuing a ministerial degree. He served on the board of Elk Shoals United Methodist Church camp and mentored youth during the summer camps. After volunteering to help with several civic and religious organizations, Dana was awarded the Governor's Outstanding Volunteer Service Award by Gov. Jim Martin.

Dana was survived by his college sweetheart and loving wife of 52 years, Vickie VonCannon Wooten, as well as three daughters, sons-in-law, and five grandchildren. He especially enjoyed family time together at the family cabin at High Rock Lake and enjoyed wood-working when he had time. Although Dana received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke University, he was an avid fan of University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill sports and helped officiate games from his recliner!

After his death, many friends and former parishioners used these particular words in remembering him – kind and a valued friend. He loved people and found value and worth and cherished the uniqueness in everyone whom he met. He had a great sense of humor, gentle nature, and perceptive mind that endeared him to everyone. No job was too menial and no task too demanding for Dana to undertake. At one time or another, he took leadership in most activities of the church – except leading the singing! He left that up to his wife. Dana would quote the Bible in describing his singing – as making a "joyful noise" unto the Lord! He is singing beautifully now with the angels. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. He will be remembered as a devoted and loving husband, a supportive and adoring father, a great "Papa" and a caring pastor.

Edwin Worley

May 19, 1942 – August 23, 2021

The Rev. Edwin Worley was born on May 19, 1942, in Madison County, N.C., to the late Marvin Dallas and Bonnie Worley.

Edwin grew up in Fairview, N.C. He married his wife, Jewell King Worley, on May 7, 1972. Edwin died of cancer on August 23, 2021, where he and his wife resided in Leicester, N.C.

He joined Fairview Sharon United Methodist Church in Fairview as a member in 1971. Edwin was licensed to preach in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1976. He preached as a lay speaker for many years, wherever he was called to preach.

He began his clergy appointments at Laurel Hill-Brown's View, 1979-1992. He worked full-time as a carpenter throughout his service to the churches and participating in Course of Study. Edwin finished his studies at Emory University in Atlanta, Ga.

After Laurel Hill-Brown's View, appointments included Big Sandy-Western Chapel, 1992-2000; Sandy Mush Charge, 2000-2005; and Big Sandy-Western Chapel, 2005-2011. Though he retired January 1, 2010, he kept serving until he couldn't serve anymore.

Edwin and Jewell had two sons, Marvin Ellison Worley (March 28, 1975 - September 5, 2021), along with Marvin's wife, Kelly, and their Jonathon Worley, and Timothy Clay Worley (August 18, 1982 - December 27, 1999).

A service to celebrate the power of Christ and honor Edwin's life and service was held August 29, 2021, at Groce Funeral Home. He was buried at Western Chapel United Methodist Church in Leicester. Edwin will be missed and always loved.

Paul Wesley Yount Jr.

June 19, 1925 – August 23, 2021

Paul Wesley Yount Jr., a leader in United Methodist and ecumenical global missions, died August 23, 2021, at age 96. Paul was born in Hickory, N.C., to Bertha Cline Yount, a homemaker, and Paul W. Yount Sr., a postal worker; the family was soon joined by younger sister, Sue Yount (later Durham). Inspired by his mentor, the Rev. Frank Jordan, Paul made a vocational decision to prepare for Christian ministry, undertaking study at Duke University and graduating Phi Beta Kappa in 1946 with majors in English, theology, and ethics.

Paul graduated from Yale Divinity School with a bachelor's degree in theology in 1954. He was admitted on trial to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1946 and was received with full membership in 1952. He began a three-year missionary assignment with the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries, teaching English in a mission of reconciliation in war-torn Japan, 1948-1951.

After early pastorships in Connecticut and North Carolina (student pastor; founding pastor of Providence [Charlotte], 1953-1954; and Harrison [Charlotte], 1954-1955), ecumenical global missions – local and world-wide – were at the heart of Paul's life and ministry. His involvement with missions for more than 48 years included: United Methodist Board of Missions, New York, N.Y., as youth secretary, and as assistant-, associate-, and senior secretary of missionary personnel through the years of 1955-1962 and again, 1966-1970. He was director of the Missionary Orientation Center, Stony Point, N.Y., 1962-1966, and again, 1970-1974; director, ecumenical affairs, St. Matthews Area Ministries, Louisville, Ky., 1974-1978; and director, Office of Overseas Personnel, Church World Service, National Council of Churches of Christ in America, New York, N.Y., 1978-1994; retiring in 1994.

A critical time of Paul's ministry in world mission was his 12 years as director of the Missionary Orientation Center, a major ecumenical initiative of the Methodist, Presbyterian, United Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ, and Reformed Church in America. Under Paul's leadership, MOC provided orientation and training for more than 1,000 missionaries and their families before being sent overseas to many nations in every continent to engage in social gospel, medical, teaching, and church-development ministries.

Paul's directorship of MOC was most significant in initiating and leading its trailblazing development in overseas missionary training for Protestant mainline churches, involving multidimensional experiences for participants during a full semester of intensive study and activities. It included experiences in developing Christian community, theological studies, human-relations training, personal-growth opportunities, as well as resources for understanding global situations that led to numerous life-changing experiences for participants. Full-time daycare for children enabled both spouses of a family to be full participants. MOC was recognized as an outstanding institution for holistic orientation and preparation for missionaries. Paul's depth of mission knowledge and experience in Japan and India, as well as his love of international travel, strong intellectual gifts, engagement in current theological issues, and wide-ranging knowledge of the arts, were key to the success of MOC. Unsurprisingly, he felt that those MOC years were the most fulfilling and consequential of his ministry.

Paul married Jean Penny on October 28, 1955, and they soon parented four daughters, Michele, Noel, Sylvia, and Caroline. The family was later joined by sons-in-law Scott Thomas, Tom Genetta, and Geoff Mulvihill, as well as grandchildren Colette Thomas Flowers, Tristan Genetta, and Sophie and Katie Mulvihill.

In retirement in Hendersonville, N.C., Paul was active in Civitan International, leading the local chapter of the global service organization, as well as serving as president of the Friends of the Hendersonville Library.

A special thank you to the Rev. Craig Allen for his ministry in editing the memoirs.

F. CHRONOLOGICAL ROLL OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS

Note: The complete rolls of deceased clergy of the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, prior to Unification in 1939, are to be found in the 1939 journal of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, pages 114, 153, and 252.

The complete rolls of deceased clergy of the North Carolina Virginia Conference of The Methodist Church for the period 1964-1967 are to be found in the 1967 journal of that conference, page 55.

The complete rolls of deceased clergy of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church for the period between Unification in 1939 and the formation of The United Methodist Church in 1968, including the deceased clergy of the North Carolina Virginia Conference for the 1967-1968 conference year, are to be found in the 1968 journal of the Western North Carolina Conference, pages 363-366.

The journals referred to herein may be found in the Western NC Conference Archives, located at the G.A. Pfeiffer Library, Pfeiffer University, Misenheimer, NC 28109.

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them. Revelation 14:13
