The COVID-19 pandemic of 2020 led to many changes across the Western North Carolina Conference. Churches and ministries found creative ways to serve their communities as government mandates were put in place, restricting gatherings, mask-wearing, and guidelines for 6-foot social distancing. Jesus' ministry did not cease in times of trouble or in cases of illness, and neither did the ministries of WNCC!

C. DAILY MINUTES*THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 2020*EXECUTIVE SESSION OF CLERGY MEMBERS – 7:00 P.M.

CLERGY SESSION CONVENES: In compliance with ¶¶ 605.7 of The Book of Discipline (2016), Bishop Paul L. Leeland convened an executive session of the clergy members of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 18, 2020, via ZOOM

Webinar. Bishop Leeland welcomed those attending in this unique way during a pandemic and opened with prayer. He noted that 2020 marked the 52nd year of The United Methodist Church and the 236th year of the Methodist Church in The United States. Bishop Leeland introduced Christopher Hampton, director of web and database administration. Mr. Hampton introduced the technology and the tools of the zoom webinar. He explained, that in order to speak or ask a question, participants would need to use the Q&A feature. The Chat feature is disabled for the webinar. Questions would be answered either privately or at a designated time. The Polling feature would be used to vote. Ten seconds will be given for each poll. The polls will be documented and recorded. Bishop Leeland thanked each clergy person for their ministry and pastoral presence. The Bishop explained that ¶¶ 369.5, 603.3 and 605.7 of The Book of Discipline (2016) gave permission for the means of this meeting and the purpose and business of the executive session of the clergy and the sole eligibility of clergy members in full connection to vote.

PERMISSION TO BE PRESENT: At the request of Bishop Leeland, the clergy members in full connection, using Poll 1, approved by the required majority vote (Yes 622, No 9) that lay members of the Board of Ordained ministry are granted voice and vote; and, that local pastors may speak during the executive session.

BUSINESS QUESTION 17: Bishop Leeland affirmed the character of the eight district superintendents and reported that each of the district superintendents had affirmed that the character of the clergy serving in their districts was blameless. Business question 17 was approved by the required majority vote using Poll 2 (Yes 556, No 12).

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT: After expressing appreciation to members of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the district committees on ordained ministry, and the work of Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, director of ministerial services and conference secretary, Bishop Leeland introduced Rev. Donald Jenkins, St. Paul (Winston-Salem, YV) chairperson. Rev. Jenkins presented the report. He thanked the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry for their work. He voiced appreciation for Adri Bullard-Rodgers, ministry assistant in the office of ministerial services; and, Rev. F. Annalee Allen, the associate director of ministerial services. He gave special thanks to Rev. Kim Ingram, director of ministerial services. Rev. Jenkins noted that the goal and “hearts’ desire” of the Board of Ordained Ministry is “to get it right, not to sit in judgement but to seek to discern what God is doing in a candidate’s life.” Rev. Jenkins reported that the current board will offer two gifts to the next quadrennial Board of Ordained Ministry and the annual conference. The first gift is a document entitled, Whom Shall I Send: A Portrait of Fruitful Clergy Leadership, <https://www.wnccumc.org/FCL> which outlines 12 qualities that are important for fruitful clergy leadership. This will be a resource for pastors, staff/parish relations committees, district superintendents, and district committees on ordained ministry. A team has been organized to help implement this tool. The second gift will be the 2021-2024 quadrennial focus for ethics training and that focus will be on antiracism. The organization RISE! Race: an In-depth Spiritual Examination will be the facilitators. The training will be a two-day event and will be for clergy and lay persons. Rev. Jenkins concluded his report by thanking the bishops in the Southeastern Jurisdiction and the Western North Carolina Conference extended cabinet for their response to racism, Holy Listening Holy Action: The Work of the Whole Church. Rev. Jenkins thanked Bishop Paul Leeland for his support and guidance and wished his colleagues to be well and safe.

CHAIRS OF THE ORDERS ELECTIONS: The Rev. Donald Jenkins, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry and on behalf of the board, nominated Rev. Angela A. Pleasants as chairperson of the Order of Elder for the 2020-2024 quadrennium. She was elected by the required majority vote from the elders in full connection using Poll 3 (Yes 481, No 37). Rev. Jenkins on behalf of the board nominated Rev. Monica C. Childers as chairperson of the Order of Deacon for the 2020-2024 quadrennium and she was elected by the required majority vote from the deacons in full connection using Poll 4 (Yes 121, No 3). Rev. Jenkins announced that the Rev. Eric W. Lineberry had been elected as the chairperson for The Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members.

BUSINESS QUESTIONS: Rev. Donald Jenkins, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, began the presentation of the required business questions that need a vote. Elders in full connection, deacons in full connection and all members of the Board of Ordained Ministry may vote. Business question 18a (members of the Administrative Review Committee) were approved by the required majority vote using Poll 5 (Yes 561, No 5). Business question 20 (persons who have completed licensing school, are approved, but not appointed) was approved by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote using Poll 6, Q1 (Yes 575, No 0). Business question 21 (persons approved and appointed as full time and part-time local pastors on 7/1/2020) was approved by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote using Poll 6, Q2 (Yes 575, No 0). Business question 23 (persons reinstated as local pastors) was approved by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote using Poll 6, Q3 (Yes 573, No 2). Business question 25 (clergy from other denominations approved to serve in the Western North Carolina Conference) was approved by the required majority vote using Poll 7 (Yes 577, No 13). Rev. Jenkins read the names and a picture was displayed of the three persons to be elected as provisional deacons and the nine persons to be elected as provisional elders; and they were elected by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote in business question 28, using Poll 8, Q1 (Yes 603, No 0). Business question 29 (persons continuing as provisional members) were approved by the required majority vote using Poll 8, Q2 (Yes 603, No 0). In response to business questions 30 and 31a one person, whose ordination from another Christian denomination is being recognized, was elected into provisional membership by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote using Poll 8, Q3 (Yes 595, No 8). Rev. Jenkins read the names and a picture was displayed of the three persons to be elected into full connection and approved to be ordained as a deacon and the eleven persons to be elected into full connection and approved to be ordained as an elder. They were elected and approved by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote using Poll 9 (Yes 605, No 0). These clergy will answer Wesley's Historic Questions at the service of ordination. In response to business question 36, one person was readmitted as a full connection elder from honorable location by the required  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority vote using Poll 10 (Yes 596, No 1). Rev. Jenkins read the names and a picture was displayed of the nine persons received by transfer from other annual conferences of The United Methodist Church and they were received by the required majority vote using Poll 11 (Yes 604, No 3). In response to business question 42 a, b two persons were discontinued as provisional members by the required majority vote using Poll 12 (Yes 612, No 1). In response to business question 44 a two persons were granted honorable location – retired by the required majority vote using Poll 13 (Yes 621, No 0). Rev. Jenkins introduced the Reverend Doctor Elizabeth O. Coppedge-Henley, Harrison (Pineville ME), vice-chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Rev. Coppedge-Henley thanked Rev. Jenkins for his service leading the Board of Ordained Ministry and continued the responses to the required business questions. Rev. Coppedge-Henley presented the response, with one addition, to business question 50a, parts 1 and 3 (requests for voluntary personal leave or family leave for 5 years or fewer) and the requests were approved by the required majority vote using Poll 14 Q1 (Yes 615, No 0). She presented the response to business question 50a, parts 2 and 4 (requests for voluntary personal leave or family leave for more than five years) and the requests were approved by the required  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority vote using Poll 14 Q2 (Yes 612, No 3). In response to business question 52 (request for medical leave), with one addition, approval was given by the required majority vote using Poll 14 Q3 (Yes 615, No 0). In response to business questions 53, 54, 56, and 71 Rev. Coppedge-Henley read the names and a picture was displayed of the four deacons, 31 elders, one associate member, eight local pastors, and one diaconal minister who are retiring this year. The required majority vote for deacons, elders, and required  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority for diaconal minister was given for this change of status, using Poll 15 (Yes 623, No 1); and, their years of faithful service was celebrated. Bishop Leeland noted that there are 500 retired clergy in the Western North Carolina Conference. Rev. Coppedge-Henley presented the response to business question 72a (associate members and elders approved for appointments to less than full-time service). The first vote is for those up to 8 years, and they were approved by the required  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority vote using Poll 16 Q1 (Yes 607, No 0). The second vote is for those who will have been less than full-time for 8 years or more, and they were approved by the required  $\frac{3}{4}$  majority vote using Poll 16 Q2 (Yes 606, No 1). Rev. Coppedge-Henley provided the response to business question 76c (appointment to "other valid ministries"), with the addition of one name, and the required  $\frac{2}{3}$  majority vote was received using Poll 17 (Yes 613, No 2). Rev. Coppedge-Henley moved that all the business questions considered as part of the executive session of the clergy be approved, and they were affirmed by the required majority vote using Poll 18 (Yes 644, No 3).

RECOGNITION OF DECEASED CLERGY AND DIACONAL MINISTERS: The Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Coppedge-Henley read the names and a picture was displayed of the four associate members retired, the 17 elders retired, the four local pastors retired, and the one diaconal minister retired who have died in the last year. Bishop Paul Leeland celebrated the lives of these departed sisters and brothers, gave thanks for their years of service and ministry, petitioned for God's grace for their families, friends, and fellow clergy. Using words from the liturgy of the service of death and resurrection, Bishop Leeland offered a prayer.

ADJOURNMENT: The executive session of the clergy members adjourned at 7:50 p.m.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 2020*OPENING WORSHIP – 1:00 P.M.

Using a recorded video scene, the Reverend Andrea F. Smith, West-St. Paul, Mooresville (ME) welcomed worshippers to the live streamed opening worship service of the 2020 session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. Rev. Joy B. Moss, Skyland (BR) and Josh Headen, Covenant Community Church, Asheville (BR) presented their faith journey testimony and call to ministry in a video produced by Ken Morgan. Rev. Moss shared that after 15 years in a career as an occupational therapist she felt called to a different ministry. After working as a children and youth ministry director and earning her theological degree, she was ordained a deacon. “I have found my true calling, sailing true north connecting the church and the world.” Mr. Headen’s journey finds him living his calling to serve God, students, and youth around the world. He sees his racial difference of being black as that different light that will bring a positive impact of God on the youth with whom he interacts. The Rev. Dr. Jae Lee, Calvary, Charlotte (ME) led the call to worship “Here We Are” written by David Inglis on Re-Worship Blog. Viewers were invited to voice the congregational response posted on the screen. Antonio Delgadillo, vocalist, with Amy Vernam Johnson, accompanist, performed from First United Methodist, Elkin (AP) invited worshippers to sing along to hymn 553, (UMH) And Are We Yet Alive. Bishop Paul L. Leeland read the scripture from John 20:19-22 and presented the devotion. Using Jesus’ appearance to the disciples on that first Easter day and the words of the iconic hymn of Charles Wesley “And Are We Yet Alive,” Bishop Leeland challenged clergy and laity to be the voice of hope announcing God’s reconciling love through Jesus Christ to communities impacted by racism, denominational separation, economic disparity, an emotionally charged election season, and COVID-19 pandemic. He asked if this generation could be transformed by the Holy Spirit to be totally abandoned to God and radically available to God. Sarah Jenkins, a resident of one of the UMAR Homes, introduced the beneficiaries of the 2020 Annual Conference offering: Northern Haiti Mission Connection and UMAR. A brief video highlighted the Northern Haiti Mission Connection to provide micro-lending to women, education initiatives, clean water projects, and support of Dr. Eugene Maklin and health care at New Hope Hospital. A second video, narrated by Marilyn Garner, President and CEO of UMAR, highlighted the mission of UMAR to promote community, independence, and growth for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities through residential, employment, and cultural enrichment opportunities. A celebration of life remembered the 27 clergy and diaconal ministers; and, the 25 spouses of clergy and diaconal ministers who had died since the last session of annual conference. Rev. Walter Pegues and Rev. Margaret R. Wannemacher, representing the 2020 class of retirees; and, Rev. Brandon C. Wrencher, Sr. and Rev. Kelly Rae Shrader, representing the 2020 class of ordinands for elder and deacon, read the names in alphabetical order as a picture, if available, was shown and a bell tolled. Revelation 14:13, “Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord...they will rest from their labors,” was pictured on the screen. Hymn 140 (UMH) Great Is Thy Faithfulness was sung by the choir of Simpson Gillespie UMC, Charlotte (ME).

ANNUAL CONFERENCE PLENARY – BUSINESS SESSION

CALL TO ORDER AND WELCOME: Bishop Paul L. Leeland, resident bishop of the Charlotte Area, presiding, convened the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, using several digital platforms to live stream the proceedings. Bishop Leeland thanked West United Methodist Church, Mooresville (ME) for providing staff, facilities, technology, and tech team to host the 2020 session of the annual conference virtually. In addition, Bishop Leeland thanked the staff of the annual conference and the worship team for preparing and presenting the worship service and business agenda for the annual conference. He noted that other annual conferences were conducting their sessions on virtual and digital platforms. The Bishop then introduced Chris Hampton.

TECHNOLOGY CONSIDERATIONS: Mr. Chris Hampton, conference director of web and database administration, said that he had been inspired and encouraged by the way churches had adapted and implemented changes to provide streaming worship services, outreach, and marketing using digital technology to connect, grow, and worship. The annual conference has had to adapt and implement a new model for this session of the annual conference. He outlined some of the specifics for the 2020 session. The goal was to make this annual conference session accessible and open. The session is being live streamed on the conference website, Facebook page, and YouTube channel. The session is being recorded at the same time. Second, the virtual platform does not provide a way for floor debate, but participants may submit questions using the Q&A portal on the annual conference website. These inquiries are being monitored during the session and until 5 p.m. today. Third, voting will not be in real time but will use “election buddy” that provides a ballot format. Annual Conference members will complete the ballot either on-line or through a paper ballot, if that had been requested. The on-line ballot will open at 2:00 p.m. and conclude at 11:59 p.m. August 8, 2020. The ballot will also serve to count attendance for the session. Each delegate has a unique voting link to access the “election buddy” ballot. He next outlined the steps for using the on-line ballot for voting. When the voter link is accessed all the questions requiring a vote will appear on a single page. Each question may be marked yes, no, or abstained. The ballot must be answered in a single session. There is no way to save and return to the ballot. Once the ballot is completed it may be reviewed. At the bottom of the review page is a box to submit the ballot. The ballot is not complete until it is submitted. Once the ballot has been submitted there will be a confirmation page. The ballot cannot be reset, nor a substitute ballot provided. Conference members using the paper ballot will have until August 12, 2020 to mail the ballot. If both a paper ballot and digital ballot are submitted, then only the on-line ballot will be recorded. For any difficulties or issues using the on-line ballot a “help ticket” may be accessed. The “help desk” will be monitored until 5:00 p.m. August 8, 2020.

ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS: Bishop Leeland introduced Rev. Kimberly T. Ingram, conference secretary and director of ministerial services, who presented the following motions which will appear on the ballot for a vote:

VOTING BAR: Rev. Ingram moved that the voting bar for the annual conference will be the 2020 clergy and lay members of the annual conference who are present and voting virtually or on a paper ballot. (Election Buddy ballot results: Yes 1,993, No 12.)

APPROVAL OF AGENDA: The conference secretary moved that the conference program as printed on page three of the Supplement to the Program and Reports booklet constitute the official agenda of the 2020 conference session.

REPORTS OF BOARD AND AGENCIES: The conference secretary moved that the reports of the conference boards and agencies as published in the Program and Reports booklet and the Supplement be ordered to record, insofar as they do not require conference action and provided that conference agencies be permitted to file late reports and/or corrections no later than August, 15, 2020.

SECRETARIAL STAFF: The conference secretary nominated the following persons as members of the conference secretarial staff for the 2020 session: Marsha Patton and Rev. A. Owen Peeler, as associate secretaries.

CONFERENCE RULES AND PLAN OF ORGANIZATION: Rev. Ingram, conference secretary, referenced the conference rules and plan of organization, printed on pages 30-38 of the Supplement. She noted that the addition of Rule 32, telephonic or virtual meetings of the annual conference, had been presented and approved by an earlier vote by the members of the annual conference prior to convening the 2020 session of the annual conference. No additional changes would be presented at this session. The changes presented in the Program and Reports booklet would be postponed and considered at the 2021 session of the annual conference. This requires a vote which will appear on the ballot (vote: Yes 1,986, No 19).

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS: The conference secretary presented the report of the committee on nominations for the 2020-2024 quadrennium printed on pages 39-40 of the Supplement. She noted that the committee on nominations was comprised of the district superintendents, the district lay leaders, conference staff leaders and additional lay members to provide for diversity. The committee had met twice in 2020 and considered those persons whose names had been submitted to serve and additional persons to be inclusive of ages, gender, ethnicity, clergy, laity, experience and gifts. (Vote: Yes 1,940, No 32.)

CONSENT CALENDAR MOTION: The conference secretary reported that the list of petitions for the consent calendar is found on page 41 of the Supplement and that the full description of PETITIONS 3-16 are printed on pages 42-48 of the Supplement. All the petitions on the consent calendar will be a single vote on the ballot (vote: Yes 1,949, No 21).

PETITION 17: JUST COMPENSATION: Bishop Leeland ruled that because of the inability to conduct debate from the floor Petition 17: Just Compensation, presented on pages 85-86 of the Program and Reports booklet, would be referred to a task force in consultation with the Justice and Reconciliation Team and that the task force would bring a report to the 2021 annual conference.

ELECTION OF CONFERENCE CHANCELLOR: Bishop Leeland nominated Greg Huffman to be elected conference chancellor for the ensuing quadrennium (2020-2024). The conference secretary, statistician, and treasurer as stipulated in Paragraphs 603.7 and 619 of The Book of Discipline will be elected sometime after General Conference meets. (Vote: Yes 1,920, No 45.)

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAITY: Bishop Leeland introduced Jane Boatwright Wood, conference lay leader and president of the Board of Laity, and indicated that the written reports of the Board of Laity, United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries can be found in the Program and Reports booklet on pages 63-65. Mrs. Boatwright Wood presented the report by remote video. In her remarks the Conference Lay Leader summarized the works with vision of the Board of Laity over the past four years: growing the numbers of committed laity, maturing in their faith, discipling others, and transforming local churches, communities and the world. She celebrated the development and implementation of an effective certified lay ministries program and the additional creation of a centralized on-line depository of information for lay ministry resources. Mrs. Wood thanked Wade Loftin, conference director of lay servant ministry, for his service and work; and she expressed appreciation to Annalee Allen, whose assistance made the on-line resources conveniently available. The Board of Laity moving forward will be guided by five norms and values: an engaged laity is essential to ministry fruitfulness, resist injustice in whatever forms it takes, engage in collaboration and cooperation, navigate conflict head on, and fresh leaders lead to innovative solutions. Mrs. Boatwright Wood thanked the lay leaders and members of the Board of Laity for their service, especially those members whose terms conclude with this quadrennium.

ELECTION OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER: Jane Boatwright Wood nominated John Crane to be elected Conference Lay Leader for the 2020-2024 quadrennium. Mr. Crane has served as a district lay leader, trained in lay servant ministry, and has experience in project management and change leadership. (Vote: Yes 1,948, No 19.)

PRIVILEGE MATTER: Bishop Leeland thanked Mrs. Boatwright Wood for her service as Conference Lay Leader. Mr. John Crane, conference lay leader nominee, by way of video, expressed appreciation for Jane Boatwright Wood and Wade Loftin on behalf of the Board of Laity. He announced that a contribution in recognition of Mrs. Wood and Mr. Loftin had been given to the Foundation for Evangelism for the Harry Denman Award program.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: The Rev. Dr. Glenn Kinken, president, presented the report of the Council on Finance and Administration by remote video. He summarized the responsibilities of CFA required by The Book Of Discipline to develop, maintain and administer the fiscal policies of the annual conference, to develop and manage the budget, and to serve as a ministry partner to make ministry and mission possible. He presented and moved adoption of PETITION 1a: 2021 CONFERENCE FUNDS AND FINANCIAL POLICIES. The Rev. Dr. Kinken presented and moved adoption of PETITION 1b: 2021 Conference Budget. The overall budget for 2021 totals 15.989 million dollars. This amount is a decrease of 11.77% or 2.134 million dollars from the 2020 budget. He explained some of the reasons for the decreases, most notably the decision by the Conference Board of Pensions to fund the clergy medical leave coverage expense. Dr. Kinken presented and moved adoption of PETITION 1c: PER DIEM REIMBURSEMENT POLICY. This petition is intended to standardize expenses and reduce costs associated with conference related travel, lodging, and meal expenses for all members of conference boards, agencies, committees, and commissions, and conference and district staff. Petitions 1a, 1b, and 1c comprised a single ballot question; vote: Yes 1,923, No 43.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS: Michael Watson, chairperson, presented the report of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits by remote video. He presented and moved the adoption of PETITION 2a: PENSION PROGRAMS AND POLICIES. A significant change this year is that supplemental funds for the cost of the Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) for clergy appointed on medical leave to be requested from the 2021 Conference Budget will be zero dollars. Mr. Watson presented and moved the adoption of PETITION 2b: HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM AND POLICIES. Petitions 2a and 2b comprised a single ballot question; vote: Yes 1,936, No 24.

RECOGNITION OF RETIRING CLERGY: The Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary and director of ministerial services, introduced the recognition of 47 clergy retiring at the 2020 session. This class of retirees account for 1200 collective years of service. Rev. Ingram announced that the 2020 class of retirees would be invited to participate in the usual social festivities at the 2021 annual conference. The names and service record of each retiree is listed in the Supplement on pages 64-67. While the Rev. Donald Eugene McCoy spoke on behalf of the retirees by video, a picture of each retiree was displayed.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES: Bishop Leeland introduced Bob Wilhoit, chairperson, and Josh Britton, executive director of Mount Shepherd Retreat Center. Mr. Britton by way of recorded video introduced a proposal contained in PETITION 18: MOUNT SHEPHERD RETREAT CENTER TO GRANT AND CREATE 87.935 ACRE CONSERVANCY EASEMENT. Mr. Britton on behalf of the Board of Directors of Mount Shepherd Retreat Center, Inc. Asheboro, NC (UW) moved to approve a land conservancy agreement between Mount Shepherd Retreat Center and The Piedmont Land Conservancy (PLC). This easement will grant permanent land conservancy of 88 acres out of the 543.3 acres owned by the camp. The PLC will pay $175,870.00, approximately $2,000.00 per acre to Mount Shepherd for the easement. Mr. Wilhoit, by way of recorded video, on behalf of the Conference Board of Trustees approved the proposal and requested the annual conference give assent to the petition. (Vote: Yes 1,936, No 25.)

DISAFFILIATION OF CHURCHES: Bishop Leeland introduced Greg Huffman, conference chancellor, appearing on the live stream, who outlined the decisions of the Special Session of the General Conference in February 2019 as follows: The Special Session of the General Conference in February 2019 created a pathway for churches to leave the denomination under certain circumstances. Paragraph 2553 allows a church to disaffiliate “for reasons of conscience regarding a change in the requirements and provisions of The Book of Discipline related to the practice of homosexuality or the ordination or marriage of self-avowed practicing homosexuals as resolved and adopted by the 2019 General Conference, or the actions or inactions of its annual conference related to these issues which follows.” Paragraph 2553 stipulates that the church must hold a church conference whereby at least 2/3 of the members in attendance vote to disaffiliate. The church then negotiates a “disaffiliation agreement” with the Conference Board of Trustees. Finally, the annual conference must approve the agreement. The following seven churches are requesting disaffiliation under Paragraph 2553 of the 2016 Book of Discipline (which includes changes approved at the 2019 Special Session of The General Conference) at this session of the annual conference: Bethel (Midland), Brown’s View (Bostic), Cedar Grove (Bostic), Golden Valley (Bostic), Hardison (Mocksville), Mount Pleasant (Thomasville), Mount Zion (Lenoir). The legal documents for disaffiliation for each church are posted at www.AC2020.org.

Note, the disaffiliations become effective as of the date of property transfer, not the date of approval at Annual Conference. Thus, the disaffiliated churches will appear in the 2021 BAC.

Bishop Leeland explained that the General Conference requires each request for disaffiliation be voted upon individually. Therefore, on the ballot each petition will require an individual vote.

Subject: Disaffiliation of Bethel United Methodist Church, Midland, NC, Metro District (Vote: Yes 1,738, No 164)

Submitted by: Board of Trustees, Board of Stewards, and Planning & Preparation Team of Bethel United Methodist Church, Midland, NC, Metro District

Whereas, by near unanimous consent the congregation of the Bethel United Methodist Church has expressed disagreement with the results of the 2019 special session of the UMC Conference regarding the adoption of the “traditional plan” as presented; and

Whereas, the Bethel United Methodist Church believes the “traditional plan” as approved does not sufficiently address the lack of accountability for Bishops and Clergy who openly disobey The Book of Discipline; and

Whereas, the Bethel United Methodist Church does not agree with the passage of petitions at the 2019 session of The Western North Carolina Conference, one of which presented the tenants of UMC Next which rejects the “traditional plan” on the basis of the standard of human sexuality affirmed by the “traditional plan” to which our congregation would also affirm, and another petition which stated the annual conference’s strong disagreement with and condemnation of the traditional plan, thus resolving to petition General Conference 2020 to alter The Discipline’s standard on matters of sexual practice; and

Whereas, the 2019 General Conference did provide a disaffiliation process for congregations that disagree with the actions of the United Methodist Church and its language regarding human sexuality and accountability to the church; and

Whereas, the Bethel United Methodist Church, with a more than two thirds vote of members at special, duly called church conference has voted to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church per the Book of Discipline, paragraph 2553; and

Whereas, that the Board of Trustees and the Board of Stewards, with appointed Planning and Preparation Team, of Bethel UMC has been given the authority to negotiate and enter into a formal disaffiliation agreement with the Conference Trustees and execute all deeds, contracts, instruments, etc. needed to carry it out;

Whereas, the Conference Trustees and Bethel UMC have entered to a formal Disaffiliation Agreement (attached hereto as Exhibit A), per the requirements of paragraph 2553, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Disaffiliation Agreement be affirmed and approved by the 2020 meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and ask that the Annual Conference affirm and approve the disaffiliation of Bethel UMC from The United Methodist Church.

O God, our help in ages past, we give you thanks for the rich legacies of each of these churches. They were built with loving hands and loving hearts. We are grateful for all who sacrificed and gave of themselves to provide these special meeting places for many years.

Almighty God, in their pews you gathered your church and filled hearts with your love through song and praise. You heard confessions and forgave sins. You lifted sorrows and made us glad in celebrations. We praise and thank you for food and fellowship, for meetings, ministry, and mission.

In years gone by, O God, your sons and daughters from these congregations offered Christ to others through acts of kindness, generosity and faithfulness. Lives were touched at home and throughout the world. Prayers were offered for healing, comfort, praise, and thanksgiving. Loving hands made prayer shawls, assembled flood buckets and health kits, prepared meals, stocked food closets, and provided backpacks for those who were hungry.

In these churches, members baptized their children, professed their faith in Jesus Christ, established new families, and said goodbye to loved ones.

Today we rejoice that these legacy members remain part of Christ's ongoing Church as they are welcomed into new church homes where they will continue to love and follow Jesus and make disciples for the transformation of our communities and world.

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, we put our trust in you and your great love which continually gives us new life in Christ.

Amen.

Note: The Cabinet approved the discontinuance effective on the date that the property is transferred to White's Chapel.

Rev. Coles offered a prayer of thanksgiving for the mission, ministry, heritage, legacy, and the people of the several congregations dissolved and abandoned.

Bishop Leeland indicated that on the ballot, adoption of the resolutions of church closures will require only a single vote (vote: Yes 1,880, No 56). He expressed his gratitude to the Church Legacy Initiative that helped the churches leave a legacy for the communities they served.

RESOLUTION FOR THE 2021 ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEETING: Bishop Leeland indicated that The Book of Discipline requests that a date and place be set for the time of Annual Conference for 2021. He proposed that the location of the 2021 Annual Conference meet at Lake Junaluska, June 18-20, 2021. There will be a vote for this motion on the ballot (vote: Yes 1,912, No 88).

FIXING OF THE APPOINTMENTS: Bishop Paul L. Leeland officially fixed the clergy appointments for the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church for the ensuing year as previously published in May, 2020.

ADJOURNMENT: The Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church adjourned sine die at 2:20 p.m.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.: The Reverend David A. Snipes, President and CEO of the foundation, appearing on the live stream, and on behalf of G. Thomas Jordan, chairperson of the board, called the annual meeting to order. Rev. Snipes reviewed the creation of the foundation in 1967 to help provide a stewardship umbrella that would establish endowments, put in place ways for planned giving to support the endowments, and manage the monies of those particular endowments and planned giving instruments. The United Methodist Foundation is incorporated as a 501c3 corporation. The clergy and lay members of the annual conference are members of the foundation and as such elect the board of directors. Rev. Snipes nominated the following for election to the board in the class of 2023: Rev. Pamela Blackstock, Rob Byrd, Rev. C. Thomas Latimer, III, Bill Mileham and Leesa Sluder. David Mildenberg is nominated to serve in the class of 2022. There are 15 board members plus additional ex officio members. These nominees will require a vote which will appear on the ballot (vote: Yes 1,957, No 16). Rev. Snipes announced that Chris Davis and Sam Smith, both former chairpersons of the board, will become honorary members. Rev. Snipes recalled that when the foundation was first created it was funded by support from the annual conference budget. Once the foundation was fully self-supporting the institutions has given back support to the mission and ministry of the annual conference. This year in addition to the COVID-19 grants of $174,000.00, the Foundation is contributing a check for $60,000.00 for the Comprehensive Plan for Equity. The annual meeting of the Foundation adjourned at 2:30 p.m.

PRIVILEGE MATTER: Bishop Leeland thanked Rev. Snipes and the work and generosity of the United Methodist Foundation. He also thanked Rev. Ed Ramsey, who will offer a closing prayer, and the choir of Simpson-Gillespie UMC, who will sing the closing hymn.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Kim Ingram, conference secretary, made the following final announcements:

The electronic ballot will remain open until 11:59 p.m. and the help desk for assistance will be open until 5:30 p.m.

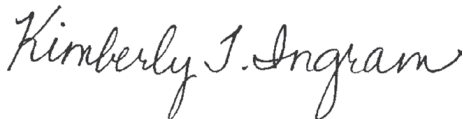

Submission of paper ballots must be postmarked by Wednesday, August 12, 2020.

The results of the ballot will be posted on the conference website sometime by August 24, 2020.

PRAYER: The Rev. Edward N. Ramsey, First, Asheboro and St. Luke, Asheboro (UW) offered the closing prayer by recorded video.

HYMN: With the words of hymn 593 (UMH) Here I Am, Lord displayed on the screen, the choir of Simpson-Gillespie UMC, Charlotte (ME) sang the closing hymn by recorded video.

BENEDICTION: Using II Corinthians 13:11, Bishop Paul L. Leeland pronounced the benediction and the live streamed session of the 2020 Annual Conference concluded at 2:35 p.m.

PART II. PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

(Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the annual conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.7)?

The character and conference relations of all clergy members have been reviewed by the Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry, and those clergy found to be in good standing are approved for annual appointment. Any clergy whose character or conference relations are in question are being reviewed by appropriate bodies as defined by the Discipline.

18. Who constitute:

- a) The Administrative Review Committee (¶636)? (v) Elizabeth Coppedge-Henley, Myer Dahn, Carol Williams-Gilbert; Alternates: Michael Carr, Gloria Hughes

57. What is the number of clergy members of the Annual Conference:

NOTES:

- (1) Where applicable, the question numbers on this report form corresponding to each category have been placed in parenthesis following the category title. Where these question numbers appear, the number reported in that category should agree with the number of names listed in the corresponding questions.
- (2) For the three categories of Appointments to Extension Ministries, report as follows:
  - ¶344.1a, c: the number of clergy members appointed within United Methodist connectional structures, including district superintendents, or to an ecumenical agency.
  - ¶344.1b: the number of clergy members appointed to extension ministries, under endorsement by the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
  - ¶344.1d: the number of clergy members appointed to other valid ministries, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.
- (3) Report those in extension ministry in one category only.
- (4) See the Discipline paragraphs indicated for more detailed description of these appointment categories.
- (5) Those approved to serve as local pastor, but not currently under appointment, are not counted as clergy members of the conference.

VI. APPOINTMENTS 2020-2021

In fulfillment of one of the requirements of ¶ 416 of The Book of Discipline (2016) of The United Methodist Church, I, a bishop of The United Methodist Church, do hereby “make and fix the appointments” in the Western North Carolina Conference for the conference year 2020-2021.

Paul L. Leeland, Resident Bishop

KEY TO ABBREVIATIONS AND CATEGORY CODES

*An appointment to which no ordained, commissioned, or licensed clergy person is currently appointed bears the designation “TBS” (“To Be Supplied”) in the “Appointee” column.

The two-letter category codes after the names of the clergy, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses are defined by the General Council on Finance and Administration of The United Methodist Church and the office of the registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry and have these meanings:

AF	Affiliate Member	OD	Deacon Member of Another Conference or Methodist Denom.
AM	Associate Member	OE	Elder Member of Another Conference or Methodist Denom.
CLM	Certified Lay Minister	OF	Full Clergy Member of Another Denomination
DC	Deaconess	OP	Provisional Member of Another Annual Conference
DM	Diaconal Minister	OR	Retired Member of Another Conference
DR	Retired Diaconal Minister	PD	Provisional Deacon
FD	Deacon in Full Connection	PE	Provisional Elder
FE	Elder in Full Connection	PL	Part-Time Local Pastor
FL	Full-Time Local Pastor	RA	Retired Associate Member
LA	Lay Member Serving as a Supply Pastor	RD	Retired Deacon in Full Connection
LM	Certified Lay Minister	RE	Retired Elder in Full Connection
LS	Student Local Pastor	RL	Retired Local Pastor
OA	Associate Member of Another Annual Conference	RP	Retired Provisional Member

VII. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

PART I. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

Pursuant to the action of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church as contained in sections IX and X (§§ 601-672) of The Book of Discipline (2016), the following plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference are hereby established.

A. MEMBERSHIP

1. a. All clergy of the conference in full connection and provisional and associate membership, and all local pastors under full-time (§ 318.1) or part-time (§ 318.2) appointment;
- b. One lay member from every pastoral charge of the conference, elected as provided in § 32 of the Discipline; provided, that each pastoral charge served by more than one clergy member under appointment shall be entitled to as many lay members of the conference as there are eligible clergy members appointed to that charge (see 1.a.);
- c. The diaconal ministers of the conference;
- d. The active deaconesses under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the conference;
- e. The conference president of United Methodist Women;
- f. The conference president of United Methodist Men;
- g. The conference lay leader;
- h. The conference president of United Methodist Youth;
- i. The chairperson of the conference college student organization;
- j. The district lay leader from each district;
- k. The president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization;
- l. The conference director of lay servant ministries.
- m. The conference secretary of global ministries (if lay).
- n. Two young persons between the ages of twelve and seventeen and one young person between the ages of eighteen and thirty from each district, elected by the district Program Ministries Council or equivalent structure; and,
- o. Such additional lay members as may be necessary to equalize the lay and clergy membership of the conference, as provided below, based on the clergy membership as of July 1 of the previous year.
2. The district shall select from its district additional lay members so that the total number of lay members equals the total number of clergy members. The additional number of lay members from each district shall be determined in an equitable and proportional manner by the conference secretary based upon membership as recorded in the most recent conference Journal. Alternates to such additional lay members may be chosen at the discretion of the district superintendent and district lay leader and may be seated in place of such members who are unable to be present.
3. The completed registration process shall constitute the official membership roll of the annual conference.
4. A quorum for the transaction of business in any annual conference session shall be the number of registered conference members present and voting.

B. OFFICERS

1. The Presiding Officer: The presiding officer of the conference shall be the resident bishop.
2. Conference Secretary: The secretary of the conference shall be elected quadrennially by the conference at the annual session of the conference following each General Conference on nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations and shall assume full responsibility of the office upon adjournment of the annual session at which he/she is elected, provided that the outgoing secretary shall be responsible for editing and publishing the journal of that session. If a vacancy occurs during the quadrennium, the bishop, after consultation with the district superintendents, shall appoint a person to act until the next annual session, at which time a successor shall be elected as provided herein. Upon nomination by the Committee on Conference Staff Relations, the conference may elect a conference secretary-designate for a term which the conference shall determine.
3. Associate and Assistant Secretaries: Upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall annually elect an associate secretary and a sufficient number of assistant secretaries to handle the work of the conference.
4. Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services: At the first session of the conference following the General Conference, a conference treasurer/director of administrative services shall be elected by the conference for the quadrennium upon nomination by the conference Council on Finance and Administration. If a vacancy occurs during the quadrennium, the Council on Finance and Administration shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the conference, at which time a successor shall be elected as provided herein. The DAS shall include the responsibility of the conference statistician and the Conference Benefits Officer.

5. Conference Chancellor: Upon nomination by the bishop, the conference may annually elect a layperson who is a member in good standing of one of the local churches of the conference, or a clergyperson who is a member of the annual conference, and who is a member of the bar of the state of North Carolina as conference chancellor to serve as legal advisor to the bishop and to the conference.
6. Conference Parliamentarian: A conference parliamentarian may be appointed annually by the bishop after consultation with the district superintendents.
7. Conference Director of Connectional Ministries: The conference director of connectional ministries shall function as a communication link between the conference and general church agencies, give leadership in the implementation of ¶ 608 of the Discipline, and relate to directors of connectional ministries in annual conferences throughout the connection.
8. Conference Lay Leader: The conference lay leader shall be elected for a four-year term by the conference upon nomination by the Board of Laity. No person shall serve more than two consecutive four-year terms in this office. A vacancy in this office during the quadrennium shall be filled by the Board of Laity, which shall name a new lay leader for the remainder of the quadrennium, subject to confirmation at the following annual session of the conference.

C. CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

1. Committees on Nominations:

- a. For the purpose of nominations to the conference entities, there shall be a conference Committee on Nominations, composed of the bishop, who shall be chairperson; the conference secretary, who shall be secretary; the district superintendents; the director of connectional ministries; the assistant to the bishop; the conference lay leader; the conference president of United Methodist Men; the conference president of United Methodist Women; the chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; a lay leader from each district and two laywomen and two laymen to ensure diversity, elected quadrennially by the conference upon nomination by this committee. Unless otherwise provided herein or by The Discipline, all members of conference entities prescribed herein shall be elected by the annual conference upon nomination by the conference Committee on Nominations.
- b. There may be in each district a district Committee on Nominations or equivalent structure, composed of the district superintendent, who shall be chairperson; the district lay leader; and others who could include: the district president of United Methodist Men; the district president of United Methodist Women; a youth; two pastors who have served in the district for at least two years, named by the district superintendent; and two laywomen and two laymen who have been members of The United Methodist Church for at least four years. This committee may prepare nominations from the district for consideration by the conference Committee on Nominations and shall care for other necessary nominations within the district and for action by the conference.
- c. The conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate the conference entities to be elected by the annual conference unless otherwise specified herein. Quadrennial nominations shall be submitted to the conference secretary and shall be printed prior to annual conference.
- d. The districts and the conference Committee on Nominations shall take care that each of the various constituencies of the conference, is represented throughout the organizational life of the conference insofar as possible. Persons shall be selected for nomination based upon their demonstrated or expressed desire, interest, concern, and/or involvement in the organization of the conference. The foregoing shall not preclude nominations from the floor of the conference at the time of the election (as allowed by The Book of Discipline).
- e. Unless otherwise provided by The Discipline, the Connectional Table shall act to fill any vacancies on any of the conference entities which shall arise in the interim. Persons so appointed shall hold office until the next regular election of the members of the agencies involved.
- f. Terms of Service: Except as hereinafter provided, no person shall serve simultaneously on more than one of the quadrennial or term election agencies of the conference, except in cases of ex-officio membership, nor for more than eight consecutive years on any one such agency, except in cases of ex-officio membership; provided, however, in the case of membership on a quadrennial agency, that, unless prohibited by The Discipline, a person elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less shall be eligible to serve for a maximum of eight consecutive additional years on the same agency, and a person elected to fill an unexpired term of more than two years shall be eligible for a maximum of four consecutive additional years on the same agency. The Committee on Episcopacy, the Committee on Nominations, the Conference Committee on Organization and Rules, and the Petitions Committee shall not be included in the prohibition of simultaneous service. If a member of said agencies is appointed to the district superintendency, his or her agency membership shall terminate, unless the membership be ex officio, and any vacancy thus created shall be filled as heretofore set out. If a member of a conference entity is absent from two consecutive regular meetings of the entity without a reason acceptable to the entity, his or her membership thereon shall cease, and he or she shall be so notified. Such a vacancy shall be filled as heretofore set out.
- g. Convening for Organization: The terms of service of the members of quadrennial or term agencies of the conference shall begin July 1. Each agency will organize at an event convened by the bishop and scheduled as soon as possible following the adjournment of the annual conference session at which they were elected.
- h. Members of general church boards and agencies will be ex-officio members (with vote) of the conference entity to which the general board or agency most closely aligns, or as indicated in The Book of Discipline.

2. Connectional Table: This team shall be constituted quadrennially. The purpose of the Connectional Table is to connect the ministry and resources of the Annual Conference in order to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that, lives and communities are transformed by the power of God. The Connectional Table shall consist of the chairpersons of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Board of Trustees, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Leadership Development Team, the Church Vitality Team, the Justice and Reconciliation Team, the Mission Engagement Team, the Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry, and the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; the presidents of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the director of church development, the president of the United Methodist Foundation, the conference treasurer/director of administrative services, the director of ministerial services/conference secretary, the director of communications, the director of connectional ministries, the resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, and a district superintendent. The director of connectional ministries and the conference lay leader shall serve as co-chairpersons. Additional members may be nominated and elected to ensure diversity and inclusiveness. One young adult clergy person shall be a member.
3. Councils:
  - a. Conference Council on Finance and Administration: There shall be constituted quadrennially a conference Council on Finance and Administration as provided in ¶ 611 and following of The Book of Discipline. The resident bishop, the assistant to the bishop, the conference treasurer/director of administrative services, and one district superintendent named by the cabinet shall be ex-officio members without vote.
  - b. Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry: This council shall be constituted quadrennially and be composed of eight to twelve members. Special attention will be given to the election of persons knowledgeable and passionate in the areas of camp, retreat, and outdoor ministry, non-profit board experience, and business management. The council will promote all existing WNCUMC camp and retreat centers. This includes camp facilities and cooperative ministry with the local church, districts, and conference. The council is responsible for establishing, implementing, and maintaining financial oversight of the Camp and Retreat Ministry Endowment fund. The Council will submit a yearly request to the Annual Conference for financial support on behalf of the camp and retreat centers. The council will be a source for support in non-profit board development, will encourage and support sustainable best practices for all current camp and retreat centers, and maintain positive relationships with each of the camps and their staff and board of directors. The Conference Coordinator of Camp and Retreat Ministry shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
4. Boards:
  - a. Board of Trustees: An incorporated conference Board of Trustees shall be constituted annually as provided in ¶ 2512 of The Discipline. The conference treasurer/director of administrative services, the bishop, the assistant to the bishop, and a cabinet representative shall be ex-officio members without vote.
  - b. Board of Ordained Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of forty-five elders in full connection, including one district superintendent named by the bishop; nine deacons in full connection; fifteen lay persons, and the conference lay leader; and, at least four associate members or local pastors who have completed the Course of Study; elected as provided in ¶ 635 of the Discipline. The director and associate director of ministerial services shall be ex-officio members without vote.
  - c. Board of Laity: This board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the conference lay leader, who shall be president; the president of conference United Methodist Men; the president of conference United Methodist Women; the vice-chairperson of the conference Council on Youth Ministries; the district lay leaders; the conference prayer advocate; twelve lay persons elected to ensure that the total membership of the council is representative of the various constituencies of the conference; and other persons deemed by the board as necessary to its work. The board shall foster an awareness of the role of the laity in achieving the mission of the church, and enabling and supporting lay participation in the planning and decision-making process of the conference, the districts, and the local churches. One district superintendent shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
  - d. Board of Pension and Health Benefits: As specified in ¶ 639 of the Discipline, an incorporated Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve members, arranged in two classes. The treasurer of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., shall be an ex-officio member, without vote. One district superintendent named by the cabinet and the conference treasurer/director of administrative services shall be ex-officio members without vote. As a sub-committee within its structure, the board shall quadrennially appoint a Health Benefits Committee, composed of such members of the board and other persons as the board may determine.
  - e. Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry: This board shall be constituted quadrennially in fulfillment of the portions of ¶ 634 of the Discipline pertaining to campus ministry and shall be composed of twelve members, nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the conference, with special attention being given to the election of persons knowledgeable in the areas of campus ministry, finance, marketing, and management. The associate director of ministerial services, shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
5. Ministry Teams: There shall be constituted quadrennially four Ministry Teams of the Annual Conference:
  - a. A Church Vitality Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will provide vision for and oversee the structures, processes and resources needed, to help existing church leaders know and practice vitality; help potential planting partners in finding, assessing and equipping leaders for new church development; assess effectiveness of current resources; learn and share best practices; and, coordinate funding for vitality and development projects. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. One member will be chosen by each District Church Vitality Team, resulting in 8 members. Other team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

- b. A Justice and Reconciliation Team consisting of 12-15 persons. This team will promote excellence and fruitfulness in congregational life and ecclesial structures that reflect the full diversity of the reign of God; works of justice bringing reform to social, ecclesial, and civic structures and institutions; and, participation of all the people of God in realizing the vision of following Jesus, making disciples and transforming the world. Included in the membership will be conveners of the following groups, named by the nominating committee: Religion and Race, the Status and Role of Women, African American Ministries, Asian American Ministries, Native American Ministries, Hispanic/Latino Ministries, and Ministries of Creation Care led by a Conference Earth-keeper. Each of these groups will be convened within 30 days of the organizational meeting by gathering persons with a passion for the ministry involved. The Justice and Reconciliation Team shall have a task force that will review the Ethnic Local Church Concerns grants. The work of Church and Society and Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships, Peace with Justice Ministries, and the ministries and connection to the NC Council of Churches are a part of this team. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.
- c. A Leadership Development Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The purpose of leadership development is “To grow the capacity of leaders to Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, and Transform the World.” The task is to help shape a culture where life-long growth and development are expected to promote and support life-long fruitful ministries. The team will promote leadership excellence among congregational ministers (both clergy and lay professionals). It will also champion the development of the future leaders of the church with special emphasis on youth and young adults. Finally, it will encourage congregational ministers in the development of leadership among the laity within the congregation. The team will network with those entities in the conference who share in its purpose. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for the particular ministries for which the team is responsible. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.
- d. A Mission Engagement Team consisting of 12-15 persons. The team will engage and actively facilitate the connection of congregations and disciples to service in their local communities and the world at large. They will work to encourage general church mission efforts and emphases, provide appropriate avenues for training of mission leaders, and promote and foster abiding relationships with mission projects and mission workers throughout the world. This will include the traditional work areas of Disaster Response Ministry, the Mission Response Center, Volunteers in Mission Building Teams, and other historically related ministries. The nominations committee will name the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the committee and other officers will be chosen as needed by the committee. Team members are to be nominated on the basis of giftedness and passion for extending the mission witness of the conference. Conference staff members serve on the team for organizational support and to encourage the full implementation of team initiatives, without vote.

6. Administrative Commissions:

- a. Commission on Archives and History: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially (¶ 641) and shall be composed of twelve members at large, the conference secretary, and the president or designated representative of the executive committee of the Conference Historical Society. The conference archivist shall be an ex-officio member without vote. Its membership shall not be subject to the limitations on terms of service set forth above.
- b. Commission on Communications: This commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of twelve elected members at large, up to five additional members selected by the commission for expertise in the areas of communication and technology. It shall function as a service agency for the entire conference in the area of communication and interpretation. The conference director of communications shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- c. Commission on Equitable Compensation: As specified in ¶ 625 of The Discipline, this commission shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of fourteen persons, plus one district superintendent, named by the cabinet. The fourteen elected members shall consist of seven lay persons and seven clergy persons, including at least one lay person and one clergy person from charges of fewer than two hundred members which are receiving equitable compensation funds at the time of the election of commission members. The assistant to the bishop and one district superintendent shall be ex-officio members without vote.

7. Committees:

- a. Committee on Conference Staff Relations: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of the bishop; the assistant to the bishop, the conference lay leader; the president of the conference Council on Finance and Administration; and the following members at-large: two ordained elders, one deacon in full connection, and three lay persons. The director of human resources shall serve as an ex-officio member of the committee, without vote. The chairperson shall be elected by the committee from among the at-large members. The committee shall support and provide oversight to the work of the human resources department within the annual conference.
- b. Petitions Committee: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially in order to do the following: (a) receive and review petitions to the annual conference; (b) prepare a calendar of petitions for each plenary session; and, (c) ensure that all petitions are in front of the conference until adjournment. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary shall be an ex-officio member without vote.
- c. Conference Committee on Organization and Rules: This committee shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be the primary steward of the Western North Carolina Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. Its work shall include the following: receive and review proposed changes and/or additions to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order and report to the annual conference recommended changes to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order to keep them in compliance with The Book of Discipline. This committee shall consist of 4-6 members, reflecting the diversity of the conference. The conference secretary, resident bishop, and director of connectional ministries shall be ex-officio members without vote.
- d. The following committees shall be constituted as required by The Book of Discipline: Committee on Episcopacy (§637), Episcopal Residence Committee (§638), Committees on Investigation (§2703), Administrative Review Committee (§636), and Joint Committee on Medical Leave (§652).

D. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. The conference secretary shall be the editor of the conference journal, assisted by the conference statistician in the publication of statistical data.
2. The journal shall be edited in keeping with the Discipline and other regulations of the General Conference and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference under the direction of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting.
3. The annual journal shall contain the proceedings of the most recent conference session and the statistical tables for the calendar year preceding that session.
4. In the event that the plan of organization and rules of order and procedure of the conference are published apart from the journal, this document shall be considered part of the journal.
5. In view of the obvious difficulties and inequities involved in singling out one or more persons worthy of special recognition, the journal shall not be dedicated to the memory or honor of any person.

E. DISTRICTS, DISTRICT CONFERENCES, AND DISTRICT COUNCILS

1. There shall be a total of eight districts in this annual conference, the boundaries of which shall be determined by the bishop after consultation with the cabinet.
2. At the discretion of the district superintendent, a District Conference may be held in each district (according to Chapter 4, Section X, §658ff of The 2016 Book of Discipline.) The membership of a District Conference shall consist of the lay and clergy members of the district of the Annual Conference session of the current calendar year.
3. The district lay leaders shall be selected by the district for a four-year term and confirmed by the annual conference. No person shall serve as a district lay leader for more than two consecutive terms.
4. District organization for missional purposes and impact: Each district may organize leadership teams that carry out the strategy and mission of the district within its context. Each team will reflect the diversity of the district.
5. The district Board of Church Location and Building (§2519), the district Board of Trustees (§2518), the district Committee on the Ordained Ministry (§666), and the Committee on District Superintendency (§669) shall be organized in each district as provided for in The Book of Discipline.

F. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

1. Lay and clergy members as designated by The Book of Discipline shall be eligible to vote and to be elected as a delegate.
2. Those voting must vote within the voting bar of the conference and at the time specified by the presiding officer for that ballot. Ballots shall be cast only in the manner provided and designated by the conference.
3. Vote counting procedures shall be the responsibility of the conference secretary, assisted by tellers duly elected by the conference from among the lay members and the ordained ministerial members in full connection upon nomination by the district superintendents. In addition, upon nomination by the conference secretary, the conference shall elect two chief lay tellers from among the lay members of the conference and two chief ordained ministerial tellers from among the ordained ministerial members of the conference in full connection.
4. A simple majority of the valid ballots cast shall be required for election.
5. The results of the ballots shall be announced by the presiding officer as follows:
  - a. First Ballot for General Conference Delegates and First Ballot for Jurisdictional Conference Delegates: The names of all persons receiving ten or more votes shall be announced, with the total vote for each, in descending order.

- b. Second Ballots: The names of all persons receiving twenty or more votes shall be announced.
  - c. Third and All Subsequent Ballots: The names of all persons receiving thirty or more votes shall be announced.
- NOTE: A person's name not being announced because his or her vote total was less than the number necessary for announcement does not mean that the person is necessarily ineligible for election.

- 6. Individual ballots shall be valid only when cast for the prescribed number of eligible persons to be elected on each ballot and cast in the manner provided for and designated by the conference. Inclusion of the name of a person already elected, the name of an ineligible person, or an illegible name shall invalidate that entire individual ballot. Adjudication of illegibility shall be the responsibility of the chief tellers.

PART II. RULES OF ORDER

A. PRESIDING OFFICER:

Rule 1. Authority of the Chairperson: The resident bishop or the presiding officer designated by the bishop to preside in the bishop's temporary absence shall be the chairperson of the conference. The chairperson shall decide points of order raised by the members and shall rule on points of order not raised by the members as the chairperson deems necessary to conform to these rules of order, subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the conference by any member without debate, except that the chairperson and the appellant, in that order, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the chairperson. When any member raises a point of order, the member shall cite, by number, the rule alleged to have been violated. The chairperson shall have the right to recess a session of the conference at any time in the chairperson's discretion and to reconvene at such a time as the chairperson shall announce, with only members, authorized personnel, and authorized guests permitted to attend such a session following recess.

B. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS:

Rule 2. Frequency and Length of Speeches: No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, and no longer than three minutes unless the member's time shall be extended by the conference, except as provided in Rule 24. This three-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the conference at any time and for any period of duration. The provisions of this rule shall likewise apply to the asking of a question or questions by an individual and to answers to that individual by the person or agency to whom the questions are directed.

Rule 3. Total Time for Debate on an Individual Proposal: When a proposal is to be presented as the main motion for debate, the conference may, by majority vote upon motion by any member, set a time limit for the total debate on that question, including any amendments or other secondary motions related thereto, provided that such limitation shall not be construed to conflict with Rule 2 or Rule 24. If such a limitation is set, the chairperson may direct the coordinator of calendar to allocate the total time among speakers for and against the question by such means as the coordinator deems appropriate, consistent with the provisions of Rule 2, and provided that the previous question may be ordered at any time as specified in Rule 20.

Rule 4. Voting Bar of the Conference: At the organizational session of the conference, the voting bar of the plenary sessions of the conference shall be set by vote of the members. When a vote is taken on any question, only those members within the voting bar of the conference shall be entitled to vote.

Rule 5. Voting Procedure: Voting shall be by show of hands or otherwise as ordered by the chairperson or by the conference. At the discretion of the chairperson, a count vote may be taken. A count vote may also be ordered at the call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall rise from their seats and be counted. The count shall be made by tellers appointed by the conference secretary and shall include the votes of members in the portions of the voting bar separate from the main assembly. No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the previous question has been ordered, unless the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the report of the tellers on a count vote.

Rule 6. Division of Question: Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as the member indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made. If there is objection, the chairperson shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

C. BUSINESS PROCEDURE:

Rule 7. Organizational Session: The opening or organizational session of the conference shall include at least the following:

- a. Roll call of conference members (see Part I.A.3).
- b. Setting of the voting bar (see Rule 4).
- c. Adoption of conference agenda.
- d. Report of Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting.
- e. Ordering to record of reports of boards and agencies not requiring conference action.
- f. Election of associate and assistant secretaries and associate and assistant statisticians.
- g. Election of coordinator of calendar (if warranted).
- h. Announcement of necessary revisions of printed reports and recommendations.

Rule 8. Petitions: Petitions may be made to the conference by conference entities; the cabinet; lay and clergy members of the conference; councils, boards, and committees of the districts of the conference; and councils, boards, committees, and professing members of local churches of the conference. Each petition must be submitted to the conference secretary in writing, preferably by electronic means, by a date determined and announced by the conference secretary prior to the convening of the conference; must be signed by the maker(s) thereof (understood to mean the chairperson and secretary in the case of a petitioning group); and must contain information sufficient to validate the source (church or charge name, district, address, email address, etc.). Any petition containing personal references or dealing in personalities may be returned to the originator(s) with an explanation. The petitions committee shall review all petitions and assign a number and give a subject title to each petition prior to its publication.

Rule 9. Pre-Conference Publications:

- a. Booklet of Program and Reports: All annual reports and petitions of conference entities shall be submitted in writing, preferably by electronic means, to the conference secretary by a designated date prior to the convening of the conference. Under the direction of the secretary, this publication shall be made available electronically for print.
- b. Supplement: A Supplement to the booklet of Program and Reports shall be distributed to the members of the conference at the time of registration of members.

Rule 10. Referral of Matters with Financial Implications: All petitions and motions requesting a special offering or financial appeal or otherwise having financial implications for conference funds shall be referred to the conference Council on Finance and Administration, which shall offer its recommendations concerning the matter prior to action by the annual conference.

Rule 11. Consideration of Business Items: All petitions and other motions, including proposed amendments to the plan of organization and rules of order, printed and distributed in accordance with Rule 9, subject to correction of grammatical and editorial errors, shall be the property of the conference at the time of the opening of the conference without formal reading and shall be in order for consideration at any time thereafter.

Rule 12. Availability of Conference Actions: No later than ten days after the adjournment of the annual session, the conference secretary shall provide copies of all resolutions, proposals, and recommendations acted upon by the conference to the bishop, the conference director of connectional ministries, and the conference director of communications.

Rule 13. Special Study Reports: Special study reports ordered by a previous annual session shall be presented directly to the organizational session of the conference for such disposition as the conference may make, including referral if the conference so chooses.

Rule 14. Distribution of Unofficial Material: No leaflet, brochure, questionnaire, or other material shall be distributed on the floor of the conference or in the registration area except by prior approval of the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting or by the order of the conference.

Rule 15. Consent Calendar: All petitions from conference entities printed in the booklet of Program and Reports, with the exception of the proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration concerning conference funds and financial policies, and upon recommendation of the petitions committee, shall constitute the consent calendar and shall be so designated in that booklet. At the request of any member, the conference may, by majority vote, lift any item from the consent calendar for consideration in plenary session. All items not lifted from the consent calendar shall be acted upon at one time in plenary session at such time as the chairperson shall direct. The proposals of the Council on Finance and Administration related to conference funds and financial policies, petitions which have been lifted from the consent calendar, and other petitions conforming to Rule 8 shall be presented for conference action in plenary session.

Rule 16. Undebatable Motions: The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference finally.
- b. To suspend the rules.
- c. To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 24.
- d. To take from the table.
- e. To call for the previous question.
- f. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
- g. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- h. To call for the order of the day.

Rule 17. Precedence of Secondary Motions: If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be in the following order:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn, which motion is subject to amendment or may be laid on the table.
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take recess.
- d. To lay on the table.
- e. To order the previous question.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a given time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 18. Referring Reports: The conference may refer any report, recommendation, or resolution, or any part thereof, which is before the conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 19. Consideration of Substitutes: A substitute motion may be offered for any report, recommendation, or resolution under consideration. The conference shall then first perfect the original, and then perfect the substitute. The question shall then be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report, recommendation, or resolution.

Rule 20. Previous Question: When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote now be taken on the motion or motions pending), the member shall indicate to what he or she intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If the member does not so indicate, it shall apply only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption.

Rule 21. When Motion to Limit or Stop Debate Not in Order: When the conference is considering a petition or other motion, no member, immediately after discussing the pending question and before relinquishing the floor, shall make a motion which, if adopted, would limit or stop debate.

Rule 22. Reconsideration: A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated (Rule 16).

Rule 23. Calendar: The conference secretary, in consultation with the coordinator of calendar, shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day, reports, and other business items as recommended by the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and adopted by the conference as its agenda.

Rule 24. Speakers For and Against: Except for undebatable motions, a question under consideration shall not be adopted until the presiding officer has given opportunity for at least two speeches for and two speeches against said proposal, alternately, so long as any member desires to speak on the other side thereof, provided that the right is claimed before the person presenting the proposal is recognized to close debate. After three speeches for and three speeches against the motion, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the vote on the motion shall then be taken; provided, however, that the person presenting the proposal shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right to close debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of two minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the matter under consideration.

Rule 25. Consideration of Agenda Items: Items on the agenda of the conference shall be taken up on the day scheduled. Any calendar items for a certain day that are not received on that day or are not completed before adjournment shall not take precedence over calendar items for the day to which said item or items have been postponed. After the calendar items for that day have been completed, postponed calendar items shall be considered.

Rule 26. Motion to Adjourn: The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate and shall always be in order, except:

- a. When a member has the floor.
- b. When a question is actually being put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- c. When the previous question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
- d. When a motion to adjourn has been lost and no business or debate has intervened.
- e. When a motion to fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn is pending. The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the conference.

Rule 27. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, the Connectional Table shall be empowered to complete any unfinished or emergent business of the Annual Conference that does not violate The Book of Discipline (2016), Judicial Council rulings, and/or Robert's Rules of Order.

D. AUTHORITY, SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING:

Rule 28. Authority: The plan of organization and rules of order of the annual session of the conference shall be the plan of organization and rules of order of the preceding annual session until and unless they have been amended or modified by the action of the annual conference.

Rule 29. Suspension: The operation of any of the provisions of these rules of order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference, except as may otherwise be provided by Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 30. Amendments: The plan of organization and rules of order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the conference, provided that the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting and has been presented to the conference in writing or, if from a source other than this committee, has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to this committee. As identified in the Plan of Organization (E1), the number of districts may not be amended later than the second morning of the annual session. Changes and amendments printed in the booklet of Program and Reports shall be in order for consideration by the conference at any time during the annual session, provided that notice of such shall have been given in writing to the Committee on the Annual Conference Meeting prior to the opening of conference (see Rule 11). Otherwise, no proposed change or amendment shall be submitted to vote until and unless one day has elapsed from the initial presentation to the conference.

Rule 31. Supplemental Authority: In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by the plan of organization and rules of order, the conference shall be governed in its actions by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Rule 32. Telephonic or Virtual Meetings of the Annual Conference:

- a. Annual Conference Session. Upon a determination of exigent circumstances (such as war, civil emergency, public health emergency, natural disaster, terrorism, economic disaster, or similar events), in the discretion of the Bishop and majority of the cabinet, any regular and/or specially called meetings of the Annual Conference may be held telephonically or virtually, including both the general session or the clergy session of the Annual Conference.
- b. Notification of such meetings shall be subject to the requirements for Annual Conference meetings specified in The Book of Discipline. The notice of an electronic meeting must include an adequate description of how to participate in it (for example, the telephone number to call for a teleconference must be provided, URL, etc.).
- c. The conferencing platform must ensure that all people participating in the meeting can hear each other, can vote (if so entitled) and can have their attendance and vote recorded.
- d. The Bishop and a majority of the cabinet shall set the rules and procedures for credentialing, parliamentary process, balloting and voting and shall publish those rules at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the session.
- e. Conference Boards, Councils, Committees, and Teams may also conduct telephonic or virtual meetings, unless their governing documents expressly provide otherwise. If any such bodies have already adopted rules regarding such meetings, their own rules and procedures shall control but they must, at a minimum, provide adequate notice to participants of the meeting(s) and agenda and allow all participants to participate, hear, speak and vote. This rule shall in no way apply to separately incorporated entities governed by the North Carolina Non-Profit Corporation Act or the North Carolina Limited Liability Company Act.

VIII. REPORTS

A. COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) is “to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the annual conference” (¶ 612.1, 2016 Discipline). CFA takes this directive seriously.

CFA seeks to wisely discern available and potential resources that match with the vision and implementation of ministry. It is the council’s deepest hope to ensure funds and other resources are available for the Western North Carolina Conference to achieve its mission.

CF&A believes that apportionments are solid pathways to tangible connectionalism. By joining together resources, our collective bonding achieves far more than we could ever accomplish alone. Yet, CF&A acknowledges that local congregations are engaged in vibrant ministries in their communities. CF&A, therefore, takes seriously the challenge to balance the needs of the local congregations and the needs of the annual conference.

Rather than regurgitate what your apportionment funds are realizing, CF&A simply invites you to further explore and keenly discern what all the teams, committees, boards, agencies, institutions and organizations are doing in Book of Programs and Reports.

It almost goes without saying that CFA urges every local church to support the fair share askings by paying 100% of its funds apportioned. We commend those churches in the conference who fully supported the connectional ministry of the church in 2019, sometimes at great sacrifice. In 2019, 81% of all congregations of our conference paid 100% of the total amount apportioned. Imagine if all our congregations paid 100% of the apportioned funds, what a great fulfillment of the Lord’s Commission to which Christ calls us.

If local congregations follow the dictates of The Book of Discipline, the expectation is that each congregation pay 100% of the total monies apportioned through the district, conference, jurisdiction, and general church. Pastors and lay members of the Annual Conference are to interpret and promote 100% payment of apportionments. The Conference Treasurer’s office produces promotional material each year to assist in this effort. Anyone may visit the WNCC web site (www.wnccumc.org/administration) and review their local congregation’s apportionment allocations, remittances and descriptions of each of the funds. In the average congregation in our conference, based on 2019 statistical data, the total apportionment payment (District, Conference and General Church) is about 5.75% of the total income from church members and friends. Congregations retain 94.25% of monies contributed. In using the biblical language of the tithe, apportionments are slightly more than half of a tithe and they do not represent the full 10% of the expenses of our congregations.

To these ends, CFA commends to the Annual Conference the 2021 budget which is focused on accomplishing the vision of the Conference, with the ultimate focus of developing vital churches. At a total of $13,747,745, the 2021 conference apportioned budget represents a decrease of 15.5%. The degree to which we accomplish this goal depends upon local churches’ support of the conference budget. Receipts on all funds for 2019 were $13,723,503 or 84.89% of the total apportioned, a decrease of 2.08% over 2018 receipts. The 2021 Budget does include a shift in the following areas:

- District Operations “Administry” costs are shifted from the conference budget to the respective districts. This allows for more localized approach with a fairness that districts receive what they require.
- The Conference Board of Pensions will now cover the costs of the Medical Leave Expense Fund.
- Significant reductions across the spectrum of General, Conference and other District apportionments compared to 2020.
- Episcopal Office Fund and Episcopal Residence Fund increased due to loss of grants from GCFA that covered majority of expenses in 2020 and prior.

Even with the decrease in the 2021 conference budget, the CFA is confident that we will be able to provide for growth in the ministries of the Conference. This budget represents the best efforts of the conference staff and ministry teams of the Western North Carolina Conference as a funding ministry plan to achieve the goal of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our world.

Proposal: 2021 Conference Funds and Financial Policies*(Petition 1a) Approved August 8, 2020

The Council on Finance and Administration proposes:

1. That each of the funds described in the section of this report headed "Conference Funds for 2021" be approved and that the traditional decimal formula be used in determining the apportionments for 2021 for each chartered church/charge for these funds. (New church starts will participate in the apportionments in a "phasing" period and churches deemed "mission churches" are excused from apportionments):
  - District Superintendent Fund
  - Equitable Compensation Fund
  - Conference Support Fund
  - Mission and Ministry Fund
  - District Administration Fund
  - District Mission Engagement Fund
  - District Benevolence Fund
  - District Church Vitality Fund
  - Africa University Fund
  - Black College Fund
  - Episcopal Fund
  - General Administration Fund
  - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
  - Jurisdictional Administration Fund
  - Ministerial Education Fund
  - World Service Fund

The decimal formula shall be based on the average of the amounts paid by each mission or chartered church/charge during 2017, 2018, and 2019 on the following items:

Items from Table Two of the Year-end Statistical Reports

- Total Conference Apportioned Funds Paid (29a and 29b)
- Pastor(s) Pension Premiums (39)
- Pastor(s) Health Insurance Premiums (40)
- Salaries, Housing, Utilities, Travel, and Other Cash Allowances Paid to Pastor and Associate(s) (41-44)
- Compensation of All Other Church Employees & Diaconal Ministers (45)
- Local Church Expenses for Program (46)
- Other Local Church Operating Expenses (47)

2. That the following policy be approved and observed:

At the beginning of the calendar year, the Council on Finance and Administration shall determine which portions of the Conference Support Fund and the Mission and Ministry Fund are "fixed costs" (salaries, benefits, etc.) and shall thus be authorized to be paid at 100% of the approved budget. The District Operations Fund will be funded at 100% of the approved budget. On the basis of prior year receipts to these funds, CFA shall then determine a percentage of the approved budget to be authorized for expenditure in the remaining items of each budget, so that expenditures shall not exceed income.

  - a. Each church is expected to support all funds at 100% of the apportioned amount. (¶ 247.14 of The 2016 Book of Discipline)
  - b. The churches are requested to make payments thereon aggregately, with the understanding that the conference treasurer will allocate such payments according to the appropriate percentage due the fund according to the Conference Budget.
3. That an Unrestricted Fund Balance Account be maintained by the annual conference at a goal level of 30% of the current total of the Conference Funds and that any undesignated interest income plus unused balances in budget accounts be transferred to the undesignated fund balance at the end of the fiscal year.
4. That all apportioned funds, pension and health benefits costs, both receipts and disbursements, be managed through the office of the conference treasurer and that all districts, boards, agencies, committees, and commissions use the conference treasurer as fiscal agent.
5. That the group medical insurance plan be continued and that all churches be required to participate, based on the eligibility requirements of the plan, through the payment of premiums to the office of the conference treasurer.
6. That local churches should be aware that, for apportioned funds for bishops (Episcopal Fund), district superintendents (District Operations), and the Equitable Compensation Fund, the church has an obligation to observe the rule of proportional payment (¶¶ 622 and 639.4, 2016 Discipline), and that ¶ 639.4(c) be observed by the statistician in reporting these apportionments. The rule of proportional payment requires that each local church/charge makes payments for these apportioned funds in the same proportion as payment for the support for the clergy appointed to the charge, i.e., if a church pays their clergy on a monthly basis, then these apportioned funds are to be submitted monthly.
7. That, for 2012 and beyond, the Conference Staff Relations Committee (CSRC) set the salary and benefits (including clergy housing allowances) for district superintendents, and district and conference staff within the approved total salary budget. The salary of the District Superintendents for 2021, as recommended by CSRC, is to be set at $113,618 the same as 2020.

8. That the amount of compensation designated as housing allowance for ordained staff members and district superintendents be set by an annual resolution of the conference Council on Finance and Administration after consideration of a statement of amounts to be used during the year.
9. That Conference-related travel expenses of all members of conference boards, agencies, committees, and commissions and conference and district staff will be reimbursed per the Per Diem Reimbursement Policy approved by the Annual Conference. Church-related travel by local church clergy be paid by voucher on a mileage basis at the business mileage reimbursement rate allowed by the Internal Revenue Service. This will be considered as a church-related business item and will not be factored into any compensation package by the Cabinet.
10. That the governing boards of:
  - Aldersgate United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
  - Arbor Acres United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
  - Givens Estates United Methodist Retirement Community, Inc.
  - Crossnore School & Children's Home
  - UMAR-WNC, Inc.
  - The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.
  - Methodist Youth Camp of Western NC Conference, Inc. (Camp Tekoa)
  - Guilrock United Methodist Camp, Inc.
  - Mount Shepherd Retreat Center
  - Bennett College
  - Brevard College
  - Greensboro College
  - High Point University
  - Pfeiffer University
  - Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood/Sisterhood
  - Western North Carolina Conference Historical Society
  - Sanctuary Counseling Group, Charlotte
  - Chrysalis Counseling Center, Greensboro
  - Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of NC, Inc.
  - NETworX
  - Methodist Home for Children
  - New Faith Communities Fund, Board of Congregational Development
  - Campus Ministries to include: Appalachian State University, UNC-Asheville, NC A&T, UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Greensboro, Western Carolina University, Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation be granted the privilege of soliciting and receiving funds from churches, individuals, and other sources (but not from conference-wide offerings except as indicated in the list which follows) in keeping with The Book of Discipline; no capital campaigns be approved for 2021; and that the following, and only the following, conference-wide offerings be approved for 2021:

Human Relations Day.....	General Conference
UMAR Sunday .....	Annual Conference
UMCOR Sunday.....	General Conference

11. That clergy be reimbursed for moving expenses in the following manner, effective upon adjournment of the 2020 conference session:
  - a. IN-CONFERENCE MOVES: The conference shall pay a moving allowance, plus $2.50 per mile, one way, on those moves which are required from one appointment to a new appointment. If an appointment requires a move from one parsonage/home into another parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $500. If the appointment does not require a move from a parsonage/home, the moving allowance will be set at $150.
  - b. MOVES INTO THE CONFERENCE: The conference shall pay on the same basis as in item 11a above. The moving allowance will apply to the number of miles on the most direct route traveled from the conference boundary to the pastoral appointment.
  - c. MOVING AT RETIREMENT: Retiring clergy, surviving spouses of active clergy who died during the year, and clergy who go on medical leave during the year shall receive a moving allowance of $750, plus $2.50 per mile, from the pastoral appointment to the retirement residence or the conference boundary. A retiree who moves to a parsonage and serves a pastorate in retirement is eligible for an in-conference moving allowance upon approval of the district superintendent.

- d. MOVES OUT OF THE CONFERENCE (moving to another conference, withdrawing from conference membership, leave of absence, or not receiving an appointment, etc.): No allowance will be paid.
  - e. SABBATICAL LEAVE: No allowance is granted when the leave begins; however, an allowance will be given when the leave is completed, and the clergy person is again available for appointment by the bishop. The amount will be consistent with items 11a and 11b above.
  - f. In many instances, the moving allowance will not cover the total expense of the move. This reimbursement is given to help with the over-the-road cost of the move. Each church/charge receiving a new pastor is strongly urged to pay any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the new pastor as a result of the move. The district superintendent will negotiate the request with the church/charge well in advance of moving day.
  - g. The district superintendent is asked to make a very special appeal for each church/charge to be especially sensitive to both parsonage families during this stressful time. The appeal should include assistance with meals, packing, unpacking, loading, and unloading where helpful and appropriate for the parsonage family.
  - h. Due to the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, clergy should continue to be aware of the provisions of moving reimbursements that may impact their tax situation and are urged to consult with their tax advisor.
12. That the president, vice-president, and secretary of the conference Council on Finance and Administration, the chairperson of the Audit Review Committee, the conference treasurer-director of administrative services, a Cabinet representative, and one lay member of the CFA constitute the executive committee of the conference Council on Finance and Administration. The principal duties of the Executive Committee include annual review, compensation and benefits of the Conference Treasurer, and review and recommendation to CFA all Statements of Relationship for ministries relating to the Conference.
  13. That the Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to appoint a conference auditor.
  14. That each local church makes a very special effort to undergird the meal, transportation, and lodging expenses of annual conference members attending annual conference by adding a minimum of $100 to the church budget for each lay and clergy delegate. The district superintendents are asked to encourage such support at each charge conference.
  15. That conference funds not be permitted to carry over unspent funds from one conference year to another unless specifically authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration. Agencies receiving funds from sources other than apportioned funds, such as fee-based events, may carry over such unspent funds into the next year.
  16. That 3:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 6, 2021, be the cutoff time by which all payments from local churches must be in the office of the conference treasurer in order to be applied to the 2020 year.
  17. That each conference board, agency, or institution receiving or disbursing funds not managed by the conference treasurer maintain adequate financial records and prepare and submit annual audit reports to the conference treasurer and the conference Council on Finance and Administration. All treasurers should be properly bonded.
  18. That the conference fiscal year begins on January 1, 2021 and ends on December 31, 2021.
  19. That the conference Council on Finance and Administration be responsible for designating depositories for conference funds.

P. Glenn Kinken III, President
R. Mark King, Treasurer

Proposal: Per Diem Reimbursement Policy

(Petition 1c) Approved August 8, 2020

With the intent to standardize expenses and reduce costs associated with conference-related travel expenses for all members of conference boards, agencies, committees, and commissions, and conference and district staff, the Conference Council on Finance and Administration proposes the Annual Conference adopt the following:

Per Diem Reimbursement Policy*A. Travel

1. Utilize virtual meetings as much as possible to eliminate the need for travel for both staff and volunteers. Budgets may incorporate one face to face meeting annually, but all other meetings should be held virtually.
2. Volunteers (non-staff laity and clergy members of conference entities): Travel reimbursed at the IRS Charitable Mileage Reimbursement Rate. If a particular hardship exists, the chairperson or leader of the group may discuss with the Conference Treasurer for additional assistance which will come from the group's budget. For 2020, that amount is $0.14 a mile.
3. Conference staff without use of conference-provided vehicles: Continue the practice of the standard IRS Business Mileage Reimbursement Rate. For 2020, that amount is $0.575 per mile.
4. Require for overnight or long day trips the option of renting a car under the conference's Enterprise / National Rental Car agreement. Staff should calculate what the round-trip mileage reimbursement would be versus the cost of the rental car including fuel. Whichever is less is the required option to utilize.
5. Encourage ride share whenever possible and feasible.

B. Lodging

Committees and groups that require overnight accommodations are allowed at conference expense, including both volunteers and staff. Set the per diem rate for overnight lodging expense at the maximum IRS rate for Charlotte NC. With travel to other cities, check IRS rates for mediated allowance. If lodging cannot be found at this rate, then exception may occur. Safety and location must be considered. If participant prefers higher rate, the difference will be at their cost. For 2020, this amount is $129 per night.

C. Meals

Occasionally committees, groups, and staff who meet close to a mealtime have the option of providing a meal for those attending.

1. Implement the standard IRS per diem rates for the following meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner and incidentals. For 2020, the allowances per the IRS are as follows:
  - a. Breakfast: $13
  - b. Lunch: $15
  - c. Dinner $23
  - d. Incidentals: $5
  - e. DAILY TOTAL: $56
2. If a staff person desires to order items over the rates, the difference is at their cost.
3. Schedule committees and organizational meetings and agendas to not occur close to mealtimes. Limit committee and organizational meals to once annually at most. If exceptions to such scheduling must occur, allow meal breaks for participants to procure from area restaurants on their own. Utilizing virtual meetings will eliminate the need for providing meals.

**NOTE: all rates are set at 2020 IRS rates. Annually, these will be adjusted per the IRS notices.

B. CONFERENCE MINISTRIES

1. CONNECTIONAL TABLE

PURPOSE: The Connectional Table (CT) is to connect the ministry and resources of the Western North Carolina Conference to increase and strengthen the number of vital congregations and conference entities and to coordinate, promote, and encourage the development of faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that lives and communities are transformed by the power of God (from the Plan of Organization and Rule of Order and Procedure of WNCC). The CT is the governing body for the conference between the annual conference gatherings.

If the CT fulfills its mission, ministry in the WNCC—relevant, vibrant, and diverse, reflecting the faces of all God’s people across WNC—will develop faithful disciples and fruitful leaders across the conference so that lives and communities are transformed by the power of God.

The CT established a 2016–2020 Quadrennial Goal to implement a consistent budgeting process that engages all ministries of the WNCC. An implementation team has been named to lead a process that will result in a conference ministry budget rather than a ministry-delineated, siloed budget.

New norms set by the extended cabinet and embraced by the CT describe conference wide values as the framework for mission and ministry. They are as follows:

- Laity are essential;
- Resist injustice in whatever forms it presents itself;
- Collaboration and cooperation across all districts and ministries;
- Navigate conflict head-on following Matthew 18 for ministry transformation;
- Fresh leaders lead to innovative solutions.

The Justice and Reconciliation Team will coordinate white-privilege training for members of the CT in 2020.

Caroline Wood and Jane Boatwright Wood, Co-Chairpersons

2. CHURCH VITALITY TEAM

The Church Vitality Team continued with its three major areas of focus this conference year: new church starts, Fresh Expressions of church, and the Transformation Journey.

New Church Starts:

The Western North Carolina Conference continues to be a leader in the denomination for church planting. The conference has launched 10 new church start projects since 2017 and it is prepared to launch 5 more new church starts on July 1. The church starts and pastors that have started this conference year are:

- Wellspring, Ashley Crowder Stanley
- WithALL Congregation, Rob Parsons
- Church Without Walls, Kevin Bates and Kevin Miller
- The Place for New Life, Diane Harper

Fresh Expressions:

This time last year, the Church Vitality Team added 86 Fresh Expressions to bring its total to 126 Fresh Expressions. This year, it has added 127 more for a total of 253 Fresh Expressions! That is the equivalent of launching a new Fresh Expression every three days. Over the course of this Fresh Expressions movement in the conference, the team has learned that dinner churches are a very successful way to launch new faith communities. So, at annual conference last year the team offered $2,500 grants to help launch dinner churches. Those grants helped the conference launch 60 dinner churches this year. This ministry is thriving under the leadership of the Rev. Luke Edwards, who serves as the associate director of church development.

Transformation Journey:

In addition to planting new faith communities, the Church Vitality Team is also helping to strengthen existing congregations with an initiative called “Transformation Journey.” The Transformation Journey is a three-year process of partnering with congregations to discern and live into God’s future for the church. The team has successfully launched 13 churches on their Transformation Journey and will be inviting 8 more churches to participate this fall thanks to a grant from its ministry partners at the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina and the Reynolds Endowment Fund. Churches that participate in the Transformation Journey will receive up to five recommendations for their church’s future. More than 85 guides have been trained in this process to partner with churches to help them fulfill their recommendations. The Rev. Dr. Nancy Rankin is the Transformation Journey coordinator, and she is providing excellent leadership to this ministry initiative.

COVID-19 Response:

At the beginning of the COVID-19 quarantine, the Church Vitality Team took quick action, repurposing grant funds to offer Zoom Pro accounts to conference churches so that they could continue to meet and worship electronically. As of this writing, 167 churches are using this grant to connect electronically with their congregations.

As we enter into a new and challenging annual conference year, the Church Vitality Team encourages members and friends of the Western North Carolina Conference to continue to pray for its new church start pastors, Fresh Expressions, and the Transformation Journey.

3. JUSTICE AND RECONCILIATION TEAM

The WNCC UMC Justice and Reconciliation Team (J&R) Team functions in various ways with the 11 entities within this framework to include the ministries of:

- Social justice - Church and Society
- Environmental creation care - Earthkeepers
- Peace with justice
- Matters of religion and race (CORR)
- Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW)
- North Carolina Council of Churches (NCCOC)
- Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR)
- Native American ethnic caucus ministries
- African American ministries
- Hispanic/Latino American ministries
- Asian American ministries

Throughout this quadrennium, the Conference Leadership Team has shared a unique bond like no other, while recognizing that it is a picture of heaven on earth as it has endeavored to make the WNCC whole. The team has also sought collaborative partnerships with the United Methodist Women Social Action, United Methodist Youth, Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Board of Laity.

THE VISION – Empowered by Christ, The Justice and Reconciliation Team exists to repair that which has been broken. THE MISSION is to listen, evaluate, initiate, advocate, train, educate, offer grants, and celebrate through acts of God’s love, so the whole church reflects the diversity of each community, with an intentional effort to include all constituencies with respect and equity, while also being inclusive of the work of environmental and social concerns. THE CORE AND ASPIRATIONAL VALUES are to practice genuine listening, mindfulness, encouraging others to lean into discomfort, serving as a catalyst for equity in change by compassionate acts, practicing inclusive language with humility and discipline, speaking and receiving wholeness through Christ. The near term objective/top level goal of the J&R Team is to work to build the voice, influence, access, resources, and spirit among caucuses and conveners so that the WNCC will reflect the diverse body of Christ.

Committee On Native American Ministries – Convener Joel Locklear, along with Daphne Strickland, an elder among Lumbee Native Americans, planned and held a conference workshop at Triad Native American UMC, Greensboro, N.C. August 30-31, 2019. With the theme “Honoring Our Children in the Circle of Life” the workshop focused on combating bullying, domestic violence, and suicide, all prevalent in the Native American community. The goal was to reverse the cycle of pain through conversation and action. Calvetta Watlington, a tribal citizen of the Occaneechi Band of Saponi Nation, was the workshop leader. Freeman Owle, who recently served as Elder-in-Residence at Western Carolina University, who is also a traditional storyteller of Cherokee culture and history, led the group in arts and crafts. New tables were recently installed in the Native American room at the Lake Junaluska Bethea Welcome Center. Connie Locklear, Director of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM), shared that a Waynesville artist used wood from a maple tree from the golf course at Lake Junaluska. Sixteen matching chairs from this tree are the next project for this room.

African American Ministries – Convener the Rev. Ronnie Roseboro continues to move forward with the Vision of strengthening the black churches in the conference through leadership development, revitalization and Christian/spiritual formation. The Mission is to use resources to train clergy and laity in the African American context of what it means to be a vital church in the community and world, to make disciples for the transformation of the world. A WNCC UMC Black Church Clergy and Laity Symposium was held Saturday, August 24, 2019 at Hood Theological Seminary with the theme “A Call to Action: Shaping the Future” sponsored by WNCC Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR). Topics for the event were designed to ignite, inspire, lead, and deepen the impact for the future church. Over 200 participants celebrated the giftedness of the black church while being reminded of its relevance. Panelists/presenters included: Dr. Reginald Lee, congregational specialist and member of the South Carolina Annual Conference; the Rev. Regina Henderson Moore, a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference now living in Columbia, S.C. and leading churches and faith-based organizations in social impact strategies; the Rev. Dr. Fred A. Allen, national director of Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century (SBC21); the Rev. Angela A. Pleasants, Catawba Valley District Superintendent (WNCC); the Rev. Dr. Otto Harris III, pastor of St. Mark’s UMC Charlotte, N.C. and launch coordinator of the WNCC Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness; and the Rev. Brandon Wrencher, pastor of new church start The Good Neighbor Movement in Greensboro, N.C. (WNCC).

A group of ten clergy and laity travelled to Tampa, FL October 17-19, 2019 for the SEJ-BMCR 51st Annual Meeting with the theme Purpose Driven: Laser Focused on the Mission and Ministry of the Black Church, undergirded by Philippians 3:15-16. The event included learning labs, a town hall meeting, Bible study, communion and plenary. Western North Carolina was also represented by eight members in Kansas City, MO for the 53rd National BMCR General Meeting held March 4-7, 2020 with the theme: It’s Time. This event included a panel of Ebony Bishops discussion, worship, bible studies, workshops, fellowship, a gospel music extravaganza, seminary breakfasts and luncheons, Black College Fund luncheon as well as presentations by general agencies and BMCR partners. The J&R Team was presented with a 50th Anniversary Development Fund Award for its support this quadrennium.

The J&R Team supported BMCR youth to SEJ-Harambee held June 26-29, 2019 at Claflin University, Orangeburg, SC with the theme “A=anointed R=reigning M=mighty Y=youth” undergirded by Ephesians 6:13. The daily keynote speaker was the Rev. Payton Parker, Assoc. Pastor for children, youth, and young adults at St. Luke “Community” UMC Dallas, TX. This conference helps youth develop their spiritual, leadership, and interpersonal skills as they build meaningful relationships with God and each other, and explore the meaning of pulling together and working together in Christian love, hence the name of the conference Harambee. They also learn how to bridge the gap from generation to generation. WNC-BMCR Youth again claimed the award for the highest number of attendees.

Hispanic Latino Committee –Conveners the Rev. Susan Suarez-Webster and the Rev. Frank Ramos have continued to lead this caucus as co-conveners, along with Pilar Perez the chairperson. Regular meetings are held throughout the year to include worship and fellowship with the Vision – We are a united and diverse community that experiences God’s transformation through embracing neighbors. Values are – mutuality, commitment, love, hope, and empowerment with the Mission being – to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

- Chairperson Pilar attended the Southeastern Jurisdiction Methodists Associated representing the Causes of Hispanic Americans (SEJ-MARCHA) Assembly May 16-18, 2019 at Epworth by the Sea, GA.
- Three youth attended the Hispanic Youth Leadership Academy (HYLA) at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, August 6 -10, 2019 in Chicago, IL.
- During Fall 2019, two Latina youth travelled to Exploration 2019 to discern their call to ministry.
- Chairperson Pilar Perez participated in the Spanish version Walk to Emmaus- Heart of Georgia at Camp Dooley Tifton/Vienna, GA September 25-29, 2019.
- A Fresh Expressions Vision Day was held on October 26, 2019 with Luke Edwards at the UM Conference Center in Huntersville, to build networks and relationships among Hispanic communities in each area.
- Two clergy persons attended the Mosaix 4th National Multi-Ethnic Church Conference November 5-7, 2019 in Dallas, Texas.
- November 15-17, 2019, 41 persons gathered at the UM Conference Center for the first Ecuentro to study for Lay Missioner in the Spanish language.
- This committee gathered 489 letters to send to legislators regarding Temporary Protected Status. A year extension was given to TPS holders from El Salvador.
- On Saturday, January 25 at St. Luke UMC in Hickory, WNCC Hispanic Latino congregations gathered for a time of prayer, worship, preaching, holy communion, and a fellowship meal. Approximately 90 people attended the event, which was conducted mostly in Spanish but with English added in for the English speakers who were also in attendance. Romans 5:1-11 was the scriptural emphasis of the evening.
- Funds are earmarked for an evangelistic youth concert and campaign service for 2020, reaching out to Hispanic Latinos in the area and all others who are interested.

Asian American Ministries – May Vang continues as convener. The regularly scheduled meetings include clergy and laity, Koreans, Hmong, Cambodians, African Americans and Caucasians with the Vision: to become a community that sees all the people and a near-term objective: to have a more vital presence in the WNCC by “Bridging, Building and Becoming,” with specific strategies for each component of the goals. First Hmong UMC youth attended Ca Sab National Youth Summer Camp in Missouri with the theme: “Worthy.” They were able to attend various workshops to help them grow spiritually, learning about creation, the fall, redemption, and restoration. They participated in encouragement groups with deeper focus on the theme and prayer, praise, and worship, with energy and enthusiasm along with fellow youth from across the nation. Funds are also earmarked for a youth camping retreat in WNCC in 2020.

- Supported participants to attend the National Hmong Women’s Revival in Carlinville, IL with the theme – “Anchored In Christ.”
- Korean clergy was supported to attend Pastoral Care Supervision Training in Denver, CO September 9-11, 2019, to gain more knowledge in clinical pastoral care ministries.
- Another was supported to the Duke Pastor’s Convocation October 7-8, 2019 to learn more about cultivating thriving communities. Hmong clergy was supported to attend the Yexus Communitas Summit Event at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, IL October 31 - November 2, 2019. This national interdenominational Hmong event encourages conversations to develop ideas around church planting, theological writing, and leadership development. The intent was to gain more knowledge of how to reach out to the second-generation Hmong church.
- Hmong laity was also supported to attend a Missions Conference in Milwaukee, WI December 13-14, 2019 with the theme – “The Heart for God’s Mission.”
- Support was also given for a WNCC Clergy Pilgrimage to South Korea to Bupyeong Methodist Church March 4-12, 2020, for greater cross-cultural experience, competence, and spiritual renewal.

Commission on the Status and Role of Women – led by convener Polly Pearson with the Mission: to work alongside the General COSROW advocating for full participation in the total life of The United Methodist Church by helping the church to recognize every person – clergy and lay, women and men, adults and children – as full and equal parts of God’s human family. This year the convener has attended and participated in various conferences with displays and information regarding COSROW initiatives. The late Bishop Leontine T. C. Kelly will be featured in the African American Historical Museum of the Smithsonian in Washington, DC for the 2020 Year of the Woman exhibit. The group has been working with GCOSROW to develop an online training for laity in the WNCC which will be the first of its kind across the denomination. Funds are earmarked for this effort to come to completion in 2020. It is anticipated that a fully engaged and empowered membership is vital to The United Methodist Church’s mission to “Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World.”

Commission on Religion and Race – New convener the Rev. Tamara Ingram organized the planning team for the 2020 WNCC Martin Luther King Jr. Commemoration. This event is co-sponsored with BMCR, and the new coordinator of that caucus is the Rev. Charlie Rivens. The theme selected was “Embracing Our Beloved Community: Persevering Despite Adversity” with the focus scripture Matthew 25:34-40 shared in various languages, and read by clergy and laity of the different ethnicities represented. The commemoration was held at St. Paul UMC Winston-Salem, N.C., and was co-hosted with Centenary UMC Winston-Salem, N.C. There were over 300 in attendance. A combined choir with members of the co-host churches was especially uplifting, and the special music offered by Caleb Serrano was a special blessing for everyone. The Hispanic/Latino Praise Band of Hickory Grove UMC Charlotte added a unique flavor to the day and had many on their feet. Drum Major for Justice Awards recognized the tireless work of the Poor People's Campaign and Greensboro's Beloved Community Center, both of whom engage diverse parts of the community in current, relevant injustices to bring about social change. Children and youth from across the conference wrote timely essays creating a picture that focused and elaborated on meaningful MLK Jr. quotes. Their participation in the table talk discussion during lunch enhanced that portion of the day with their youthful insights. A major highlight of the commemoration was the keynote speaker, Clara Esther, retired UMW deaconess, member of the Charter for Racial Justice, National UMW Vice-President and civil rights activist. She underscored how all must "wake up" and work for a world of justice and equality so that the nation will be a place where everyone's children and grandchildren have the opportunity to live fruitful and productive lives. The offering for this event benefited the Poor People's Campaign. Conference Communications Director, Melissa McGill captured numerous photos of this and other events, along with additional photos from Kathy FitzJefferies and the promotional and recap videos by Jennifer Moxley and her team from Sunshine Media, Inc. The next commemoration is scheduled to be held in Hickory, N.C. on Saturday, January 16, 2021.

Diversity Monitoring – the Rev. George Coates, J&R Team member has continued to lead the team, functioning within its role in gauging diversity as it relates to the annual conference meeting. In 2016, the team monitored onstage participation at the annual conference. The team observed at racial/ethnic background, lay/clergy, male/female, participation by age group, and whether the physically challenged were included in the conference presentations. The J&R Team then shared this information with the Annual Conference Planning Committee chair, the conference secretary and the office of the bishop.

Only modest changes have been noted over the years. With respect to racial/ethnic background, participants have consistently been 78%-80% white. Black participation actually declined from 21% to 16% with the difference being an inclusion of Asian and Hispanic/Latino participants. The lay/clergy ratio has shifted toward clergy with an average of 43% laity and 57% clergy. Youth and young adult participation has improved, going from 0% for both in 2016 to 2% and 33% in 2018, with corresponding declines in mature and older adult participants. Unfortunately, there was only one physically challenged participant in all the years for which data exists.

As the team studies this data, it wants to encourage the Annual Conference Planning Committee to work with intentionality to ensure that the participants reflect all communities. While strides toward being more inclusive have been implemented, it is important that the participants' pool is both deepened and widened with people from all districts. God has been gracious in gifting many with multiple talents. There are individuals with the ability to serve in many areas in both the business and worship sessions. The goal is that the Annual Conference Planning Committee will seek to involve as many, and as varied, a population as possible to truly represent the variety and richness of UMC congregations.

Environmental Concerns and Efforts – convener and WNCC-Earthkeeper, the Rev. Jonathan Brake reminds everyone that creation care is an essential part of Christian discipleship. Earthkeepers are keenly aware of the ecological challenges in today's world and feel called to be part of a movement to transform the world. The 2019 Creation Care Summit was held in Nashville, TN from Thursday, July 11 – Sunday, July 14 at Scarritt Bennett Center with the theme Building a Movement, that focused on the climate crisis and environmental justice from a grassroots perspective. The event was sponsored by the General Board of Church and Society, General Global Ministries, General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Tennessee Annual Conference of the UMC, Tennessee Interfaith Power and Light, United Methodist Women, Scarritt Bennett Center, and Wespeth Benefits and Investments. On July 10, a training entitled "Just Energy for All" was also held at Scarritt Bennett in partnership with the NAACP and Vote Solar. Elizabeth (Liz) Chun Hye Lee, Executive for Economic and Environmental Justice, Climate Justice Lead, Christian Social Action, United Methodist Women, UMW Headquarters – New York, NY, was the facilitator for the "Just Energy for All" training. Resources recommended from this training by Karlah Burton are: <https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/climate-justice/guides>; and <https://www.umccreationcare.org>.

September 20, 2019 select Earthkeepers attended and participated in a Climate Strike held in Greensboro, N.C. On Wednesday October 23, 2019, the NC/VA Earthkeepers Cohort Fall Gathering was held in Winston-Salem, N.C. The UMC Earthkeepers continue to expand in the WNCC. On February 8 - 9, 2020 in Southport, N.C., the first African American and Hispanic/Latino American became certified as UMC Earthkeepers: Karlah Y. Burton, member of St. Matthews UMC Greensboro, N.C., and Sabrina Maria Visigali Martins do Rosario, originally from Brazil and a member of University City UMC Charlotte, N.C. The 50th anniversary of Earth Day was April 22, 2020. For further information contact Jonathan at creationcarewncc@gmail.com.

The J&R Team gave financial support to the following in addition to what has already been mentioned above; Beloved Community Center and Collaborative Partner the Northern Piedmont District Initiative to provide Truth and Reconciliation Discipleship Retreats; Metro District Racial Healing and Social Justice Initiative to examine the Christian response to racial and social justice issues; Boone UMC for the Bradford Youth Mexico Pilgrimage /Bradford Ministries; Hinton Rural Life Center for providing assistance to increase poverty awareness and perspective through programming during the summer missions outreach event; All Nations UMC to provide assistance for the parents of students to receive personalized job training, counseling and affordable care in terms of immigration mediation strengthening family bonds; Lee's Chapel UMC community ministry partners providing stability for children of minority groups, tutoring, free meals, and justice opportunities; Myers Park UMC collaborative ministry partners for the Deep South Pilgrimage; Good Neighbor Movement for the Journey to Joy program assisting with supplies, equipment, and curriculum; MARCHA supporting the work to promote respect of human rights and a commitment to peace, justice, liberty, and equality while advocating on behalf of Hispanic/Latino members of The United Methodist Church and The Methodist Church in Puerto Rico;

BMCR supporting the continued work of raising up prophetic and spiritual leaders who will be advocates for the unique needs of Black members of The United Methodist Church, while continuing to strengthen the value for diversity within The United Methodist Church through advocacy, inclusiveness, justice, and leadership development.

The J&R Team gives yearly financial support to the North Carolina Council of Churches (NC COC) which is a statewide ecumenical organization promoting Christian unity and working towards a more just society with the motto: Strength in Unity, Peace through Justice. The council enables denominations, congregations, and people of faith to individually and collectively impact the state on issues such as economic justice and development, human well-being, equality, compassion and peace, following the example and mission of Jesus Christ. NC COC addresses social justice issues through a faith lens to include: immigration and the Sanctuary Coalition, the Opioid Crisis, North Carolina Interfaith Power and Light (NCIPL) and Partners in Health and Wholeness (PHW). The council's priority areas continue to be Gun Violence Prevention, Raising Wages Campaign, Money Bail Eradication, and Public Education Advocacy. J&R member and NC COC Laity Board of Governors member Renee Hayes serves on the Public Education committee, and on Saturday, February 29, 2020, the committee sponsored a community forum at Milford Hills UMC, one of several such events held across the state and co-sponsored by the NCC and WNCC United Methodists Advocating for Public Schools (UMAPS). The community forums aimed at changing the narrative about public schools versus privatization and the prevalence of racial bias in disciplinary policy enforcement. The PHW program is working with NCIPL and the Creation Care Alliance to address food insecurity. The Northern Piedmont Missional Networks are benefitting from these efforts. PHW also provided trauma care training for the Northern Piedmont district; and 19 clergy breakfasts focusing on the opioid crisis were held across the state.

Census 2020 – The council is strategizing the best ways to mobilize faith communities to reach out to their neighborhoods to ensure a proper census count. Since local congregations may be less intimidating to their immediate neighbors than strangers wearing a government ID, churches are urged to find ways to facilitate filling out census forms, either online or by mail, for those in their communities. The council is willing to provide resources to help congregations mobilize.

On February 26, 2020, Rosa Ortez-Cruz, who has been living in protective sanctuary in Chapel Hill for almost two years, has had her order for deportation lifted by the US Court of Appeals. She will remain in sanctuary until there are assurances from ICE that this judicial decision will be honored pending her follow-up court appearance.

Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness (CPI) Educational Work – The J&R Team serves within this framework to create educational experiences that address racism, diversity and integration, by creating various exchanges of churches and clergy with congregations that are different from where they have served; through choir and pulpit exchanges; joint worship services; and ministries and temporary membership exchanges to name several. The Conference Resource Center has a number of helpful items. This work raises awareness, where the J&R Team already has a platform for advocacy and training.

Dismantling Racism Task Force – As part of a conference-wide initiative, the upcoming quadrennium's ethics training will address the topic of antiracism in the church and broader society. The training will be led by talented facilitators from RISE! (Race: an In-depth Spiritual Examination), with follow-up opportunities presented by the conference Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness team. As always, the quadrennial ethics training is required for all clergy, but additionally this time, the trainings will take place over two days, and each pastor is asked to encourage at least one laity from his/her charge/organization to attend. This inclusion of laity will foster more effective change in congregational culture. This valuable investment of time and resources will plant seeds for a lifelong process of learning and unlearning. The size of each session will be more limited than for past ethics trainings, so be sure to sign up as soon as offerings are made available. Look out for upcoming announcements regarding dates and locations of trainings in each district, possible scholarship options, and how to register.

The 1996 General Conference mandated that each annual conference and local church develop concrete programs of antiracism training. This mandate remains largely unfulfilled. Racism is still pervasive and harmful. It is time that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference re-commit to dismantling racism. The Dismantling Racism Task Force, under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. In Yong Lee as part of the Justice and Reconciliation Team, has worked to advance this goal for the past three years, and now welcomes the new conference-wide initiative to eliminate racism. In particular, the new quadrennium's focus on antiracism for the clergy ethics training and the inclusion of laity promises to be an important step. Planting seeds is a lifelong process, and as a task force it is exciting to see what God will cultivate and grow. Partners in this initiative are the Board of Ordained Ministry Ethics Committee and the Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness Team.

Other members of the J&R Team not mentioned above are: Daphine Strickland, the Rev. Brandon Wrencher, Pastor Ray McKinnon, the Rev. Norma Villagrana, Carolyn Payne, the Rev. Dr. Otto Harris III, and the Rev. Angela Pleasants. It has been a great pleasure to have served as vice-chairperson for the second half of the previous quadrennium and as chairperson for this quadrennium, with this awesome team of people (clergy and laity together) who have continued to educate, inspire and advocate during these challenging times for the church and society at large.

Pamela Shoffner, Chairperson

STATEMENT ON ANTIRACISM ETHICS TRAINING

As part of a conference-wide initiative, the upcoming quadrennium's ethics training will address the topic of antiracism in the church and broader society. The training will be led by talented facilitators from RISE! (Race: an In-depth Spiritual Examination) with follow-up opportunities presented by the conference Comprehensive Plan of Inclusiveness Team. As always, the quadrennial ethics training is required for all clergy, but, additionally, this time the trainings will take place over two days (Friday and Saturday) and each pastor is asked to encourage at least one laity from his/her charge/organization to attend. This inclusion of laity will foster more effective change in congregational culture. It is the Dismantling Racism Task Force's hope and expectation that this valuable investment of time and resources will plant seeds for a lifelong process of learning and unlearning. The size of each session will be more limited than for past ethics trainings, so be sure to sign up as soon as offerings are made available. Look out for upcoming announcements regarding dates and locations of trainings for your district and possible scholarship options, as well as how to register.

4. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Wesleyans believe in going on to Christian perfection. They believe that the Holy Spirit is at work within doing the soul healing and rebuilding work required so that they might love God with all of their heart, soul, mind, and strength. The leadership development team believes that sanctification also applies to leadership. The Lord is constantly inviting leaders to grow into all that they have been created to be. The leadership development team seeks to participate in this part of God's work by increasing the leadership capacity of clergy and lay ministry professionals.

Of course, the short-hand term for the theological account of this work is change. Multiple societal trends continue to impact ministry in WNCC. The changes in the denomination impact the ministry. A global pandemic now impacts the ministry in the annual conference. These factors require leaders to learn and to adapt in order to remain effective.

The leadership development team itself has learned and changed. The team has adopted a podcast as a new means by which to disseminate experiences and know-how about leadership. The team has shifted its efforts to focus on peacemaking in a time of potential denominational separation. The team has asked questions at every meeting concerning how the work of leadership development intersects with traditionally underrepresented persons. The team has learned about this current moment of leadership through reading books together, collaboration with other teams, and listening.

Amid all this change, the team continues to offer spiritual renewal opportunities as the Holy Spirit is truly the only inexhaustible resource. The team has continued to offer preaching cohorts to hone this central and communal practice of worship. The team has continued to draw from the leadership well of WNCC by tapping them to lead training events, and by training leaders with the expectation that they will train others in this annual conference.

The particular opportunities for leadership development change frequently and can best be followed on the WNCC website under the leadership development tab. All training opportunities are made affordable to members of the WNCC through the generosity of its member churches. The team looks forward to more learning, and more equipping of all lay and clergy ministry professionals during these days of extraordinary change. As United Methodist writer James Harnish noted in a small group curriculum entitled, A Disciple's Heart, "If you aren't going on toward perfection, then where are you going?"

Dan Hester, Chairperson

5. MISSION ENGAGEMENT TEAM

The Western North Carolina Conference Mission Engagement Team exists to equip the local church to be in the mission of God focusing on communication, resourcing, and collaboration. MET advanced hope through humanitarian relief and sustainable development, and by supporting empowerment ministries with communities locally and worldwide.

The Committee on Relief is the humanitarian relief and development arm of the Western North Carolina Conference, relating directly to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) and the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM). Its mission is to alleviate human suffering and advance hope through humanitarian relief, sustainable development, and global missions. Since last annual conference, it has hired a part-time Conference Disaster Response Coordinator. Ben Rogers is a graduate of UNC Charlotte and previously assisted with Hurricane Harvey efforts in Texas, and also directed Hurricane Michael relief efforts in the Florida panhandle. Since arriving, Ben has cleaned and reorganized the Mission Response Center in Terrell. The committee funded 30 Early Response Team volunteers to assist Hurricane Dorian relief in the Bahamas, and four teams to aid in Hurricane Maria relief in Puerto Rico. Early Response Training has been moved to an on-line platform and added a chainsaw safety approval to its curriculum.

The committee coordinated the donation of 10,000 N95 face masks to CaroMont Health in Gastonia, 4,500 masks and 4,500 gloves to the Charlotte Fire Department, 360 masks to the Atwell Township VFD in China Grove, and 100 masks to physicians in Lincoln County. The supplies were part of thousands of UMCOR flood bucket kits that are stored at the Mission Response Center in Terrell. The committee coordinated the donation and delivery of 3,000 boxes to UNC Charlotte students and 1,000 boxes to UNC Greensboro, and another 1,000 boxes to NC A&T State University as students were forced out of dorms due to COVID-19 restrictions.

Mission Connection Teams place emphasis on multiple local churches working together alongside native/in-country partners to accomplish goals and tasks of the host culture. The global reach of the Western North Carolina Conference is vast. Nine Mission Connection Teams represented the conference commitment to love neighbors around the world. These included, three teams to Guatemala, two to Costa Rica, and one team each to Belize, Romania, and Project Agape in Armenia. Additionally, one Volunteer in Mission (VIM) team was sent to Alaska.

The Northern Haiti Mission Connection team helped to financially support the completion of a dormitory in New Hope Hospital. The dormitory will be utilized to house Haitian doctors and visiting medical teams. The work was completed by Haitian workers providing employment and using local construction methods.

The Western NC Conference is partnered with Zoe Empowers to assist children across the world. Orphans and vulnerable children living in extreme poverty are abused, sick, and isolated from their communities. Handouts and begging help them to survive temporarily. Zoe Empowers' solution addresses all their challenges, across eight areas of life, equipping them to overcome poverty with their own efforts permanently. Currently, 13 WNCC churches are supporting 26 groups representing 2,340 children.

One of the sustainable development efforts is Congregations for Children (C4C). C4C is a resource of the WNCC UMC created to provide support to churches and communities in developing new and strengthening existing church and school partnerships. Three initiatives were particularly impactful this past year. First, legislation passed at annual conference creating the WNCC UMC C4C Child Advocacy Coalition. The coalition centralizes a means to speak cohesively about programs impacting children from birth to 18, and allows an opportunity to develop a conference advocacy plan of action. Second, the Smoky Mountain District, through a grant from The Duke Endowment, piloted a Generational Poverty Literacy Initiative engaging church and community partners to collectively use resources in reducing the negative impacts of poverty, by enhancing both school readiness for kindergarteners, and reading proficiency by the end of third grade. Third, through a school readiness initiative in the Yadkin Valley District, urban churches partnered with the local school district to serve as sites for families, teachers, and children to gather in neighborhoods close to low performing elementary schools, to work on improving third grade reading scores.

MET's dedication to resourcing leaders is lived out through The Missional Collective Journey, a series of retreats designed to help WNCC mission leaders provide spiritual care and grow leader connections; strengthen ministerial knowledge and skills; help discern impact in a community; increase exposure to relevant resources; lend practical tools for implementing a vision; and to boost confidence for engaging the community. The first Missional Collective Journey launched in April, with the intention to shift the work of missions from relief to empowerment.

Brian Mateer, Associate Director of Missional Engagement

6. COUNCIL ON CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRY

The goal of the conference Council on Camp and Retreat Ministry (CCRM) is to support, encourage, and resource the three camping ministries with four camp sites of the Western North Carolina Conference. The camp sites are Mount Shepherd in Asheboro, Camp GuilRock in Reidsville, Camp Tekoa in Hendersonville, and Tekoa Foothills in Casar, N.C. This year has brought a major shift in how the council fulfills this mission.

In October, Carroll Harris left her position as the staff liaison between the council, camps, and conference. The members of the council were asked to take a much more active role in the camping ministries of WNCC.

Also in October, the council held a training initiative with the council, camp directors, and their boards. They met with Charlie Lyons of Drive Educational Systems about telling their common story. It was then decided that the purpose of the council and camps was to be "Advocates of the unique encounter." Later, as the mission and purpose was further fleshed out, it changed to "advocates of the sacred encounter."

As advocates, the council realized the first job was to educate both themselves and others about the wonderful resources the camps offer to western North Carolina. Each camp was assigned a liaison from the council to be its connection. The liaison would check in periodically with the camp directors and, if possible, attend board meetings.

The council familiarized themselves with the camps needs. Realizing that each camp has significant deferred maintenance, they created a proposal to present to the WNCC trustees to give a small portion of the endowment to help offset some of these costs, so the camps can focus on growing the amazing programming that they already offer.

The members of the council began seeking ways of helping spread the word about the wonderful things the camps are doing. The conference has three vital camping ministries with four wonderful sites that are under-utilized by the ministries of the conference. The council is striving to connect more within the conference to figure out ways to partner with the ministries and initiatives already taking place. Members of the council have met with the bishop, the cabinet, the UMC foundation, the director of church development, the director of missional engagement and connectional ministries, and more. The council looks forward to more partnering with the conference and finding new and innovative ways of strengthening the connection between the conference and camps.

The current year offers new challenges as the camps and conference navigate the unknown during and after COVID-19. The camps are all in a good place to weather the storm, and all trust that vital ministry will emerge from these sites. All of the ministries are offering ways to virtually connect with them and nature during the shutdown. The leadership of the camps is as strong as it has ever been, and the right people are in place to take the lead through uncertainty.

Camps are thriving, wonderful places of ministry that offer a unique and sacred encounter to those who participate. If interested in visiting, plan an outing soon. All are welcome. Think about how one or more of the four camps can best partner with ministry in the upcoming year.

Camp Directors' Reports

Camp GuilRock

Camp GuilRock centers its ministry on its mission statement "Discover Creation, Experience God, and Grow in Faith." With this as its foundation, Camp GuilRock strives to provide meaningful outdoor experiences for people of all groups. Youth groups, churches, scouts, and families are given the opportunity to enjoy its facilities and develop lasting relationships with each other and with Christ.

Camp GuilRock has continued to grow and reach more people throughout its surrounding community. In the past year, the Day Camp Program expanded from two weeks in 2017 to a full nine weeks in 2020. This allowed the camp to serve over 160 campers over the summer. It has also continued to improve the rental experience for all guests, which has led to continued growth in usage of the property throughout the year. The camp closed 2019 with one of its most successful fundraising appeals, raising over $10,000 thanks to a generous matching gift. The director and board of directors are excited by the growth seen in the ministry and are continuing to implement new programs and strategies to help continue the growth in the coming year.

Camp Tekoa

This past season at Camp Tekoa was vibrant and full of ministry to campers. Tekoa experienced an amazing summer of growth for campers and staff, a growing season for the afterschool program, and hired a new director at Tekoa Foothills. Here are some highlights from the ministry over the past year.

- Tekoa hired the Rev. Jennifer Hampton to serve as the first Director of Tekoa Foothills. Jennifer began May 1, 2019 and guided Tekoa Foothills through an amazing summer of ministry.
- Lakeside Lodge at Tekoa Foothills was completed. It is an extraordinary lodge that will benefit the continued ministry of this property for years to come.
- There were a total of 2,178 summer camp registrations at Camp Tekoa and 39 summer camp registrations at Tekoa Foothills. Tekoa Missions continued to grow and offered two weeks of mission trips at Tekoa Foothills.
- Tekoa's afterschool program continues to thrive and reach children throughout Henderson County. The average attendance was 34 children each day.

- The new Ninja Cave construction completed at Camp Tekoa was extremely well received by campers.
- For the summer offering this year, Tekoa chose to support Sharing House of Brevard, which supplies basic needs to the residents of Transylvania County. Campers and staff gave $5,023. Over the past five seasons, Camp Tekoa campers and staff have given a total of $29,737 to ministries beyond camp.
- In September 2019, Tekoa celebrated 70 years of ministry at Tekoa! There was a wonderful 70th celebration event to reconnect with former staff and camper parents. The Rev. James Johnson and Rev. Jack Porter shared devotions with attendees.
- The Rev. James Johnson ended his ministry as the Executive Director of Camp Tekoa October 15, 2019. In October, the Tekoa family enjoyed the opportunity to share in celebrating James' life and ministry. James served as the executive director the past 22 years. It was a beautiful end to a truly amazing season of ministry at Tekoa.

This year Tekoa lost a giant in the Christian camp community. The Rev. Jack Porter died near his home in Maryville, Tn. on April 3, 2020. Jack was the Executive Director of Camp Tekoa in the 1980s-90s. He was a beloved father figure to campers and staff for many years. Under his leadership, Tekoa reached thousands of children in the name of Christ and formed the faith of hundreds of young adults, many of whom are in ministry today. Jack served local churches in the area, alongside his ministry at Tekoa, out of his deep love of pastoral ministry. The Camp Tekoa experience of today was formed under his leadership and vision. Outside of Camp Tekoa, Jack was well-known in the Christian camping community. He revitalized several sites, assisted smaller locations in developing programs, and constantly sought ways to support the greater camping community.

Mount Shepherd Retreat Center

Mount Shepherd is a nonprofit organization that accomplishes its mission through Christian camping. By all accounts, 2019 was a landmark year for the ministry of Mount Shepherd Retreat Center. The organization met or exceeded every goal it had for the year, including the areas of strategic planning, utilization and board development.

The Mount Shepherd Board of Directors completed a yearlong strategic planning process with the aid of Run River Enterprises. This work helped the organization identify priorities and set key goals for the coming years. Camps occupy a vital evangelical space as an extension of the local church. Rather than lamenting the decline of visits from United Methodist churches, the retreat center is embracing a new opportunity to reach children who have never been to church. Furthermore, the strategic planning resulted in the hire of Christina Gibbs, its first full-time program director.

In the past five years, Mount Shepherd has more than tripled its usage, increasing it by 233 percent. Its summer camp program continues to grow each year, and the retreat ministry is at an all-time high. New programs this summer include off-site adventure programs in the Uwharrie National Forest area. Strategic partnerships with several churches have helped elevate its ministry.

Finally, Mount Shepherd is thankful for the faithfulness of its board of directors. The board has leaned into its identity as a self-sustaining nonprofit organization. This year's board of directors is the most diverse group of talented leaders in Mount Shepherd's history. It continues to build on the excellent foundation of leadership.

As always, Mount Shepherd appreciates the generosity and faithfulness of the conference in supporting its ministry. Conference staff, committees, local churches, and so many individuals have offered their financial, physical and spiritual support. To God be the glory.

C. CONFERENCE RESOURCE CENTER

The WNCC Resource Center is proud to be a free lending library for all churches in the Western North Carolina Conference. The mission of the resource center is to provide a deep well of engaging, relevant books and media supporting the mission of the local church in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The resource center continues to purchase new, quality resources recommended by staff, pastors and laity for use by churches and individuals for the education, leadership training and spiritual formation of children, youth and adults. The resource center's two 24-foot canvas labyrinths continue to be used often, especially during Lent.

Circulation rose 3.2 percent from 2018 to 2019. As of January 2020, the resource center boasts 6,667 resources on its shelves, including books, DVDs, worship aids, vacation Bible school starter kits, stewardship campaign programs, Stephen Ministry support and curriculum for all ages and stages of life. The resource center continues to partner with The Youth Cartel for free digital resources. Contact the resource center for the promo code.

Pastors and lay people alike can turn for help and guidance in selecting resources. Resource center staff are happy to recommend resources to meet specific needs. Stop by the resource center display during annual conference to set up a free patron account, update contact information, browse the catalog, and reserve resources. Following annual conference, contact the resource center at resourcecenter@wnccumc.org or 704-535-2260.

Resource center materials are managed and supported by Surpass, a system used in public schools and libraries. The online catalog, <http://wncc.mysurpass.net>, is open to all for browsing, but one must have a patron account to make reservations. Be sure to "like" the resource center's Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/wnccresourcecenter>, for seasonal recommendations and to stay up-to-date on the newest resources as they are catalogued.

1.b. BENNETT COLLEGE FOR WOMEN CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The Chaplain's Office continues to encourage spiritual growth and development. Much of this year was spent in prayer and reflection.

UMC Social Justice Scholarship and Intern Program: Through the resources of The United Methodist Church, Bennett College has continued its efforts to honor the memory of Sandi Neely Smith, class of 1976. She was a community activist who along with four others was killed during a conflict with Ku Klux Klan and American Nazi Party members in 1979 in Greensboro, N.C. This summer, the five interns have plans to serve:

- Loaves and Fishes in Mecklenburg County, a ministry offering groceries for neighbors in need
- Guilford County Department of Social Services
- The Exodus Foundation whose "mission is to stop the flow of African Americans to prison"
- The Hispanic Alliance, which helps victims of domestic violence in the upstate of South Carolina, offering a continuum of services as well as teen dating violence education and community outreach, and
- The Beloved Community Center, Greensboro, N.C., where the social justice intern will assist as a youth community organizer volunteer responsible for voter registration and education; edit the Beloved Community Center Newsletter; and facilitate program and dialogue to help build cross-cultural coalitions within the Greensboro community.

Marcinia Johnson was selected as our Black College Fund Intern and Ambassador. She spoke during services for United Methodist Student Day at Centenary UMC. Marcinia Johnson's story was featured in the United Methodist Communications blog post Rethink Church site.

UMW shared scholarship information with students and their families during Welcome Week. They also worked in partnership with Career Services, Financial Aid Office, Library Services, Bennett College alumnae and the Chaplain's Office to help students with internship and scholarship applications. Their work continues as they make themselves available for sessions in the library.

Student Christian Fellowship hosted sessions entitled "Who She Is," Biblically based conversations with practical applications. They also convened weekly prayer and monthly worship and fellowship.

The Chaplain's role is to nurture students as members of the various ministries and to offer for all students to discuss their understanding of faith. To that end, Bennett received funds from the Interfaith Youth Core to build understanding, cooperation, and awareness of its diversity through dialogue, community service, and activities. It has opened an Interfaith Prayer Room which provides a space for prayer, meditation, and reflection.

The Chaplain taught weekly Bible study and preached during worship at various churches in the community. Additionally, she revised and taught a class on church and entrepreneurship.

Brevard College is a four-year, experiential liberal arts college founded in 1853, and is the oldest college in Western North Carolina. The college is home to students from 30 states and eight foreign countries.

Brevard College's mission states: "Brevard College is committed to an experiential liberal arts education that encourages personal growth and inspires artistic, intellectual, and social action."

At Brevard College, education is much more than memorizing answers on a test. Faculty connect knowledge to direct experience, purposefully and intentionally. This experiential teaching and learning philosophy, led by expert faculty in small classrooms, develop students' ability to think, work in groups, reflect upon what they have learned, and then apply their knowledge to real world problems. Faculty cultivate marketable skills such as collaboration, problem solving, teamwork, and conflict resolution, to name a few. Students graduate Brevard College with more than a transcript and diploma. They graduate with an experiential resume full of undergraduate research they have conducted, real-world problems they have addressed, and in-class projects they have completed.

Brevard College is affordable. Students from North Carolina receive a Half-Tuition Scholarship when they receive offers of admission. Brevard has 17 NCAA DIII sports teams and three non-NCAA teams including competitive cheerleading, rock climbing, and cycling.

David C. Joyce, President

2.b. BREVARD COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

Brevard College remains a phenomenal space for nurturing, expanding, and engaging the religious and spiritual life of students, staff, and faculty. At the beginning of the academic year, their team hosted and worked alongside 11 churches, three local faith-based organizations, and more than 70 volunteers as they welcomed and moved new students and their families into the residence halls. One parent moving their first year student into a residence hall said, "You all are the answer to my prayers. I didn't know how we were going to carry my child's things up three flights of stairs. Then I met Brevard College's College Minister and all the volunteers who welcomed me with a smile on their faces. Ultimately, all I had to do was park my car and volunteers took care of everything. That's true ministry! In that moment I knew God was present and at work at Brevard College."

This year they have been witnesses to God's love as they have shared more than 150 prayers, visited more than 250 people, counseled more than 150 people, invited the college community on weekly prayer walks, led six religious and spiritual life programs including an interfaith tour, created three vibrant student led ministries, taught two courses and four studies, and welcomed a host of inspirational speakers and leaders to engage the campus community. Additionally, four students admitted their call to ministry, 12 joined a leadership group for individuals with a vocational interest in ministry, two students applied and was accepted into seminaries, and one student became a ministerial candidate within the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Brevard College celebrates what God has done and looks forward to the great things God will do in, through, and with Brevard College. Brevard College continually aims at providing dynamic opportunities for learning, understanding, engagement, and discovery. They strive to offer creative and religiously diverse programming, service learning projects, cultural and religious immersion experiences, community engagement, mentoring and training, inspirational speaker series, and space for worship and reflection. The Brevard College team seeks to provide profound experiences where inclusion, compassion, creativity, and possibility become tangible expressions of lived experiences. They intentionally do this while remembering their rich Methodist heritage.

3.b. GREENSBORO COLLEGE CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

The Greensboro College Religious Life office actively supports the spiritual life and faith development of students, faculty, and staff. Central to the life of the college is a weekly chapel service on Thursdays led by students, with music provided by the chapel band and gospel choir. This weekly service includes a variety of preachers from the campus and community.

Each week there are a variety of small groups, Bible studies, and structured times for prayer. A weekly Bible study is also offered for faculty and staff, and a Sunday night worship service for college students is provided in the area with the Wesley-Luther Ministry at UNC Greensboro. The Religious Life office also collaborates with the Wesley-Luther Campus Ministry, Catholic Campus Ministry, Episcopal Campus Ministry, Ukirk (Presbyterian) Campus Ministry, and Hillel Campus Ministry in Greensboro. Students have the ability to attend the weekly gatherings with these ministries.

As a recipient of the Young Clergy Initiative from the General Board of Higher Education and ministry, Greensboro College Religious Life has implemented an internship program to help students discern their call to ministry. Students have the experience of being an intern at local United Methodist and Lutheran Congregations to learn about ministry and ways in which they can serve the church as lay leaders and ordained clergy.

In December, Greensboro College held the 55th annual Festival of Lessons and Carols in Finch Chapel. This spring the 57th annual Ward Lecture on Christian education was held with speaker Dr. Jonathan Wilson-Hartsgrove.

As of mid-March Greensboro College became one of the first colleges in the area to move classes and chapel services online due to the COVID-19 virus. It has postponed graduation and other in-person events until it is safe to hold them again. Enrollment still continues to grow in the new master of arts program in theology, culture and ethics.

The Religious Life office also provides service opportunities on campus and in the community. It works closely with the Boys and Girls Club of Greensboro, providing events on campus for their members each semester. Students also sustain and support a community garden on campus to feed the hungry in the community. And it works closely with the new Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion to support a diverse student body on and off campus.

Greensboro College realigned tuition last year so that it is now $18,960 before financial aid and scholarships. This makes Greensboro College affordable and accessible to more students to receive an education rooted in the United Methodist tradition where "knowledge and vital piety" join together. The Greensboro College Religious Life office does this through its classes, chapel services, lectures, and community service events so that our students might be faithful and informed citizens of the world.

Robert Brewer, Chaplain

4.B. HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

Hayworth Chapel and the Religious Life Office (aka "The Chapel") of High Point University seek to grow the heart and soul of High Point University. The mission is for all members of the HPU community to experience that they are beloved individuals. Every person, as much as is possible, will experience belonging; become who they are called to be; and behold the presence of God's grace.

The Chapel, fostered by its Christian tradition, exists to deepen High Point University's Christian character and practice, which also means it is a place of radical hospitality to people of all traditions. In this way, HPU is Christian by tradition and interfaith in outlook, modeling inter-religious understanding and cooperation.

Recent Highlights:

- Fall Sunday Worship. "Chasing God; Choosing Grace" HPU Chapel started a Sunday morning worshipping community: HPU Sunday.
- Social Entrepreneurship. The Board of Stewards with a matching gift from an anonymous donor raised over $17,500 (a new record) to provide gifts for children during the holidays through the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program.
- Pilgrimage: Camino Spain. God in the City. Over fall break, Rev. Preston Davis and Dr. Tara Shollenberger led eight students on the Camino de Santiago. This 1,000-year-old pilgrimage is dedicated to walking as a form of prayer. The trip ends in Santiago, the resting place of St. James, disciple of Christ. Pilgrims walked nearly 90 miles over the course of a week introducing students to the concept of pilgrimage, walking spiritual practices, and self-awareness.
- Jewish Life Flourishing. Jewish Life continues to grow steadily each year. Major events through either Jewish Life or Hillel (student-led Jewish group) included: the Daffodil Project (planting daffodils in remembrance of holocaust victims); weekly themed Shabbat dinners; family weekend bagel brunch; weekly lunches; weekly Wednesday evening programs; shuttles to Temple Emmanuel for High Holidays (Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre, Yom Kippur); Annual Hanukkah dinner at 1924 Prime; and MLK Day service project.
- Weekly Chapel Highlights from fall 2019. Series highlights included "Inside Out" – scripture's take on emotional intelligence; joy, sadness, anger, and fear
- Embrace the Questions. A series on unanswered prayer, uncertainty, and the question of how do we make sense of suffering?
- Interfaith Engagement. Interfaith United, a group of students who come from various religious and cultural backgrounds gather for monthly dinner. This dinner club has grown to average more than 30 students.
- Uncommon Grounds. Led by the Multicultural Affairs Office. Dr. Mark Toole, Rev. Preston Davis, and Amy Epstein lead a panel on interreligious understanding, commonality, and difference.
- Annual MLK Worship Service. Rev. Michael Walrond Jr., Senior Pastor of First Corinthian Baptist Church, Harlem, NY, was the guest preacher.
- Weekly Chapel.
- Fail Better: A three-week series on the story of Elijah and how failure sows the seeds for spiritual and vocational growth, maturity, and success. This was a Growth Mindset-awarded project led in conjunction with the Career and Professional Development Office.
- 7th Annual Black Heritage Worship Service. Theme: "Rise Up and Imagine a World" of freedom, love, security, belonging, and acceptance. Led by Genesis Gospel Choir and the Black Student Union, with contributions from Black Cultural Awareness, HPU National Pan-Hellenic Council, and the Board of Stewards. Rev. Frank Thomas, Pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, High Point, will deliver the message.
- No Turning Back. A four-week worship series on making the four biggest commitments of life count: romance, friendship, work, and faith.
- Pilgrimage: Charleston. Rev. Preston Davis and Rev. Andria Williamson took eight students to Mepkin Abbey and Charleston. This pilgrimage focused on the intersections of spiritual formation and social justice work in Charleston, SC. Students spent three nights at a Trappist Monastery, entering into the contemplative life with resident monks. Students then stayed three nights in downtown Charleston learning about the intersections of Charleston's religious, racial, and culinary history.
- Rescheduling Fr. Greg Boyle's visit. Due to unforeseen conflicts, Fr. Greg Boyle, founder of Homeboy Industries, could not visit HPU on Nov. 20. The plan is to reschedule for the fall of 2020.

5. PFEIFFER UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT'S REPORT AND CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

There are exciting things happening at Pfeiffer, where in the 2019-2020 year enrollment rose above 800 undergraduate students for the first time since the beginning of the 2007 -2010 "great recession." With 823 total undergraduate students in Misenheimer at the beginning of the year and the promise of new graduate programs in the health sciences coming online in 2020, enthusiasm in the fall semester was quite high. January 2020 brought even more optimism as the university reported a fall-to-spring retention rate of 94.8% for the undergraduate campus. These numbers will be impacted by the COVID-19 virus and virus-related turbulence and uncertainty, but Pfeiffer is encouraged by this data, interpreting it as evidence that the highly-engaged faculty and staff offer a more personal form of higher education than Pfeiffer's peer institutions.

From the Academic Division:

Perhaps the biggest news out of Pfeiffer this year is the ongoing construction of the Center for Health Sciences and the arrival of Pfeiffer's first class of graduate students in the area of Physician Assistant Studies. A 43,000 square foot, four-story structure which has now become one of the centerpieces of downtown Albemarle, N.C., the center will house Pfeiffer's programs in Physician Assistant Studies and Occupational Therapy. Pfeiffer continues to be on schedule to open the center in July of 2020. Instruction begins there in August, while first-year P.A. students spent the 2019-2020 campaign in Misenheimer in the Harris Science Building. From an advancement perspective, while most of the naming opportunities for classrooms, laboratories, simulation centers, and conference rooms have been settled, some naming opportunities remain available for the center and both of the academic programs therein. Contact the president's office at Pfeiffer for more information.

Pfeiffer will also begin its Global Sport Management graduate program in the fall of 2020. Based on the Charlotte campus, the program boasts partnerships with several professional sports organizations, and an experienced department chair with ties to the National Basketball Association (Charlotte Hornets and Detroit Pistons), several NASCAR teams, and other industry leaders.

Dr. Heidi A. Miller joined the Religion faculty after a nationwide search following the retirement of the Rev. Kathleen Kilbourne, who had a long and outstanding tenure marked by service to The United Methodist Church. Working in collaboration with seminaries – including Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC – the Master of Arts in Practical Theology(MAPT) remains one of the preeminent arenas in which deacon candidates are prepared for ministry in the shifting church and cultural landscape. Current students engage with their academic work at convenient times in Charlotte and online, and are able to immediately integrate their learning into ministerial vocations. Current students include those preparing for chaplaincy, work with incarcerated persons, spiritual direction with underserved communities, and congregational ministries. Faculty in the program are also providing resourcing to local congregations in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, as well as working with annual conferences across the United States. Among the innovations underway are training partnerships with a variety of regional non-profit and civic institutions including health systems and county correctional facilities. Pfeiffer is also working to bring these educational resources to continuing education micro-classes that can be offered to clergy and church members alike.

Student Development and Service Division:

Pfeiffer continues its vocational exploration and Pfeiffer Journey programs with the assistance of a NetVUE Program Development Grant. Promoting the idea of vocation as one's call helps Pfeiffer to fulfill its mission to prepare servant leaders for lifelong learning. Director of Vocational Discernment Caroline Sowards and University Chaplain the Rev. Maegan Habich (a UMC deacon), lead efforts in this area, with a great deal of assistance from faculty members in the Religion Department, the Communications Department, and administrators.

Pfeiffer's Masters in Marriage and Family Therapy program continues to flourish on the south Charlotte campus, and Pfeiffer continues to offer free and steeply discounted counseling sessions for individuals and families experiencing financial hardship. This ministry – offered by Marriage and Family Therapy faculty members and advanced students with degrees and training in Marriage and Family Therapy and other mental health-related fields – was utilized by over 5,000 individuals in 2019.

Pfeiffer is now in the fourth and final year of its move from NCAA Division II athletics to NCAA Division III athletics, with continued success in the USA South Athletic Conference. The conference includes competition against seven other United Methodist-related colleges, including Methodist University, N.C. Wesleyan, and Brevard College. Pfeiffer will be eligible to begin playing in the postseason in NCAA tournaments this year, as all scholarship athletes from the Division II era will have cycled out of the program (NCAA Division III institutions do not offer athletic scholarships). A special word of congratulations goes to Pfeiffer's women's soccer team, who won the USA South regular season title.

From the University Chaplain's Office:

In the fall, the chaplain's office implemented Intersections, a new form of chapel that explores the crossroads between faith and academy, and encourages students to think about their faith as it relates to contemporary issues in the world and local communities critically. Intersections meets every Tuesday morning in the chapel.

This year, Connections, a new student-led worship service, began at Pfeiffer to meet the spiritual needs of the campus community. Students designed a sacred space outside the walls of the chapel to explore their beliefs and values through music, word, centering prayer, and reflection.

XOK, Pfeiffer's Christian Ecumenical Community, continues to support students in their spiritual formation. Students meet weekly in large group gatherings, small group discussions led by local clergy, and connect with God and one another at an annual retreat. This year students focused on the semester topics of Servant Leadership and Vocational Discernment.

Beliefs and Values programming continues to grow at Pfeiffer. This initiative welcomes students of all religious and philosophical backgrounds to build a community based on the principles of mutual respect, understanding, and dialogue. This year, students attended interfaith worship services throughout western North Carolina, hosted interfaith speakers on campus, and attended a regional interfaith conference at Elon University.

Dr. Kevin Taylor and Dr. Leah Robinson, both members of the Department of Religious Studies, manage www.theologycast.org, a podcast that focuses on theological discussions in theology, academics, and pop culture. Tune in for fun, engaging, and thoughtful dialogue.

Youth Theological Institute ... or "PFEIFFER YeTI" Partnering with 29 congregations and 31 faith-based organizations, this Lilly-funded program began in summer 2017 for two weeks of life-changing experiences. Over the past three summers, YeTI has welcomed 33 high school students, with 16 college-aged mentors, into its youth theology institutes and associated activities. Participants, mentors, and leaders engaged in activities and discussion that served to expand the participants' understanding of ministry and invited them to consider their future in ministry. Of these participants, six are now serving their communities in non-profits, full-time Christian ministry, or are in seminary.

E. BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

New beginnings are being celebrated by the Western North Carolina Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Campus ministries are growing and adding new ministries.

In July 2019, the board welcomed the Rev. Jeff McCumber, who was appointed as the campus minister for the Wesley Foundation at UNC Asheville. The Rev. McCumber received his M.Div. from Wesley in 2010 and has served as an associate at Mineral Springs and Mills River. The board is thankful for the leadership of the Rev. Jessica L. Dayson who relaunched this campus ministry in 2015. She served for four years and was appointed to Myers Park in July 2019.

In January 2020, the board welcomed the Rev. Juston Smith who was appointed as the campus minister for the Wesley Foundation at Appalachian State University. The ASU Wesley board of directors did an extensive search before announcing the Rev. Smith as the new campus minister. He received his M.Div. from Hood Theological Seminary and previously served as an associate at First UMC in Gastonia. The board is grateful for the Rev. Brad Farrington who served in this role for 15 years. The Rev. Farrington is now serving as a coach and consultant.

The board also celebrates the establishment of a new Wesley Foundation on the campus of Lees McRae College called Common Ground. This ministry has a partnership with Banner Elk UMC. The Rev. Ted Henry began reaching out to the students on the campus many years ago and the fruits of that ministry have grown since. Common Ground is currently the only campus ministry on the campus and has around 30 students meeting weekly for worship, study, and a meal.

This year the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is launching a Community College/Fresh Expressions Pilot Cohort. With tuition increases at institutions of higher learning, some graduating high school students decide to enroll in community colleges as they transition into higher education. Community college has several advantages when compared to a traditional four-year college, including open admission policies, lower tuition fees, savings on room and board, and more flexible curriculum and class schedules. To extend ministry into community colleges, the WNCC Board of Higher Education and Collegiate Ministry is partnering with Fresh Expressions to encourage and resource local congregations to begin Fresh Expressions within community colleges. District superintendents will identify one congregation in their district close to a community college that they believe has the potential (passion and courage) to be in relationship with college students. A Fresh Expressions training led by Luke Edwards will be held in late 2020. After the training is completed, each congregation will be awarded $1,000 to begin a Community College Fresh Expression.

The purpose of the WNCC Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is to empower those responsible for ministries on the campus so that students will become "disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." Even in times of change and uncertainty in the denomination, campus ministry is still growing strong and is a vital ministry of the conference. Thanks to the generous support of the conference, campus ministry is alive and well on campuses across western North Carolina. The council is committed to its mission and looks forward to what God has in store for the future of campus ministry in the WNCC.

John F. Howard Jr., Chairperson

The Appalachian Wesley Foundation has been in a state of transition during the 2019-2020 academic year. Following the Rev. Brad Farrington's announcement to transition away as the Campus Pastor in April, 2019, the Board of Directors appointed a search committee. The search committee was chaired by the Rev. Lory Beth Huffman, senior pastor of Boone United Methodist Church. After an extensive search was launched in July, 2019, three candidates were invited to campus in September and October to share in worship and meet with the Student Leadership Team. The Rev. Juston Smith was announced as the campus pastor on October 20, 2019, to begin his tenure on January 1, 2020.

Even in the midst of transition and change, the mission of App Wesley continued. Weekly prayer services, worship, and small groups were led by student leaders. Highlights include the Fall Break Asheville Mission Trip, 27 Hours of Prayer during the Fall and Spring semesters, Humane Society Pet Day during midterm exams, and the end of school year beach retreat to celebrate a year of ministry and the graduates. However, March 2020 brought with it a new way in which App Wesley would need to do ministry due to the COVID-19 outbreak. Because of an extended spring break, and the change from on-campus classes to online classes, creativity and new resources were vital. App Wesley is continually committed to students and their needs, especially in the time of COVID-19 and the immediate changes this brought to on-campus living and learning, and to how this ministry would stay in community with one another. Monday night prayer services, small groups, and the Spring 27 Hours of Prayer were held through video conferencing. Wednesday night worship became a podcast, published each week, consisting of music, scripture, prayer, and a time of Bible study. Board meetings and Student Leadership meetings transitioned to video conferences.

The Appalachian Wesley Foundation student center is in the first stages of many needed updates to make the center more accessible to all students. Some updates, based on emergency, included a new water line to the building in February to help with leaks occurring outside of the building. This new line will help future upgrades to make all bathrooms handicap accessible. The board has approved working with Bill Dixon of Appalachian Architecture to draw and begin the bidding process for ADA upgrades to include handicap accessible bathrooms, and a lift from the first floor to the second floor worship space. The project includes a complete kitchen renovation during a later phase. Currently, the board is working to apply for ADA grant funding, and beginning to solicit donations to the project.

The foundation is blessed with an active board who have been a source of encouragement to both Brad and Juston, and most importantly, the students. The foundation is blessed with active students who take leadership seriously, and actively participate in the ministries of App Wesley. The foundation is always grateful for all alumni, parents, local churches, and friends for their support; and the foundation would be remiss if not to thank the annual conference for their support of this vital extension ministry.

Through this constant state of change that the Appalachian Wesley Foundation has been in throughout this past school year, one thing is for certain—the mission, the message, and the place for openness in such a vulnerable time never wavered.

Juston Smith, Director

Wesley Foundation at UNC Asheville

It has been an amazing year of growth and transformation serving the UNC Asheville campus. The foundation underwent a change in leadership in July, and the transition has been smooth and exciting. Student leadership has excelled in maintaining the identity, stability, and vision for the campus ministry while embracing new ideas with grace. Asheville Wesley continues to be known as a campus ministry that is seeking to be an authentic community that is accepting, affirming, and open to all God's children. The campus ministry continues to grow and continues to place a high value on empowering students to grow in their faith, service, and leadership abilities. This year, the Wesley Foundation has been active in service through ABCCM, local welcome tables, and the NCC UMC Disaster response team. Asheville Wesley's Leadership Team and Student Ministry Internships continue to be a success, giving students a way to make the ministry their own. The campus ministry has also worked diligently over the course of this year to reach out to local congregations and build relationships. With that being stated, the foundation would like to thank both its old and new friends for their support of the campus ministry. Thank you for helping to make the Asheville Wesley Foundation a place where any student can be known, seen, and loved as individuals of sacred worth.

Jeff McCumber, Director

Common Ground at Lees-McRae College

In the latter part of 2012, The Rev. Ted Henry began reaching out to students on the campus of Lees-McRae College. Several years later a community of trust and respect began to flourish, and a fresh expression known as Common Ground was established.

The concept behind the program was to find the "common ground" all students shared, regardless of faith, lack of faith, or anything else.

Negotiation with the Town of Banner Elk in July of 2015 yielded a free meeting space across the street from campus. The tattered and well-worn room in the Historic Banner Elk School was in serious need of some TLC. A few weeks of scrubbing mildewed walls, then throwing a few gallons of paint on the walls, adding a chalkboard and massive whiteboard, gluing together a mosaic floor covering made from painters drop cloth and carpet sample squares, and bringing in some donated furniture, Common Ground finally had a home and began to take on a personality as unique as the fifteen students attending each week.

The free meeting room was only allowed to be occupied one night per week, however, that didn't stop the enthusiasm. Huddled around several space heaters that constantly tripped circuit breakers, the challenges of the first winter in their new space only seemed to bring everyone closer together. Conversations about life, faith (or lack of it), struggles facing students, and game nights, all centered around home cooked meals, kept students coming back week after week. Service projects for the students included packing several hundred backpacks of food once a month for the Missional Network in Avery County and serving meals at a regional transitional living facility. Graduation of 2016 arrived, and the face of Common Ground changed dramatically.

Surprisingly, the students were not the only thing to change! The Historic Banner Elk School was also going through a time of transition as the town sought to bring in paying tenants. Common Ground was forced to leave the "free meeting space." The choices were to accept a room that might hold eight or nine students or move to a room that required them to start paying rent. The decision was made to forge forward and raise funds. Thanks to funding from the Appalachian District, several local churches, and a number of individuals, the rent for one year was raised in about five weeks and Common Ground's roots began to grow even deeper.

The appointments in June of 2018 moved the Rev. Henry to serve at Banner Elk UMC, located on the campus of Lees-McRae College. Banner Elk has locked arms with Common Ground and shares in the excitement of all God is doing on and around this small private college. The Rev. Henry also serves in extension ministry as part-time chaplain of the college, affording him greater access to and opportunities for building authentic relationships with the students. Common Ground is currently the only campus ministry at Lees-McRae and has around 30 students meeting Thursday nights for a meal and fellowship and Sunday evenings for worship and study.

The Board of Common Ground is excited about all God has yet to reveal for CG and is incredibly appreciative of the Western North Carolina Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for approval of Common Ground to become the newest Wesley Foundation.

Ted Henry, Director

Niner United at UNC Charlotte

Niner United is the United Methodist campus ministry, working ecumenically with the Episcopal, Lutheran (ELCA), and Presbyterian (USA) denominations at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, the Carolina's fastest-growing university. With nearly 30,000 students in the largest metropolitan between Washington and Atlanta, UNC Charlotte is a critical population to reach and serve. Niner United offers an incredibly comprehensive and dynamic ministry program and presence. The campus ministry offers two weekly worship services that reaches hundreds of students, faculty, and staff. A staff of three, together with a team of 22 student leaders, organize and coordinate the ministry programs that include Christian formation, outreach and service, music ministry, and an extensive program in vocational discernment, entitled the Faith and Leadership Experience, backed with support from the Lilly Endowment, the Young Clergy Initiative, and other various agencies and foundations. Major events included four trips (the Holy Land, Denver, Orlando, Asheville, and Hurricane Dorian relief in the Bahamas) with 102 student participants.

UNC Charlotte is still adjusting from the tragic events of April 2019, yet has emerged as a strong community resilient to the love of learning and the pursuit of making the world a better place. Niner United plays an important role in the university's student life, by helping students, faculty, and staff experience the abundance of life in Christ by equipping this university community to live consequentially faithful lives. The campus pastor, Stephen Cheyney, has worked with key administrators in establishing and re-establishing a much pastoral presence to the university community.

Despite these events, Niner United has continued to grow and offer life-changing experiences, especially to students. This past year Niner United reached 5,668 students including 1,046 students in the Class of 2023.

Steve Cheyney, Campus Pastor

Wesley Foundation at East Market at North Carolina A&T State University

WFEM is the Wesley Foundation to North Carolina A&T State University. Over the past year WFEM has partnered with multiple A&T groups to assist local Guilford County Elementary Schools for their beautification day and other volunteer opportunities. Student-led discipleship groups continued and WFEM has partnered with the Good Neighbor Movement in assisting them in starting an A&T City Village. Developing the next generation of worship ministry leaders is continued. WFEM also continues its relationship with Metropolitan Greensboro, and developing more relationships with the faculty and staff of NC A&T State University.

Diron Chloe, Director

Wesley-Luther at UNC Greensboro

Wesley-Luther would not exist without the transformational support of the Western North Carolina Conference. As the oldest of the Wesley Foundations in WNCC, the foundation continues to make disciples of Jesus who are committed to the transformation of the UNC Greensboro campus, the Greensboro community, and the world.

As an expression of the commitment to sharing the Gospel not only in words but in faithful action, Wesley-Luther serves the campus' food insecure students through the Spartan Open Pantry, which was organized for the university in 2012. Since 34% of the students at UNC Greensboro are food insecure, caring for students' basic needs is not only necessary for their health, but an essential expression of God's grace in the community. Wesley-Luther's service through food also engaged more than 219 students in on-campus service work. Those students helped distribute 11,001 pounds of food through the main distribution last year. At the time of this submission, UNC Greensboro is adapting to the realities of student needs amid the COVID-19 crisis, through the increase of weekly distribution, food deliveries to self-isolating students, and the expansion of to-go meals.

Through the support of the Lilly Endowment, Inc., Wesley-Luther has expanded its "Nourishing Mind Body and Soul" to allow more students to consider Christian vocation through care-orientated professions, lay service inside the church, and ordained ministry. In 2019, as part of this program, one student made a profession of faith and is entering the candidacy process while another young adult began seminary at Wake Forest School of Divinity.

Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University

The Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina University is grateful for all of the support it received from the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, the Smoky Mountain District, local churches, its Board of Directors, and all the friends and alumni. This academic year the ministry helped college students connect with each other and the world around them in many ways. Students spend time with each other daily at the ministry and at Cullowhee United Methodist Church. They participate in thousands of hours of service work over the year including splitting and delivering over 100 loads of firewood to local residents and delivering meals weekly via the Department on Aging Meals on Wheels program. Students also planned and implemented the 11th Annual Wesley Haunted House which raised over $5,200 for the trip to the Holy Land and reached out to over 600 college students and local residents. Each week during the school year the student worship team and Wesley staff plan and hold worship for college students. Wesley staff help college students learn how to plan and give a sermon almost every week of the school year. They also provide opportunities for small group participation, worship with Cullowhee UMC, and fellowship and study with Cullowhee UMC members. During the last academic year, Wesley staff started planning the next trip for the Holy Land in December 2020. This academic year, 15 students and three staff have signed up, as well as several Cullowhee UMC church members and alumni. Next year, the staff plans to increase their focus on in-depth student leader development, board development and student involvement, increased intentional student outreach, and student worship training. All of this would not be possible without the generous grant from the WNCC, the Smoky Mountain District, friends and alumni of the Wesley Foundation, and their own fund-raising efforts.

Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation

Until mid-to-late February, 2020, Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation was having a really strong and solid year of ministry. New students were attending; two great spiritual retreats took place during the fall semester; more bottles of Wesley logo water bottles were given to any passersby at the home football games from our “dry” tailgate area; one of the Wake Forest seniors answered the call to pursue ministry; WFU student-led Bible study was thriving; and, the ministry at Salem was making great strides, especially at the first of the fall semester.

But then, the scourge of the pandemic began to make its sad effects felt, and life definitely changed for students as well as the rest of the world. The spring break WFU mission trip to serve with the Costa Rica Mission Project in San Isidro, CR was cancelled; and, with the cancellation of on-campus classes at both Salem College and Wake Forest University, a steep learning curve has ensued for both the students and myself!

But there are strong evidences of God’s presence within this hard and unsettling time. The Bible study folks have begun Zoom-enabled Bible study—and they report that their numbers are growing. Sermons are on video, which then get distributed by email and also on Facebook. So far, no current students nor alumni report having contracted the virus; and, the dramatic shift in the ordering of the daily schedule is actually allowing more students to be contacted. The Lord is present; the Wesley Foundation will continue; and, plans are already being made for next semester!

As always, WFU thanks the churches of the conference for their continuing support of campus ministry in the WNCC. For the Winston-Salem Wesley Foundation, the financial support we receive through the conference provides over 60 percent of the income needed to continue this ministry. Continued prayers and financial support are greatly appreciated!

Larry Jones, Campus Minister and Director

1. ALDRSGATE LIFE PLAN COMMUNITY

Aldersgate, now in its 72nd year of serving elders, is located in the most diverse geographical area of Charlotte and continues to spearhead diversity, inclusion, and equity in residents, team members, board members, and community partners. “We honor elders,” the first three words of the Aldersgate mission statement, establishes the inclusive nature of serving all elders. Comprised of 231 acres in east Charlotte, Aldersgate is one of the largest employers in the area, representing over 30 different nationalities in its team.

Aldersgate continues to fulfill its mission of serving elders, embracing diversity in all dimensions, and engaging surrounding neighbors in 2019. The progress is marked with some significant thresholds, not the least of which are outlined here.

One of the most significant achievements of 2019 is the completion of the Gateway Expansion with the opening of three final independent living buildings. The new apartments and villas are the final piece of the expansion and improvements within Cuthbertson Village Memory Care, the new Asbury Health and Rehabilitation Center, and The Commons with five unique dining venues and other engaging spaces.

The Urban Farm at Aldersgate, spanning 6.7 acres, has begun to be planted in an effort to help address food insecurity for neighboring communities. Through a collaboration with Carolina Farm Trust, the urban farm will serve as a fully operational farm with learning labs, aquaponics, and local fresh goods. The Urban Farm will accept government subsidized food programs as payment and provide wholesome food for the surrounding areas as well as the Aldersgate community. Opportunities abound for Aldersgate residents to not only enjoy the bounty but also volunteer alongside neighboring school students.

Aldersgate continues to hold SAGE certification at a platinum level as part of the intentional journey to become the inclusive flagship of the life plan community sector. Aldersgate’s core values of living in faith, practicing stewardship, serving with compassion, striving for excellence, respecting independence, embracing diversity and inclusion, and building meaningful connections are reflected and modeled starting with the board of directors and leadership team.

Opening Minds Through Art (OMA) is an evidence-based art program specifically designed for artists to express themselves, within their diagnosis of dementia. OMA was launched in Cuthbertson Village Memory Care with the first group of resident and volunteers. Volunteers work with the same residents over six art sessions and the projects were intentionally structured to promote the social engagement, autonomy, and dignity of the artists while providing an avenue for individuality and creativity. The work culminated with a resident art show where funds were raised to continue the support of this meaningful experience.

Renovations have begun in the former WNCC building to welcome the Camino Community Center to open its second location on the Aldersgate campus later this year. This collaboration will bring Camino’s second free medical clinic and mental health services to a largely immigrant clientele. This fills a deep need for the neighborhood residents. Along with the OurBridge afterschool immigrant program for kids, Aldersgate continues to enjoy strong community relations in this great area of East Charlotte.

Playworks Productions and Aldersgate proudly presented “Acting Our Age: A Century of America in Seven Voices” in 2019. Close to 1,500 people enjoyed hearing the stories of seven lively Aldersgate elders who were the focus of the unique theatre and video experience that traced their lives from childhood to the present. Ranging in age from 73 to 95 years old, their experiences intersect with nearly every major cultural and historical development in the United States over the past 100 years.

Aldersgate at Home continues to serve clients who live both on and off the Aldersgate campus in Mecklenburg County expanding to approximately 100 additional lives touched.

Aldersgate celebrated the diversity of East Charlotte at the fourth annual International Sandwich Festival. Thousands of guests of all ages came out to Shamrock Drive to enjoy live entertainment, sandwiches, and specialty cuisine from around the world.

Aldersgate previously entered into a letter of intent to develop and operate an independent living community with dedicated memory care at Shalom Park Jewish campus and further expand its mission. Set to open 2024, this Jewish community, serving all faiths, will be unique in the integration of the various Jewish agencies at the park and further combat ageism by providing innovative intergenerational opportunities. With no other Jewish senior communities between Richmond, VA and Atlanta, GA, this community, named Generations, is positioned to carry on the standard of excellence that the Aldersgate campus on Shamrock Drive continues to strive to maintain the best possible days for the elders they are blessed to serve.

Finally, during this year Aldersgate had the privilege of dedicating the Sigmon Memorial Garden, named for the Rev. Dr. Thomas Sigmon, a good and faithful servant of the church for many, many years. Tom and his family were the driving force in bringing the Columbarium to fruition. Sadly, Tom passed away April 5, 2019. Fittingly, Tom was the first to be inurned in the Sigmon Memorial Garden and Columbarium.

Aldersgate's journey continues.

2. ARBOR ACRES UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITY, INC.

On behalf of the board of directors, the residents, and the staff of Arbor Acres, the annual report of this ministry's activities to the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church is submitted. It is a pleasure to be joined through the common mission and ministry in extending Jesus Christ's gospel to others.

Over the last year Arbor Acres has been preparing to celebrate its 40th year of service to the Triad. In planning various commemorative celebrations, a significant amount of time and effort has been focused on addressing the infrastructure. With 40 years of service come 40 years of wear and tear. As a result, the board of directors and the leadership of the community have approved a Core Redevelopment Plan that will serve as a guide for the addition of new apartments, as well as the eventual replacement and/or repurposing of existing buildings in order to ensure that Arbor Acres continues to adapt to the changing needs and expectations of older adults.

In addition to the work on the Core Redevelopment Plan, the community has implemented two new programs: Arbor Acres Home Care and the Arbor Acres Advantage. Arbor Acres Home Care is a private-duty home care agency providing in-home services ranging from companion services and personal care to skilled nursing services. Arbor Acres Advantage is a program that enables individuals who live outside Arbor Acres to become residents without relocating to the campus. This program allows the participants to engage in the life of the community and enjoy many of its benefits while remaining in their preferred location.

The Resident Assistance Fund received $412,529, surpassing the goal of $400,000. Unrestricted bequests totaled $542,355, surpassing the 2018 total of $212,333. Four new members joined the Heritage Society, keeping the total membership over 130. The total amount Arbor Acres provided as Community Benefit was $1,898,494.43.

A new effort is being made to support the Financial Assistance Endowment which is currently over $15 million. Membership is being sought for individuals committing a designation of $500,000 through their estate for the Resident Assistance Fund Endowment. To date, six new members have committed to this effort. The new group will be called the Anniversary Society.

Arbor Acres is grateful for the continued relationship in the active ministry in the name of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

3. CHRYSALIS COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION CENTER

Chrysalis is the Methodist counseling and consultation resource serving all the districts of the eastern part of the conference. It is a non-profit, 501(c)(3), fee-based center providing mental health services for individuals, couples, families, and children who are experiencing emotional and spiritual issues.

Chrysalis believes that healing and wholeness is a fundamental part of serving God in all relationships. It provides quality confidential counseling for ministers and their families at an affordable cost. It also serves clergy as a referral source for congregants experiencing a range of emotional problems including anxiety disorders, addiction, depression, marital conflict, and relationship issues.

In 2019 Chrysalis relocated to the (former/vacant) parsonage of Rehobeth United Methodist Church. The transition was successful and clients have expressed increased comfort at the new location. The satellite at Covenant UMC in High Point remains in place with steady growth under Chrysalis counselor Cathy Cole, LPC.

Chrysalis continues to serve as an invaluable resource for those seeking affordable, professional counseling and consultation services. In 2019 Chrysalis reduced total fees by $33,000 for its clients. It also maintains the Chrysalis Samaritan Fund for those have limited income and are without mental health insurance coverage. It is proud of this figure and the spirit of the mission that it represents.

Since 1980, Chrysalis Counseling & Consultation Center has provided services to individuals and families in its faith communities. It thanks you for your trust in its efforts over the years to make a difference in the lives of people. Chrysalis appreciates all financial support as it moves forward to meet the growing demands of the future.

4. CROSSNORE SCHOOL & CHILDREN'S HOME

Crossnore School & Children's Home has a 212-acre campus opened in 1909 in the heart of Winston-Salem, N.C., an 86-acre campus opened in 1913 in Crossnore, N.C., and a satellite office opened in 2018 in Hendersonville, N.C. The mission of Crossnore School & Children's Home is to grow healthy futures for children and families by providing a Christian sanctuary of hope and healing. Crossnore's programs include residential foster care, community-based foster care and adoptions, outpatient and school-based clinical services, educational services, and transitional living services for children aging out of foster care.

Brett A. Loftis, J.D., Chief Executive Officer of Crossnore School & Children's Home, directs an executive team of seven: based on the Winston-Salem campus, Jenny Taylor, Chief People Officer; Meribeth Robinson, Executive Director-Triad Region; Sarah Norris, Child Welfare Division Director; and, Johannes Steffin, Clinical Director. Based on the Crossnore campus, Caroline Hart, Deputy Director; Teresa Huffman, Chief Financial Officer; and, Kenny Cook, Chief Facilities Officer. Each officer leads a team of talented directors and staff who are committed to the mission of Crossnore School & Children's Home. The board of trustees is led by Katheryn Northington, Board Chair; Bick Cardwell Jr., Vice-Chair; Marilyn Williams, Secretary; and Ted Laporte, Treasurer.

Crossnore utilizes The Sanctuary Model®, a trauma-informed model of care, in all locations and was re-certified in the model for in 2018. Crossnore is one of only six organizations nationwide that have been certified three times by The Sanctuary Institute. Our fourth certification process will begin this year and conclude with a site visit by The Sanctuary Institute in 2021. By utilizing the most current science about brain development and decades of research about the impact of trauma on the brain, Sanctuary transforms organizations into healing communities. Sanctuary is implemented worldwide in more than 300 organizations, and it is the only organizational model that is recognized by the National Child Traumatic Stress Network. Put simply, Sanctuary changes an organization's essential question from, "What's wrong with you?" to, "What happened to you?" When implemented with fidelity in an organization, research shows that children and adult clients make better and faster progress, and the staff members serving clients are protected from the dangerous impacts of vicarious trauma and toxic stress. Crossnore currently has 42 employees who are trained as Sanctuary trainers providing ongoing training for staff and community-based foster families.

Crossnore opened the Center for Trauma Resilient Communities in 2018 to provide training in trauma and building resiliency to communities across the United States. Faculty of the Center offer customized training to meet the needs of groups, teams, churches, businesses, or organizations. These sessions range from half-day workshops in the basics of trauma-informed care to multi-day intensives that delve deeper into effectively responding to those who have experienced trauma, as well as multi-year contracts helping organizations embed and embody the science of trauma resilience.

Crossnore School & Children's Home's residential program is growing on the Winston-Salem campus. Seven cottages have been refurbished or renovated and are now home for up to 63 children. Hanes Cottage, most recently renovated, houses a new cafeteria for group meals and a commissary where cottage parents pick up their weekly groceries. Combined with the 14 cottages on the Crossnore campus, 132 children are living safely on the campuses and are cared for by Crossnore's professional cottage parents. Many of the children live with their siblings and all receive the therapeutic, medical, and educational support services they need. Spiritual life has grown on both the Winston-Salem and Crossnore campuses to include 21 cottages attending churches in their local communities, a community garden on the Crossnore campus, weekly chapel services, monthly Young Life for teens, fall and spring spiritual life retreats for teens, as well as small group studies for staff.

Crossnore's Clinical Services is providing outpatient and school-based therapy to approximately 423 children in Winston-Salem, Crossnore, and Hendersonville. In Winston-Salem, Crossnore's day treatment program continues to serve Kindergarten through 12th grade at Kingswood School. The day treatment program at Kingswood is currently serving 27 children. Crossnore's school-based therapy services are offered to students in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and Henderson County Public Schools and we are currently serving in 21 elementary, middle, and high schools in these districts.

Foster care and adoption services have expanded to Crossnore's three locations. Currently 79 foster children are living safely in one of Crossnore's 84 licensed community family foster and/or therapeutic foster homes. Another 31 families are currently in the foster care licensing process. Additional staff has been hired in Crossnore and Hendersonville to facilitate recruitment and support of these families.

To support the expansion of community-based foster care and adoptions, Crossnore's Fostering Communities continues to recruit churches as they answer God's call to serve foster children and families in their own communities. Crossnore partners with local churches to create a Fostering Community and provides a dedicated point of contact, education on the impact of trauma and how to build resiliency, development of a sustainable support structure to meet the needs of foster children and parents, training and licensure for families who are interested in becoming trauma resilient foster families, support with ongoing coaching and consultations, and overseeing a smooth process for any foster placement that may become a forever home for a child through adoption. For more information about the Fostering Communities initiative, please email fosteringcommunities@crossnore.org.

For nearly 112 years, Crossnore School & Children's Home have worked to transform the lives of thousands of children in need of hope and healing. With three locations, professional and dedicated staff, and the support of many donors and volunteers, Crossnore School & Children's Home is the premier provider of children's services in Western North Carolina.

5. GIVENS COMMUNITIES

COVID-19 has received much attention due to the age of the constituency served. It has been imperative the organization be prepared to keep residents and staff as safe as possible in a caring and supportive environment. They have implemented emergency preparedness, infection control and pandemic plans to address the coronavirus and manage this difficult situation. The residents and staff in the four communities are working together in a positive and supportive manner to overcome this crisis. There is solace in going through trying times together. Also, there is inspiration from the response of the most vulnerable group who are concerned for others before themselves. This is a lesson for all.

Beginning in 2019, Givens placed an emphasis on respecting differences, diversity, and inclusion. This will continue through 2020 and 2021 with a specific focus on inclusion. There is much work to be done though they are pleased with current progress and enthusiastic about the future and the opportunity to become stronger and healthier.

Givens Estates is renovating Oxford Commons, the main building on campus. The renovations will expand the dining options and wellness opportunities. Also, Givens Estates is building Friendship Park which is designed to replace some of the older more moderately priced housing and includes 80 one and two-bedroom apartments. Both projects will be completed in 2021. While these projects are under construction, attention will soon be shifting to phase 2 of the campus master plan which includes a significant renovation of the health care center. Givens Estates is installing the first solar panels which will provide energy to the grounds and maintenance buildings. The health center will be working with Action Pact to continue its effort of becoming more resident and staff focused.

Highland Farms is building The Cottages which is sixteen one and two-bedroom homes on a beautiful seven-acre site on the southeast side of the campus. The Cottages will be complete in September of 2020. Also, under construction is a much-needed maintenance and grounds building. While these projects are underway, attention is shifting to phase 2 of the campus master plan which will include new kitchen, dining and commons areas, and 57 one and two-bedroom apartments. This phase of the master plan will augment Meadowmont Homes and The Cottages which will further transform that wonderful community.

Great Laurels continues to emphasize the importance of social connections and being in community. The onsite Manna Food Pantry and the access to campus nursing continue to benefit residents. This wonderful community is fully occupied with healthy waiting lists which is a testimony of the need and demand for quality affordable housing in Western North Carolina.

Gerber Park is a wonderful community that is fully occupied with healthy waiting lists which is evidence of the need and demand for quality affordable housing in Western North Carolina. The attention and focus are on making this a vibrant and lively campus, providing a quality of life as well as support services to enable residents to gracefully age in their homes. Socialization is the cornerstone of resident life with a particular emphasis on nutritious meals, addressing food insecurity, navigating a complex and complicated health system, accessing community-based services, and mental, physical and spiritual wellness. Residents are collaborating with staff and taking responsibility for making Gerber their home. Two meals are available each weekday in the Go to Café. The medical clinic is a partnership with Blue Ridge Health and provides residents onsite access to primary care at the lowest cost to the residents. Gerber Park is an example of partnerships and important collaborations with those who believe in providing quality residential living with support services to everyone regardless of finances, especially The Duke Endowment.

LifeMinistries is the faith and community-based outreach program. It is thriving and continues to impact the local churches and communities. It enables congregations to share their gifts and talents in addressing health and wholeness needs with those in need including the frail and the unchurched. LifeMinistries areas of focus include Welcome Tables (meal sites), BEAR Closets (baby equipment and resources), medical equipment loan closets, MY Meds (medication assistance), wellness education, and a community nurse program addressing the needs of lower-income seniors.

Givens Communities continues to be an exciting organization with an abundance of opportunities serving seniors in Western North Carolina. They remain enthusiastic about their Life Plan Communities, their affordable housing, their emphasis on keeping residents independent for as long as possible, and their goal of being a responsible employer in which team members are welcomed, respected, and appreciated.

Kenneth M. Partin, Chief Executive Officer

6. SANCTUARY COUNSELING GROUP (SCG)

Sanctuary Counseling Group (SCG) is an agency that provides mental health counseling to 16 unique communities in the greater Charlotte area from Hickory to Monroe to Shelby. For over 50 years, SCG therapists have been offering counseling, psychotherapy, and consultation to individuals, clergy, congregations, and UMC districts in the western and central Piedmont areas. It works with a variety of issues, including depression, anxiety, stress, career counseling, abuse recovery, grief/loss, and addiction, to name a few. In addition, SCG offers educational programs for church congregations and groups. Its mission statement is “to be dedicated to the healing of the heart, mind, and soul by providing excellent emotional, spiritual, and relational health care to all peoples and communities.”

2019 Statistics:

- 9,285 hours of counseling services were provided for over 763 clients
- 1,999 hours of service were provided on a sliding scale
- Donations provided 1,268 hours to the Samaritan Fund last year for low income clients, a $195,000 value
- SCG served 16 communities: Charlotte, Shelby, Gastonia, Belmont, Monroe, Pineville, South Charlotte, Center City, University City, Concord, Huntersville, Davidson, Hickory, Salisbury, Winston-Salem, and High Point
- 100 percent of donations go to the Samaritan Client Assistance Fund
- $50 pays for one hour of services; $750 can last a client for a year
- 33 percent of hours provided are at reduced rates

All SCG’s therapists are licensed to conduct counseling in the State of North Carolina, based on their professional organizations. In addition to having pastoral counselors on staff, it also has Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselors, and Licensed Clinical Social Workers. Its goal is to meet people where they are in their walk without judgment or bias. SCG realizes that throughout life there are times that everyone needs some assistance, and it values the opportunity whenever someone calls for help in their despair and darkness. As a faith-based organization, it offers God’s healing grace to all regardless of their beliefs and position in life. SCG has found many of its churches are full of those broken because of life circumstances, and this keeps them bound to the pews instead of fully engaging in God’s work. SCG serves as an important referral source for pastors, who often do not have the time or the specialized training to work with persons who are hurting in local congregations.

SCG’s therapists work with a plethora of mental health and relationship issues that cover a broad spectrum. While some have specialties, the therapists are for the most part generalists. Some specialties include play therapy, abuse and trauma recovery, perinatal and child loss trauma, marriage, adolescents and young adults, sex, men’s issues, coaching, and addiction. SCG uses various methods and techniques so clients can reach the goals they set for themselves. It specializes in working with pastors who face the same challenges in life as the rest of the community but often do not have a resource to help them.

SCG realizes that communities are ever changing, as is the need, so it has been growing by adding new staff members who offer diverse skills to the communities we serve. Since last October, SCG has added five new therapists with experience in a variety of clinical areas. Realizing that various cultural influences affect the way people of color see therapy, SCG is working to hire more therapists of color. It believes this is instrumental in carrying out the work of God in all communities.

The SCG area of service now encompasses the Catawba Valley, Metro, Northern Piedmont, and Uwharrie districts that cover a 13-county area. Shady Grove UMC was added this year to the location list. SCG donated approximately $195,000 in dollars of service provided at either a reduced or no cost basis to the various communities where there are satellites. This was made possible by generous donations from church partners and donors who believe in its mission. In addition to offering the Samaritan’s Client Assistance Fund, SCG also takes insurance from five different insurance carriers, including the conference plan.

SCG has a website that is updated regularly with new information that pertains to the industry, which can be accessed at www.sanctuarycounselinggroup.org. SCG works to stay current with all mental health issues and endeavors to make its social media platforms a resource to communities through Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter. It encourages you to follow SCG and to post links on your own church’s websites and social media. To learn more about the clinical services and sites, as well as to make contributions to the Samaritan Client Assistance Fund to aid persons without the financial means who seek professional pastoral counseling, visit any of the social media sites.

SCG is a service center that is accredited by both the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC) and the Samaritan Institute.

7. UMAR SERVICES, INC.

As a mission and ministry, UMAR promotes community inclusion, independence, and growth for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities through residential, employment, and cultural enrichment opportunities. Providing vital services for adults with a wide range of physical, mental, and emotional disabilities, its mission easily translates into “Live, Work, and Thrive” as it transforms lives. UMAR is grateful for the partnership from members across the Western North Carolina Conference.

Districts, churches, and individuals welcome UMAR into their hearts, homes, and sanctuaries. While living out The Social Creed of The United Methodist Church to be committed to the rights of people with disabilities, the church body advocates, provides financial support, and provides inclusive opportunities for spiritual development, volunteerism, essential items, and social interaction. One hundred percent of UMAR residents participated in a worship service or church-sponsored activity in the past year.

Thank you. If it were not for this support, UMAR would be unable to provide the following opportunities and quality services upon which families and communities rely:

- Live (Residential Services): UMAR operates 22 homes, nine apartments, and one duplex. Dedicated, trained staff provide residents with 24/7 support, meals, transportation, activities, and other quality of life enhancements, all while fostering independence and responsibility in a family-like setting.
- Work (Vocational Services): UMAR helps adults with disabilities secure and maintain competitive employment with skills assessment, job coaching, placement, training, and support for as long as the individual is employed.
- Thrive (Day Programs/Arts): UMAR day programs focus on art, social, and independent-living skills. Because vocational services are not appropriate for everyone, day services ensure meaningful activities that foster learning and growth. With art centers located in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville, community partnerships inspire a variety of art forms such as painting, pottery, culinary arts, and horticulture. Artists earn a 40 percent commission for every piece sold.
- Community Services: Across 11 counties, UMAR provides individualized or group activities to increase or maintain life skills, self-determination, self-care, and participation in the community. Supports can include community networking, supported living in one's own residence, crisis services, respite for family caregivers, and supported employment

As an outreach ministry, congregations can be engaged in the work of UMAR through hands-on mission activities, donations, and volunteering with participants. For more information on programs or to get involved, visit UMARinfo.com.

Celebrations from 2019:

- The Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) awarded three-year accreditation for excellence in community housing, supported living, community integration, job development, job supports, and job-site training.
- The ALL IN Campaign was launched to raise awareness of adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities and of the financial challenges facing UMAR, as well as the opportunities for growth.
- Community and periodic support services grew as a direct result of electronic health record implementation.
- A total of 305 people were supported in their own community, with 917,835 miles driven in service to participants.
- A total of 503 hours of professional training was provided to direct support caregivers.
- UMAR arts in Charlotte, Lincolnton, and Reidsville continued to increase community partnerships and class offerings, enabling artists to increase their skills, involvement, income, and artistic expression.

Focus Areas for 2020:

- Continued performance improvements in care delivery that embody UMAR's mission while meeting the needs and dreams of UMAR participants.
- Extension of the $3.5 million ALL IN fundraising and community engagement campaign as a result of COVID-19 disruption.
- Investment in technologies that enhance workforce resourcing and productivity as well as improve outcomes of the people UMAR supports.
- Implementation of organizational strategy to reduce annual operational deficit and improve financial strength and sustainability.
- Increased organizational awareness and image throughout western North Carolina.

G. BOARD OF LAITY

The 2016-2020 Board of Laity term is completed. The generative leaders who served the Western North Carolina Conference on the board is congratulated. These members caught the vision that growing numbers of committed United Methodist laity who are maturing in their faith, disciplining others, and transforming their churches and communities are the hands and feet of Christ in WNCC and around the globe. Through their actions, they have modeled, assessed, and advocated for the WNCC laity, so that through their leadership and engagement, everyone glimpsed what God can do through the quarter-million lay members.

Accomplishments for this quadrennium include:

- Implementing a plan to enrich the personal faith of lay members through the training for and resourcing of accountability and covenant groups in churches across the conference;

- Establishing, in partnership with Bishop Leeland and the cabinet, a Certified Lay Ministry program. Thereby completing a full spectrum of Lay Servant Ministry training across the conference while standardizing training and coordinating opportunities to serve;
- Providing leadership to relaunch the Connectional Table of the WNCC, where lay members served as co-chairs. The committee began its work and continues in the 2020-2024 quadrennium to coordinate ministry efforts across the conference to invest funding and human resources consistent with the mission and in the areas where they have the highest potential for impact;
- Partnering with Bishop Leeland to more fully engage lay leadership from the local church to the extended cabinet to participation at Annual Conference.

It has been an honor to serve as conference lay leader. Please welcome John Crane, the next conference lay leader. The 2020-2024 Board of Laity is poised to continue innovative and fruitful ministry so that the communities and world benefit from engaging with the laity of The United Methodist Church of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Jane Boatwright Wood, Conference Lay Leader

H. UNITED METHODIST MEN

The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men mission is to support spiritual growth among men, helping men to mature as disciples as they encourage spiritual formation in others. The WNCC United Methodist Men goal is to empower the ministry of Jesus Christ through men within the congregations of the WNCC UMC.

The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men are proud of the faithfulness and hard work of the local UMM units in each district. The overview of ministry of men in the local church is defined as a core group of men, partnering with their pastor, to invite and initiate spiritual growth opportunities for all men of the church. Everyone has different gifts, graces, and areas of interest. Therefore, opportunities for participation include diverse ministries of the church, such as prayer groups, missions, Bible studies, retreats, workshops/seminars, small groups in the Wesleyan tradition, leading and participating on committees, teaching Sunday school classes, youth ministries, scouting, mentoring, and assisting in leading worship service. The focus of the United Methodist Men is not inward, concentrating only on those who attend a set meeting, but outward to all men, assisting them to engage the process of spiritual growth.

The WNCC United Methodist Men are committed to building relationships and encouraging one another. They continue to encourage men in each of the eight districts to sponsor a variety of events and gatherings such as spiritual workshops, men choir singings, prayer breakfasts, buildings projects, supplying food for pantries to feed the hungry, building accessibility ramps for individuals in need of them, The Class Meeting and many other Christ Centered events that will more effectively connect, and fellowship with local and district members and all people in their communities.

The WNCC UMM continue to present information about their emphasis on scouting in which The United Methodist Church is the largest denominational supporter of scouting in the United States, each year the WNCC UMM Scouting Coordinator Team sponsors an excellent scouting weekend at Lake Junaluska.

The WNCC UMM proudly sponsors Ministerial Scholarships for Second Career Pastors for which the UMM give an average $5,000 every year. They support WNCC Disaster and Building Teams.

The WNCC United Methodist Men are very strong advocates against domestic violence and the week of August 2–8 everyone will be asked to observe a Week of Prayer against Domestic Violence and also pray for strong loving family relationships. This year the devotional for each day will be written by a UMM Spiritual Advisor in coordination with members of the executive board. The UMM work along with the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the GCUMM partner amend together to help stop domestic violence.

Looking at the future, the UMM need younger men to participate in the ministry, therefore, they have established a “YOUNGER Men’s Ministry” which is an innovative way to draw men to the United Methodist Men. For more information go to: <https://sejumm.org/youngERMen.html>.

The Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men continue to be leaders among the General Commission of United Methodist Men by continuing to have the highest number of life members of UMM, a very high percent of churches with a charter, and a high number of charters. ## I. UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The highlight of 2019 was the celebration of 150 years in mission on March 23. The conference, all eight districts, and many local units had creative celebrations. Much fun was had throughout the year learning about the foremothers’ roles in what is today United Methodist Women (UMW).

Mission work is being done in some 120 countries, through eight regional missionaries and 92 mission institutions. Five of those are in this conference: Bethlehem Center in Charlotte and Winston-Salem, Brooks-Howell Home for retired missionaries and deaconesses in Asheville, Bennett College in Greensboro, and Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer. What began in 1869 with two cents a week and a prayer in one country has become a $27 million annual mission effort around the world. Membership has grown from those six ladies in Boston to 800,000, the largest faith-based organization for women in the world.

Conference membership of 18,000+ in more than 600 units took part in the conference and district events. A new two-night June spiritual growth retreat at Lake Junaluska featured speaker Clara Ester, Deaconess and national UMW Vice-President, with the theme “Thorns and Roses.” The extra day allowed for various breakout sessions. Mission at Pfeiffer University’s Misenheimer campus in July featured studies on “The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship” and “Women United for Change—150 Years in Mission.” At the annual celebration at Lake Junaluska in September, a “Grace, Grit & Gratitude” theme featured speaker Christi Campos, national UMW Executive for Development and Donor Relations. Ubuntu Day of Service was conducted at the Mission Resource Center, Bethlehem Center Charlotte, Bethlehem Center Winston-Salem, Brooks-Howell Home, Bennett College, and Pfeiffer University. Members prepared stars for holiday gift donations, cleaned closets, planted shrubbery, etc. Districts had prayer breakfasts, mission studies, days apart, and annual meetings. The conference leadership team provided training for district officers on Leadership Development Day. The eight districts used this information to provide training for new and continuing local unit officers.

Conference total mission giving was $763,129. Local units across the conference supported many projects within their own communities directly. Scholarships in the amount of $19,900 were awarded to undergraduate students at the Methodist colleges in the Western North Carolina Conference: Bennett College, Brevard College, Greensboro College, High Point University, and Pfeiffer University. Social and justice issues have been at the heart of this organization since those six ladies and two missionary wives became concerned about the plight of women and girls in India. Focus continues on the quadrennial priorities of economic inequality, climate justice, maternal and child health, and criminalization of communities of color. UMCOR kits and Project AGAPE Christmas shoe boxes were collected as hands-on projects at conference and district events. Members enjoyed providing relief items and bringing Christmas cheer to children in Armenia. Hands-on projects had a value of $105,487. Even as conferences across the nation combine to form larger memberships, Western North Carolina was a very close second in the nation for undesignated mission giving.

The Legacy Fund endowment campaign goal of $60M will undergird this organization and insure the mission work of United Methodist Women well into the future. At the end of 2019, $31M of this goal had been realized. At the national level there were various actions to conserve mission dollars and to allow the 25 directors to allocate money wisely.

This new year and new decade will certainly bring changes within The United Methodist Church, but the PURPOSE and mission of United Methodist Women will remain the same. Regardless of local church affiliation, United Methodist Women plan to be the “uniting” force to keep women “united” for personal spiritual growth, leadership development, and mission support for so many women, children, and youth around the world who rely on this involvement to better their lives. This organization will strive to continue its mission to work for and with women as it creates, supports, and partners with other organizations to make mission happen.

J. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES (CCYM)

The 2019–2020 Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) is composed of approximately 30 youth and five adults from various districts in the conference. The CCYM is a leadership team of dedicated youth and adults who plan and implement ministries for youth across the Western North Carolina Conference. In addition, the CCYM receives grant applications and awards Youth Service Funds each year. The CCYM mission is to find ways to encourage young people to follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform the world.

The CCYM faced many exciting changes this year which served as catalysts to expand CCYM’s influence in the conference. It gives thanks to God for the leadership of Amanda Thomas over the past several years and is blessed with the new leadership of Shannon LeMaster-Smith as CCYM Coordinator. Both women have worked together to provide a smooth transition for this year’s CCYM to thrive.

CCYM is responsible for planning the conference-wide retreat for middle school youth, known as IgniteUs (formerly Kaleidoscope). It meets every other month to work on IgniteUs. This year it also took time at each meeting to dream about the future of CCYM, which involved some restructuring and editing its guidelines. New committees were formed and old ones were changed so more youth could be involved in the planning and execution of IgniteUs and spreading God’s word beyond this event. An example is CCYM’s new Praise Team that was formed to lead the group in worship at each meeting and at IgniteUs in the spring. Considering the wonderful talents that God blessed each of the CCYM members with helped CCYM realize that it needs to embrace them and use them to inspire others!

With COVID-19 becoming a prevalent issue about a month before IgniteUs, the executive team of the CCYM had to make the tough decision to cancel IgniteUs, which was scheduled for April 24–26, 2020. While disappointed CCYM would not be able to share the love of God to middle school youth in person at IgniteUs 2020, the organization is grateful for the leadership growth of the youth who serve on CCYM and will build on this in the future. The IgniteUs theme for this year was “2020: Focus on the Path,” and CCYM knows that God still has a path for it during these hard times. Psalm 119:105 says that God is “a lamp to our feet and a light to our path,” and CCYM knows that God is guiding it to do great things, even if it is not what was originally planned.

CCYM is excited to partner with Missional Engagement and Connectional Ministries to hold regional youth events throughout the upcoming year. It is in the beginning stages of nurturing this partnership and is hopeful to reach youth all over the WNCC. In addition, it has scheduled IgniteUs 2021 for April 23–25, 2021, to be held at YMCA Camp Hanes in King.

On behalf of CCYM, thank you for your continued support for the conference youth ministry. The CCYM is growing leaders of today and the next generation to transform the church and the world into a community that accepts and loves all of God’s children. It gives thanks to God for allowing it to be the hands and feet of Christ and guiding members even when the path may not be clear. Join CCYM in embracing “being the church” and trusting that God is “a light to our path” and will guide us to love, comfort, and inspire others in all circumstances.

Rylie Warren, President

K. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry supports the mission of the Western North Carolina Conference by developing, implementing, overseeing, and evaluating programs that focus on recruiting, training, certifying, examining, recommending, and supporting clergy leadership for the conference and denomination. The board is a diverse group of clergy and laity from across the conference. The Director of Ministerial Services and the Associate Director of Ministerial Services serve as staff to the board along with two district superintendents who serve as cabinet representatives.

The members of the board are volunteers and each member volunteers many hours. They serve on working teams to care for specific aspects of the board's work and they serve on Discernment Teams to interview candidates. In January they began reading documents submitted by persons who had applied for ordination as full connection deacons or elders. Board members were evaluating the candidate's effectiveness in ministry demonstrated in their provisional years. They were discerning how the applicants had integrated the fundamentals of the faith and United Methodist doctrine and polity with the daily practice of ministry. Board members spent two days together in February interviewing these candidates in person. Thirteen persons are being recommended to be ordained at the 2020 session of the annual conference,

This same process was repeated for interviews in March for persons who had applied for commissioning as provisional deacons and elders. In these interviews, the focus was evaluating readiness for ministry. The COVID-19 pandemic required that these interviews be conducted by Zoom. The interviews went very well over two days with a third day for board voting and other business. The board recommends 14 persons for commissioning in 2020.

The board has undertaken an important next step toward recruiting, identifying, training and interviewing for future clergy leadership in the Western North Carolina Conference. A board task force has assembled a list of 11 critical characteristics of a fruitful leader. That list has been outlined in a document that has been named "Whom Shall I Send: A Portrait of Fruitful Clergy Leadership." This document along with a discernment process that starts at the local church level will offer a framework by which a person can more fully clarify a call to ministry. That document will help make clear what the conference needs in future clergy leadership. Local church pastors, Staff Parish Relations committees, district superintendents, district boards of ordained ministry and others will have a process around which they may guide a person in discerning if God is calling them into licensed or ordained ministry. Provisional Member questions and Full Connection questions will be rewritten where permitted by The Book of Discipline to reflect this focus on the portrait of a fruitful leader.

A good relationship with the bishop and cabinet is important to the work of the board. The responsibilities of the board and the bishop and cabinet remain distinct, but cooperation and respect are evident. The executive committee of the board meets with the bishop and cabinet to maintain and enhance this relationship.

2020 ends four years of this board's working together on behalf of Christ and the church. This board has taken its work very seriously. The members of this board have been honored to serve in this important way.

L. BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Pension Program and Policies

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church, acting as an auxiliary to Wespeth Benefits/Investments, is charged with caring for the work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families in the Western North Carolina Conference.

In 2021, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will send invoices monthly to the churches for clergy appointed in accordance with the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) adopted by The United Methodist Church. Through December 31, 2016,

CRSP covers all US United Methodist Church clergy, including elders, local pastors and deacons, appointed within the annual conference, subject to the time designations described below with the effective date of January 1, 2014.

Since the implementation of direct billing for pension and health benefits in 2007, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits have been investing the net proceeds from these billings in various investment vehicles with The United Methodist Foundation. Over the years, these investments have provided better than projected earnings for the conference. As a result, the board has approved the sharing of these resources with the local church by reducing the cost of pension benefits (without reducing any pension benefits to the pastors) by $2,378 per full-time pastor in 2021, invoicing $3,093 to the local church. The actual cost invoiced to the conference for the CRSP DB full-time benefit will be $5,471. This is the tenth year of reductions in our CRSP defined benefit pension billings to each local church for each full-time pastor as shown in the table below:

2013	$ 6,200
2014	$ 5,118
2015	$ 4,092
2016	$ 3,824
2017	$ 3,713
2018	$ 3,402
2019	$ 3,093
2021	$ 3,093

The Board rejoices in the ability to share these resources with the local church so that more of their resources may be used for ministry within their communities.

As published in the report in 2013, new provisions of the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), enacted at General Conference 2012, became effective January 1, 2014, as follows:

- Eligibility: Full-time clergy are eligible to participate and earn benefits. Annual conferences may elect to cover clergy who are appointed as three-quarters or one-half time. Clergy who are appointed one-quarter time are no longer eligible to earn CRSP benefits. Any benefits already earned through December 31, 2013 remain in place.
- Benefit Formulas: The formula for determining the defined benefit (DB) component was reduced for the multiplier from 1.25% to 1.0% to be applied to Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) per year of service beginning January 1, 2014. Additionally, for the defined contribution (DC) component, the local church will contribute 2% of the clergy's compensation, reduced from 3% in 2013. If the clergy person contributes up to 1% of his/her plan compensation, the local church will also contribute an additional 1% amount as a dollar-for-dollar match of the UMPIP contributions, up to 1%.
- Surviving Spouse Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, the initial dollar amount of the benefit paid to a married participant will be reduced to offset the value of spousal benefits.
- Disabled Adult Child Benefits: Beginning January 1, 2014, participants may designate a disabled adult child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the participant and his or her spouse die, the disabled adult child would continue to receive DB benefits for life. The initial participant benefit would be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, in consensus with the Cabinet of the Western North Carolina Conference, recommends that the annual conference approve the continuation of eligibility of those clergy who are appointed to three-quarter or half-time designations.

Based on the above, invoices will be prepared using the following criteria:

- A. Pension Plan Compensation (PPC) is the total annual compensation reported by the charge conference for 2021; included in the PPC is the housing component. The housing is either 25% of the aforementioned annual compensation, if a parsonage is provided, or the cash paid in lieu of a parsonage.
- B. Clergy Retirement Security Program – In 2021, the Core Defined Contribution Part (CRSP-DC) is 3% of PPC. Continuing from 2014 (the effective date of this change) CRSP-DC will continue to be invoiced at 3% of PPC, with 2% being an employer contribution and 1% as a matching contribution to the pastor's United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP).
- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) is an actuarially determined normal cost provided by Wespath. For 2021, the cost is \$3,093 for each full-time clergy. For those clergy appointed  $\frac{3}{4}$  and  $\frac{1}{2}$  time (based on the eligibility approved by this session of the annual conference), the cost is that percentage times \$3,093. Wespath has provided that the conference actuarially determined normal cost contribution due December 31, 2021 will be \$3,958,245.

Effective January 1, 2014, as approved by General Conference 2012, clergy appointed to ¼ time positions will not be eligible to earn benefits under the CRSP–DC plan and will not accrue benefits in the CRSP–DB plan after that date. (All previously earned benefits will remain in place.) The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits of Western North Carolina highly recommends that any local church which is served by a clergy person appointed to a ¼ time position sponsor the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) and provide an employer contribution on behalf of the clergy person under appointment.

- D. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is the death and disability program administered through Wespath. In 2013 and prior years, premiums of 3% of PPC have been required to be paid for full-time clergy. The premium is 3% of PPC to a maximum amount of 200% of Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). General Conference 2016 approved a change that would permit Annual Conference Boards of Pension to enroll clergy appointed to ¾ time and full-time positions in the CPP. GC 2016 also changed the minimum compensation to 25% of DAC. For the year 2021, the CPP premium will be invoiced to the churches with full-time and ¾ time clergy at the rate of 2.50% of PPC, and the remaining 0.50% will be funded from conference board reserves.

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) provides that the Past Service Annuity Rate (PSR) for service years prior to 1982 will increase 2% per annum. The conference board is proposing that the 2021PSR be set at $823.00 per service year, which represents the aforementioned 2% increase and is greater than 1% of Conference Average Compensation as provided by Wespath for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1506.6 of The Book of Discipline (2016) requires each annual conference to develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan or plans for funding all of its benefit obligations. Such funding plan must be submitted to Wespath Benefits/Investments for review in order to obtain a favorable written opinion from Wespath. Under this requirement, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has developed, adopted, and implemented such formal comprehensive funding plan upon obtaining a favorable written opinion from Wespath. By approval of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and inclusion of a summary of the Comprehensive Funding Plan, with the favorable written opinion received, this plan is deemed to be approved by the Annual Conference of Western North Carolina.

Proposal: Pension Programs and Policies

(Petition 2a) Approved August 8, 2020

The conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits proposes:

1. That the basic cost of pastor's pension be invoiced to churches in 2021 as pension responsibility to support the Clergy Retirement Security Program.
2. That supplemental funds for the cost of the Clergy Retirement Security Program – Core Defined Benefit Part (CRSP-DB) for clergy appointed on medical leave be included in the 2021 conference budget at Fund 507, named "Clergy Medical Leave Benefits." The 2021 budget request for the CRSP–DB pension component for clergy on medical leave is $0 (zero).
3. That the Past Service Annuity Rate for service years prior to 1982 be set at $823.00 per service year, effective January 1, 2021, and that the eligibility for the Clergy Retirement Security Program be determined to include clergy appointed for full, ¾ and ½ time positions. That the eligibility for the Comprehensive Protection Plan be determined to include clergy appointed for full and ¾ time positions earning a minimum of 25% of the DAC in pension plan compensation (PPC).
4. That the following resolution be adopted for calendar year 2021:

Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Western North Carolina Conference

The Western North Carolina Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolution relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated or disabled clergypersons of the conference:

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

Whereas, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

Whereas, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

Whereas, The Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath, the Western North Carolina Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund, and The Duke Endowment during the period January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2021 by each active, retired, terminated or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated or a disabled Clergy person of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund, for such an active, a retired, a terminated or a disabled Clergy person's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolution) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year, or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Retired Clergy are encouraged to consult their tax advisor concerning this resolution.

Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is working in partnership with the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) on a Clergy Debt Reduction Peer Program. The program is sponsored and funded by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits and administered by the Foundation. The program is already impacting its participants, and holds possibilities for improving clergies' general welfare and well-being. As of December 31, 2019, loans outstanding for clergy debt reduction and refinancing totaled $2,076,362.

Balances Due from Churches

Beginning in 2007, direct clergy benefit costs were invoiced to each local church. According to conference action, recorded in the 2004 journal, page 234, "Non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs (pension and health benefits) result in a default recorded against the church (see ¶639.4, The Book of Discipline 2016). While individual clergy will not lose benefits, the church will incur a liability to the conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The default will be reported by the conference benefits officer to the district superintendents, and the church will be led to correct this situation.

The following is the 2019 list of churches with balances greater than $50.00 as of June 30, 2020, resulting from non-payment of direct clergy benefit costs:

Health Benefits Committee

The Health Benefits Committee serves as a subcommittee of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits (BOPHB), with responsibility in two specific areas: health benefits and group term life insurance.

The committee is composed of at least 12 members appointed by the board to quadrennial terms, as follows: three from BOPHB, one serving as chair of the committee, one being an officer of BOPHB, and one being the Cabinet representative to BOPHB; one from the conference Board of Ordained Ministry; one from the conference Council on Finance and Administration; two retired clergy persons; and five professional persons involved in the insurance industry. Typically, there are six lay members and six clergy members. The various agencies represented nominate their representatives to BOPHB for appointment.

Group Life Insurance

Wespath, through the Comprehensive Protection Plan, provides a death and disability benefit for eligible clergy, along with death benefits for members of clergy families. In addition to this coverage, the conference offers basic life insurance coverage of $10,000 for active clergy enrolled in the conference group health plan, with premiums for this coverage collected through the invoice. Clergy members may elect to increase their coverage by enrolling in additional coverage in the amounts of $25,000, $50,000, $75,000, $100,000, or $150,000. A new feature to the plan is critical illness and accident coverage. As an added benefit, a clergy member may elect to enroll his/her spouse and dependent children. This additional coverage is available from a group policy secured by the committee for a quarterly premium to be collected by the insuring company. The continuation of this optional benefit is dependent on normal participation of those eligible. Newly eligible clergy will receive information about this coverage from the Treasury Services Office. To obtain coverage without evidence of insurability, enrollment must be made within 30 days of eligibility.

Enrollment Deadlines for Health and Life Insurance

Responsibility rests with the individual to make application in writing for the group health insurance and the group life insurance. In addition, any changes in dependents' status must also be submitted in writing. The effective date of coverage for new applicants is July 1 following the session of annual conference. Applications must be made within 30 days of appointment at annual conference. Anyone seeking to apply following the 30-day grace period will have a 12-month waiting period for all pre-existing conditions.

Health Benefits Continuation Policy

The conference benefits plan provides for group members and eligible beneficiaries to continue coverage if they become ineligible for the plan. The policy is available from the plan administrator.

Premium Collection Policy

Payment of the medical/health insurance premiums for pastors is the responsibility of the local church(es). This premium payment is invoiced monthly. For churches with more than one pastor on the staff, the church is responsible for the payment of the insurance premium for each eligible pastor. It is the responsibility of the pastor to pay the premium costs for dependents.

The Health Benefits Committee requires the conference treasurer to notify dependent accounts which are delinquent by sixty (60) days or more that their coverage is immediately subject to termination. If full payment is not made by thirty (30) days after the delinquency, coverage will be terminated.

Conclusion

The committee appreciates the fine spirit in which subscribers and local churches are supporting the work of the Health Benefits Committee. It seeks their continuing support as it makes every effort to provide a health benefits program that meets all needs.

Members of the committee are: Frank A. Stith III (chairperson), Sandra McNeil, Lori Wilson, Al Jones, Marvin Melton, Rey Rodriguez, J. Zachery Christy, Phillip B. Cole, Winifred Helton, Andrea Conder, Ken Poe, and Beverly Copley, Cabinet Representative, R. Mark King, Conference Treasurer, Dale C. Bryant, Benefits Administrator, and M. Lynne Gilbert, CBOPHB Treasurer.

Proposal: Health Benefits Program and Policies

(Petition 2b) Approved August 8, 2020

The Health Benefits Committee proposes:

1. That the Board of Pension and Health Benefits be authorized to secure a hospital/medical insurance contract for 2021 that will be advantageous in terms of coverage, premium rates, and administrative costs.
2. That the hospital/medical insurance program be continued for all eligible persons working 30 hours or more per standard workweek.
3. That each local charge and eligible pastor be expected to participate in the conference program of hospital/medical insurance by contributing an amount equal to the pastor's coverage premium for each eligible pastor appointed to that charge and that these premium payments be remitted to the conference Treasury Services Office rather than to the pastor or other insurance carrier. The participant participation schedule should be used to calculate the eligible pastor's portion.
4. That premium cost information is made available to local churches and pastors immediately after the 2021 plan has been determined and rates established.
5. That a pastor may exclude himself/herself from coverage by signing a written waiver, releasing the conference and any local church from legal or moral responsibility for medical or accident claims.
6. That, in the discussion of salaries and benefits for 2021 and all succeeding years, local church committees on staff-parish relations consider designating a portion of compensation for dependents' healthcare coverage.
7. That medical/hospital coverage be provided for persons terminated from the plan for not more than a 12-month period, with the premium costs to be paid by the person terminated.
8. That continued endorsement be given to the optional life insurance program provided by a top-quality life insurance company as supplemental coverage for active clergy.
9. That the following Retired Clergy Medical Plan, which became effective on January 1, 2003, and was amended at the special session of the conference on February 2, 2008, be continued:
  - a. Benefit Design: The basic benefit design for all participants will be a comprehensive Medicare supplement. (Complete benefit description available from the conference Treasury Services Office.)
  - b. Funding Design:
    - (1) Creation of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund, which was created December 31, 2008. This Restricted Fund shall be vested with a minimum of $5,000,000. Subsequently, additional contributions to this Fund (corpus or principal) shall be made of all free reserve available at year-end. Free reserve is defined as the fund balance in excess of the Claims Reserve required by the Plan. The Claims Reserve is 25% of the prior year's claims paid.
    - (2) The purpose of the Retiree Security Supplement Fund is to secure the retiree medical benefit by contributing 4% of the fund balance (which consists of corpus or principal and earnings from dividends, interest and appreciation) each year to the Retired Clergy Medical Plan. The Fund's contribution will reduce the Net Estimated Claims Cost of the Retired Clergy Medical Plan to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
    - (3) Net Estimated Claims Cost is defined as Total Estimated Claims Costs (including administration, stop-loss insurance and other operating expenses), less all contributions from other charitable trusts, foundations or individuals, such as The Cole Foundation.
  - c. Premium Design:
    - (1) Participants enrolled prior to January 1, 2003 will contribute the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
    - (2) Participants enrolled in the retiree plan on or after January 1, 2003, will contribute based on "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan." The contribution will be based on a percentage of the plan year's Net Estimated Claims Cost, as follows:
      - (a) 1-10 Years: 100% of the Net Estimated Claims Cost.
      - (b) Beginning in the 11th year, the contribution will decline approximately 1% per year to an amount equal to the Base Estimated Claims Cost.
      - (c) All of the years prior to 2003 that a clergyperson has been appointed to a local church or conference position will be considered "years enrolled in the Active Health Benefits Plan"
      - (d) Participants must be enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B to be eligible for the Retired Clergy Medical Plan.
10. That each participant electing dependent coverage be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and that dependent coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current.
11. That each participating participant be required to remit premium payments in the method established by the Health Benefits Committee and approved by the 2009 Annual Conference and coverage remain in effect only when premium payments are current. The current participating participant method is a progressive scale percent of premium based on salary.
12. That sufficient funds for hospital/medical coverage be included in the appropriate 2021 apportioned funds to pay premiums for district superintendents and administrative, program, and support staff members of the conference headquarters.
13. That supplemental funds for insurance for clergy on medical leave be included in the 2021 conference budget at Fund 507, "Clergy Medical Leave Benefits". The 2021 budget request for the health benefit component for clergy on medical leave is $0 (zero).

Words of Appreciation

The board extends its gratitude and that of the conference to Dale C. Bryant, benefits administrator since October 1998.

Questions dealing with pension, health insurance, or group life insurance should be directed to Bryant at 704-535-2260 or 704-714-2332; e-mail dbryant@wnccumc.org.

M. CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, INC.

The Board of Trustees, Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church, Inc. is a chartered nonprofit corporation under North Carolina law, in accordance with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and is subject to the instructions of the annual conference and its officers.

Investments

The Jesse Spencer Bell Fund, under trustee management, is invested through The United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc.

Earnings during 2019 were distributed to the following designated beneficiaries:

Western North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions .....	$3,882.86
Western North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women .....	$2,190.89
Brevard College .....	$4,772.23
Total Distribution.....	$10,845.98

New Conference CenterSustainability*

In January 2019, the trustees were informed that the building had received LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) gold certification. In addition, solar panels on the roof of the building were installed to generate power that will feed the WNCN offices resulting in a direct impact to operating costs. Three additional conference rooms have been constructed on the first floor for use by the conference, local churches, and outside groups.

Property Management

On May 1, 2019, the board of trustees transferred all conference property management and broker services from A. Anthony and Foundry Commercial to Wesley Community Development, a nonprofit that helps North Carolina churches develop or repurpose real estate to best meet church and community needs.

Leasing

Wesley Community Development negotiated a seven-year lease with annual incremental increases with NRV, Inc. (parent company of Ryan Homes and NVR Mortgage), and they are now occupying 80% of the first floor of the Conference Center building. The conference received the first lease payment from NRV, Inc. on January 22, 2020. The total yearly lease payments will cover most, if not all, of the operational expenses of the Conference Center building.

Episcopal Residence

The Episcopal Residence Committee cares for the conference-owned Episcopal Residence, constituted according to the provisions of The Discipline. The trustees send a representative to this committee. Bishop and Mrs. Paul Leeland live in the Episcopal Residence located at 3416 Maryhurst Lane, Charlotte, NC 28226.

Duke Endowment Grant for the Church Legacy Initiative

Among other duties, the trustees look after discontinued and abandoned churches. The Church Legacy initiative, with a staff of four persons, is continuing to assist local churches with discerning possible paths forward. This project has completed its fourth of a five-year grant from the Duke Endowment. The trustees affirm the benefits of this transition team, and gratefully thank the cabinet, the Duke Endowment, and The United Methodist Foundation for their endeavors in this area.

Discontinued Churches

Please note that ¶2548.4 of The Book of Discipline specifies that all deeds, records, and official and legal papers of a discontinued church shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the Commission of Archives and History of the Annual Conference. The central repository is currently housed at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, N.C. A list of the local churches that have been discontinued since the last annual conference can be found in the Cabinet Resolutions of the Daily Proceedings of the Annual Conference.

Disaffiliated Churches

At the Special Session of General Conference in February 2019, an additional pathway for a local church to disaffiliate with The United Methodist Church was adopted. Paragraph 2553 is now effective and will be in effect through December 31, 2023. It allows a local church to leave the denomination, i.e. disaffiliate, under certain circumstances and subject to a series of agreements and required approvals of other denominational bodies along with payment of 24 months of apportionments and a pro rata share of aggregate unfunded pension obligations. Under this new provision, the main body of decision-making and negotiating on behalf of the conference is the annual conference board of trustees. This is a distinct departure from the other two possible exit routes from the denomination discussed in the past (Paragraph 548 permitting mergers of a local church with another denomination and Paragraph 2549 which has been used by other conferences to close a church desiring exit and sell assets back to a newly-formed congregation outside of the UMC, respectively). The 2020 Annual Conference will be asked to approve the disaffiliation of seven local churches: (AP) Mount Zion (Lenoir); (BR) Brown's View (Candler), Cedar Grove (Bostic), Golden Valley (Bostic); (ME) Bethel (Midland); (YV) Hardison (Mocksville), Mount Pleasant (Thomasville).

Vehicle Leasing

Because of the cost effectiveness of this practice, the trustees worked again with Vann York Auto Mall in High Point, N.C. to secure new 36-month leases of 11 vehicles (eight Honda CRVs, two Honda HRVs, and one Accord) in March 2019. These vehicles are used by the district superintendents, bishop, bishop's assistant, and director of church development.

Insurance Matters

The Book of Discipline requires local church trustees to annually review and report on the adequacy of local church property and liability insurance coverage "to ensure that the church, its properties, and its personnel are properly protected against risks."

To assist local church trustees with this requirement, GCFA guidelines for minimum insurance policies and coverage limits are available on the conference website (www.wnccumg.org) under Administration/Forms, Documents, and Publications, and are recommended for comparison with existing church policies.

Liability coverage for sexual misconduct has been eliminated, altered, or only provided under separate policies by many insurance companies. The trustees continue to admonish all churches to confirm that required Safe Sanctuaries policies and procedures are in place, and to reevaluate all insurance programs with their insurance agents.

The board of trustees works with the conference insurance provider, Church Mutual Insurance Company, a nationally recognized and specialized provider of property and casualty insurance to churches and religious organizations, to provide a new cost-effective program for worker's compensation for WNCC churches. WNCC congregations now have the option to participate in the Church Mutual program at a reduced rate as well as to save on the Expense Constant Fee.

Proposal: Mount Shepherd Retreat Center to Grant and Create 87.935-Acre Conservation Easement

Submitted by: Board of Directors of Mount Shepherd Retreat Center, Inc., Asheboro, NC, Uwharrie District and the WNCC Board of Trustees

Text:

Whereas, ¶ 2516 of the Book of Discipline states that "Title to annual conference...camps, conference grounds, and retreat centers held in trust by an incorporated board...can be mortgaged, or sold and conveyed by such corporation...only after authorization by the annual or district conference to which such body is related; and

Whereas, Mount Shepherd Retreat Center, Inc., located in Asheboro, North Carolina, is a separately incorporated annual conference camp and retreat center which holds its 543.3 acres of real property in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference; and

Whereas, one of the primary purposes of Mount Shepherd is to promote environmental stewardship and to teach creation care; and

Whereas, Mount Shepherd has reached an agreement with The Piedmont Land Conservancy (PLC) that will preserve the natural beauty and ecological harmony of 87.935 acres in perpetuity by insuring the land will not be developed; and

Whereas, PLC is offering $2000 per acre for this Conservation Easement, providing critical capital in the midst of a global pandemic that has severely impacted Mount Shepherd's ability to generate revenue; and

Whereas, the proceeds of $175,870 will allow Mount Shepherd to reach financial security by paying off all indebtedness to the Western NC Conference and providing an essential cash resource for ongoing operational needs; and

Whereas, the beneficial trust interest of the Annual Conference in the real property would be subordinate and subject to the perpetual conservation easement;

Whereas, the board of directors of Mount Shepherd have approved this project. Therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church approves the grant of easement rights by Mount Shepherd Retreat Center to Piedmont Land Conservancy in the 87.935 acres for $175,870, as agreed upon by the parties, and further authorize The Board of Trustees, Western North Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. to execute all documents and agreements necessary to carry out the same.

N. CHURCH LEGACY INITIATIVE

The Church Legacy Initiative (CLI) is a ministry of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, supported by a grant from The Duke Endowment. The purpose of CLI is to assist churches in assessing their current and future potential for ministry and leading them through next steps so that they may provide a legacy which will help to make disciples in this and future generations. CLI team members and the districts they serve are:

- Rev. Charlotte Brendel – Appalachian, Blue Ridge, and Smoky Mountain districts
- Rev. Renee Easter – Northern Piedmont, Yadkin Valley, and upper Uwharrie districts
- Rev. Angela Hollar – Catawba Valley, Metro, and lower Uwharrie districts

The Western North Carolina Conference has a large number of churches that have declined significantly in vitality and worship attendance during the previous decade. Congregations faced with declining membership and diminishing resources have significant challenges in fulfilling their call to develop faithful followers of Jesus within the church, as well as making new disciples and providing meaningful ministry to those outside the walls of the church. These churches struggle to sustain even the most essential work of the church, and often are focused more on survival than making disciples.

The ministry of the Church Legacy Initiative is to work with the pastor and congregants of struggling churches and provide support as they follow a faithful path. This journey includes important conversations and commitments by churches, but they can know they will be supported by CLI personnel each step of the way.

CLI works collaboratively with district superintendents to determine the churches with whom CLI will work and to discern next steps. CLI plays an important role in the vitality efforts of the Western North Carolina Conference as churches purposefully discern the faithful path God is calling them to follow, either for intentional revitalization of their own church or to provide a legacy which will assist with the renewal of other churches and the creation of new faith communities. Through loving faithfulness in this ministry, the Church Legacy Initiative will provide the WNC with greater opportunities to fulfill its mission of following Jesus and making disciples who will transform their communities and the world.

Lyn Sorrells, Team Leader

O. COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission on Archives and History continues its work of collecting, recording and preserving the story of the people called Methodists in The Western North Carolina Conference. We agree with the Rev. Alfred T. Day, General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History, that this is a “Ministry of Memory so we may continue to learn from our past and anticipate our future.”

The Commission continues to oversee the work of the Conference Archives, now located at the G. A. Pfeiffer Library at Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, N.C. Highlights this year include:

- The Rev. James Pyatt continues as the part-time conference archivist. He supervises the work of an archival assistant, Sonja Clough, who was hired this year to work on a part-time basis.
- A signed lease agreement, approved by conference legal counsel Greg Huffman and then-President Colleen Perry Keith, now serves as a memorandum of understanding between the Archives and Pfeiffer University. The open-ended agreement provides that the conference will not be charged rent for the space. In return, Pfeiffer gets increased visibility and good public relations for the school. The archives houses documents and information available to those wishing to conduct research. Research requests increased roughly 50% in 2019, indicating that people are aware of the archives and are making use of the resources.
- Working with librarians at Duke Divinity School, the Rev. Pyatt worked on the details for the digitization of some of the archival resources to make them available and searchable in electronic format. The project is on hold because Duke is currently closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The archives are open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only, and by appointment.

Another function of the commission is to provide a clergy grave marker upon the passing of any clergy member of the conference. During this conference year, markers were presented to 24 affected families. The commission anticipates continuing this service on behalf of the conference.

In 2016 the annual conference approved a recommendation that each district offer training opportunities for local church historians during this quadrennial.

- In 2019 and 2020, commission members led training sessions for local church historians (and other interested persons) for the Uwharrie, Catawba Valley and Northern Piedmont Districts. Members of the commission are ready and willing to facilitate training events in any district which wishes to host one.
- The commission also continues to ask for assistance in identifying significant sites in the conference which can then be nominated for designation as historic sites of The United Methodist Church.

The Commission on Archives and History continues its tradition of recognizing those churches within the conference who are celebrating significant anniversaries this year.

- Churches celebrating their bicentennial anniversaries are Bethel, Winston-Salem (Forsyth County), Concord (Randolph County), Rehobeth (Cleveland County), Sandy Ridge (Guilford County), and Stony Point (Alexander County)
- Those identified as celebrating sesquicentennial anniversaries this year include Avery’s Creek (Buncombe County), Cedar Valley (Caldwell County), Fanning Chapel (Henderson County), First, Gastonia (Gaston County), New Salem (Iredell County), Rock Hill (Lincoln County), St. James (Lincoln County), and Vanderburg (Iredell County).
- Churches celebrating their centennial anniversaries are Broad Street, Mooresville (Iredell County), Elmwood (Iredell County), and Park Avenue, Mooresville (Iredell County).
- A more complete list of churches celebrating significant anniversaries will appear in the 2020 Conference Journal.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ) Commission on Archives and History met at Lake Junaluska in November of 2019.

- The Rev. Pyatt serves as chairperson, and Sandra Williamson, chairperson of the conference commission, serves as an at-large member.
- The SEJ Commission hosted a heritage preservation workshop at Lake Junaluska November 8 and 9, 2019, and the Rev. Pyatt assisted SEJ archivist Nancy Watkins in presenting a session on what to keep and what to toss.

- The SEJ Historical Society met at Emory University, July 9-12, 2019. WNCC CAH vice-chairperson, the Rev. Charles Curtis, represented the conference.
- The General Commission on Archives and History met in Delaware, Ohio, in September 2019, with the Rev. Pyatt in attendance.

God is at work in and through the people called United Methodist in western North Carolina. This commission pledges to continue to collect the documents, preserve the materials, equip local historians, and tell the story.

Sandra Williamson, Chairperson
Charles Curtis, Vice Chairperson

P. CHRISTIANS ENGAGED IN FAITH FORMATION

Christians Engaged in Faith Formation (CEF) is an association of leaders connected to one another and to God, energized for the work of faith formation and, guided by Acts 2:42, exists to promote and strengthen faith formation and Christian education in local churches, districts, and the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Western NC Conference CEF continues to go through some transformation and is re-envisioning its purpose to serve both tenured and new leaders within the church. Leadership is shifting as CEF continues investigating and encouraging new continuing education opportunities. Webinars, podcasts, seminars, day apart, and retreat opportunities will be communicated throughout the year and into next year.

In January 2020, the Western NC Conference CEF membership had a presence at the National KidMin Conference. The conference focused on connections, learning, worship, and discovering new ways to engage children.

In addition, CEF continues to partner with the Conference Discipleship Ministries Office to update and strengthen Safe Sanctuary policies and offer educational and training opportunities for local churches within the conference.

The Western NC Conference CEF is for laity and clergy, full-time and part-time, professionals and volunteers, and anyone who participates in any form of Christian Education, Youth Ministry, Children's Ministry, Adult Education, and areas of faith formation. CEF members enjoy the additional benefits of connections within CEF and the church, receiving discounted registration to CEF events, Facebook connections, frequent e-news updates, and scholarship opportunities for seminars and conferences. CEF also provides a support system of and for those who have unique experiences in Christian Education ministries. Learn more about the CEF community and what it can offer for Christian Education and disciple formation at www.wnccumc.org/CEF.

Q. COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

The primary work of the commission is to support and communicate the annual conference's mission of "Follow Jesus, Make Disciples, Transform the World." The commission strives to do the following: "Building relationships through communication, the commission will help create space for people to interact and have conversation in safe spaces. It will share the stories of how God is at work among United Methodists in Western North Carolina, that in turn shares the Good News of Jesus Christ."

Traditionally, the Commission on Communications provides leadership for the Western North Carolina Conference in communications, public relations, social media, and promotional awareness of the funds and programs of the conference. The commission assists with managing the image of the conference, as well as working to provide resources for the districts and local churches. Whether in the form of training, sharing news, or crisis management, the commission exists to equip and encourage the ministry efforts of local churches, districts, and the annual conference to achieve identified goals. Members of the commission will also assist with the communications efforts at the annual conference gathering as they have in past years with photography and story writing.

In the past year, the conference communications team has published a magazine, Stories of Faith; launched a podcast, Means of Grace; collaborated with the resource center on a Lenten Curriculum, The Passions of Jesus, and created a conference-wide virtual Easter Worship. Aimee Yeager has joined its staff team as communications ministry assistant. During this time of social distancing due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the commission continues its work to share stories and equip local congregations.

Melissa McGill, Conference Director of Communications

R. CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS COMMITTEE

The Conference Staff Relations Committee is part of the support system for the conference office staff and the staff of the district offices. The committee assists them by providing needed resources which enable them to fulfill their mission of developing and supporting vital congregations.

On October 3, 2019, Caroline Wood, Director of Missional Engagement and Connectional Ministries, contacted Robert Upchurch regarding the addition of a staff position, Associate Director of Missional Engagement. Robert contacted the Conference Staff Relations Committee members by email. Some committee members had questions about the continuing cost and the decision to employ a person without posting the position and seeking applications. Robert shared with the members additional information provided by Caroline. The proposed staff position was approved.

The committee met in Huntersville on December 5. Treasurer Mark King gave a performance management report, sharing that final reviews had been completed by all supervisors. Mark King also shared about a Duke Endowment grant application for the comprehensive plan of improvement.

Luke Edwards, Associate Director of Church Development, shared about his new role on the staff. His primary areas of focus are Fresh Expressions, Dinner Church, Messy Church, and communications.

Brian Mateer, Associate Director of Missional Engagement, shared about his new role on the staff. He will be helping to facilitate a mission engagement cohort which will focus on best practices in mission engagement.

Amy Coles, the Assistant to Bishop Leeland, reported on several recent retirements from the conference staff and the district offices.

The formula for determining the salaries of the district superintendents was reviewed. Due to some of the uncertainty within the denomination, discussion was held regarding the possibility of adjusting that formula for 2021.

The committee was informed that Mark King and Amy Coles have assumed the Human Relations responsibilities following the retirement of Kathy Odell.

Robert D. Upchurch, Chairperson

S. COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Conference Committee on Episcopacy continues to fulfill its role of serving, supporting, and upholding the work of Bishop Leeland for the Western North Carolina Conference. It has been the committee's honor and pleasure to serve with Bishop Leeland during these last four years.

In this report, the committee thinks it is important to summarize for you the work that has been accomplished under Bishop Leeland's leadership for this quadrennium.

In addition to the construction and completion of a new conference center, the WNCC has launched 10 churches in the last 36 months and five new churches are identified to open by July 2020, making a total of 15 new churches. As of annual conference, June 2019, the WNCC has launched 124 new Fresh Expressions, 60 of which are dinner churches, making a grand total of 250 Fresh Expressions for the conference.

Transformation of existing congregations has included every district, identifying good churches that could be great churches, and in the last 24 months, the WNCC has had 13 churches complete the transformation journey for renewal. The WNCC has scheduled 8 more churches that will begin this process in the fall.

The bishop's Emerging Leadership Initiative has received a $1.5 million grant from the Duke Endowment centered around the 15 characteristics that identify the primary leadership competencies related to effective fruitful churches. The WNCC has had over 150 clergy complete this year-long leadership initiative and there are 80 more clergy participating in the 2019–2020 cohort. This initiative will continue through the next quadrennium regardless of a change in episcopal leadership. The committee has also been working closely with the Board of Laity to ignite its certified lay ministries.

Every district has invested in district missional networks, specifically working with the poor, including food programs, clothing, vocational training, and helping underprivileged areas of our local communities. All through the WNCC, churches are reaching out in their communities to help and improve the lives of those with the most need. There is also work being done with Congregations for Children focusing on children and families impacted by poverty.

The WNCC and local churches continue to partner with GBGM in regard to global health. There are clean water projects in Guatemala and Armenia, and wells being drilled and health clinics opening in Haiti, Guatemala, Armenia, Dominican Republic, Uganda, and the Congo.

A grant has been submitted to the Duke Endowment for the development of a comprehensive plan of inclusiveness. This plan strategically addresses racism and 10 tactical teams to invite the conference into a greater and more equitable body in regard to ethnic ministries. The conference quadrennial ethics will focus on racism for the next four years.

Bishop Leeland has worked to build relationships with pan-Methodist, ecumenical, and interreligious communities. He has continued to share and teach the contributions of connected giving throughout the annual conference and has been consistent in his perspective that the conference serves all congregations, regardless of their location and theological perspective. The bishop embodies and promotes the unity of the Church and everything he and the conference do is supported by the Wesleyan model of making disciples of all nations for the transformation of the world.

When Bishop Mike Coyner visited with the committee in September 2019, he said, "I am amazed and stunned at all Bishop Leeland has accomplished in his time with the WNCC; this is most often not the case for a four-year bishop."

The Western North Carolina Conference has been blessed by Bishop Leeland's humble and balanced leadership and he has placed this conference in a strong position for its next Episcopal leader in September 2020.

Bishop Leeland, as it says in Acts 13:3, "they placed their hands on them and sent them off." The committee now sends you off to the next chapter of your ministry, with all the honor and respect you so deserve. Thank you for a job well done, good and faithful servant.

Wanda Musgrave, Chairperson
Sandy Giles, Vice Chairperson
Sarah McKinney, Secretary

Note: In the span of time since the report was submitted by the COE, due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic delaying the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, Bishop's Leeland's appointment to serve as WNCC bishop has been extended.

T. EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE COMMITTEE

The Episcopal Residence Committee is pleased to report that Bishop and Mrs. Paul Leeland have been comfortably using and enjoying the residence at 3416 Maryhurst Lane in Charlotte. The residence endowment reserve now stands at $56,762.41 (as of December 31, 2019). For 2021, the amount of $4,000 will be included in the apportioned conference budget. The committee, in consultation with Bishop and Mrs. Leeland, will continue to monitor expenses and request funding as is appropriate and necessary.

U. COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Policies and Guidelines for Administering the Equitable Compensation Fund (Calendar Year 2021)

1. Policies Pertaining to the Commission on Equitable Compensation:

¶¶ 342 and 625 of The Book of Discipline 2016, direct the Commission on Equitable Compensation (CEC) to recommend a minimum level of pastoral compensation for clergy serving as local church pastors under episcopal appointment and to administer the Equitable Compensation Fund (ECF) as a source of funding of last resort for pastors-in-charge in order to maintain a living, equitable level of compensation for these itinerant ministers.

a. Executive Committee:

During each quadrennium, at its organizational meeting, the CEC shall elect an executive committee consisting of a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, a secretary, and additional members from the full commission as needed, so that the executive committee consists of an equal number of clergy and laypersons. The assistant to the bishop and a cabinet representative will serve as ex-officio members of the executive committee.

b. Definition of Compensation:

As used by the CEC, the term "compensation" includes the annual amount designated as cash salary for service rendered, additional insurance premiums over and above the conference-approved program of individual medical insurance for clergy, accountable professional expenses, household expenses paid by the local charge, and other fringe benefits. Compensation does not include housing allowance in lieu of parsonage to the extent of actual housing, fair market value of supplied parsonages, reimbursement for parish-related travel expenses paid by the local charge to the extent of actual travel expenses or use of an automobile for parish travel purposes, funds provided for continuing education to the extent they are used for that purpose, bona fide gifts or honoraria for special services, allowances for moving expenses paid by the annual conference or local church, or individual medical insurance premiums in the amount of the conference-approved program of insurance for clergy.

2. Types of Grants

Two categories of support are available from the ECF: emergency sustentation grants and regular grants.

- a. Emergency sustentation grants are available under the provisions of ¶ 626, which states that each church or charge has an obligation to pay in full compensation, as approved by the charge conference, to its pastor(s). If it becomes apparent that a church or charge will be unable to so provide the compensation approved by the charge conference, the church or charge shall immediately notify the district superintendent and may request consideration for a short-term emergency grant from the Equitable Compensation Fund (cf. also ¶ 625).
- b. Regular grants are available for those churches or charges which, at their annual charge conferences, determine that they will be unable to provide compensation at the minimum level set by the annual conference. In cooperation with the bishop and cabinet, the CEC offers grants, on a declining schedule, totaling no more than 30 percent of the appropriate minimum pastoral compensation for a period of three or fewer years. In the first year, a church or charge may receive up to 100 percent of the maximum available grant; in the second year, up to 70 percent; in the third year, up to 40 percent. During this period, the church or charge must adopt and follow a plan, approved by the district superintendent, that eliminates the need for this assistance. After the third year, a church or charge will not automatically be eligible for a regular grant. Representatives of the CEC shall consult with the district superintendents about any clergy person or church that has received equitable-compensation grants for five consecutive years.

3. Definitions and Classifications of Pastors

- a. Full-Time Pastors: Subject to these policies and guidelines, pastors appointed to full-time service under ¶ 338.1 or ¶ 318.1 shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule (¶ 342).
- b. Pastors Serving Less Than Full-Time: Subject to these policies and guidelines, elders and provisional members serving as pastors appointed to less than full-time service under the provisions of ¶ 338.2 shall have a claim upon the ECF in one-quarter-time increments of either  $\frac{3}{4}$ ,  $\frac{1}{2}$ , or  $\frac{1}{4}$  time as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, receiving not less than this percentage of the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule.
- c. Pastors Attending School: Subject to these policies and guidelines, a pastor appointed to a church or charge who is enrolled in good standing in a college or seminary for a minimum of nine hours per semester or equivalent in fulfillment of the requirements for conference affiliation and who is not otherwise gainfully employed shall have a claim upon the ECF in an amount based upon the one-quarter-time increments as negotiated by the district superintendent at the time of the appointment, which shall not exceed  $\frac{3}{4}$  time. In determining the compensation for a pastor attending school, grants received for educational expenses shall not be considered as part of compensation. Pastors who discontinue or complete their studies and intend to be considered as serving full-time shall be compensated at that level only after certification by the CEC.

- d. Part-Time Local Pastors and Retired Supply Pastors: Since the ECF is designed to support those in full-time services as pastors of our local churches, those charges utilizing part-time local pastors or retired supply pastors shall not have a claim upon the ECF.
- e. Pastors Engaged in Continuing Education: Inasmuch as continuing education is required of all ordained clergy, no pastor engaged in a program of continuing education under ¶ 351 shall by reason of such study leave be denied the minimum compensation support as specified in the current schedule, except that in cases of educational leave in excess of one month, the supplement shall be adjusted as negotiated by the district superintendent and the CEC.
- f. Deacons in Full Connection: As provided in ¶ 331.10b, deacons in full connection serving within the local church “shall receive a salary from the local church, charge, or cooperative parish not less than the minimum salary established by the equitable compensation policy of the annual conference for full-time and part-time pastors,” although these entities should be reminded that they are fully responsible for the compensation of these individuals. If the bishop and cabinet appoint a deacon in full connection to a position as pastor-in-charge of a local church or charge, that individual shall have a claim upon the ECF and shall not receive less than the minimum compensation specified in the current schedule for elders in full connection.

4. Request Procedures

Regular grants from the CEC must be requested by a formal action of the charge conference, supported by a written grant application, using the CEC form available through the conference web page, and signed by the district superintendent, the pastor, and the secretary of the charge conference. Requests must be completed in full and be accompanied by all required documentation in order to be processed by the CEC. Required documentation must include, but is not limited to: written plan for decreasing reliance on equitable compensation, letters of support from pastor, church leadership, and district superintendent. The more information the CEC has about a local church situation, the better equipped the CEC is to provide support. Requests must be made at least 30 days prior to the month when the assistance is to commence. In these cases, the local church or charge must pay at least 70 percent of the minimum applicable to its pastor.

For emergency sustentation grants, the district superintendent is responsible for submitting documentation to the cabinet and CEC executive committee for immediate processing, approval, and payment authorization.

5. Guidelines for Recommending Minimum Compensation

The CEC desires to recommend minimum pastoral compensation that is equitable for both churches and pastors. It is acknowledged that economic conditions vary across the annual conference. To be equitable, therefore, there must be awareness of the financial impact of these recommendations upon the local churches in order to not make pastoral support an excessive burden, while providing clergy with fair, living, and equitable compensation.

In making these recommendations, the CEC refers to changes in the North Carolina Per Capita Income (NCPCI), as maintained by the United States Bureau of Economic Analysis, on a two-year-lag basis (the earliest time for which data are obtainable). The NCPCI offers a true measure of the underlying economy in which congregations exist and is independent of Western NC Conference actions. Additional consideration is given to the two-year-lag Conference Average Compensation (CAC) and other measures of the health of churches and the economy as deemed necessary, segmenting the minimum compensation levels into the following categories:

- Elders and Deacons in Full Connection;
- Provisional/Associate Members;
- Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study/M.Div.;
- Local Pastors who have not completed the Course of Study.

Neal C. Jones, Chairperson

W. DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

In America, there are 2,200,000 people in prison. In North Carolina alone, more than 37,000 inmates live in state prison facilities. If one includes those on probation and post-release parole, this number climbs to more than 133,000. This does not even include federal inmates and juvenile offenders. It is said that the criminal justice system in North Carolina affects one out of every four persons in the state and that number continues to grow.

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries of N.C., Inc. (DBOM) was founded in 1999 to minister to those in prison and provide a Christian response to need. DBOM recruits, trains, and sends local church volunteers to prisons, jails, and youth development centers to teach God's word. Thousands of North Carolina inmates participate annually. DBOM's model of ministry has gone national with affiliates operational in Virginia, Tennessee, Louisiana, Illinois, and Texas.

None of this would be possible without you. A primary source of DBOM's funding comes from the annual special offering taken in August. In 2020, the offering will be received on August 23. Downloadable PDF flyers, videos, and other promotional material will be provided to the pastors prior to the offering.

Thank you for your support, and please pray for DBOM's ministry in both prison and pew!

X. THE EUGENE M. COLE FOUNDATION

The Cole Foundation was established by the will of Eugene M. Cole in 1944 to provide benefits for retired ministers and surviving spouses for the Western North Carolina Conference. In 2019, the Foundation directed monthly payments to the conference treasurer to supplement the cost of health care benefits to retired ministers and spouses.

The Foundation is governed by three (3) trustees elected by the annual conference: James C. Windham Jr., chairperson; Anthony Orsbon, vice-chair; and Rebecca Douglas, secretary.

James C. Windham Jr., Chairperson

Proposal: Trustee of Cole Foundation

(Petition 15) Approved August 8, 2020

The trustees of the Eugene M. Cole Foundation propose that Rebecca Douglas, whose term as trustee expires in 2020, be re-elected for another three (3) year term, expiring in 2023.

Y. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

Since the last time we gathered as the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, the United Methodist Foundation has been busy at work fulfilling the mission of building the church for generations to come in an effort to bring people into a relationship with Christ. The foundation's board of directors and staff remain committed to serving the sisters and brothers in Christ as one will see in this report.

The foundation's total assets reached an all-time high surpassing $238MM by year end. Although this accomplishment represents a simple number, the foundation believes it represents an opportunity to carry-out vital ministry throughout the conference and beyond. The foundation continues to be the fourth largest conference-area foundation with one of the most sophisticated investment policies throughout the United Methodist connection. In addition to offering investment management ministry which includes five fund options totaling over $200MM, programming continues to be offered that surpasses what many believe to be part of a foundation's portfolio. Some examples of this include:

Reynolds Program in Church Leadership where pastors from six conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction come together for a year-long, intensive program to learn how to be more effective leaders in their ministry setting;

Reynolds Leadership Academy for Evangelism and Discipleship where pastors from the Western North Carolina Conference learn from others how to be more effective at bringing people to Jesus Christ;

Reynolds Academy for Ministry Management where pastors from this conference learn business practices that apply to their ministry setting;

Reynolds Grants surpassing $400K that financially support ministries that bring people to and nurture a relationship with Jesus Christ;

Clergy Debt Reduction Loan Program that provides low interest loans surpassing $2MM to qualifying clergy with overwhelming debt and is a partnership program with the Duke Endowment and the Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the Western North Carolina Conference;

UMF Development Fund and Loan Program providing competitive returns for investors while offering low-cost loans totaling $18MM to United Methodist institutions throughout North and South Carolina;

Certificate Program in Church Treasury offered in partnership with the Western North Carolina Conference Office of Treasury Services where participants learn specifics related to the responsibilities of church treasurers and financial secretaries.

There are many more ministry programs offered through the foundation such as permanently restricted endowments that provide in excess of $1MM for such things as scholarships, supplemental income and ministry funding. In addition, the foundation helps consult and train in areas such as church finances and stewardship.

To learn more about the foundation's ministries, visit the website at www.umfwnc.org or visit the ministry tent at the 2020 session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference where foundation leaders will be available to answer questions.

Z. RFD CDC

RFD CDC serves communities, congregations, and individuals. The focus is rural, but the service extends to all. RFD Consulting is available for consultation for senior, transitional, and veterans housing, community facilities and congregational facility expansion. Contact information is available at the website: www.rfdcdc.org.

NETworX® serves individuals in eight counties in North Carolina and five other states. Outcomes of significant progress in terms of wellbeing, financial stability, and a significant decrease in reliance upon public assistance are reported by 496 persons. With gratitude, NETworX individuals in N.C. and each of the sites, celebrate the support received from the Western NC Conference. More information about NETworX is available on the website: www.networxusa.org.

AA. WESLEY COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

It has been another year of growth and new milestones reached for Wesley Community Development. This year Wesley led the leasing, build out, and occupancy of the first floor of the WNCC Conference Center, fulfilling the commitment of a building that houses the Conference and Metro District offices, but also generates revenue to offset expenses. Wesley completed two new affordable housing projects and received an award of tax credits for its next project, the ninth, to be located in Fayetteville, N.C. One of Wesley's new projects, Prosperity Ridge, has been awarded North Carolina Project of the Year. Over the next 12 months, Wesley is projected to develop $13M in church redevelopments representing over $100M in development since its inception in 2002. Many of the upcoming developments are designed to assist churches in creating a more secure financial footprint by bringing in additional revenue, freeing up more of the offerings for ministry and outreach.

In the first full year of being a licensed real estate company, Wesley has brokered over $7.6M in real estate transactions. The revenue generated from brokerage has allowed funds to be directed to church growth and exciting new ministries. The team at Wesley is excited to be a part of this transformational work. Wesley currently manages over 60 properties and helps in the rethinking of how those properties can be positioned to strengthen the growth of the Conference. This work has led to collaboration with groups including the governor's office, the Duke Endowment, Duke Divinity School, the N.C. Office of Rural Health, Princeton University, and ImagineHub to name a few. In all this work, the continued and valued partnership with the Conference Board of Trustees has been instrumental and productive. These collaborations will lead to more groundbreaking initiatives in the coming year.

Seeds of Change, the Wesley program to rethink church campus usage, continues to challenge churches to look at their real estate differently. Over the next year, Wesley will be testing how to expand Seeds of Change utilizing newer platforms.

The team at Wesley is excited to enter another year of innovation and helping churches achieve their ministry goals by rethinking their real estate holdings.

BB. BROTHERHOOD/SISTERHOOD OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

The Brotherhood/Sisterhood is an affiliate ministry of the WNCC in which clergy and laity members mutually share compassion for the families of clergy members when they die. Once a clergy member's death is reported to us, the family receives a pastoral visit and a financial gift that is available for immediate use. Funds for this gift come from our members, who receive a call notice providing pertinent information about the death.

Beneficiary membership in the BH/SH is open to all clergy members of the Annual Conference, including full and provisional members and local pastors. Older clergy who join compensate the BH/SH for all assessments issued from the time of their 35th birthday. A non-interest-bearing promissory note may be signed for this purpose.

The election of the members of our Board of Directors and its officers, the approval of our annual budget, our proposals to the Annual Conference, and other official business of the BH/SH is conducted at our Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting is normally held on the site of the Annual Conference and is open to all members. This year's meeting was held via Zoom at 10:00am on 07/09/2020.

For the 2020-2021 Conference year, the basic amount of the financial gift is $10,000.00. The assessment rate for clergy members is $15.00 per death. Laity members, responding as individuals and church groups, are asked to consider donations of $6.00 or more per death.

Each local church is encouraged to observe Brotherhood/Sisterhood Sunday on the third Sunday in February or at another preferred time.

With more than 600 clergy members plus many laity enrolled in the Brotherhood/Sisterhood ministry, we express our great appreciation for everybody's consideration and support.

H. Donnell FitzJefferies, President
 Donald A. Newman, Vice President

CC. CONVOCATION & PASTORS' SCHOOL AT DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The 2019 Convocation and Pastors' School, "Life That Really is Life: Cultivating Thriving Communities," explored how Christian congregations, led by gifted clergy, are crucial to the vitality of thriving communities. When congregations and pastors are faithful and focused on God's dreams, they can be exceptional catalysts, conveners, and curators, drawing people together across diverse sectors, generations, and neighborhoods. They are integral to the formation of thriving communities that are marked by an acknowledgment of the fragility of human life, rooted in issues of suffering and sin, finitude, and brokenness that simultaneously nurture hope and wisdom to pursue what 1 Timothy 6:19 calls "the life that really is life." Through this way of living, people of character nurture trust and a vision for the common good, bearing witness to a holistic understanding of human beings and the fullness of the reign of God.

The two-day conference helped pastors and church leaders gain insight and energy to build, strengthen, and cultivate thriving communities. Held October 7–8, 2019, at Duke Divinity School, the event featured the following presenters:

- L. Gregory Jones, Dean of Duke Divinity School;
- David Brooks, author, op-ed columnist for The New York Times and commentator;
- Anne Snyder Brooks, editor, Comment Magazine, and author of The Fabric of Character;
- Kate Bowler, associate professor of the history of Christianity in North America at Duke Divinity School and New York Times bestselling author;
- Krista Tippett, Peabody Award-winning broadcaster and New York Times bestselling author;
- Patrick Smith, associate research professor of theological ethics and bioethics, Duke Divinity School; and
- Ralph West, pastor, The Church Without Walls.

Attendees also participated in worship and their choice of 13 seminars led by faculty, church leaders, and practitioners on topics ranging from "For Thriving Priestly Community: Life in the Psalms" to "Unpacking Pastoral Leadership and Preaching" to "Cultivating Thriving Communities Through Mutual Teaching and Learning." The next Convocation and Pastors' School, "Uncommon Ground: Living with Humility, Patience, and Tolerance in a Divided Age," will take place October 5–6, 2020. Participants will explore the powerful ways that God can work when we are willing to gather together on uncommon ground.

Confirmed featured presenters include:

- John Inazu, author, distinguished professor of law and religion at Washington University;
- Claude Alexander, bishop and senior pastor of The Park Church in Charlotte, N.C.;
- Sara Groves, singer, songwriter, and recording artist, nominated for several Dove Awards; and
- Tru Pettigrew, author and motivational speaker

Pastors serving churches eligible for grants from The Duke Endowment, current divinity school students, and 2020 graduates of Duke Divinity School may attend at a discounted rate.

The Convocation and Pastors' School board of managers is composed of representatives from the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences, and it advises and works with Duke Divinity School to offer a quality continuing education event annually.

The Western North Carolina Conference representatives on the Board of Managers are:

DD. THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

The Duke Endowment was formed in December 1924 by the industrialist and philanthropist James B. Duke, who famously said that if it were not for his father and The Methodist Church, he would not have amounted to anything. When forming his endowment, Duke named four areas of focus: higher education, health care, child welfare, and rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina. For almost 96 years, the endowment has engaged with rural churches to strengthen their ministries all across the conference and state. Formed by the grace and love of God, and led by the spirit, rural churches understand what it means to "love their neighbors."

In 2019, the Rural Church program area of the endowment made 51 new grants totaling over $35.2 million, including a $12 million, five-year award to Duke Divinity School to strengthen the M.Div. degree and reimagine the heart of Methodism, to continue to bolster the clergy leadership pool in the Western North Carolina Conference. Other highlights are below:

1. In collaboration with the two annual conferences and Duke Divinity School, the endowment is working to cultivate and support clergy leadership for the rural United Methodist church in North Carolina through several initiatives, including:
  - The Clergy Health Initiative (CHI), based at Duke Divinity School, advises and informs the conferences, denomination, and others on issues of clergy well-being. The CHI team recently rolled out a new effort aimed at bolstering pastors' ability to thrive in the midst of stressful circumstances. Called "Spirited Life: Selah," the effort will serve several hundred pastors across the state over the next two years.
  - The Thriving Rural Communities Initiative (TRCI) is a collaborative effort among the endowment, the two conferences in North Carolina, and Duke Divinity School. The program forms and networks strong pastors, dubbed "Rural Fellows," for service to rural congregations. This year, Amy Lambert, Samuel A. Moore, and Nathan Webb are graduating from Duke Divinity School as Rural Fellows and beginning this ministry under appointment in the Western North Carolina Conference.
  - The Hispanic House of Studies at Duke Divinity School develops pastoral and congregational capacity for engagement with Latino populations, one of the fastest-growing demographic groups in the state. The Ormond Center, also at the divinity school, has been re-launched and seeks to contribute scholarship, training, and leadership for building thriving communities. Read more about the center here: <https://www.dukeendowment.org/story/strengthening-congregations-and-communities>.
2. The endowment is working with both annual conferences on efforts to support congregations in long-term planning, including helping churches to discern their most faithful and fruitful future. Resourcing the work of the Church Legacy team in the Western North Carolina Conference, as well as the partner agency Wesley Community Development Corporation, the endowment celebrates the unique redevelopment programs that have progressed so far. Examples of such work can be found here: <https://www.dukeendowment.org/story/sowing-change-in-rural-churches>.
3. The endowment is also working to build the capacity of United Methodist churches to help address community-wide issues at their roots. This happens primarily through system-level grants to nonprofit agencies that are experts in issue areas, and that coach congregations in enhancing their mission. With an intentional move away from building and construction grants, the endowment now seeks to create the conditions for congregations to thrive and to impact their communities in new and vital ways, through grants that support multiple churches engaging in creative ministry. For churches interested in deepening their work in food system engagement (including all food ministries), community or economic development, or strategic planning for community engagement, the endowment will be glad to connect them with congregational coaches who have a statewide presence and expertise.
4. Finally, the endowment is developing and testing models for high-impact community-focused ministry for the age birth-to-eight population. Currently, the focus of this work is the Summer Literacy Initiative, which resources up to 20 congregations (currently eleven in the Western North Carolina Conference) per year to offer summer reading camps that follow a set of essential guiding principles, to early elementary students. Churches that are interested in joining this pilot program may contact Kristen Richardson-Frick, Associate Director of the Rural Church program area.

More information about The Duke Endowment may be found at the Rural Church page of The Duke Endowment's website: <https://www.dukeendowment.org/program-areas/rural-church>.

EE. THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

With 18 denominations representing over 6,200 congregations in North Carolina, the council provides incarnational evidence of Christian unity. By creating unity without expecting uniformity, member bodies collaborate on matters that contribute to the flourishing of God's creation. The council is grateful to the WNCC for its support and for the leadership on its governing board provided by Renee Hayes, Trinity N.C., and Amelia Stinson-Wesley, Charlotte, N.C.

Current staff funded program areas:

- Ecumenical Immigration Alliance (EIA) includes the N.C. Sanctuary Coalition, a collection of faith communities across North Carolina that offer public sanctuary sites or collaborating support for immigrants at risk of deportation. Additionally, EIA provides education and advocacy for immigrants in the state through webinars, teach-ins, and online resources. The council continues its longstanding work with farmworkers and farmworker advocacy. If your congregation is interested in becoming a sanctuary site or learning more about work with immigrants or farmworkers, please contact rachel@ncchurches.org.
- N.C. Interfaith Power and Light (NCIPL) is the only statewide organization that works on addressing the ecological and justice issues of climate change as a faith-based initiative. Efforts include energy efficiency and conservation, increased renewable energy use, and collective low-carbon lifestyle changes. NCIPL programs encourage congregations, clergy, and denominations to know about and speak to the moral dimensions of climate change and environmental justice from a faith perspective. For more information, contact programs@ncipl.org.
- Partners in Health and Wholeness (PHW) provides tools to help faith communities form healthy habits, including exercise, healthy eating, mental health awareness, and smoking cessation. Staff members in Asheville and Charlotte are available to help your congregation. PHW also has a staff member dedicated to education and advocacy around the opioid crisis. For more information, contact phwinfo@ncchurches.org.
- Gun violence prevention advocacy focuses on telling the truth about gun violence in the country. The majority of gun deaths are suicides; the next highest number is homicides, usually among people who know each other or who are related to one another. The council's work is to help people understand how guns end up in places that create great harm and what each person can do to make people safer. For more information, contact jennifer@ncchurches.org.
- Public education funding advocacy concentrates on making sure all schools have the resources to provide a sound, basic education for all students. The council knows that per-pupil spending, teacher pay, and capital improvements are now lagging in a state that used to lead across the southeast. For more information, contact jennifer@ncchurches.org.

Over the course of this year, the governing board approved the following policy statement which can be found on the council's website along with other statements from previous years:

- Reaffirmation of Support for the LGBTQ+ Community (June 4, 2019)

The council crafts these statements in keeping with its interpretation of the prophetic witness of the Old Testament and the gospel message of the New Testament.

Currently, other areas of emphasis include living wage promotion, criminal justice reform, Medicaid expansion, and redistricting reform. Resources are available online and dedicated staff is available to help your congregation address any of the myriad concerns that arise in this contemporary setting. If you have any questions or are interested in more information, please contact the council at info@ncchurches.org or call the office at 919.828.6501.

FF. THE GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

In the history of The United Methodist Church, there has never been more of a need for leadership, collaboration and connection. Now is the time for those who have been called into the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ to step out and step forward.

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) has been charged by the church for just this moment. GBHEM is equipped and ready to engage in the journey with those called to be principled, Christian leaders.

This is the call of GBHEM – to embrace the ministry of learning and leadership formation in The United Methodist Church and the Wesleyan tradition. The board serves Christian leaders around the world who are defined, formed, and shaped by a process of intellectual engagement, spiritual and character formation, and leadership development.

GBHEM will continue the mission and ministry through 2020 and beyond, but are going to be more innovative and adaptive in the approach. GBHEM has begun a deliberative process to reimagine and reshape its ministry in the following ways:

- Continuing to cultivate a dynamic culture of call and vocational discernment that encourages lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim, and flourish in God's ministry and mission for the church, the academy, and the world;
- Enhancing and expanding GBHEM's innovative platform of experiential learning and formation that provides connectional, contextual, and collaborative solutions to the challenges facing the church, the academy, and the world;

Establishing a stewardship and economic model for GBHEM that maintains a commitment to the mission of the church and the agency while increasing the agency's financial self-sufficiency and sustainability.

"And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20)

The same spirit of service and leadership that first inspired John Wesley lives on within everyone. All have been called, so lead on, knowing GBHEM is here every step of the way.

Greg Bergquist, General Secretary

GG. HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

Hinton is a retreat and mission outreach agency of the Southeastern jurisdiction, with the following mission statement: "Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center's purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministry and missional outreach."

Hinton Center is located in Hayesville, N.C., on 33 acres of wooded property in the Appalachian Mountains. Situated on Lake Chatuge, Hinton continues its 50+ year tradition of hosting clergy and other individuals and retreat groups. With trails, an outdoor labyrinth, scenic views, Hermitage cabins and retreat houses, chapel and meeting rooms, and delicious meals, Hinton provided space and place this past year for many throughout the Southeast to get away, breathe, draw closer to God and others, and be renewed in spirit and call.

As a mission outreach agency focused on improving long-term quality of life in the three-county area of Clay and Cherokee counties, N.C., and Towns County, Ga., Hinton provided individuals and groups with year-round opportunities to serve in its Safe & Healthy Home Repair ministry, firewood ministry, garden ministry, and Christmas Care. With funding from The Duke Endowment, and guided by its 2016 quality-of-life study, Hinton continued to lead collaborative efforts with community partners to address challenges in its rural area. In addition to introducing mission teams to dynamics and perspectives of rural poverty, as well as to the assets in our unique Appalachian culture, Hinton's Safe & Healthy Home Repair ministry developed an assessment tool for pre-home repair visits. The assessment identifies areas of safety/health concerns of which the homeowner may not be aware, such as falling hazards, lack of smoke detectors, standing water, etc., that a mission team can address. As part of its educational efforts, Hinton produced a Safe & Healthy Home checklist refrigerator magnet and started distributing it in the community and to the homeowners it serves to equip them in maintaining a safe and healthy home.

2019 ministry highlights included:

- 269 families/households served
- 1140 volunteers; $621,891 value of volunteer time
- 46 percent increase in grant dollars awarded
- 372 loads of firewood distributed
- 345 area children received Christmas care gifts
- 1000+ pounds of vegetables for Hinton dining & area food pantries
- 58 churches in mission outreach; 949 mission outreach participants

Below are additional initiatives throughout the past year that supported Hinton Rural Life Center's mission for engagement and transformation:

- Developed local leadership training courses for adults and youth.
- Provided rural life Sunday worship resource to conference offices to share with churches.
- Hosted and led Kentucky's residents in ministry in a mission experience, as part of their residency requirements, which included: home repair ministry, worship, presentations on rural poverty and Appalachian culture, and a seminar on pastoring in rural contexts.
- Produced a Sunday school/small group curriculum, with video Cultivating Hope: Grow Where You're Planted, with funding from the Duke Endowment. The curriculum is available for free on Hinton's website or by contacting Hinton Rural Life Center.

HH. LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

Lake Junaluska is a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind and body. This year, over 50,000 overnight guests from all 50 states and over 35 countries will visit the idyllic valley located in the Great Smoky Mountains of Western North Carolina.

Commitment to transformation at Lake Junaluska is stronger than ever. Thanks to generous charitable giving that provides opportunities for Lake Junaluska to reinvest in its facilities and grounds, great strides have been made toward improving the infrastructure, that will enable the conference center to continue to meet guests' needs.

Some of the recent transformational improvements made at Lake Junaluska include:

- Transforming Youth Ministry: As part of a $1.5 million youth ministry revitalization initiative, provided by generous donor support, Shackford Hall auditorium received new audio-video equipment that enhances youth worship experiences. The building was also repainted and the front and side porches were reconstructed. The youth dining hall also received many facility upgrades, with more planned for 2020.
- Nurturing God's Creation: Thanks to a generous charitable gift, the greenhouse, a place of cultivation and nourishment, was renovated, making it easier to grow the more than 8,000 plants that beautify the grounds each year.
- Investing in Preservation: Over $900,000 was invested in preserving Shackford Hall, Harrell Center, and the Administration Building, enabling Lake Junaluska to continue to model great stewardship in its effort to preserve this special place.
- Honoring Sacred Spaces: A new lychgate added to the Biblical Garden and a seating area added to the Prayer Labyrinth help define and enhance these sacred spaces. Renovation of the Stuart Circle spring area has also created a peaceful place for prayer and meditation.

- The Renewal of Recreation: Lake Junaluska tennis courts were resurfaced (complete with pickleball lines), a new cornhole area, a gaga ball pit, 9 square in the air, renovation of sections of the walking trail and refurbishment of the activity field at the Nanci Weldon Gym.

The leadership and staff invite everyone to visit Lake Junaluska for a conference, a retreat, or a vacation. The lake and surrounding mountains will provide the perfect setting to experience transformation and renewal. To plan a visit, please go to the website at www.lakejunaluska.com.

II. UNITED METHODIST SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY AND UNIVERSITIES

1. AFRICA UNIVERSITY

In 2019, Africa University's story was one of resourcefulness, investment, and ministry growth.

Thank you, Bishop Paul Leeland, the cabinet, and the committed lay and clergy leaders who nurture vitality in the local congregations of the Western North Carolina Conference. Africa University is grateful for all that you do to affirm the United Methodist connection and global mission. The gracious support of the Western North Carolina Conference resulted in a 97.18 percent investment of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2019. Thank you for commitment and responsiveness it took to grow your gifts to the AUF by more than eight percent in 2019.

Your generosity is helping Africa University to be impactful in its mission—nurturing, educating, and equipping leaders who think for themselves, are contextually relevant, and have a passion to serve. Since opening in 1992, Africa University has trained more than 9,000 graduates who lead and serve across sub-Saharan Africa. These young people are equipped to be ethical, responsible, and responsive leaders who discern their calling and determine how to best serve the needs of their communities.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University has an annual student population of around 2,800. There are 25–30 African nations represented in the student body each year.
- The university's three colleges operate as centers for teaching, research, innovation, community engagement, and enterprise development. Africa University is still the only university in Zimbabwe accredited to offer online degree programs.
- Students, faculty, and alumni contribute ground-breaking solutions to Africa's current challenges with interventions that include graduate programs in migrant and refugee protection, articulated by refugee students, as well as doctoral-level training for military chaplains in Africa.
- As regards its campus infrastructure, Africa University is transitioning to solar energy with the support of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church. A residence hall for women and a new wing of the student union building—gifted to the university by the Dallas, Tex.-based Highland Park United Methodist Church—will be the first solar-powered facilities on the campus.

Africa University affirms its commitment to The United Methodist Church, its Cross and Flame, and the denomination's global mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Through its faithfulness, the Western North Carolina Conference invites and encourages new partners to join in the mission and change the world. By giving freely, Western North Carolina United Methodists walk alongside their neighbors and participate in bringing dreams to life. Western North Carolina Conference, you have heard story after story about how Africa University is nurturing difference makers. Thank you for responding with love and generosity.

Africa University continues to celebrate God's amazing grace. Thanks to your stewardship of God's blessings, Africa University has gone beyond what some thought was possible. "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." Luke 18:27 NKJV

2. BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

The dean is grateful to have one last opportunity to thank you for your moral, prayerful, and material support of the Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH), and also to highlight the promising future of the school as a new dean joins the stellar faculty, staff, and students in summer 2020 to carry on the mission of the school.

Breaking News:

- Students: The school continues to increase and celebrate diversity in the student body, creating opportunities for in-depth exchanges and a rich community life.
- Faculty: Two new faculty were welcomed this year: Filipe Maia as assistant professor of theology, and Luis Menéndez-Antuña as assistant professor of New Testament. Both are extraordinary teachers who delight in working with students.
- Scholarships: Free tuition is offered to UMC-registered candidates for ordained ministry, and student scholarships and housing are key priorities. BUSTH also offers leadership fellowships to support students in ethnic, gender, and sexuality studies: Raíces Latinas, Sacred Worth, Howard Thurman, Indigenous Studies, Korean Studies, Women in Leadership, and African Studies.
- Two new programs: Faith and Ecological Justice (FEJ) and Raíces Latinas Program in Theology, Leadership, and Research (RL). FEJ leads programs to build ecological awareness, theological research, church collaborations, and community activism in ecological justice. RL sponsors programs to expand Latin American and Latinx theological study and research and to enhance the leadership of students, young people, and leaders in Latino/Latina communities.

- Online lifelong learning: An exciting new program has been launched, offering online mini-courses, workshops, and reading groups for professional and spiritual enrichment.
- Theology and the arts initiatives: Exhibits highlight sacred spaces in Boston; wilderness photography; a 1619 visual lament of 400+ years of slavery; voices and faces of Colombia; and paintings of a gay man struggling with the church.
- Campaign: The BUSTH development campaign concluded with the raising of $29.4 million to support students, faculty, and vital programs.
- Website and Viewbook: Check out the new BUSTH website (www.bu.edu/sth) and Viewbook.

Partnering for Ministry and Transformation:

- Creative callings: In partnership with local churches, the project seeks to create “a culture of call.”
- Engagement with the UMC: Many BUSTH students are delegates, volunteers, and singers in General Conference 2020.
- Continuing scholar program: BUSTH courses are open to alums and local clergy for small lifelong learning fees.
- Doctor of Ministry: The D.Min. in transformational leadership flourishes with lively student cohorts that are broadly ecumenical, culturally diverse, and global. The model includes intensives, online courses, and faculty mentoring.
- Religion and conflict transformation clinic: The clinic provides internships in local churches and organizations that foster just peacebuilding.
- Travel seminars: Immersion journeys open worlds to students in the borderlands of Arizona and Mexico, Cuba, Peru, Israel, Palestine, civil rights landmarks, and centers for ecological-spiritual renewal.
- Ecumenical partnerships: BUSTH now has four denominational communities of learning: Wesleyan/Methodist, Episcopal Anglican, United Church of Christ, and Unitarian Universalist.
- Partnership with Hebrew College: This partnership enriches interreligious learning through joint courses and public events, and also co-sponsors The Journal of Interreligious Studies and the State of Formation for emerging leaders.

Taking Action Globally and Locally:

- Campus action: Work to improve accessibility and sustainability. BUSTH is the first certified “Green School” in BU and is active in the Green Seminary Initiative. It was also named as one of the “Seminaries that Change the World.”
- Internships in global service and peacemaking: Students participate in apprenticeship ministries across the world.

Commitment to Justice:

- Faculty and students have been active in UMCOR efforts to support victims of hurricanes and fires, and in collaborative services to support people suffering the consequences of immigration practices, disability inequities, or racial violence.
- In town hall meetings, the community has deep conversations on issues that divide, seeking to develop capacities for relating across difference and to create a community based on the dignity of all.

BUSTH looks to the future. It celebrates transformational leaders of The United Methodist Church, who love with their whole hearts and follow Jesus Christ with their whole lives.

Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean

3. CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Since its founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders who are dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current shifts in the denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet, true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to its community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and its mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As Candler moves forward, it will continue to invite and welcome those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, it will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

This year, Candler has continued to strengthen its deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018–2019, it awarded $6.3 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of Master of Divinity (M.Div.) students receiving support and financial coaching. In fall 2019, it announced a major expansion of its financial aid program to include full-tuition scholarships for all M.Div. students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church, and new merit scholarships covering 75 percent of tuition for qualifying M.Div. students who identify as pan-Wesleyan and those pursuing chaplaincy through Candler’s new chaplaincy concentration. In addition, all incoming students in the Master of Divinity, Master of Theological Studies, and Master of Religious Leadership programs will receive awards covering at least 50 percent of tuition.

This year also saw the launch of two pilot “formation communities,” off-campus student housing that focuses on intentional living and spiritual formation. Students from multiple degree programs applied to take part in these pilot groups. At the start of the year, the housemates created a “rule of life” to guide their days together, emphasizing prayer, fellowship, and celebration. A house chaplain—a Candler faculty member or church leader—supports them and shares in the journey. The ten students who took part this year describe feeling a richer sense of community and deeper connections to God and one another in the midst of their busy lives. It is clear that this fulfills a need for Candler’s seminarians, and the school eagerly anticipates the program’s growth in the coming years.

Candler’s student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 470 from 12 countries and 38 states, with 40 percent people of color (U.S.) and a median age of 27 among Master of Divinity students. Students represent 42 denominations, with 45 percent of all students and 50 percent of Master of Divinities coming from the Methodist family.

Candler offers six single degrees and 10 dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Its Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees.

Candler draws strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Its ability to fulfill its mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Candler invites you to visit in person or online at candler.emory.edu.

Jan Love, Dean

4. DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

L. Gregory Jones, Dean of the Divinity School and Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Jr. Distinguished Professor of Theology and Christian Ministry, had his term as dean extended for a full five years through 2023.

The Duke Endowment awarded Duke Divinity School (DDS) a $12 million grant in support of DDS's three core priorities and traditions: Thriving communities enlivened by healthy congregations and gifted pastors, embodied wisdom through rigorous intellectual vitality, and creative institutions that inspire imaginative and transformative leadership, including the Thriving Communities Fellowship program, which will provide 52 new full-tuition scholarships over the next four years.

Duke Divinity School launched the Duke Divinity: Black Pastoral Leadership Collaboration which will draw on original research in Black church traditions and historical examples of effective Black church leadership to train and build networks of effective leaders for the Black church of today and the future. The collaboration will be led by the Rev. David Emmanuel Goatley, research professor of theology and Black church studies and director of the Office of Black Church Studies at Duke Divinity School.

In 2019, Duke Divinity School welcomed 215 new students from 33 different states and seven other countries: Canada, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, and Zimbabwe. The Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) and Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.C.P.) degree programs received record enrollments of 35 students and 22 students, respectively. The Master of Theology (Th.M., 14 students), Doctor of Ministry (D.Min., 20 students), and Doctor of Theology (Th.D., four students) all had strong enrollment. The D.Min. program was named the top online program by www.TheBestSchools.org. Duke Divinity's new Certificate in Theology and Health Care will enroll eight students, all of whom are fellows with the Theology, Medicine, and Culture (T.M.C.) Initiative at the school. The M.T.S. program also includes eight students who are T.M.C. fellows, for a record year of 16 total fellows. The M.Div. degree program gained 110 new students, with minority students comprising more than 32 percent of the incoming M.Div. class, and Black students comprising 18 percent of the incoming M.Div. class. Female students made up 44 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 56 percent. There were 24 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 42 percent affiliated with The United Methodist Church.

Two new faculty members, Brent Strawn and Brett McCarty, joined the DDS faculty in July 2019. Strawn, Professor of Old Testament, is an ordained elder in the North Georgia Conference of The United Methodist Church. Strawn has a secondary appointment as a Professor of Law at Duke University School of Law. Prior to joining the Duke faculty, Strawn taught at Candler School of Theology at Emory University for eighteen years.

McCarty, Assistant Research Professor of Theological Ethics, is a theological ethicist whose work centers on questions of faithful action within health care. He is associate director of the Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative at Duke Divinity School, and he holds a joint appointment in the School of Medicine's Department of Population Health Sciences.

Randy Maddox, William Kellon Quick Professor of Wesleyan and Methodist Studies, general editor of the Wesley Works Editorial Project, and elder in the Dakotas Conference, retires at the end of the 2019-2020 academic year.

United Methodist faculty member Brittany Wilson received tenure and promotion to the rank of Associate Professor.

Tito Madrazo joined the administrative leadership of the Divinity School as Senior Strategist for the Hispanic House of Studies. He will also serve as a consulting faculty member.

The Hispanic-Latino/a Preaching Initiative is currently in its fifth year of providing high-quality theological education to current and aspiring Hispanic-Latino/a ministers. Twenty-one students from multiple denominations are taking courses this year.

The Duke Endowment has also awarded Duke Divinity School a grant of $5.5 million over five years to cultivate meaning and purpose across diverse professional schools at Duke. The Lilly Endowment has also awarded grants to Duke Divinity School to coordinate initiatives on "Thriving in Ministry" and "Thriving Congregations" across the United States.

Duke Divinity School has a partnership with Huntingdon College and Virginia Wesleyan University to create streamlined admissions process and private campus events in order to better equip students from those institutions with a calling to serve the church. In an effort to expand access for quality theological formation to students, pastors, and lay leaders in the Nashville Episcopal Area, DDS is also partnering with the Turner Center at Martin Methodist College to offer theological training for innovative and entrepreneurial ministries.

5. GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African-American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. The faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African-American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of The United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African-American higher education. It is also a member of the University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Christian Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women of The United Methodist Church.

The support of this annual conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for The United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this annual conference for the support of theological education, and for the commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead Gammon/ITC forward.

6. METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Full-tuition scholarships extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy:

MTSO and the school's generous donors have pledged to extend a full-tuition pledge to all prospective students who are pursuing United Methodist elder or deacon candidacy. This pledge applies to qualified prospective students who apply by July 1 for the 2020-21 academic year. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

Two young scholars appointed to faculty:

MTSO President Jay Rundell has announced the appointment of Tejai Beulah and Kyle Brooks to the faculty, effective July 1. Beulah has been appointed assistant professor of history, ethics, and black church and African diaspora studies. She earned her doctorate in American religious history from Drew University; a Master of Theological Studies degree from MTSO; a master's degree in African American and African studies from Ohio State University; and a bachelor's degree in English, history and gender diversity studies from Xavier University. Brooks has been appointed assistant professor of homiletics, worship, and black church and African diaspora studies. He has served for two years as a Louisville Institute postdoctoral fellow at MTSO while completing his doctoral dissertation in pursuit of a Ph.D. from Vanderbilt University with a concentration in homiletics and liturgics. He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Yale Divinity School, and an Master of Arts degree in Urban Education Studies and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Yale University.

Al Gore among participants at MTSO conference:

In June 2019, more than 100 religious leaders, scholars, scientists and farmers gathered at MTSO for a three-day conference, "On Food and Faith: Ministry in the Time of Climate Change." Former Vice President Al Gore, founder and chairman of the Climate Reality Project, participated in all three days of the conference, delivering a multimedia climate presentation during a plenary session.

Faculty offer reading recommendations:

MTSO's faculty members, who are widely published themselves, have compiled a list of theological books that shaped their lives and work. Their brief reviews cover titles from Down in the Chapel: Religious Life in an American Prison to Dakota: A Spiritual Geography. They are available online at www.mtso.edu/goodbooks.

7. UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

For nearly 150 years, United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, has been preparing faithful, fruitful leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Students:

In the Fall 2019 semester, United equipped 459 women and men for leadership in the Church, including 272 masters' students and 187 doctoral students. An ecumenical community of many denominations, races, and nationalities, United welcomed students from 11 countries, 42 states, and 37 denominations, with the student body composed of 49 percent African American students, 42 percent Caucasian students, and 10 percent ethnic/racial minority students. The seminary prepared 165 course of study students and served 36 students through the Hispanic Christian Academy, a three-year Spanish online course of ministry program for Hispanic/Latino lay pastors and leaders. Altogether, approximately 660 students followed God's call through United Theological Seminary.

Alumni/ae:

United graduates are making an impact in their communities as they spread the Good News.

- 88 percent of alumni/ae are currently employed in or retired from ministry
- 70 percent serve in local parishes
- The Rev. Dr. Brad Kalajainen (D.Min. '99) received the 2019 Effective Ministry Award for his transformative leadership of Cornerstone UMC in Grand Rapids, MI.
- The Rev. Dr. James Bushfield (M.Div. '79, D.Min. '92) received the 2019 Distinguished Alumnus Award for his leadership and ministry in the Indiana Conference of The United Methodist Church.
- The Rev. Dr. Sandra Coley (D.Min. '14) received the Outstanding Doctor of Ministry Award for her advocacy of organ donation among African American communities.

New at United:

United introduced a 36-hour Master of Arts (M.A.) degree, designed for those who wish to earn a degree while completing the requirements for Advanced Course of Study in pursuit of ordination in The United Methodist Church. The Master of Arts program is available fully online, on campus, or in a combination.

United continues to offer innovative learning through its Live Interactive Virtual Education (LIVE) environment introduced in 2018. In the first year, 59 students participated in LIVE courses, connecting with classmates on campus in Dayton, Ohio, and across the country by attending classes in real time via simultaneous webcast.

Becoming Debt Free:

United remains committed to becoming debt free by the seminary's 150th anniversary on October 11, 2021. Thanks to the support of generous donors, United has received more than $2.5 million toward its goal of raising $4 million to "burn the mortgage." Becoming debt free as an institution will enable United to focus on generating income for scholarships that lighten the load of student debt for seminarians.

In Romans 10:14, St. Paul writes: "How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?" For 150 years, United has been preparing faithful and fruitful Christian preachers and leaders who proclaim the Good News of God's unconditional love which has come to us in Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God!

X. HISTORICAL MATERIAL

A. HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of the New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River. (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 1957)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church were included in this new conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came 39 ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed 74 ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new conference 490 members, with 28 others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions; the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112; and the Western North Carolina, 50 (see Journal, 1939, pp. 115, 169).

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church was formed on June 5, 1968, by the merger of the Western North Carolina Conference and that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference situated within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference (see Journal, 1968, p. 84). The North Carolina-Virginia Conference had been organized in Greensboro on Aug. 11, 1964, and, in addition to the organizational session, held four sessions prior to the 1968 merger.

Harold Keith Bales

January 16, 1942 – August 11, 2019

The Rev. Dr. Harold Keith Bales was born on January 16, 1942, in Knox County, Tenn., to the late Burchell H. and Edith F. Bales. He graduated from Gibbs High School in Corryton, Tenn., and soon after married his high school sweetheart, Judith Byrd Bales, in December 1960. After working briefly as a postman, Bales began to think deeply on his purpose and goals for life. Puzzled by his distracted and introspective behavior, Judy began to grow concerned for her husband; however, it was met with great relief when, rather than something more sinister, he proclaimed his calling to the church and desire to become a minister. Bales received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Tennessee Wesleyan University in 1968. The following year, he was admitted to the Holston Conference of The United Methodist Church. Bales continued his education at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn. He went on to achieve a Master of Divinity degree in 1972 and Doctor of Ministry degree in 1975. As Harold pursued his educational and ministerial goals, he and Judy brought into the world their daughter, Janice Kay, son David Keith, and son Philip Kevin. Their second daughter, Susannah Rose, would be welcomed later. Bales became a deacon in The United Methodist Church in 1969 and an elder in 1973.

Bales began his ministerial career in a small circuit of churches in Cleveland, Tenn. He then served as an associate minister at First Broad Street United Methodist Church in Kingsport, Tenn. He transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1983, and his appointments included: First (Charlotte), 1983-1989; Central (Asheville), 1989-1992; conference director of ministries (Charlotte), 1992-1998; district superintendent (Salisbury District), 1998-2003; First (Gastonia), 2003-2004. He was placed on incapacity leave in 2004. In addition to these appointments, Bales served on the boards of trust of Tennessee Wesleyan College, Emory and Henry College, and Hiwassee College. He served on the boards of directors of numerous community agencies and was the executive director of The Churches Presence at the 1982 World's Fair. In the weeks after the Sept. 11 attacks in 2001, Bales delivered a prayer to the U.S. House of Representatives as a guest chaplain. Bales dedicated his time, heart, and mind to countless individuals in need throughout his life, from teaching writing courses to incarcerated men to working with single mothers in need of community resources. To every challenge and occasion, he brought unrelenting humor and wit, as he believed such characteristics, along with the flexibility of mind they require, were essential to his discipleship. Bales retired in 2009; however, he remained active in the congregation of Trinity United Methodist Church in Kannapolis, N.C., until his passing in August 2019.

Before, during, and after his ministerial career within The United Methodist Church, Bales wrote passionately and prolifically. His most notable books include The Spider in the Stable & Other Christmas Reflections (1997) and The Southern-Fried Preacher: Musings from a Made-in-America Minister (2011). The latter work stemmed largely from his long-standing weekly newspaper column, "The Southern-Fried Preacher," published in the Lake Norman Citizen. Over the years, Bales cultivated a wide audience as the "Southern-Fried Preacher." His book was received with such warmth and gratitude, he began self-publishing "Daily Nuggets" for his readers. In 2013, Bales created a compilation of these thoughtful, humorous musings, titled The Southern Fried Preacher: 101+ Nuggets, with the hopes his readers would, "enjoy this collection of sentimentality, good-natured crankiness, naughtiness, inspiration, provocativeness, silliness and conviviality."

On August 11, 2019, Bales passed away peacefully in the presence of family. In the few short weeks before, he had fallen ill due to complications from Type 2 diabetes. He was transferred to hospice care, where he was closely looked after and cared for by his devoted wife, Judy, along with his children and grandchildren. Throughout the years, Bales repeatedly defied the odds and expectations of competent doctors, his family, and congregants, surviving colon cancer in his early 50s, as well as a quintuple bypass surgery. His valiancy, fervor for life, and unending sources of love, family, and friendship sustained Bales for his 77 years. His final homecoming was met with equivalent grace and strength.

Bales is survived by his wife of 59 years, Judith Byrd Bales. Also surviving are their children, David Keith Bales, Philip Kevin Bales, and Susannah Rose Bales Faulhaber. Their daughter, Janice Kay Bales White, is deceased. Also surviving are their grandchildren, John White and Jenny Calvo, Caitlyn Pasour and Megan Bales, and Wesley Bales and Shea Bales. His brother, Burchell Lynn Bales, and sister Brenda Stewart also survive him. His brother, Stephen Ray Bales, is deceased. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and four great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at Trinity United Methodist Church in Kannapolis. His ashes are kept with his wife, Judy. Undoubtedly, the goodness of Harold Keith Bales will persist in the hearts and minds of his family, friends, colleagues, and church members. For his wife, Judy, Harold delivered this truth in Musings from a Made-in-America Minister: "Love begins early, and then, if it is real, it flowers with beauty and grace, whimsy and delight and ends with loving, precious memories."

Carl Benjamin "C.B." Barr Jr.

January 2, 1928 – September 14, 2019

Carl Benjamin Barr Jr. was born on January 2, 1928, in Chattanooga, Tenn., to the late Carl Benjamin Barr and Myrtle Burris Barr. He attended schools in Belmont, Toccoa Falls, Ga., High Point, and Durham. He graduated from High Point College in 1953, completed the Duke University Course of Study, and was ordained in the Western North Carolina Conference as a deacon in 1955 and as an elder in 1958. His home church was Ward Street United Methodist Church in High Point. After a brief stint in the U.S. Coast Guard, Barr married his childhood sweetheart, Betty Jo Parker, on June 22, 1947. They have two daughters, Yvonne Carline Barr (Hugh) Cole and Angela Dawn Barr (Mark) Hollar; three grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. C.B. and Betty Jo were married 72 years with more than 68 of those years in ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference.

His appointments included: the Eldorado Charge (Davidson/Montgomery counties), 1951-1955; Prospect-Pleasant Hill (Thomasville), 1955-1958; Shady Grove-Maggie Valley-Peachtree-Hemphill (Haywood County), 1958-1963; Pleasant Grove (Forest City), 1963-1969 with Alexander added for 1967-1969; Abernethy Memorial (Newton), 1969-1979; First (Mount Holly), 1979-1985; Bradley Memorial (Gastonia), 1985-1989; Midway (Kannapolis), 1989-1991; and Highland (Hickory), 1991-1994. He retired in 1994.

After retirement, C.B. and Betty Jo moved to Gastonia and enjoyed volunteering at Crisis Assistance Ministry for more than 20 years and in various ministries at First United Methodist Church of Gastonia. He was also instrumental in Gastonia's Cornerstone Christian Ministry, serving as its board chair for many years. In 2003, the Barrs were honored for their volunteer service as finalists in the WSOC-TV Nine Who Care Award. Barr was a Master Mason since 1971 in the Catawba Lodge 248, Newton. In addition, he was an Optimist in Forest City and a Rotarian in Newton and Mount Holly. In 2005, he was appointed to First UMC, Gastonia as the associate pastor for older adults. He loved this work and held the appointment until 2012 when he retired a second time.

It is important to recall Barr's humor and wit. He wove these traits into his life and ministry as well as a wonderful gift of wisdom. He believed in The United Methodist Church, its social principles, and the Book of Discipline. He had mountains of common sense, and he applied all these attributes in his work and life. His family was of great importance to him. He performed his daughters' weddings and his grandchildren's baptisms, confirmations, and weddings. He also baptized his great-grandchildren. As a testament to the love of his grandchildren, Barr was an avid Duke fan until all three of them attended and graduated from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Duke blue quickly became Carolina blue, and he proudly (most of the time) wore UNC-CH attire.

In 2014, the Barrs transitioned to Morningside Assisted Living in Gastonia where Betty Jo continues to reside. While at Morningside, Barr was active on committees as well as leading prayer services, serving Communion, and preaching the first Sunday of each month. Even though he was not under an official appointment, he continued to use his talents and exercise his calling to follow Jesus and make disciples for the transformation of the world until his death on September 14, 2019, at Morningside. Barr loved life to its fullest and was always ready to share God's love with others. In his last days, he reminded all, "There is nothing more important in life than making sure we know Christ and living our lives for him. For you see, God is still on the throne! Everything is going to be all right because God is with us." He had a familiar saying, "Hang in there!" The Rev. Dr. Don Haynes recalled the following fitting tribute to Barr: "He was an evangelical preacher of the Gospel with a great sense of humor. He had a broad mind and was friends with clergy of wide theological spectra. His laugh was contagious. His work ethic was untiring. His sermons were interesting and motivational for changing lives. He could make you want to be a Christian just to hear him laugh."

A Celebration of Life service was held on Sunday, September 22, 2019, at First UMC, Gastonia with the Rev. David Christy, the Rev. Dr. Jim Westmoreland, and the Rev. Angela Hollar officiating. The family greeted friends after the service, and Barr was buried at Gaston Memorial Park, Gastonia. The family chose Sunday for his service and burial as this was his most favorite day of the week — a day to glorify God and honor Barr's life of Christian witness and service.

Keith Warren Bingham

June 28, 1951 – July 22, 2019

The Rev. Keith Warren Bingham, 68, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and pastor, died peacefully at home on July 22, 2019. His passing came as the result of complications from a stroke he suffered in February 2019.

Bingham was born in Charlotte, N.C., on June 28, 1951, to E.A. "Bing" and Phyllis Bingham. He grew up in a brick bungalow off Freedom Drive with his parents, four siblings, and one bathroom. He graduated from West Mecklenburg High School in 1969. While in high school, he worked at McDonald's on Freedom Drive, which still stands today. He famously made the first Big Mac in Charlotte when it was introduced.

Bingham and his family were members and regular attendees at St. James United Methodist Church on Freedom Drive. There, he was first exposed to what would become his lifelong calling. He put himself through Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte and Pfeiffer University in Misenheimer, N.C. While in college and even in high school, he worked with Campus Life, further solidifying his resolve to become a pastor.

Upon graduation from Pfeiffer in 1973, Bingham went to Asbury Theological Seminary in Kentucky. While there, in the cafeteria one day, he informed a young woman that based on his training, she was making her hamburger incorrectly. This woman was Rebecca "Becky" Kay Green, and they were married on June 14, 1975. He loved her deeply and was committed to providing her with the support and companionship she deserved during their life together.

Keith and Becky shared their marriage with their two daughters, Jennifer and Kara. Regardless of the demands placed on him as a pastor, he made sure he was there for them at recitals, school events, and especially at home. He was dedicated to helping his daughters achieve their dreams and supported them completely. Bingham made sure they knew how proud they made him and how much they were loved.

In 1976, Bingham received a Master of Divinity degree from Asbury. He was ordained as an elder in The United Methodist Church and received into full connection in the Western North Carolina Conference in 1977. He loved to preach, but he did so as a teacher and treated his congregants as students of Christ. He was a dedicated servant, and it was not uncommon for him to work nearly 80 hours per week. In summer 2018, after nearly 47 years of service to The United Methodist Church, he retired from full-time ministry, but he continued serving in a part-time capacity and preached a sermon the day before his stroke.

Bingham developed a course for beginning pastors, the "Art of the Start," and taught the course yearly for 15 years. He also served on many boards and agencies at the district and conference levels. He loved to prepare and deliver sermons, but he thrived on pastoral care to his congregants and beyond. Teaching Bible studies, such as Disciple Bible Study, was also a passion for him, as well as leading youth and children's ministry.

He loved the heavens above and enjoyed exploring them with his telescopes. It was a passion that he enjoyed sharing with both his daughters and grandsons, Jack and Ben. He also enjoyed exploring the heavens through movies. Whether it be "Star Trek," "Star Wars," or others, he enjoyed imagining being among the stars. If he could have traveled there, he would have brought his favorite music along for the ride: oldies, beach music, and the music of Bruce Springsteen.

Bingham lived his life according to the principles he taught and was an example for many of how to live a life for Christ. And though we miss him here, we know he is happy to finally meet his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. While his family and the world lost a kind, loving, compassionate, patient man whose life impacted so many positively, we know he was needed somewhere else more urgently. He will be remembered well and missed sorely by the thousands of lives he touched over his lifetime.

Frank Wooldridge Buckner Jr.

October 11, 1949 – June 15, 2019

The Rev. Dr. Frank Wooldridge Buckner Jr. was born October 11, 1949, in Nashville, Tenn., to the late Frank W. Buckner Sr. and Katherine Kern Buckner, the daughter of Bishop Paul B. Kern. He was the youngest of four children and is survived by siblings Bates Buckner, J. Kern Buckner, and Jansen Buckner. He spent his childhood and youth primarily in Martinsville, Va., and Chapel Hill, N.C., and Bishop Kern's home at Lake Junaluska, N.C., which provided a location for his family to gather which continues today. Buckner graduated in 1968 from The Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., received his Bachelor of Arts degree in history from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1972, earned his Master of Divinity degree from Duke University Divinity School in 1979, and then his Doctor of Philosophy degree in theology from Duke University in 1987.

After joining the Western North Carolina Conference in 1978 as a deacon, Buckner was ordained as an elder in 1985. Appointments included: Dellwood-Shady Grove, 1979-1980; Broad Street (Statesville) associate, 1984-1985; and Plateau-Wesley's Chapel, 1985-1987. In 1987, he joined the faculty of Huntingdon College, a United Methodist institution in Montgomery, Ala., where he remained until his retirement in 2017.

During his 30 years at Huntingdon, Buckner served on the faculty and was promoted from assistant professor to associate professor, before becoming a full professor of religion and philosophy. He also spent time as chaplain, was department chair as well as division chair, and during his last years was associate provost. Upon his retirement, he was voted professor emeritus by his colleagues. Huntingdon College President J. Cameron West memorialized Buckner in Huntingdon's tribute, saying, "Frank had a reputation of encouraging students to think more widely, deeply, and fully. Students emerged from his classes having re-examined the faith-information they had inherited or learned from others, and having claimed a new level of faith and understanding that was all their own. He was a tremendous person, a gifted teacher, and a treasured colleague." During his career, Buckner was awarded the Julia Lightfoot Sellers Teaching Award twice, the Winn and Gordon Chappell Academic Enrichment Award, The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of The United Methodist Church Exemplary Teaching Award, The Francis Asbury Award from the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, The Mary Mildred Sullivan Award, and Huntingdon's Rhoda Coleman Ellison Distinguished Faculty Lifetime Service Award.

Involvement in his local congregation was important to Buckner, and he was very active in the ministries of First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, Ala. An affiliate member of the Alabama-West Florida Conference, Buckner also taught in and was director of the Alabama Course of Study School for the education and training of local pastors in The United Methodist Church.

In 1980, Buckner was introduced to Diane Elaine Leatherwood of Waynesville, N.C., by her minister, who married them on May 16, 1981, at Long's Chapel United Methodist Church. For more than 38 years, Diane and Frank loved and supported each other and were partners in all that they did. Buckner was a devoted family man, loving the time he spent with his family. His family and friends remember his encyclopedic knowledge and memory and his love of bicycles, coffee, good jokes, and stories. Survivors are his wife, Diane; youngest daughter, Christina Elaine Buckner; oldest daughter, Melissa Katherine Buckner Reynolds; son-in-law Justin R. Reynolds; and grandchildren Paul Hansen and Lucy Katherine Reynolds. Many nieces, nephews, and cousins also survive him.

On June 15, 2019, Buckner collapsed and died while riding his bicycle in Montgomery. His sudden, unexpected death shocked those who knew him. A memorial service was held on June 20, 2019, at First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, and a service of committal was held on July 5, 2019, at Memorial Chapel and Memory Garden, Lake Junaluska, N.C. Buckner had a tremendous impact on his students, colleagues, parishioners, and most of all, his family, all of whom miss him and are better for having known him.

Frank Hugh Edwards

May 11, 1925 – August 2, 2019

Frank Hugh Edwards was born on May 11, 1925, in Barnardsville in Buncombe County, to Joseph Baird and Mary Creasman Edwards. During his college years at Berea College, he was licensed to preach when he was just 18 years old. After earning his bachelor's degree in 1946, he ventured north to Massachusetts for seminary, graduating with his Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree from Boston University School of Theology in 1949. Having studied ethics with L. Harold DeWolf, Edwards was a quiet scholar all his life with a sharp, inquisitive mind, never pedantic or arrogant about it. Although he did not attend Duke Divinity School, he did the right Methodist thing for the rest of his life, becoming an ardent supporter of Duke University and its divinity school.

Edwards was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1948, ordained as a deacon in 1949 and as a full connection elder in 1950. Our conference has never seen a more loyal, institutional clergyman. From 1949 until his retirement in 1995, he served 10 appointments faithfully, usually staying longer than the norm of four years back in those days. His record of service is: Old Union-Mt. Lebanon (1949-1953); Hinshaw Memorial (Greensboro), 1953-1958; Madison, 1958-1963; Midway (Kannapolis), 1963-1967; Fair Grove (Thomasville), 1967-1972; Commonwealth (Charlotte), 1972-1977; Moriah (Greensboro), 1977-1982; First (Cherryville), 1982-1983; district superintendent (North Wilkesboro District), 1983-1988; and then with great distinction, administrative assistant to the bishop, 1988-1995, during which time he also served a stint as interim district superintendent in Charlotte, 1992. He was the valued advisor and right-hand man to Bishop L. Bevel Jones III, who praised him highly and often.

On June 25, 1954, Frank married Bobbie Ann Caudle. He always felt extraordinarily blessed to be married to such a beautiful, joyful, constant wife, and he grieved her death on August 5, 2003 heavily. They had two sons, who survive both of their parents, David Carlton Edwards and Mark Allan Edwards.

After his retirement in 1995, Edwards never missed worship at Myers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte, where he was an encourager of all clergy and enthusiastic fan of the music and formal liturgy which he treasured, until his health did not permit him to come any longer. He died on August 2, 2019. His funeral was held one week later, on August 9, 2019, in the sanctuary of Myers Park UMC, presided over by the Rev. Dr. James Howell. The congregation sang "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling" and "It Is Well With My Soul." Scriptures read were Ephesians 2:4-10, on which Edwards had preached a remarkable sermon at annual conference in 1983, and 2 Timothy 4:1-8. The Rev. James Pyatt presented the conference tombstone medallion to the family. Edwards was buried later that same day at the Mt. Lebanon United Methodist Church cemetery in Randleman next to Bobbie. The Rev. Dr. Donald B. Haynes conducted the graveside liturgy.

Edwards' attention to detail, dogged loyalty, dry wit, and theological depth made an indelible impression on our conference, and all who served with him. His manifest and authentic humility would protest if we rambled any longer on his many virtues.

Virginia Loggins Forbes

May 2, 1936 – May 3, 2020

Virginia Loggins Forbes was born May 2, 1936, in Marietta, Ga., to the late Jack Coleman and Virginia Nix Loggins. Her only sibling, Jack, preceded her in death. Virginia graduated from high school in Decatur, Ga. She and Charles Alan Forbes were married April 6, 1955. They were blessed with two children, son Charles Alan (Chuck) Forbes Jr. and daughter Susan Forbes Fisher.

Virginia met her future husband, Alan, at age 14. (He was 17.) By the time they were married five years later, Alan had joined and was flying for the U.S. Air Force. When he retired in the early 1960s, they settled in South Carolina, where son Chuck was born. The family moved north a few years later, eventually settling in Norwalk, Conn., where they welcomed Susan into the family.

During her years in Norwalk, Forbes resumed her education while raising her children. She obtained a Bachelor of General Studies degree from University of Connecticut. She did non-profit work with Voluntary Action Center of Mid-Fairfield County until Alan, Susan, and Virginia moved to Charlotte, N.C., in 1984.

Upon moving to Charlotte, Forbes continued her non-profit work at the American Cancer Society, where she was executive director of the Charlotte office. In the 1990s, she began to work toward accepting her call to ministry by enrolling at Duke Divinity School. She graduated with a Master of Divinity degree in 1993. She was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church as a provisional member and ordained as a deacon in 1992. She was accepted as a member in full connection and ordained as an elder in 1995. She served the following appointments: Ebenezer (Belmont), 1993-1999; St. Luke's (Charlotte), 1999-2003; and Haywood Street (Asheville), 2003-2004. She retired in 2004.

While serving in Charlotte, Forbes also associated with Providence United Methodist Church, teaching small Bible classes and helping with pastoral care at times. She was known at Providence and other churches in Charlotte for helping Dr. Mickey Efrid when he was doing in-person Bible studies from Duke, where he was on faculty. When the recorded version became available, Forbes facilitated those studies in various churches and at the Aldersgate Retirement Community. During her time at St. Luke's, she was instrumental in starting care ministries at Shamrock Gardens Elementary School, which is across the street from the church. Along with church members, she organized various care ministries with the school. One in particular housed a student orchestra in the church after school and worked to get donated instruments so that all students could participate if desired. Forbes is remembered for her caring ministries and especially her teaching of Bible studies and for her care for her husband, Alan, until his death in 2002.

Shortly after his death, Forbes retired and after a few years became a resident of Aldersgate. In the final months of her life there, she was a resident of the new Asbury Health and Rehab Center. She died May 3, 2020, just one day after her 84th birthday. She is survived by son Chuck and his wife, Mary, of Westport, Conn., and daughter Susan and her husband, Rick, of Charlotte, as well as three grandchildren, Mara Forbes, who recently relocated to Charlotte, Tristan Forbes, and Avery Fisher.

A service to celebrate her life will be held at a later time, and her ashes will be interred in the columbarium at Providence UMC beside her husband, Alan.

Michael B. Harrill Sr.

April 20, 1944 – August 27, 2019

The Rev. Michael Bryan Harrill Sr. was born April 20, 1944, in Rutherford County, N.C., to the late Jennings Bryan Harrill and Ruth Bagwell Harrill.

Harrill graduated from Chase High School in Rutherford County in 1963 and honorably served in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War. While a member of Henrietta United Methodist Church in Rutherford County, he accepted a call from God to become a United Methodist pastor. He attended Western Piedmont Community College in Morganton, N.C., and then completed the Course of Study at Duke Divinity School, becoming licensed as a local pastor in 1977. Harrill was ordained as a deacon and became an associate member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1985.

Harrill's appointments include: Denton's Chapel-Mt. Pleasant, 1977-1978; Bollingers Chapel, 1978-1979; Mount Moriah-New Home, 1979-1984; Grassy Creek, 1984-1986; Bethlehem-Bess Chapel, 1986-1993; Pelham-Hickory Grove, 1993-1997; Friendship-Oak Grove, 1997-2001; Oak Grove UMC-Palm Tree, 2001-2004; and Shiloh UMC (Cabarrus County), 2004-2007. In 2007, Harrill retired and served his final appointment at Grace UMC (Kings Mountain), 2007-2010.

In the years after his pastoral ministry, Harrill attended Kistler's Chapel United Methodist Church in Rutherford County and enjoyed bird hunting and fly-fishing in the mountain rivers of western North Carolina. More than this, he enjoyed being a pastor and ministering to the people he led and loved. He was also passionate about preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and leading lost souls to know Jesus as Lord and Savior. Within his preaching, he emphasized the blood of Christ and the redeeming power of Jesus' blood. Another of Harrill's great joys was seeing the people within The United Methodist Church grow in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Those left to cherish Harrill's memory include two sons, Jeffery Todd Yelton and wife Brenda Yelton, and the Rev. Michael B. Harrill Jr. and wife Sarah; and a daughter, Shelia Renee Harrill. He is also survived by 15 grandchildren, Catherine Levesque, Robyn Dawn Yelton, Joshua Douglas Yelton, Rickey Jason Ware, Michael James Ware, Jennifer Renee Ricketts, George Jeffrey Hoover, Talon James Yelton, Breanna Bethany Yelton, Samuel Edward Yelton, Jessica Lewis Henson (Will), Christopher Harding Lewis, Luke Michael Harrill, Kristen Harrill London (Elijah), and Heather Nicole Self; and 11 great-grandchildren.

On August 27, 2019, Harrill went home to be with the Lord and to be in his eternal home in heaven. The celebration of his life was held on August 31, 2019, at Kistler's Chapel UMC with the Rev. Don Farris and the Rev. Michael B. Harrill Jr. The interment was held at the cemetery of Kistler's Chapel UMC with military honors by the Rutherford County Honor Guard.

Joseph Harry Hawk

April 27, 1934 – August 5, 2019

Joseph Harry Hawk was born on April 27, 1934, in Andrews, N.C., to the late Willard Mitchell and Sarah Blanche Bradley Hawk. After his father's death, Hawk and his three brothers and four sisters were raised by their mother. His mother often told stories of Hawk attending every vacation Bible school in Andrews. He loved learning the stories of the Bible and more about his faith in Jesus. As a young man, Hawk joined the U.S. Navy in 1951 and proudly served until 1955 during the Korean War Era.

After leaving the Navy, Hawk returned to Andrews where he met and fell in love with Katherine Lavenia Forbes. They were married on November 20, 1955, just six weeks after they met. Hawk is survived by his wife of 63 years and three children: Diane Hawk Williamson, Debra Hawk Esposito, and Joseph Harry Hawk Jr. Hawk was preceded in death by his youngest daughter, Sandra Gail Hawk Rech in 1999.

Hawk began his college studies at Gardner-Webb University and graduated with a bachelor's degree from Mars Hill College in 1969. He also earned a Master of Divinity degree in 1972 from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. Hawk was ordained as a deacon and admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference on trial in 1970. In 1973, he was ordained as an elder and admitted to full connection.

Hawk was a beloved pastor who served in ministry for 35 years. His appointments included: Shooting Creek Circuit (Waynesville District), 1969-1971; Clay County Parish Associate, 1971-1973; Rockwood-Beaverdam, 1973-1976; Lawndale-Double Shoals (Gastonia District), 1976-1980; Stony Hill (Albemarle District), 1980-1983; Taylorsville (North Wilkesboro District), 1983-1988; Bryson City (Waynesville District), 1988-1993; and Bethlehem (Albemarle District), 1993-1996. Following his initial retirement in 1996, Hawk continued to serve part-time positions as follows: Clay County and Shooting Creek associate, July to November 1997; Andrews associate, November 1997 to June 1998; and Cherokee County Parish and Andrews associate, July 1998-2002. After full retirement in 2002, he held his position as pastor emeritus at Andrews United Methodist Church until his death in 2019.

Throughout his ministry, Hawk held a "hands-on" approach. He never asked a congregation to do anything he wasn't willing to help with himself. Hawk loved music and sang bass in the choir. He also entertained many by playing harmonica. Hawk enjoyed woodcarving and fishing, and he was a good cook. He had a special penchant for storytelling and loved spending time with family and friends.

After suffering declining health for several months, Hawk died on August 5, 2019. A celebration of his life and ministry, officiated by the Rev. Thomas Jolly, was held Saturday, August 10, 2019, at Andrews UMC with military honors provided by Hayesville VFW Post 6812 and Murphy American Legion Post 96. Hawk joined his heavenly family on that day. He now sings with the angels, and maybe they even let him play harmonica every once in a while. He joined friends and family who loved to hear his stories. Hawk left a legacy of caring and service that will be remembered by many. He will be missed dearly.

Guinnell Carroll Hunter

October 8, 1948 – April 17, 2020

Guinnell Carroll Hunter was a force for good and a mentor to many. She led two dynamic careers in education and ministry before blissfully rejoining her husband, Donald Martin Hunter, in heaven on April 17, 2020.

Nearly 72 years ago, Hunter was born to the late Candler and Helen Carroll. They welcomed their second daughter into this world on October 8, 1948, in Blue Ridge, Ga. In her teen years, Hunter's family moved to Hayesville, N.C., where her father once owned several businesses and later served as mayor. She would call Hayesville home for the rest of her life.

Hunter always remembered religion as an important value of her family. She felt called to the world of ministry at the early age of 15, but hesitated due to her gender. So, while still dedicated to the church, she served others in the classroom after studying early childhood education at Young Harris College, then transferring to Western Carolina University, where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1970.

In college, she met the love of her life, Donald. They married on a sweet summer day on June 10, 1972. Almost two years later, their first daughter was born. Hunter is survived by all her children -- Erin, Ryan, Ethan, and Eden -- as well as three grandchildren, Noah, Norah, and Nash.

While raising her family with Donald, Hunter continued her career as an educator, teaching thousands of students in Clay County Schools. As a life-long learner, Hunter received two master's degrees before pursuing ministry, one in arts education (1985) and another in administration (1988), both from Western Carolina. She was certified as a K-12 reading specialist, mentor specialist, and curriculum instructional specialist. Her work as an educator was recognized on the state and national level; she once received the North Carolina Teacher of the Year Award and was certified twice by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards in middle childhood education.

Hunter loved teaching and loved her children, of both blood and spirit, though she still felt called to do more. Finally in 2003, she took the first step to becoming a minister by enrolling in the Bi-vocational Local Pastor School at Emory University. Only months into her studies, her loving partner fell ill due to colon cancer. She and Donald were married for almost 33 years before his passing in 2005. They both knew his death wouldn't end her pursuit of preaching; it only connected her closer to God and to Donald.

In 2010, she graduated from Emory's Ministerial Course of Study and continued as assistant pastor at Hickory Stand United Methodist Church (Brasstown), as well as her home church, Oak Forest United Methodist (Hayesville), where she had been preaching since 2003. Hunter thrived as a minister and so did the community who loved her. She blessed many through her clergy work, doing home visits, hosting her famous clown ministry, teaching weekly Bible study, officiating weddings and funerals, and making late-night prayer calls. She also briefly ministered at Ledford's Chapel in 2018, before retiring in 2019.

Throughout both careers, Hunter was an advocate for those in need and those marginalized. She proudly led an initiative to protect a previously abandoned slave cemetery on her property. In 2017, she collaborated with Western Carolina University and Clay County Historical and Arts Council to research and memorialize African-American history and to plan a public tour of the cemetery at her home.

Hunter also hosted several presentations, many at her church, of her research on the effects of human trafficking to spread awareness in her local community. She enjoyed writing her presentations and her sermons because she loved to share her trust for God and faith in compassion. The spirit of her ministry never stopped after her retirement. Her heart lives on through the many children and adults she mentored. A memorial service will be hosted at Oak Forest United Methodist Church when it is healthy and safe for everyone to join hands in celebrating her life.

Charles Edwin Jackson

March 15, 1933 – February 15, 2020

Charles Jackson was born March 15, 1933, to the late Hayes and Catherine Jackson. He died February 15, 2020, at age 86 in Asheville, N.C. He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Pamela Buchanan Jackson. He is also survived by four children. Helen Westmoreland, Terri Tarrer, Lisa Williams. and Don Jackson. He had several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Jackson served his country in the U.S. Army for 25 years, retiring as a Master Sergeant. While in the Army, he was a Green Beret and Army Ranger with the 82nd Airborne, and he served in both the Vietnam and Korean wars. He served as an ROTC instructor at Clemson University; his last assignment was at The Pentagon in Washington, D.C.

In 1976, Jackson earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from High Point University. At age 69, he earned his Master of Ministry degree from Southern Wesleyan University. Fulfilling a lifelong calling, he became licensed as pastor in The United Methodist Church in 2002. Though he retired in 2003, he continued to serve as a minister. His appointments included: Hickory Knoll, 2002-2006; Sweetwater, 2006-2010; Speedwell-Wesleyanna, 2010-2014. He entered full retirement in 2014.

He was a constant learner, often reading multiple books at a time. He loved history and always wanted to know what others were studying. He was a member of Wesleyanna UMC in Sylva, N.C.

Funeral services were held on February 22, 2020, with the Rev. Dennis Burrell and Jackson's son-in-law, Lee Westmoreland, officiating. U.S. Army Green Beret soldiers from Fort Bragg, N.C., provided full military honors at the graveside.

Howard Stephen Kiser

The Rev. Howard Stephen "Steve" Kiser was born into Christian love on March 17, 1948, in Lincolnton, N.C., to the late Rev. Howard Marshall Kiser and Rachel Kiser. His parents were active disciples of Christ in their church and community. On the day their son was born, their faith and the promise of Christ were evident. Kiser was born without arms below the elbow and no hands or fingers except a thumb like appendage on his left hand, as well as a painful hip deformity. Ultrasound technology was unavailable at that time, so his parents had no warning or preparation for the news that he had birth "defects." When he was placed in his parents' arms, the concerned medical staff asked them what they were going to do. Kiser's father replied, "We are going to love him anyway." Thus began a relationship of great love, understanding, and blind faith. This was the first of many examples Kiser saw of the undying love and true promise of his Heavenly Father through his earthly one.

Growing up in rural Lincoln County on his family's farm, Kiser spent a great deal of time outdoors, especially with his older sister, Jean. He loved the game of baseball and was determined to play the same as others who had hands. With perseverance, Kiser taught himself the sport and eventually was skilled enough to coach many Little League teams. Through the encouragement of his parents, Kiser became undefended with activities of daily living. He could feed himself, ride a bike, drive, and write. The only task he did not master was tying his own shoes. However, he knew how to tie and used his mouth to aide him in tying his children's shoes. At any early age, Kiser was taught he could do anything anyone else could, but it would be in a different way and would not be easy. He learned to accept his challenges as a gift.

As a young man, Kiser wanted to be a farmer. After the death of his grandfather, he changed his mind and began to work harder in school and achieved many academic goals. He had many different jobs before answering Christ's call to ministry. He was a DJ, an account recovery specialist for WA Family Stores, and after graduating from Appalachian State University, became a counselor with the N.C. Vocational Rehabilitation Program. While working for "VR," Kiser met a fellow employee, Elizabeth Quinter. Six months later, he married the love of his life on July 23, 1978. Beth and Steve remained married until his death, a total of 41 years.

During this time, Kiser was an active member of Lander's Chapel United Methodist Church. He went to work every day and had built his dream home on his family's farm. While helping others daily, he still felt that something critical was missing from his spiritual life. He talked to his minister and father and determined that he was experiencing the call to ministry. Kiser was in disbelief that God would actually want him to spread the Gospel and denied the call for years.

After the birth of his daughter, Laura Elizabeth, Kiser felt again that gentle nudge. He recalled that it all came together for him then. Recognizing the immense love he had for his own child, he could not deny the great, unconditional love that the Father had for each one of His children, and Kiser wanted to spread that news to the nations. He packed up and left the beloved farm behind, along with his wife and daughter, to attend Duke Divinity School. Later, the Kisers welcomed a beautiful son, David Marshall. Kiser was overjoyed to have a son with whom to share his love of baseball, the outdoors, and his passion for Duke University basketball.

Kiser was licensed to preach in 1983, ordained as a deacon in 1984, and ordained as an elder and admitted to full connection in The United Methodist Church in 1988. He served steadfastly and with great pride for 32 years. His appointments included: Bond's Grove, 1983-1984; New Hope, 1984-1987; First Landis, January 1987-1990; Littlejohn-Gamewell, 1990-1991; Fair View, 1991-1994; Appointment Beyond the Local Church: N.C. Vocational Rehabilitation counselor, 1994-1997; Belwood, 1997-2002; Centennial-Mt. Hebron-Pisgah, 2002-2003; First Caroleen, 2003-2007; and Rhyne Heights, 2007-2010. Kiser was placed on incapacity leave in October 2010 after complications from hip surgery, and he retired in 2015.

Kiser battled dementia before his death. On March 6, 2020, again after wrestling with the Lord because he was finished with his service and could finally rest, Christ Jesus came for him and carried him in his arms to his heavenly home to receive his eternal reward. The Service of Resurrection was performed by the Rev. Meg Gaston at Laboratory United Methodist Church in Lincolnton, N.C., on March 10, 2020. Kiser's ashes were laid to rest at Lander's Chapel United Methodist Church cemetery by his family.

Kiser was eternally grateful to The United Methodist Church for the opportunity to reach others and spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. He was instrumental in leading others to God's promise and his undying love by his example and actions. Kiser had an enormous sense of humor, a gentle and kind spirit, and an ability to make others comfortable with themselves and their circumstances. His spirit of service was instilled in his children and those who knew him. He loved life and enjoyed every minute. He never took anything for granted and was content in every obstacle because he knew that his Lord and Savior walked with him through each mountain and especially in each valley because Kiser understood that was where you build your salvation. He was an example of the thought and perfection that God uses to create each of his children fearlessly and wonderfully. Had his arms been shorter, or had he been taller, he would not have been able to use his arms and do the things he could. He was precisely made to his full potential and as an example of being created in the Father's image. He was perfectly made.

"His Lord said unto him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter into the joy of thy Lord'" (Matthew 25:23, King James Version).

Oscar Ray "O. Ray" Moss

November 9, 1930 – January 17, 2020

The Rev. O. Ray Moss was born in Kannapolis, N.C., on November 9, 1930, to the late Joe Nixon Moss and Mamie Fink Moss. He joined Jackson Park Methodist Church in 1949, and from 1949 to 1955, he worked in the local community, completed his high school education in Kannapolis and became active in the church. His pastors and elders quickly saw his calling to serve Christ. Moss entered Pfeiffer College in Misenheimer, N.C., where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1959. He also earned a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Duke University's School of Divinity in Durham, N.C., in 1963. Moss was licensed to preach in 1955, ordained as a deacon in 1960, and ordained as an elder in 1963.

Early appointments included: South China Grove, 1955-1958; Rock Grove, 1958-1959; Bethany-Gray's Chapel, 1959-1963; and Welch Memorial, 1963-1967. In 1967, Moss moved to Greensboro and worked with area churches to establish and direct an inner-city ministry. This ministry became a model for cities across North Carolina and became The Urban Ministry, where he served 1967-1972. In 1972, he was appointed to serve Bunker Hill and again joined with other ministry partners in support of the Yokefellow Prison Ministry of North Carolina, an interdenominational, racially diverse Christian ministry of reconciliation begun in 1969 (and incorporated in 1972). This appointment continued until 1975. In 1975, he became director of youth service for the N.C. Department of Human Resources, 1975-1977. His last appointment to a church was in west Rowan County, serving three churches: Bunker Hill, Knox Chapel, and Ebenezer, 1977-1980.

After 25 years of service in the church, a new life began for Moss. In 1980, he began to live in service to those recovering from alcohol and drug addiction. In 1982, he moved to Hollywood, Fla., and worked as addiction services program director and chaplain at Daytona Beach General Hospital. In 1984, he moved to Greenville, S.C., and worked for The Greenville Hospital System as program director and chaplain for Addlife Addiction Center until his retirement in 1993.

In 1993, Moss retired from the Western North Carolina Conference, but this was not the end of his public service. He returned to his beloved hometown and served the community in many ways. Moss served two terms as mayor of Kannapolis from 1997 to 2005. As mayor, he led the community through "Weaving a Shared Future," a strategic visioning process that established a long-term plan for improving Kannapolis and its quality of life. He established the Kannapolis Youth Council to encourage participation and involvement in local government. As the city struggled through the recession and the loss of its largest employer, Pillowtexas, he led the City Council as they invested in economic development, parks and recreation, streets, and infrastructure. All of these efforts led to jobs, new businesses, and other industrial, retail, and commercial developments. Some of the accomplishments during his two terms included, but were not limited to: the completion of the Dale Earnhardt Tribute Plaza, construction of the Village Park Amphitheatre, "HOPE: a job fair," after the closing of Pillowtexas, the current Kannapolis Train Station, and the developments of the North Carolina Research Campus and Kannapolis Gateway Business Park.

Moss was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease after he served as mayor, but he was always joyful and continued to love his neighbors (Luke 10:25-37) and serve others in many ways. He counseled, discipled, supported the church and those recovering from addiction until he was called to the Lord. In 2017, Moss and his wife moved to Williamsburg, Va., to be near and cared for by their daughter. Moss passed on January 17, 2020, at Greenfield Assisted Living in Williamsburg. He was 89.

Moss was a proud, loving father and grandfather, and he loved his wife of nearly 70 years until the end. Moss was preceded in death by his wife, Betty Ruth Smith, 88, who died October 22, 2019. Moss leaves behind a daughter, Cindy Moss Rogers (Bob Rogers) of Williamsburg, Va.; a son, Peter Moss (Carolyn Percival-Moss) of Waipahu, Hawaii; grandson Daryl; and granddaughter Emily.

George Roland Mullinix

December 17, 1937 – August 4, 2019

George Roland Mullinix was born on December 17, 1937, in Raleigh, N.C., to the late Rex Mullinix Sr. and Goldie Smith Mullinix. He had one brother, the late Rex Mullinix Jr.

Mullinix grew up in Burke County and graduated from Hildebran High School. In April 1956, he received his license to preach and did so with great enthusiasm in Hildebran, 1959-1960. On August 16, 1959, Mullinix married his childhood sweetheart, Hilda Ann Beach, and one year later, he received his bachelor's degree in history from Lenoir-Rhyne University. In June 1961, he began his trial admittance in the Western North Carolina Conference and became a deacon. The couple had their first son, Timothy Brett Mullinix, and in 1964, Mullinix received his Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School, was admitted in full connection to the conference, and became an elder. He later received a second master's degree related to counseling from Appalachian State University in 1979.

After his year at Hildebran, his appointments were: Macedonia, 1960-1961; student, 1961-1964; Denton Circuit (Thomasville District), 1964-1965; First (Charlotte), associate pastor, 1965-1966; Bethel (Hickory), 1966-1969. While in Hickory, Roland and Hilda had their second son, Jon Mark Mullinix. The family then moved to High Point, where Mullinix served as the chaplain at High Point College, 1969-1971. During this time, Mullinix began to focus his ministry toward the great outdoors. He organized many week-long hiking and camping missions on the Appalachian Trail with students at High Point College. He expanded his love of the outdoors and his ministry when he became resort minister at Banner Elk, 1971-1974. Later appointments included: Montmorenci (Asheville), 1974-1976; West Jefferson August 3, 1976 to January 1, 1980; and counselor, New River Mental Health Center, January 1, 1980 to 1982.

Mullinix surrendered his ministerial office in January 1982, but he continued to serve those in need as an inpatient social worker at Cannon Memorial Hospital in Banner Elk and later as a guidance counselor at the Family Guidance Center in Hickory. He then returned to the N.C. mountains and became a counselor at the Grandfather Home for Children and later at Crossnore School.

Mullinix was reinstated as a local pastor on June 5, 1997, and he continued to serve local church communities in the Linville area and was also on staff at Banner Elk Presbyterian Church as bridge interim pastor until his health began to fail. He officially retired in 2004.

In addition to his official ministerial duties and his counseling positions, Mullinix was also active in local theater. He was involved with the Lees-McRae College theater for many years, as well as the outdoor drama, From This Day Forward, in Valdese. He also played several lead roles in theatrical productions at The Rock School in Valdese.

His sermons, prayers, and life were gifts to those who heard him and especially to those who knew him. His numerous congregations admired his ability to present the scriptures in such a way that all could understand and apply to their everyday lives. He was a selfless servant of God throughout his life, and even as his mind was being ravaged by dementia, he tried to help his fellow residents in the care facility where he spent the last year of his life. In his mind, he thought he worked at the care facility, and for as long as he was mobile, he continued to try to counsel and minister to those around him.

Rest in peace, Roland. You touched so many lives with your kindness, love, and tireless endeavor to help those in need.

Lewis Ray O'Ferrell

March 6, 1937 – December 4, 2019

Lewis "Ray" O'Ferrell was born March 6, 1937, in Greensboro, N.C., to Jesse and Irma Ray O'Ferrell. He died on December 4, 2019, at Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte at age 82. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Beth, who still resides at their home in Salisbury, N.C.

Upon graduation from Bessemer High School in 1955, O'Ferrell attended North Carolina State University for two years. His intended major was engineering with a major emphasis on baseball and football. God had other plans for him! After an injury put an end to his time with the N.C. State Wolfpack, O'Ferrell enlisted in the U.S. Army Reserve.

He continued as a reservist for many years, while working in his family's bee business. O'Ferrell can claim an unusual title for clergy, having been president of the American Bee Breeders Association for three years! A kind and loving man who lived his life to serve the Lord and to help others, Ray and Beth were active in lay witness missions.

After answering the call to the ministry, O'Ferrell completed the course of study at Candler School of Theology at Emory University and Duke Divinity School. O'Ferrell was licensed to preach in 1970. He was ordained as a deacon in 1972 and became an associate member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1975. His ministry began in the Florida Conference, serving in Branford, Fla., through 1972, and Crawfordville, Fla., until 1973. The O'Ferrells moved to North Carolina in 1973, where Ray served the Surry Circuit, 1973-1975. He served as a Minister to Society in LaBelle, Fla., from 1975-1977. After a one-year leave of absence, he resumed his ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference. Appointments included Pigeon Valley, 1978-1980; Mitchell-Yancey Parrish, 1980-1982; New Hope-Bethel, 1982-1986; Rowan (renamed Christ UMC), 1986-1989; Rock Grove, 1989-1992; Dulin-Smith Grove, 1992-1996; and Tabernacle, 1996-1999. While he was not mentally ready to retire, he had to take leave on medical disability. He officially retired in 2002.

Retirement did not keep him from ministry. Ray preached whenever and wherever he was asked, taught Sunday school, and actively poured himself into younger pastors. He was an amazing mentor to both believers and unbelievers.

O'Ferrell married his wife, Elizabeth Sellers, on September 6, 1958. They had five children: David Sellers, Mary "Molly" Lucinda (Shuffler), Elizabeth "Betsy" Lynn, Leslie Paige (Wellman), and Amy Lucile (Collins). They have 12 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Ray had a tremendous love for his family and cherished every moment he spent with them on this earth, and he has now been reunited with his daughter Betsy, and a grandson, Levi, who preceded him in death.

O'Ferrell had been in declining health for a couple of years before his death. A fall at home led to a bleed on the brain, which subsequently led to a stroke. He never regained consciousness and died peacefully a week later.

A memorial service was held in December 2019 at First Baptist Church of China Grove, and inurnment will be held at a later date. His friends and family mourn his loss, but rejoice that they will see him again one day.

Ardis Darrell Payne

September 14, 1927 – August 15, 2019

Ardis Darrell Payne was born on September 14, 1927 in Davidson County, N.C., to Washington Denny Payne and Sarah Esta Leigh Stone Payne. He was preceded in death by his parents as well as his brothers and sisters: Harrell Payne, W.D. Payne Jr., Joseph Payne, Helen Louise Payne, Ruth Hedgecock, and Evelyn Mock.

Payne farmed with his father after graduating from Hasty High School in 1944. On October 12, 1950, he married Alline Everhart, who preceded him in death on December 26, 2016. They were blessed with two daughters, Jane Alline and Susan Carol. Payne answered the call to ministry in 1967 and served a part-time appointment. They lived on the family farm until he was appointed full-time in 1968. He was licensed to preach in 1967 and completed the Ministers' Course of Study at Duke Divinity School in 1970. He was ordained as a deacon in 1969 and received as an associate member of the Western North Carolina Conference in 1971.

Payne served as a pastor in the conference for 27 years. His appointments were: Stoneville associate, 1967-1968; Mocksville Circuit, 1968-1973; Prospect and Pleasant Hill, 1973-1983; Montlieu Avenue, 1983-January 1986; Unity (Kannapolis), January 1986-1990; and Jordan Memorial, 1990-1994. He formally retired in 1994.

Payne was a gifted pastor and a "people person." Everywhere he went, he loved his people and his people loved him. He was a beloved son, husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend. He was a kind man and had such a gentle soul. There are so many people whose lives he touched. He was always interested in the people he served and the things they faced. Payne was a humble man, well-known for his sense of humor, love of travel. He also was a fan of Duke Basketball and Atlanta Braves baseball, and he was an avid reader.

In 1994, Ardis and Alline retired and built a home on family land in High Point. They returned to Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church to worship where they grew up. During retirement, he again served the local church, first as Spring Hill UMC's interim pastor and later as Pleasant Grove's minister of visitation.

Following a hospital stay with pneumonia, he died at the Hospice House of High Point on August 15, 2019. He is survived by his daughters, Jane Mendenhall (Gary) and Susan Yow (the Rev. Jim). He is also survived by grandchildren Christopher Mendenhall (Cindy), Richard Mendenhall (Catherine), Jonathan Yow (the Rev. Erin), April Yow Travis (Chris), Michelle Yow Sheffield, (Matt); and great-grandchildren Haley Mendenhall, Hannah Mendenhall, Madelyn Travis, Maya Mendenhall, Elijah Sheffield, Rachel Travis, Noah Sheffield, Reese Mendenhall, Emily Travis, Abigail Yow, and Samantha Yow.

A service to celebrate Payne's life was held at Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church, Thomasville, N.C., on Sunday, August 18, 2019, with the Rev. Chris Clontz, the Rev. Jim Yow, the Rev. Billy Rintz, and the Rev. Erin Yow presiding. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Payne had a great passion for serving God in any way he could.

Lucy Strider Norton Ponder

December 13, 1920 – May 22, 2019

Lucy Strider Norton Ponder was born on December 13, 1920 in Asheville, N.C., to William Ernest and Mattie Davis Strider. Ponder was the only girl, having four brothers: Frank, William Jr., David, and Carroll. She attended Hendersonville High School, graduating in 1938. Afterward, she returned to the school to coach the girls' basketball team and work at the Carolina Theatre.

It was at the Carolina Theatre that she met her loving husband of 53 years, Cleatus Norton, of Etowah, N.C. The two married after he returned from World War II with a Bronze Star, celebrating their nuptials on September 10, 1946. Together, they had three children: Patricia Ellen, Shirley Marie, and William "Bill" Cleveland.

Ponder attended Sue Bennett College in London, Ky., graduating in 1942. Afterward, she attended Scarritt College for Christian Workers in Nashville, Tenn., training in missions and outreach. After being called into ministry, she prepared for licensing and attended Course of Study at both Duke Divinity School and Candler School of Theology. Ponder was licensed to preach in June 1966 and ordained as a deacon in 1969. She was among the first women ordained in The United Methodist Church; archivist Jim Pyatt notes, "Historically, ordination of women in the predecessors of the UMC was allowed years before they were allowed full clergy right."

Ponder's years of service in the Western North Carolina Conference included appointments to: Edneyville, 1966-1972; and Bethel, 1972-1979. In 1979, Ponder took a sabbatical leave and then a leave of absence, though she went on to serve Lawson's Chapel and Mt. Zion United Methodist churches in Kentucky and Grace United Methodist Church in St. Augustine, Fla. Ponder retired in 1986, but continued to preach at revivals, retreats, and conferences, and continued to perform weddings, funerals, and bedside visitations.

Cleatus Norton predeceased Ponder, passing away on April 4, 1999. On November 26, 2005, Ponder married Austin D. Ponder of Garrard County, Ky., who also passed away before her. Ponder was "Nana" to five grandchildren: Ben Argo (Bridget), Emily Martin (Nathan), Georganna Flynn (Mark), Adam and Barrett Norton, and to nine great-grandchildren. Ponder died on May 22, 2019, in Louisville, Ky., at age 98. A service was held at Southern Hills Church of the Nazarene in Louisville on June 22, 2019.

Ponder was known for richness of heart and courage. As her ministry was recognized in the community early in her career; she was awarded "Woman of the Year" in 1967 by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Hendersonville, N.C. Her family obituary included this tribute: "Wherever she ministered, her life's work was humble devotion to serving the Lord and others. She shared the love of Jesus and the promise of salvation wherever she went, all throughout her life, even until her very last days."

Jackuline Bennett Porter

September 29, 1935 – April 3, 2020

Jack Porter was born on September 29, 1935, in Blackstone, Va., to the late William Davidson and Mollie Jacqueline Grammer Porter.

As a youth, Porter was very active in his church as well as The Boy Scouts of America. He received the call to the Christian ministry at age 13. Earning a bachelor's degree from Emory & Henry College in 1957 and a Master of Divinity degree in 1961 from Candler School of Theology at Emory University, he was licensed to preach in 1954 and ordained as a deacon in 1958.

While serving as a youth pastor, he met his beloved Ruth Barker Porter and married in 1956, a union of 63 years. Their lives were blessed with four children: William Davidson Porter II, Peter Bennett Porter, Sarah Esther Porter Bigelow, and Deborah Helen Porter Dickey. They would spend a life in ministry in Tennessee, Oregon, and North Carolina.

Porter's deep connection with nature, his devotion to Scouting, and his service to the nation as a chaplain for the Army National Guard, 1968-1977, would lead him to heed God's calling and serve as church pastor and director of United Methodist Camp Ministries. His service record began in the Holston Conference, where he served: Moccasin Circuit, 1955-1957; Chilhowie Tates, 1957; student pastor and probationary member while attending school, 1957-1961; Ewing Circuit, 1961-1965; Chuckey Circuit, 1965-1966; Asbury, 1966-1969; and Camp Wesley Woods, 1969-1980. From there, Porter and his family moved to the Oregon-Idaho Conference, where he served as director of Suttle Lake United Methodist Camp, 1980-1984; and Camp Magruder, 1984-1986. Returning to the Appalachian mountains and the Western North Carolina Conference in October 1986, Porter served as director of Camp Tekoa, 1986-1999. He also served Dana-Upward, 1991-1995; and then Dana, 1995-January 1, 2007. He served as WNCC director of camp outdoor and retreat ministries, 1999-2001, while continuing to serve Dana Church. He retired in 2001 but continued to serve Dana until 2007. His time in WNCC reflected his passion for sharing Christ through God's outdoors, as well as his deep love for pastoral ministry.

As a beloved father figure to campers and staff throughout his ministry, thousands of children were reached in the name of Christ, and the growing faith of hundreds of young adults brought many into the ministry today. Known for his hilarious and engaging "Jack Tales," his gentle, chuckling laugh, and his kindness to every person who knew him, Porter had a twinkle in his eye as he worked and played at camp, modeling for us all how to share the love of God with children. You might find him climbing a tree, scaling a rock, or whistling as he wielded a chainsaw around camp. His infectious spirit led others always toward conservation of the Earth and the love of Christ.

Jack, his wife, Ruth, and his whole family will be remembered for their skits and adventurous innovation in camping ministry. He was recognized by WNCC for service as director of camping, outdoor and retreat ministries, "In Appreciation to His Witness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ," in 2001. The National Camp and Retreat Ministries in 2011 also gave him an award, "In Appreciation of Significant Leadership in Camp and Retreat Ministries."

After retiring in 2007, Jack and Ruth moved to Laurel Mountain Lake near Madisonville, Tenn., where he became active in the Tennessee Forestry Firewise and Community Preparedness program, receiving a recognition award in 2017.

Porter transitioned from this life to glory on April 3, 2020, at Fort Sanders Regional Medical Center in Knoxville, Tenn., with wife Ruth and daughter Helen holding his hands while praying and singing his favorite hymn, "Blessed Assurance."

A private graveside service and interment were held April 5, 2020, at Hiwassee College cemetery. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date to be announced by the family.

Bonnie Jones Gehweiler Shinneman

December 12, 1932 – January 12, 2020

She cared. And she loved. And she sang ... and sang ... and sang. Bonnie Jones Gehweiler Shinneman was born Bonnie Mary Schuldt on December 12, 1932, during Advent, and she passed away on “The Baptism of our Lord” Sunday, January 12, 2020, at age 87. Her living and dying were framed by her love of the Church.

She was a child of a Methodist minister and a Methodist deaconess, Arthur and Esther Bahnson Schuldt. She was consecrated as a diaconal minister in The United Methodist Church in 1978 in the Rocky Mountain Conference, and she served several congregations as minister of music. Before transferring her membership to the Western North Carolina Conference, she also served in the conferences of Minnesota, North Carolina, and North Texas. At the time of her transfer to WNCC in 1988, she was serving as director of music at Andean Rural Health Care, until 1992. She began serving as interpreter of hymnody and coordinator of Palestinian ministries in 1992. Although she entered the retired relationship in 1993, she continued to serve into her call to minister with Christians in the Middle East for many years. She was a member of the Hymnal Revision Committee that developed the 1989 edition of The United Methodist Hymnal, and she chaired the group’s Hymns Subcommittee. She directed the Duke Divinity School choir from 1981-1983.

In addition to her love of church music, Shinneman also was deeply committed to missions. She led many work teams over the years, especially to Bolivia and Palestine. There is a playground on the Altiplano of Bolivia given in honor of her love of the Bolivian people and two preschools in Beit Sahour with the United Methodist cross-and-flame logo over their doors because of her ministry with the Palestinian people. Music and missions were her twin passions.

Her first husband of 29 years, S. Jameson Jones Jr., who was the ninth dean of Duke Divinity School, preceded her in death in 1982. Her husband of 16 years, Dean Shinneman and his extended family, survive her. She has been lovingly surrounded, not only by many wonderful caretakers, but by her two daughters, Shelley Rossbach of Placitas, N.M., and Jani Tsurumi of Arvada, Colo.; as well as two sons, Bishop Scott Jameson Jones of Houston, Tex., and L. Gregory Jones of Durham, N.C. (current dean of Duke Divinity School) and their spouses.

Shinneman delighted in 13 grandchildren and their spouses, as well as 12 great-grandchildren. The youngest of the great-grandchildren, Audrey Catherine Jones, was baptized on January 12, 2020, the very morning that Shinneman entered the Church Triumphant. A service celebrating her life was held at Covenant Living in Westminster, Colo., on January 17, 2020, where Hymn of Promise (no. 707 in The United Methodist Hymnal) was sung by her grandchildren. Hymn of Promise, which is now sung across the denomination for worship services and funerals in particular, was added to the 1989 hymnal in large part because of the friendship between Shinneman and Natalie Sleeth, who composed it in response to husband Ron’s declining health and death. Jameson and Bonnie and Ron and Natalie had served together at Iliff School of Theology and had been good friends over many years.

Shinneman is also survived by two sisters, Carol Zingg and Dawn Thompson; and a brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Robert and Shirley Jones. Finally, she is survived by stepson Bruce Gehweiler and his wife and by granddaughters of that family.

The heavenly choir is much richer now with its new mezzo soprano – or better yet, its new director! Many have said of Shinneman over the years: “We are better people for having been loved by her.”

James Edward Smith

December 29, 1933 – August 14, 2019

James Edward “Jim” Smith was born December 29, 1933, in Wayne County to the late Jim Berry and Exie Wells Smith. He had one sister, the late Joyce Smith Hare; two brothers, the late Billy R. Smith, and Shelton Smith, who survives him.

Smith’s early church experience was in a small rural church, Bethel United Methodist Church, in Wayne County. There, he was greatly influenced by the Rev. J.D. Autry and the Rev. Tommy Tyson, who both inspired Smith to follow his heart and dream of the ministry.

Smith graduated from New Hope High School and was licensed to preach in 1954 and soon began his college studies at High Point College; graduating in 1958, receiving his bachelor’s degree. As a local pastor, his first appointments were in the North Carolina Conference: Walstonburg, 1957-1958; and Beaufort Circuit, 1958-1960.

After much prayer and soul-searching, Smith decided to move to the Baltimore Conference to further his education. He attended Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., while serving five churches as student pastor for the Shenandoah Circuit, 1960-1964. He was presented his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Wesley in June 1964.

He and his family moved back to the North Carolina Conference to serve the Aurora Circuit, 1965-1967. It was there that Smith originated the plan and success of purchasing a new parsonage.

Another move was put into place with a transfer to the Western North Carolina Conference. Appointments in WNCC included: Pinnacle (Winston-Salem District), 1967-1971; Marshville (Albemarle District), 1971-1975; Green Street (Winston-Salem), 1975-1981; Pineville (Charlotte District), 1981-1985; Central (Charlotte), 1985-1990; and sabbatical leave; 1990-1991. He also served Center (Salisbury District), 1993-1996, while in retirement. After serving The United Methodist Church for 39 years, Smith took full retirement in June 1996.

Smith met his soulmate, Mariam June Stallings, at High Point College where they were married August 8, 1957. They are blessed with four children, Carolyn Smith Walch (Artie), Michael James, Jana Smith Ashcraft (Scott), and Sherri Smith Bonham; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Smith spent his life sharing his gifts for preaching God's Word, being a dedicated pastor and friend, teaching, and researching his family history and that of other families as well.

Smith entered his triumphant life on August 14, 2019, in Winston-Salem after a lengthy period of declining health. His last wishes were granted, that he be buried in the family cemetery where three generations of his family are laid to rest. A graveside service was held for Smith on August 26, 2019, at the Newsome Family Cemetery, Goldsboro, N.C.

Donald Sheldon Stanton

June 8, 1932 – October 30, 2019

Dr. Donald Sheldon Stanton of Lake Junaluska, N.C., passed away of natural causes October 30, 2019. He was 87. Born June 8, 1932, Stanton was a native of Baltimore, Md., the son of Kenneth Stanton and Dorothy Hetrick Stanton.

Stanton was ordained as an elder in 1956, and he was a retired member of the Western North Carolina Conference. He also served in the Baltimore, Virginia, South Carolina, and Detroit conferences. He held degrees from Western Maryland College (1953), Wesley Theological Seminary (1956), American University (1960), and University of Virginia (1965). He received the John Wesley Society award from Wesley seminary, and he was awarded honorary doctorates by Columbia College, Western Maryland College, Albion College, and Oglethorpe University. The administration building at Adrian College was named for Dr. Stanton and his wife, Barbara.

Stanton started his ministry as an assistant pastor at his home church, Sudbrook Methodist in Baltimore, Md. He then served as associate at Wallbrook in Baltimore while starting a new congregation at Epworth Chapel. Later, he served the Bethel Circuit and Dunnloring in northern Virginia. In 1959, Stanton became Wesley Foundation director for the City of Richmond, Va. In 1963, he became chaplain at Greensboro College in Greensboro, N.C., followed by his service as chaplain and professor at Wofford College in 1965 in Spartanburg, S.C. He was on staff at the United Methodist Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville, Tenn., 1969-1975. In Nashville, he worked with colleges and universities all over the country and administered an international program. Stanton served as executive vice president at Wesleyan College, 1975-1978, and then became president of Methodist-related Adrian College in Michigan, where he hosted the Detroit United Methodist Annual Conference every year, 1978-1988. He served as president of Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, Ga., 1988-1999, later becoming president emeritus. More recently, he was called out of retirement to serve as interim president at North Carolina's Haywood Community College.

In retirement, Stanton remained active in Rotary, church, and serving on college and community boards. He was a lifetime choir member and an accomplished bass-baritone soloist. He has delivered addresses or papers related to higher education in Europe, Asia, North America, and South America. Loving travel, he and his wife of 64 years, Barbara Hoot Stanton, whom he married on June 25, 1955, have visited every state in the country and every continent in the world. They have twin daughters, Debra Stanton and Diane Stanton; a son, Dale Stanton-Hoyle; and three grandchildren, Eric, Sara, and Jeremiah.

A memorial service was held November 16, 2019, at First United Methodist Church of Waynesville, N.C. His ashes will be placed in the Lake Junaluska United Methodist Assembly Garden of Memories.

Lawrence Walton Staples Jr.

March 21, 1952 – March 9, 2020

Lawrence Walton "Larry" Staples Jr. was born on March 21, 1952, in Columbia, S.C., to the late Lawrence Walton Staples Sr. and Dorothy Kirby Staples. Larry grew up in Greensboro, N.C., and began attending High Point College in 1970. There, he met the love of his life, Donna Jean Hart. He graduated from High Point in May 1974 with a Bachelor of Arts in sociology and married Donna on June 1, 1974. He graduated with Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School at Duke University in 1978.

Staples began his ministry in Greensboro at Calvary in 1973 and served there while in seminary. He became a deacon in 1975 and an ordained elder in 1980. Staples' service record includes: Union Chapel-Chestnut Grove, 1978-1981;

New Mount Vernon, 1981-1986; Memorial (Kannapolis), 1986-1989; First (Lenoir), associate, 1989-2002; Baton-Rhodhiss, 2002-2009. He retired January 1, 2009.

Staples was a beloved husband, father, and grandfather. He loved people deeply and whole-heartedly. Staples and his wife, Donna, shared 45 years of marriage and were blessed with two daughters, Kelli Staples Brentnell and Hannah Staples Romero, along with two sons-in law, and three grandchildren, whom he adored. He was a true gentleman and loving patriarch of the family.

Staples was also a gifted preacher, teacher, mentor, and friend. He loved being a pastor and working with people. He spent much of his career teaching and leading children, youth, and young adults along their faith journey. He was enthusiastic and passionate about bringing people to Christ. He led by example, lent a listening ear, and provided words of encouragement to all who were blessed to know and love him.

At his death, his family surrounded Staples as he joyfully went to be with his Lord and Savior. A celebration of life was held on March 12, 2020, at First United Methodist Church of Lenoir. The Rev. Dr. Dave Melton officiated.

Larry's love, joy, and passion will carry on in the lives of those whom he touched. Well done, good and faithful servant.

Kelli Staples Brentnell

Emma Loretta Allen Stutz

May 29, 1943 – April 19, 2020

Loretta Allen Stutz was born on May 29, 1943 in Detroit, Mich., to James Allen and Reba Johnson Allen Phillips. She was one of three children including her late brother, Lawrence Gene Allen, and her sister, Sue Allen Walker. In her younger years, Stutz lived in Thomson, Ga., graduating from Thomson High School in 1961. Stutz had two sons, Allen Frederick and Gary Robert.

At age 50, in 1993, Stutz graduated cum laude from Emory and Henry College in Emory, Va., with a Bachelor of Arts in religion, and she was licensed to preach in 1994. In 1997, she completed her Master of Divinity degree at Vanderbilt Divinity School in Nashville, Tenn., having been ordained a deacon in The United Methodist Church in 1995. In 2003, Stutz was ordained as an elder. She first served in the Western North Carolina Conference at Providence (Statesville), from 1999-2000. Subsequent appointments were: Thrift (Charlotte), 2000-2005; and Mt. Carmel (Lexington), 2005-2008. She went on leave in October 2008 and officially retired in 2014.

Throughout her life and ministry, Stutz was known for her love of sharing God's word and her desire to help others. She had lifelong passions for family, music, reading, and teaching, and her family fondly remembers camping trips in the mountains near Cleveland, Tenn., where they lived for many years.

Stutz is survived by her sons, Allen of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Gary of Denver, Colo.; her sister, who lives in North Augusta, S.C.; granddaughters Devin and Jenna of Denver, Colo.; and several nieces and nephews. At the time of her death, Stutz was living in Salt Lake City. A graveside service will be held at Savannah Valley Memorial Garden in Thomson, Ga, after pandemic restrictions have been lifted, and family and friends may gather safely. In lieu of flowers, the family requested donations be made in her memory to the Alzheimer's Association in acknowledgement of the presence of that disease in Stutz' later years. May she rest in peace and knowledge of God's eternal love.

William Gene Summey

William Gene "Billy" Summey was born February 26, 1956 in Shelby, N.C., to the late Roy Gene and Mae Jewell Summey. He grew up in Forest City, joining First United Methodist Church of Forest City as a youth. It was in the church as a young adult that he met the church's director of Christian education, Sally Stoffel, with whom he fell in love and subsequently married on August 10, 1980. Summey attended Limestone College and Pfeiffer University, from which he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1985. He later completed Course of Study at Duke Divinity School, then earned his Master of Theological Studies degree from Hood Theological Seminary in 2009. Summey is survived by his wife, Sally Summey; his son, Roy Gene Summey; his daughters, Virginia Summey (husband Graham Abee) and Sarah Katherine Summey; and his granddaughter, Hannah Abee.

As a young adult, Summey responded to the call to ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church. He was licensed as a local pastor in 1982, and he was admitted as an associate member of the Western North Carolina Conference and ordained as a deacon in 1991. Summey served the following appointments: Eldorado, 1982-1986; Pinnacle, 1986-1990; Montlieu Avenue (High Point), 1990-1991; Calvary (Asheboro), 1991-1996; Providence (Salisbury District), 1996-2000; Tabernacle (Albemarle), 2000-2003; Badin, 2003-2005; Student, 2005-2009; and Personal Leave, 2009-2014. He retired in 2014.

This writer came to know Summey when appointed as pastor of New London United Methodist Church. Knowing many of his extended family from having served in Rutherford County, we quickly developed a friendship. Summey was one who was committed to serving Jesus faithfully, not just in word, but also by putting those words into action. When he was first appointed as a pastor, he quickly experienced some of the challenges of ministry. As soon as he arrived at his first appointment while a student at Pfeiffer, fresh out of Local Pastor's Training School, one of his members died. This meant he had to conduct his first funeral the day before he preached his first sermon in his first appointment. As a result, Summey had quick on-the-job training of providing pastoral care in the midst of crisis. As a pastor, Summey sought to live out a statement once made by John Wycliffe, "The highest service that [one] may attain on earth is to preach the Word of God."

Summey was a man of many loves. He was a die-hard Duke basketball fan, and he followed Duke athletics closely. He had quite a collection of Duke memorabilia to display his fondness for the school. Summey also loved music, dating back to his playing French horn at East Rutherford High School. He entered Limestone College as a music major, and his love of music continued to be an important part of his life, as could be seen in his collection of Beatles memorabilia, among many ways. In fact, his love for music even carried over into the naming of his pets, for Summey is the only person this writer has ever known who named his dog Tully (after the band, Jethro Tull) and his cat, Tucker (after The Marshall Tucker Band).

Tragically, his physical and mental health cut short his tenure of active service as a pastor, but they did not curtail his sense of calling or his passion for the gospel. Ongoing medical issues led to a reduction of quality of life for Summey, but they did not take away his laughter, his sense of humor, or his gracefulness toward those who were trying to assist him. Tragically, Summey suffered a heart attack the morning of December 20, 2019, entering the Church Triumphant while receiving medical care at Northeast Medical Center, Concord that same morning. A service celebrating his life and ministry was held on December 23, 2019, at New London United Methodist Church, conducted by this writer, who will always cherish his collegiality, friendship, and encouragement.

Charles Edward Tyson

July 25, 1925 – January 6, 2020

The Rev. Charles Edward Tyson's unprecedented journey was one that echoed the words of Frederick Douglass when he stated: "You will not be judged by the heights you have risen, but from the depths you have climbed."

Born July 25, 1925 in Asheboro, N.C., Tyson grew up in the days of segregation in North Carolina and served eight years in a segregated U.S. Navy. While in the Navy, he married Maude Brady on July 14, 1947. They were married for 60 years until her death on September 26, 2007. Their family expanded with the birth of a daughter, Angeline, in November 1948. Tyson was honorably discharged in 1951, having risen from steward to petty officer first class. During the ensuing years, he felt a call to full-time ministry, in spite of the well-established segregation within the Methodist Church known as the Central Jurisdiction.

He enrolled at North Carolina A&T University. Tyson became an Approved Supply pastor in 1958 and was appointed to the Wilkesboro Circuit 1958-62. In May 1960, Tyson graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree, just four months after a major shift in the Civil Rights Movement occurred, when four N.C. A&T classmates created the "student sit-in movement" at a Woolworth Lunch Counter in Greensboro, N.C. That year, Tyson was admitted on trial in the North Carolina Conference of the Central Jurisdiction, having been ordained as a deacon in 1959.

Tyson then enrolled at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest College with the support of his wife, Maude. While in seminary, he was admitted into full connection in 1962, and in 1963 was ordained as an elder. In 1964, he graduated with a Master of Divinity degree. Afterward, he enrolled in the Duke University Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program, one of the program's first black students.

From 1962 to 1967, Tyson served as the pastor of Durham (now Asbury Temple). After graduating Duke's CPE program, Tyson wanted to return to the Navy as a chaplain, but he was rejected for health reasons. He applied and successfully became a chaplain with the South Carolina Department of Corrections, serving from 1967 to 1970.

In 1970, Tyson became one of the first African American chaplains for the U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Prisons. His first duty station was the Federal Correctional Institution in Texarkana, Texas (1970-73), followed by service as a chaplain in Milan, Mich. (1973-76), and Butner, N.C. (1976-83). Having served the bureau well, in 1983, Chaplain Tyson became the first African American promoted to Regional Administrator of Chaplaincy Services for the Federal Bureau of Prisons, appointed to the South-Central Region, supervising numerous states. During his time as administrator, he was also chaplain of the Fort Worth Federal Correctional Institution. Having himself overcome many obstacles and challenges, Tyson established an aggressive recruiting program of 25 black and female chaplains during this time.

In November 1987, violent events that became known as the Cuban Prison Uprising occurred, primarily at prisons in Atlanta, Ga., and Oakdale, La. More than 2,500 Cubans, facing deportation to Cuba, took staff hostages in an effort to negotiate their demands. Tyson was deployed to Oakdale, La., as the regional chaplaincy administrator of the critical incident team. Seeing the need, he requested several additional chaplains to deploy to Oakdale. Tyson sought the help of the auxiliary Roman Catholic bishop of Miami, Fla. The bishop had survived Fidel Castro's regime in Cuba and had been expelled in 1961. As a result, he had the respect of many of the Cubans involved in the uprising. He called on the hostage takers to put down their arms (makeshift machetes, knives, and sharpened sticks) as he rode on the back of a truck. The Oakdale siege ended, and two days later, a similar effort in Atlanta ended the crisis there, too. During this uprising, 250 injuries occurred and one death. Tyson's actions throughout the crisis made him the unsung hero who saved 28 hostage lives, if not more. In 1989, he received the Chaplain of the Year award from the Salvation Army.

Near the end of his Bureau of Prisons career, Tyson and his wife, Maude, moved back to Asheboro. He served as the assistant superintendent/chaplain at Federal Prison Camp, Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, 1989-90. From 1990 to 1991, he returned to serving the S.C. Department of Corrections as chaplain of the newly-opened Evans Detention Center in Bennettsville. Tyson then resumed service in the local church, serving the Trinity Circuit 1991-94. He entered retired status with the Western North Carolina Conference in 1994, but he continued to serve Bethel-Liberty Grove through January 1, 2000, when he fully retired.

Tyson continued to be deeply involved in the community. He was the first African American to serve on the executive board of the Salvation Army of Asheboro. He also served on the Asheboro City Board of Education, was a life member of the Lions Club Foundation, and was a member of the American Legion and other community organizations. He was also an avid golfer, a master gardener, and a dog lover.

As a result of Tyson's dedication to prison ministry, a scholarship endowment was created in September 2005, the Coleman-Tyson-Siekman Prison Chaplain Scholarship Endowment. This endowment with The United Methodist Higher Education Foundation supports young elders in The United Methodist Church seeking professional certification to serve as chaplains in the criminal justice system.

Along with his wife, Tyson was preceded in death by his parents, Levi and Martha Tyson; an infant son; siblings Thomas Tyson and Irene Johnson; and grandson Brian Cheek. Tyson, 94, died peacefully on January 6, 2020, at his home with his daughter, Angeline (Angie) Tyson-Cheek, present. In addition to his daughter, Tyson is survived by granddaughter Andra Jones; great-grandchildren Bri'an Williams, Byanka Williams, Bryton Williams, and Errol Myers, all of California, and Brian Cheek Jr. of Colorado; and niece Cassandra Washington.

The legacy of this great man will never be forgotten by those he served and by those whose lives he helped change and shape.

David Lee Warren

June 26, 1946 – August 6, 2019

David Lee Warren was a remarkable man of faith whose life and work embodied a humble boldness in serving the church and community. As one who often “stood in the gap” for others, Warren’s life work was characterized by a willingness to “lay down one’s life for a friend,” whether serving as a police officer, pastor, intercessor, or Safe Sanctuaries instructor.

Born on June 26, 1946, in Statesville, N.C., Warren was the son of Helen Rose Barkley and James Aaron Warren. His commitment to serving others and the community was fostered in his training as a law enforcement officer at Davidson County Community College, where he attained his Associate of Arts of Science degree in criminal justice in 1974 and later his Bachelor of Arts degree from Pfeiffer College in 1977. To strengthen both his knowledge of criminal justice and his desire to equip others to serve, Warren completed his Master of Arts degree in criminal justice in 1979 at the University of South Carolina. After completion of his studies at USC, Warren and his family moved to Asheville, N.C., in 1978 where he began serving as the chair of the newly formed Criminal Justice Program at Asheville-Buncombe Technical Community College (AB-Tech), where he taught for 25 years prior to his retirement.

In addition to his honorable career in law enforcement, Warren was most proud of his deep and abiding relationship with his sweetheart and wife, Katie Sigmon Warren. David and Katie were married October 16, 1966, and began their mutual and shared journey of serving their family, God, and their community together. David also shared in the joy of parenting their daughter, Jennifer Warren, the sunshine of his life, and loved spending time with his granddaughter, McKenna, as well.

While supporting Katie’s exploration of her own call to ministry, David, too, was stirred by the Spirit to explore his call to pastoral ministry. As a result, while still serving in his role at AB-Tech, Warren became a licensed local pastor and began his studies at Erskine Theological Seminary in South Carolina. Warren faithfully served churches as a licensed local pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference across his beloved Blue Ridge Mountains in the former Asheville and most recently Blue Ridge District including: Little Sandy, 1997-2000; Fanning Chapel, 2000-2002; Barnardsville-Mountain Valley, 2002-2005; and Emma, 2005-2011. Warren retired as a licensed local pastor in 2011, but he chose to continue serving in his retirement as the assistant pastor at Asbury Memorial in Asheville, 2011-2016. After another brief period of “active retirement” from 2016-2018, Warren once again served in the local church at Grace-Bell in Leicester from 2018 until his death in August 2019.

Warren’s life and ministry were often characterized by a desire to protect and heal those most vulnerable. In addition to his pastoring local congregations, Warren also stepped in for families in the community who were not connected with a local church to provide grief support in their times of loss, often contacted by local funeral homes who knew Warren would make himself available to be present and minister to them in their time of greatest need. He also served as a key leader and trainer for Safe Sanctuaries across the Western North Carolina Conference, ensuring that children, adults, and churches were protected from the harms and deep wounds of sexual abuse. Additionally, Warren, along with his wife, Katie, were active leaders in the Mountain Chapter of the Order of St. Luke, an ecumenical ministry of Christian healing. Living out his life deeply rooted in prayer, David along with Katie, were founding members of the Centering Prayer Group at Grace Episcopal Church in Asheville in 2012, and he was a faithful, active member until the time of his death.

A joyful man whose calm, humble presence could fill a room, Warren lived a life of maturing faith, willing to grow and change, learning new things, and trusting God enough to let go and trust God for the next phase of what life could bring. He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Katie S. Warren; his daughter, Jennifer Warren; his granddaughter, McKenna Stewart; his sister, Annie Jane Harris; an aunt, Margaret Dickens; and multiple nieces, nephews, friends, neighbors, and parishioners who deeply miss his loving smile and heart of compassion. Warren is also survived by his beloved Golden Retriever, Emma Rose, who knew a good man when she saw one.

A celebration of life was held for Warren on August 9, 2019, at Asbury Memorial United Methodist Church where hundreds gathered to celebrate and remember the one who had often stood by them when they needed him most.

Louis Herman Woodard

November 13, 1939 – July 1, 2019

Louis Woodard was born in Kinston, Lenoir County, N.C., on November 13, 1939, the third of seven children born to the late Ray Andrew and Effie Alice Burns Woodard. He attended the public schools of Kinston and graduated from Grainger High School. He enrolled at Campbell College (now University) for two years and then went to Wake Forest University, where he was awarded his A.B. degree in 1962. His Master of Divinity degree was earned at the Divinity School of Duke University in 1965. Trinity Theological Seminary conferred upon him the Doctor of Ministry degree in 1982.

His life through high school was lived as a member of the Baptist church and in the eastern part of our state, but he would later move to the west to live out his call to ordained ministry as a Methodist in western North Carolina. While living in Kinston, he became part of a close-knit group of young men who were very active in the life of Queen Street Methodist Church, particularly the Methodist Youth Fellowship. It was through the friendship and church involvement of that group of friends that Louis became a member of Queen Street Church while a student at Wake Forest.

In December 1962, during his first year at Duke, and in recognition of his call to ordained ministry, Louis was licensed to preach in The Methodist Church. At the end of that academic year in 1963, he was admitted on trial to the Western North Carolina Conference and ordained as a deacon. He was admitted to full connection and ordained as an elder in 1967.

In the summer of 1963, while serving a student assignment in Hot Springs, N.C., Louis went on a blind date with Sandra Leigh Jenkins, who was from Hickory, N.C., and Kingsport, Tenn., and who would become the love of his life. The next summer, on August 23, 1964, they were married in Kingsport. Sandra is herself a fine student of the scriptures and Christian literature and became a wonderful complement to Louis' ministry. To them would be born two sons, Christopher Mark and Michael David.

Louis was first appointed as a student at Duke, 1963-65, and then served faithfully and well at: St. Mark's (Marion), 1965-67; Memorial-Sutton Park (Monroe), 1967-69; Shiloh-Wesley Chapel (Statesville), 1969-73; Fair View (Mt. Mourne), 1973-77; Bethel (Midland), 1977-83; Huntersville, 1983-88; Kingswood (Rural Hall), 1988-91; Pineville, 1991-93; Kilgo (Charlotte), 1993-99; and Asbury (Greensboro), 1999-02. He retired in 2002, and he and Sandra moved to Little Switzerland. Louis, however, did not stop serving, and he held further appointments to Newland, 2002-15, and the Michell-Yancey Parish, in and around Bakersville, 2015-18. He and Sandra moved to Bermuda Village, the retirement community at Bermuda Run, in 2018 and were together there until his sudden death on July 1, 2019. Funeral services were conducted at Clemmons United Methodist Church on July 13 by J. Matthew Burton Jr. and Paula B. Northrup, pastors.

Louis Woodard was first and foremost a minister of the Gospel, a persuasive preacher, a loving pastor, a wise counsel. He devoted himself to the study of the Word and the truths of our faith. He always wanted to help people discover the true life that is Christ's gift to all who follow him, and he sought to give them insight about how faith can impact and give meaning to life. He also believed that God's people have a responsibility to keep themselves healthy and fit. Walking vigorously outdoors and on treadmills, lifting weights, watching his diet, staying in shape ... all of this he did, and how ironic it is that his most unexpected death came to him during one of his daily workouts at Bermuda Village.

Louis served local congregations as his first priority, but he also had an abiding interest in how the church is organized and goes about its mission on regional, national, and global levels. He attended several general and jurisdictional conferences of the church at his own expense as a page or usher, and for many years he served as a member of the staff of the annual conference secretary, 25 of those years as associate secretary, with responsibility for managing legislation and editing the daily summaries of conference actions which were distributed to all attendees.

He is survived by Sandra, his wife of 54 years; his older son, Mark, along with his wife, Sharon, and their son, Joshua; his younger son, David, along with his wife, Debbie, and their sons, Gavin, and Owen; and two sisters, Alice English and Linda Wright.

All who knew Louis loved him, and news of his death was a tremendous shock. He was a great friend. Like so many of his colleagues, he was proudly a Duke alumnus and follower of Blue Devil athletics. He was possessed of a wry sense of humor that never failed him. He shared the love of Christ all his life. What a blessing it was to have known and served alongside him!

Jack Brown Yarbrough

Jack Brown Yarbrough was born April 3, 1934, to the late George Washington Yarbrough and Lillie Mae Simpson Yarbrough in Concord, N.C.

Yarbrough began his college studies at Pfeiffer College in 1953, where he displayed a natural affinity for music. While at Pfeiffer, he participated in numerous Christian and musical organizations, and he was named president of The Order of the Sundial during his senior year. Also while at Pfeiffer, he began his ministry, becoming licensed to preach in 1955. He graduated from Pfeiffer in 1958. The same year, he was ordained as a deacon and admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference. In 1963, he received a Master of Divinity degree from Duke University, and he was ordained as an elder and admitted to full connection.

Yarbrough was a full-time pastor for 41 years, serving 13 churches until his retirement in 1999. Appointments included: Badin, 1958-1962; Oak Grove, 1962-1965; Francis Asbury, 1965-1967; Welch Memorial (High Point District), 1967-1970; Northwood (High Point District), 1970-1971; Dobson and Stony Knoll, 1971-1976; Matthews, 1976-1980; Aldersgate (Gastonia District), November 1980-1984; Groce (Asheville District), 1984-1985; Jamestown, 1985-1991; Sharon (Charlotte District), 1991-1995; and First Lenoir, 1995-1999.

Yarbrough had a diverse ministry, including four years of service in crisis intervention while serving in High Point. His volunteer work was furthered as a pastoral counselor for five years at Hope Valley in Dobson, where he was recognized for his devotion and compassion to suffering alcoholics. While at Dobson, he also served as instructor for religious studies and comparative religion at Surry Community College. His leadership in the many churches he served included nine major building programs, which included sanctuaries, family life centers, education buildings, and parsonages.

Throughout his ministry, Yarbrough recognized humanity's search for meaning in life through faith. In his own life, he believed that reason and faith were compatible disciplines. He considered it a moral duty to continue asking hard questions about both. Among his favorite quotes had been of Elie Weisel: "I must continue, for if not, despair will not be the question, but the answer. And despair is never the answer."

After his retirement in 1999, he was invited to join the staff of Centenary United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem as associate minister of older adults and pastoral care. He had considered it among the most meaningful appointments of his service to The United Methodist Church. There, he pastored 11 more years, until health issues necessitated his permanent retirement in 2010. At that time, he was honored with the title, associate minister emeritus, at Centenary.

In 2009, Yarbrough suffered a series of strokes, which would commence his journey into the sunset of his life. He transitioned from this life to eternal glory in Winston-Salem on December 24, 2019, at Forsyth Medical Center, after 10 years of declining health. Among his last spoken words had been: "The Church is for our salvation." By his side had been his devoted wife of 61 years, Sylvia Ann Rogers Yarbrough, whom he married on September 7, 1958. Also surviving are his two sons, Jack Anthony Yarbrough and wife Rachel, and Christopher Todd Yarbrough and wife Teresa; and three grandchildren, Ryan, Rebecca, and Jeremy.

A memorial service was held at Centenary UMC on Sunday, December 29, 2019, officiated by the Rev. R. Craig Ford and the Rev. Dr. P. Glenn Kinken III. A private inurnment at the Centenary UMC columbarium preceded the service.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Huntersville, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the "Conference" - a not-for-profit entity), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2019, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary, as of December 31, 2019 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

Nature of organization

The Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary (the Conference) is a not-for-profit organization representing approximately 1,100 member churches and is comprised of eight districts. The Conference provides various services for its member churches including administration of health benefits and retirement plans available to member clergy and Conference lay employees and collection of funds for remittance to various regional, national and global benevolences.

A portion of the funds collected from its member churches is remitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church, which provides funds to national and global benevolences. The amounts remitted have been included in the consolidated statements of activities as general church expenses.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Principles of consolidation

The Conference's consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Inc., Western North Carolina Conference, The United Methodist Church (Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits), as the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits' Board of Directors is appointed by the Conference. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The consolidated financial statements of the Conference also include the funds of the Charlotte Area Episcopal Office.

Accrual basis

The consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

Basis of presentation

Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - are those currently available for use in the day-to-day operations of the Conference and those resources invested in property and equipment. Designated net assets represent amounts designated by the Board of Directors for purposes other than operations.

Notes to Financial Statements

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – these amounts consist of both temporarily and permanently restricted net assets. Temporarily restricted net assets are subject to donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by passage of time or can be fulfilled and removed by actions of the Conference pursuant to these stipulations. When donor restrictions expire, that is, when the assets are spent for the stipulated purpose or the restricted time passes, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restriction. Permanently restricted net assets are subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Conference. They consist of contributions whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by the Conference’s actions. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the use of all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes in accordance with the Conference’s spending rule.

Revenue and support

The principal source of revenue and support is apportionments received from the local churches. Apportionments are the approved levels of allocated support from the local churches. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year. Although the church discipline requires local churches to satisfy their apportionment allocation as their first benevolent response, local churches do not have any financial commitment for the underpayment of their apportionments.

Insurance premiums

The Conference administers a self-funded insurance program under which health benefits are provided for clergy and select lay employees of the Conference. Insurance premiums and related expenses are recorded in the period to which the premium and claim relate.

Contributions

Contributions are recognized as restricted support if they are pledged or received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donation. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in their same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. Conditional promises are not included as support until such time as conditions are substantially met.

Grants

Grant awards are evaluated by management and determined to be either unconditional contributions or exchange transactions. If considered to be a contribution, revenue from grants is recorded upon notification of the award. If considered to be an exchange transaction, revenue from grants is recorded as expenditures are made under the terms of the respective grant agreement.

New accounting pronouncement

The Conference expects to adopt the requirements of the Financial Accounting Standards Board’s Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers” (ASU 2014-09), in 2020. The core principle of this standard is that an entity recognizes revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Organization does not expect the implementation of this standard to have a material impact on its financial statements.

Cash

At various times throughout the year, cash balances in financial institutions exceed the amounts which are federally insured. At December 31, 2019, the balance of uninsured cash was $7,984,709. The Conference periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes that the risk of any loss is minimal.

Assets held for others

The Conference is due apportionments and holds funds in various operating accounts related to payments to be made on behalf of other affiliated related ministries. These funds are directed by the third parties and are not available for the Conference operations.

Accounts receivable

As a significant dollar amount of church member apportionments are received close to year end, member churches are provided a cut-off date subsequent to year end in order for churches to fulfill their annual apportionments. Thus, accounts receivable is recorded based on the actual amount of apportionments received by the cut-off date. As such, no allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary.

Notes receivable

The Conference has notes receivable outstanding relating to the sale of land and other funds loaned to member churches. The Conference believes the amounts to be fully collectable and does not believe an allowance for doubtful accounts is necessary. Of the amount receivable as of December 31, 2019, $15,280 is due within one year and the remaining $395,854 is due through 2036. Interest of 2% to 6.4% annually is paid on the long-term balance. Interest income was approximately $22,000 for the year ended December 31, 2019, and is recorded within investment income on the consolidated statement of activities.

Investments

Purchased investments are initially recorded at cost. Investments received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. The Conference's investments are assets invested by the United Methodist Foundation of Western North Carolina, Inc. (the Foundation) and Wespath, the investment agency of the Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, under investment agreements wherein the investments are either directly invested or pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. The Conference's pooled investments are valued at fair value based upon the net asset value (NAV) of each fund as provided by the Foundation and Wespath. The Conference's direct investments, which consist primarily of cash and money market funds, are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Board-designated investments

The Conference has designated certain investments to function as endowments to fund the Conference's pension and postretirement health benefits.

Property and equipment

Building, improvements and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Building, improvements and equipment received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of donation. Minor renewals and replacements are expensed when incurred. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated economic lives of the respective assets held, which are assumed to be 10-40 years for buildings and improvements and 3-10 years for furniture and equipment.

Agency liabilities

The Conference is an agent for various affiliates and constituents. Amounts received and not yet expended on behalf of beneficiaries have been reported as a liability for amounts held for others.

Accrued health benefits:

The Conference records a liability for their healthcare claims incurred but not reported, which is estimated using the actual claims expense and the expected lag in days the claims are outstanding.

Operating and nonoperating activities

The consolidated statements of activities report the change in net assets from operating and nonoperating activities. Operating revenues consist of substantially all of the activity of the Conference except for certain items specifically considered to be of a nonoperating nature. Nonoperating activities include contributions restricted for capital expenditures and permanently restricted endowment contributions, net gain (loss) on investments, postretirement changes other than net periodic postretirement health benefit costs and significant items of an unusual or nonrecurring nature.

Allocation of functional expenses

The Conference's activities are focused in two functional areas. Program services represent the primary focus of the Conference's activities. Supporting services are general and administrative activities. No significant resources are expended for fundraising. Personnel expenses, benefits and payroll taxes, and depreciation are allocated based on management's estimate of time spent. Contracted services, supplies and insurance are allocated based on an analysis of the purpose of the underlying expenditure.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Income taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state statutes, and accordingly, no income taxes have been provided for the Conference in the accompanying financial statements. Management of the Conference does not believe the financial statements include any uncertain tax positions.

NOTE 3 – INVESTMENTS

The Conference has an agreement with the Foundation, in which the Foundation acts as agent and investment manager of the Conference's investments. These investments are either directly invested or pooled by the Foundation into larger investment funds. The Foundation adheres to the Statement of Investment Guidelines adopted by the General Council Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church.

The Conference also maintains investments with Wespath, which are invested by Wespath in pooled investment funds. Wespath investments are comprised of approved investment instruments in accordance with the funds' objectives.

The Conference's investments at December 31, 2019, are as follows:

Assets invested by the Foundation:
Direct investments	$ 2,076,362
Pooled investments	84,524,171
Total Foundation	86,600,533
Assets invested by Wespath
Pooled investments	398,861
TOTAL INVESTMENTS	$ 86,999,394

The Conference's investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

Total investment return is comprised of the following for the years ended December 31, 2019:

Investment income, net of investment fees	$ 2,111,274
Net gain on investments	11,773,012
TOTAL INVESTMENT INCOME	$ 13,884,286

NOTE 4 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value measurements apply to all financial assets and liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. GAAP establishes a framework for measuring the fair value of assets and liabilities and requires fair value measurements be classified and disclosed in one of three categories. Level 1 assets are those financial instruments with unadjusted, quoted prices listed on active market exchanges. Level 2 assets are those financial instruments which are valued using pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date. The Conference's Level 2 assets were valued based on the interest rates utilized for loans made by the Foundation under the Clergy Loan program. Level 3 assets are those financial instruments that are not actively traded on a market exchange and require using significant unobservable inputs in determining fair value. The Conference had no Level 3 assets.

The Conference has segregated its financial instruments into the most appropriate level within the fair value hierarchy at December 31, 2019, as follows:

Direct investments:

Cash and money market funds – Level 1	$ 7,610,974
Clergy Debt program – Level 2	2,076,362
Investments measured at net asset value not subject to classification	77,312,058
TOTAL INVESTMENTS	$ 86,999,394

NOTE 5 – NET ASSET VALUE (NAV)

The Conference's assets measured at NAV are held with the Foundation and Wespath under investment agreements wherein the investments are pooled into larger investment funds of the Foundation and Wespath. None of the funds had any unfunded commitments or redemption restrictions and may be redeemed daily with no advance notice.

Commingled pool of assets:

Assets invested by the Foundation:

Balance fund (a)	$ 15,068,293
Conservative fund (b)	3,811,434
Diversified fund (c)	57,163,812

- (a) Seeks to provide investment income while growing principal over the long-term by investing in a balance portfolio of both stocks and bonds.
- (b) Seeks to preserve both invested principal and earned interest while minimizing the risk of loss of principal.
- (c) Seeks to attain current income and capital appreciation by investing in a broad mix of different types of investments with a long-term horizon. Investors should be willing to experience some fluctuations in the value of the fund, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.
- (d) Seeks to provide an investment alternative for those who are seeking the security of a fixed-type vehicle at competitive rates. The offering is made to individuals serving the United Methodist Church and church institutions that reside in North Carolina or South Carolina to finance Methodist institutions for building programs and other capital investments.
- (e) Seeks to attain long-term capital appreciation from a broadly diversified portfolio that includes both domestic and foreign common stocks. It is designed for investors who seek long-term investment growth through exposures to the broad domestic stock market as well as regulated foreign stock exchanges and who are willing to accept the risk of possible wide fluctuations in the unit price of the fund.
- (f) Seeks to maximize current income consistent with preservation of capital. This type of fund usually ranks low on the risk-return spectrum and is designed for low risk-tolerant institutional investors who are reluctant to risk the loss of any capital contributions or accumulated interest.
- (g) Seeks long-term investment growth and income from exposure to a broadly diversified portfolio. Balanced funds generally rank moderate to high on the risk return spectrum. The fund is designed for investors with a relatively long-term horizon who are willing to experience some fluctuations in the value of the fund, though not as much as from holding a fund comprised exclusively of common stocks.

NOTE 7 – RETIREMENT PLANS

Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (MRPF):

The Conference participates in the MRPF, which is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. The fund covers service prior to 1982 for substantially all clergy and lay pastors. For service subsequent to 1981, clergy members of the Conference are eligible to participate in the multi-employer retirement plan offered by the United Methodist Church as described below.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits acts as trustee responsible for deposits with Wespath. All assets of the plan are available to pay all benefits of the plan, regardless of the conference from which the contributions came or under which benefits were accrued. However, each conference controls certain benefit provisions of the plan and may choose to fund this plan using different funding methodologies. In the past, the Conference has chosen to fund the plan using the full actuarial allocation and is overfunded. Therefore, no contributions were made to this plan in 2019 and 2018, and the Conference's excess funding in this plan has been used to fund the benefits for the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) shown below. An actuarial report is available from Wespath that shows the funding requirements and funded status of all the conferences for the MRPF.

Because employers that contribute to multi-employer plans are responsible only to make the contributions called for and they do not have a directly identified or separate interest in investment gains or losses or administrative costs, nor do the employers have a directly identified or separate obligation for benefit payments, separate assets and liabilities for their portion of the plan are not recognized and the contributions are recognized as expense in the period in which they are paid.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP):

U.S. bishops, Conference members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the MPP. The MPP is a multi-employer defined contribution plan which required the Conference to contribute 12% of each participant's compensation, subject to a limit on total compensation. This plan was frozen effective December 31, 2006; however, the Conference is required to make payments to the plan as needed. In 2010, the Conference established an investment account to fund the required payments to the MPP. As of December 31, 2019, the investment account has a balance of $5,869,223. Payment to the MPP was not required during 2019, although future payments toward the plan are possible. This plan was replaced by the CRSP described below.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

In addition to the MRPF described above, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the CPP. The CPP is a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespath. There were no contributions made for the plan year ended December 31, 2019.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP):

Effective January 1, 2006, the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund and the Personal Investment Plan were merged to form the UMPIP. Conference clergy members, lay employees and local church personnel are eligible to participate in this multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath, which currently allows an employer contribution of up to 12%. The Conference contributes 9% of all eligible lay participants' compensation and 3% of clergy participants' plan compensation. Total contributions to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2019 was $343,715.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

Effective January 1, 2007, the Conference established the CRSP, which is a multi-employer defined benefit plan and a multi-employer defined contribution plan administered by Wespath. Clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment to a conference, church, charge, district or conference-controlled entity or unit are eligible to participate. Effective January 1, 2014, clergy members and local pastors serving less than half-time are no longer eligible to participate, but will receive benefits accrued through December 31, 2013.

For the defined benefit plan, the contribution is based on a formula using the denominational average compensation and the year of credited service beginning January 1, 2007. For the defined contribution plan, contributions are 2% of each eligible participant's compensation, with an additional match of up to 1% based on each participant's personal contributions.

Total contributions to the CRSP for the year ended December 31, 2019, were as follows:

Defined contribution plan, funded from the Conference	$	1,413,439
Defined benefit plan, funded from the Conference		5,451,857
TOTAL	$	6,865,296

The Conference expects the annual contributions for all of the plans above to be approximately $8,000,000 a year. The total costs for the above benefit plans are generally billed to the churches of the Conference; however, any shortfalls are obligations of the Conference.

NOTE 8 – POSTRETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN

The Conference sponsors a multi-employer defined benefit postretirement health care plan for ministerial employees of its member churches and employees of the Conference. The plan is contributory, whereby the retiree contributions can be adjusted for increases in the cost of health care, and unfunded.

The actuarial loss in 2019 is due primarily to demographic and claims experience during 2019 along with per-capita cost updates to reflect the actual historical experience. The discount rate has been updated from 4.25% to 3.50%, and the mortality table has been updated to the MP-2014, modified with MP-2018, projected generationally.

The following benefit payments, which reflect expected future service, are expected to be paid by the Conference in future years:

Years ended December 31:
2020	$ 235,303
2021	216,241
2022	197,463
2023	182,057
2024	167,627
2025-2028	791,155
TOTAL	$ 1,789,846

The accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation was computed using an assumed discount rate of 3.50% for 2019. The actuarial assumptions relating to health care trend rates are evaluated for participants over 65 years of age and under 65 years of age separately. The under 65 health care trend rate was assumed to be 9.50% for 2019 and is assumed to decline by .50% until reaching 5% in 2028, and remaining level thereafter. The over 65 health care trend rate was assumed to be 5% for 2019 and is assumed to remain level going forward.

Assumed health care rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the plan. A 1% change in assumed health care cost trend rates would have the following effect:

	1% Decrease	1% Increase
Effect on total service and interest cost components	$ (196,916)	$ 287,033
Effect on the accumulated postretirement health benefit obligation	(2,384,839)	3,233,952

As of December 31, 2019, the Conference has approximately $9,226,000, designated by the Board to be used for payment of future net periodic postretirement health benefit costs. Any changes in the plan or revisions to assumptions that affect the amounts of expected future benefits may have a significant effect on the amount of the reported obligation and future annual expense.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary

The Conference recognizes support under split-interest agreements when the agreements become irrevocable or when the assets are distributed to the Conference for charitable causes, whichever occurs first. The assets held in trust are recorded at their estimated fair value when received, with the obligation to the donor or their beneficiary recorded at the estimated fair value of the future annuities payable. The fair value of the estimated future payments is calculated using applicable distribution rates, a discount rate adjusted to reflect the lower market risk of obligations that are largely limited to segregated trust assets, and applicable mortality tables. The amount of the contribution is the difference between these amounts and is classified as either temporarily or permanently restricted support. Adjustments to the liability to reflect amortization of the discount, remeasurement of the fair value of the obligation, and changes in actuarial assumptions, as well as the close-out of the liability upon the death of the donor (or beneficiary), are recognized as changes in the value of split-interest agreements in either the temporarily or permanently restricted net asset class. The fair value of the obligations as of December 31, 2019 was calculated using a discount rate of 2.51%.

Net assets without donor restrictions include amounts that have been designated by the Board of Trustees, Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church for specific purposes and other amounts that are unavailable for operational use by the Conference. As of December 31, 2019, the Board of Trustees, Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church have designated $50,621,273 as board designated endowment funds.

NOTE 10 – ENDOWMENT

The Conference's endowment consists of seven individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Conference to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of relevant law

The Conference has interpreted the North Carolina enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (NC UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the corpus of the original gift. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulations are added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standards of prudence prescribed by NC UPMIFA. In accordance with NC UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
2. The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements

---

3. General economic conditions.
4. The possible effects of inflation and deflation.
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
6. Other resources of the Conference.
7. The investment policies of the Conference.

Endowment net composition by type of fund as of December 31, 2019 is as follows:

Board-designated	$ 50,621,273
Donor-restricted	836,768
TOTAL	$ 51,458,041

Return objectives and risk parameters

The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Conference must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Conference, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is identified to produce results that exceed the price yield results of the S&P 500 index while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The Conference expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 5% annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Spending policy and how the investment objectives relate to spending policy

The Conference has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 4% of its endowment fund's average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through the calendar year end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the Conference considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the Conference expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average of 1% annually. This is consistent with the Conference's objectives to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specific term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

Strategies employed for achieving objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference targets long-term return objectives with prudent risk constraints.

NOTE 11 – LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Conference leases equipment and office space under noncancelable operating leases, which expire through November 2022. Minimum annual rentals range from approximately $900 to $55,000. Total rent expense was $59,017 for the year ended December 31, 2019. Future minimum rental commitments for all noncancelable leases at December 31, 2019, are as follow:

Years ending December 31:
2020	$	113,897
2021		113,897
2022		90,293
2023		1,116
TOTAL	$	319,203

NOTE 12 – ABANDONED OR DISCONTINUED PROPERTY

When a member church is abandoned or discontinued, the deed is transferred from the church's Board of Trustees to the Conference's Board of Trustees. The properties are recorded by the Conference at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value. As there is generally no carrying value and the fair market value of the properties is not easily estimated when abandoned, the properties are recorded by the Conference at no value. When sold, the Conference will normally utilize 75% of the net proceeds for church vitality and utilize the remaining amount for church vitality in the applicable district in the area where the church was sold.

NOTE 13 – UNCONSOLIDATED CONSTITUENT MINISTRY

GAAP requires the Conference to consolidate entities in which it has control and an economic interest, when that control is evidenced through majority ownership or voting interests. Because the Conference has an economic interest in and control of a constituent through means other than majority ownership or voting interests, consolidation is permitted, but not required. Therefore, the Conference has elected not to consolidate the constituent as described below.

The non-consolidated constituent is the Foundation, a not-for-profit organization providing various investment management services for its clients, which consist of the Conference and United Methodist churches, institutions and agencies in Western North Carolina. The primary purpose of the Foundation is to act as an agent to provide professional investment management services to its clients. According to the statement of relationship between the Conference and the Foundation, the organizations have similar purposes and interests but are separate, self-governing associations.

The Foundation has assets of approximately $240,492,145 as of December 31, 2019. Of those assets, approximately $213,131,736 are investments. See Note 2 for the Conference's portions of those investments.

Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and Subsidiary
Notes to Financial Statements

The summary financial information does not eliminate the transactions between the Conference and the constituent, such as investment activity with the Foundation and contributions from the Conference to the Foundation, if any.

The Conference is also affiliated with a significant number of related ministries through its connection with the United Methodist Church. The Conference has signed a statement of relationship with other entities that defines this connectional relationship and states that neither entity may require the other entity to assume any contractual, financial or other obligation. The Conference does not have control or a financial interest in these affiliated entities. Grants and operating support provided to these entities totaled approximately $635,000 for the year ended December 31, 2019. These entities provided contributions to the Conference totaling approximately $186,000 for the year ended December 31, 2019.

NOTE 14 – LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

The Conference has $96,064,418 of financial assets available within one year of the balance sheet date to meet cash needs for general expenditure consisting of cash of $5,632,914, investments of $86,999,394, receivables of $3,416,830 and the current portion of notes receivable of $15,280. Of that amount, $1,694,049 of the financial assets are subject to donor or other contractual restrictions that make them unavailable for general expenditure within one year of the balance sheet date and $69,183,342 are board-designated for specific purposes. The receivables and the current portion of the notes receivable are expected to be collected in the following year. The Conference has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. In addition, as part of its liquidity management the Conference invests cash in excess of daily requirements in money market funds.

NOTE 15 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Conference has evaluated subsequent events from the date of the statement of financial position through the date of the audit report, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued. During this period, no material recognizable subsequent events were identified, except for the COVID-19 pandemic. At this point, the full impact of this pandemic on the Conference is unknown, but management believes that it will negatively impact its support and revenue in 2020, as well as investment values. The Conference obtained a forgivable loan of $1,025,800 to mitigate the effects of this impact.

B. 2021 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN SUMMARY

INTRODUCTION

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt, and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from Wespath. This document is only a summary of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan and does not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the conference's benefit obligations. You may request the full contents of the 2021 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

Program overview:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre 82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982.

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

Current funding plan information:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2019, is $1,913,258,514, while total plan assets are $2,049,273,913, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 107%. The Western North Carolina Conference portion of the liability is 4.0076% and the 2021 contribution is $3,958,245. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by CRSP DB Fund. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three quarter and/or half time clergy. The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2021.

Effective January 1, 2014, the CRSP DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non matching contribution. Clergy can earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3% to CRSP DC. The 2021 CRSP DC contribution is anticipated to be $1,532,400 and will be funded by Direct Billing.

Plan overview:

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or it may be paid in a lump sum.

Current funding plan information:

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2019 is $3,718,398,163, while total plan assets are $3,997,635,453, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 108%. The required contribution for 2021 is zero dollars. The Western North Carolina Conference's percentage of the total liability is 3.0608%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $3,231,280,101 and the Western North Carolina Conference's portion of that balance is $125,949,204 or 3.90% of the total.

PRE 82 PLAN

Plan overview:

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergyperson retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

- 1) Years of service with pension credit approved by each conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline.
- 2) The conference pension rate (past service rate) the dollar amount chosen by the conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit (may change from year to year).

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-82 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life-based benefit and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; but the DBSM-based benefit does not change.

Current funding plan information:

The 2021 PSR recommended to the Western North Carolina Conference will be $823, representing a 2% increase from the 2020 rate. The conference expects future annual increases to be approximately 2.00%.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 70% level.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Program Overview

The Western North Carolina Conference offers the following active health benefit to its active eligible participants: Self-Funded - Non-HealthFlex.

Current funding plan information:

The total cost of the program for 2021 is anticipated to be $15,906,930 and will be funded by Direct Billing. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 5.00%.

The rationale for these changes is rising health care costs and health status of clergy.

Claims Incurred But Not Reported (if applicable)

The Western North Carolina Conference provides the following health plan to its eligible participants: Self Funded - Non-HealthFlex. As of 12/31/2021, the estimated IBNR claims total is $1,113,485. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 5.00%. It is anticipated that the IBNR claims, if applicable, will be funded by billed premiums and premium reserves, if applicable.

Additional Conference-Sponsored Coverage (if applicable)

The Western North Carolina Conference has elected to provide health benefits coverage to the following groups during periods where—without plan sponsor-funded premiums—the participants would not be provided coverage or benefits (all figures as of 12/31/2019):

1. Clergy or lay on disability (including pending disability): 19 participants at an estimated cost of $262,200.

POST RETIREMENT MEDICAL (PRM)

The Western North Carolina Conference currently offers Self-Funded for Post-Retirement Medical coverage.

Current funding plan information:

The plan sponsor's intention for 2021 is to Retain current plan benefit. PRM benefits provided are as follows: The PRM for WNCC is a Medicare Supplemental plan that is self-funded with premiums charged to retired clergy and spouses based on a range of years of service. (After the CBFP was submitted to Wespath, the CBOPHB voted to change the retiree health plan to a fully insured Medicare Advantage Plan effective January 1, 2021.)

Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated 01/01/2018, the following is the funded position of the PRM benefits:

1. Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) net plan sponsor cost.....	$ 11,475,222
2. Accumulated Post Retirement Obligation (APBO) net plan sponsor cost .....	$ 11,475,222
3. Net PRM Assets .....	$ 9,009,750
4. Funding plan service cost ($0 if Net PRM Assets ≥ EPBO).....	$ 284,700
5. Funded status, [3. - 2.] .....	$ (2,465,472)
6. Number of annual payments .....	20
7. Portion of funded status payable, [5. / 6.].....	$ 123,274
8. Ongoing funding contribution, [4. + 7.].....	$ 407,974

Future increases/decreases to the assets or APBO will be funded over the duration of the program as calculated in the PRM valuation report, or five years if not available.

These values are based on a 3.50% long term discount rate, a 1.50% long term expected rate of return on assets, and a valuation year medical trend (inflation rate) of 9.00% with an ultimate medical trend (inflation rate) of 5.00%, beginning in 2028.

In addition to the PRM funding contribution listed above, the projected annual plan benefit cost for 2021 (subsidies, HRAs, claims or premiums) is $216,432.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)*Plan Overview:

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if they satisfy the eligibility requirements, including full-time appointment with plan compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan sponsors may elect to cover participants with three-quarter time appointments and/or to continue to cover clergy who, due to certain leaves or appointments, are not otherwise eligible to continue coverage.

The CPP adoption agreement executed by the Western North Carolina Conference contains its elections to cover or not to cover categories mentioned above.

Current funding plan information:

For 2021, the Western North Carolina Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $1,503,200, which is anticipated to be funded by Direct Billing. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 1.00% per year based on current invoicing and 1% growth.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY*Plan Overview:

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax, Roth and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Current funding plan information:

Conference office lay employees working an average of 20 hours per week or more are eligible after 12 months for a plan sponsor-funded pension contribution of 9% of salary. Lay employees are encouraged to make contributions toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The conference's estimated contribution for 2021 is $215,164 and will be funded via conference apportionments.

OTHER DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) OBLIGATIONS*Plan Overview:

The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Supplemental Life Insurance for Clergy and Conference. The estimated contribution for 2021 is $45,800 with the funding sources to be direct billing. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to the number of active clergy is declining.

Plan Overview:

The Western North Carolina currently offers the following DC benefit(s): Ministers Moving Allowance (provides moving expense). The estimated contribution for 2021 is $120,000 with the funding sources to be conference apportionments. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 0.00% per year due to Less Clergy anticipate moving and historical actual costs indicate lowering.

CONCLUSION

The 2021 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and this summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Western North Carolina's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Western North Carolina Conference.

2016-2020 Quadrennium: Four Focus Areas The United Methodist Church

The church is called to be a Christ-centered, disciple-making, transformational community

Vital Congregations

Creating and Sustaining New Places for New People

- One million new disciples who profess their faith through new and renewed communities around the world
- Double the number of highly vital congregations excelling in the five markers of vitality: disciples in worship, new disciples (professions of faith), disciples in small groups, disciples in mission, and giving to mission.

Calling and Shaping Principled Christian Leaders

Equipping 3 million people across the connection to be “difference makers,” called out to serve as principled Christian leaders in our world today.

Ministry with the Poor

Build 400 vibrant, flourishing, and transforming communities addressing issues of poverty and ministry with the poor, particularly with children.

Abundant Health for All

Reach 1 million children with life-saving interventions.

Listen to more stories of United Methodists from our own conference who
